THE ATHEY FAMILY

The family name has been spelled in various ways, A-t-h-y, A-t-t-e-e, A-t-h-e-y, A-t-h-a, and A-t-h-i-e. The "A-t-h-e-y" is the usual way in which the American branch of the family have spelled the family name. The family or more properly the Sept had its origin in Ireland. Irish history shows that in the early days the name was spelled "D-a-i-t-h-i." The first mention of the name as spelled now, by the Irish branch of the family, was in the reign of Edward II, 1313. It is recorded that John de Athy was sheriff of County Kerry; was appointed Marshall of Ireland in 1326; and was appointed sheriff of Antrim and Carrickfergus.

In 1388, in the reign of Richard II, William de Athy was appointed Treasurer of Connaught with the yearly fee of ten pounds.

In 1505, reign of Henry VII, Edmund Athy was bailiff of Galway.

In 1512, reign of Henry VIII, William Athy was bailiff of Galway.

In 1508, Margaret Athy who became the wife of Stephen Lynch Fitz Dominic Duffe, founded the Augustinian Friary in Galway.

A. S. Green in his history, "The Making of Ireland," at page 188, under date of 1561 speaks thus: "The family of Athy, officials of the town (Galway) from father to son, were doubtless Irishmen who, in obedience to the statute about taking English names, had taken the name of a town."

James Hardiman in his history of the Town of Galway, published at Dublin, Ireland, in 1820, has this to say: "Of the inhabitants of Galway, previously to the invasion of Henry II, there are no accounts remaining, except by tradition, but some time after that event took place the town appears to have been inhabited by a number of families, who were principally occupied in the fishings of the lake and bay, and in making short voyages along the coast. Their names are as follows: Athy, Branegan, Blundell, Brunt, Burden, Cale, Calf, Coppinger, Develin, Ffarty, Ffrahin, Le Fickle, Kellerie, Kerwick, Lang, Lawless, Moylin, Munnegan, Penrise, Sage, Kancaorach, Valley or Wallin, Verdon, Weider and White. Several of these names are still to be found here, viz: Athy, Ffarty, Ffrahin, Killery, Kerwick, if, as supposed, it be the same as Kirwin or Kirwan, but the remainder are long since lost in oblivion." Then he speaks of new colonies coming into the town of Galway then continues: "The new colonies here alluded to, consisted of several families, whose descendants are known to this under the general appellation of 'The Tribes of Galway,' an expression first invented by Cromwell's forces, as a term of reproach against the natives of the town, for their singular friendship and attachment to each other during the time of their unparalleled trouble and persecutions, but which, the latter afterwards adopted, as an honorable mark of distinction between themselves and those cruel oppressors. These families were thirteen in number, viz: Athy, Blake, Bodkin, Browne, D'Arcy, Ffont, Ffrench, Joyce, Kirwan, Lynch, Martin, Morris and Skerrett. They did not settle in the town at one time, or on the same occasion, as is generally supposed, but came hither, at different times, and under various circumstances, as may appear from the following concise account of each of the families, composing this peculiar community which has been compiled from the most authentic documents.

"This family is of great antiquity in Galway; tradition relates that one of the name erected the first stone house or castle within the town. They were from the earliest times highly respectable. William de Athy was appointed treasurer of Connaught, 8th December 1388, with the fee of ten pounds yearly (Rot. Pat. Canc.) The name was also of consequence in other parts of Ireland. John de Athy was sheriff of Kerry, 7th Edw. II. (Rot. Mem. Scac.) On March 3d, 17th of the same king, he was appointed Marshall of Ireland. (Eod. de an. 18.) The 20th year he was sheriff of the counties of Antrim and Carrickfergus. (Rot. Pat.) Phillip Lynch Athy, of Renville (County Galway) is the present head of this family."

Martin J. Blake, Barrister, 13 Old Square, Lincoln's Inn, London, W. C., and himself a descendant of the Blake family of Galway says in his book the "Blake Family Records," relative to the Athy family: "This family was among the very first Anglo-Norman followers of Richard de Burgh which settled at Galway when that nobleman first founded the town of Galway about 1232, A. D. As its name denotes this family was previously resident at Athy a town in Kildare situate at a ford on the River Barrow. The word 'Athy,' (sometimes written 'ATHEA') means in the Irish language the 'Ford of Aedh,' ('Ath-Aedth') and was so called because a Munster chieftain named Aedh was slain in a battle at that 'Ford' in the second century. In early records the surname of this family is written 'de Athy.'"

A. O. H. Prof. M. G. Rohan, National Chairman, Irish History Com. Marquette Univ.—"O'Hart, our best authority, states that the Irish name, Athy, is from the Birminghams of Warwickshire, one of whom came over with Strongbow in 1170. A descendant of his was Richard of the Battles, and a descendant of his was Thomas, who commanded and won the battle of 'Atheney' and was thereon created 'Baron Atheney,' from which presumably the name 'Athy.'"

"The word however is purely Irish from the name of the battle-field, 'Atha-na-riogh,' or the Ford of the Kings, three kings having been slain at the Battle. There was an Athy, an Irish Borough, in the time of the Union."

Athay, Athey: 1. Local. 2. Dweller at the sea. 3. English. (See E. 408.)

Burke's Landed Gentry, 1904, gives the genealogy of the present Irish family as follows: Tempore Carolus I et II.

Edmund Athy, of Galway, born 1625 died 1685, married Margaret, daughter Stephen Lynch, of Galway; Issue: Oliver Athy and Andrew Athy. Oliver Athy married Anastasia Joyce daughter of Dominic Joyce, of Galway, Andrew Athy married Mary, daughter of Patrick Kirnan, was a Captain in the Irish Army of King James II. Their son Edmund Athy married Margaret Lynch, heiress, and had issue, Phillip Lynch Athy, John, Oliver, Christopher, Edmond, Sarah and Jane who married in 1723 John Moore, Alicante, Spain, afterwards of Moorehall County, Mayo, Ireland. Phillip Lynch Athy married Eleanor Ffrench. He died 1774. Issue Edmund Lynch Athy, Andrew, Katherine. Edmund Lynch Athy married in 1774 Honoria Notingham, daughter of Peter Notingham, of County Galway. Issue: Phillip Lynch Athy, Eleanor who married E. Taaffe.

Phillip Lynch Athy born 1779, married 1807, Bridget MacDonald, daughter of Randel MacDonnell, Fairfield House, Dublin, he died 1840. Issue: Anna Mary, born 1810; Edmund born 1812; Randel Edmund born 1814, Honoria born 1815; Elizabeth Mary, born 1817 died 1863; Miles Edmund, born 1819, became a Benedictine Monk and died at Sidney, Australia, 1891; Mary, born 1821; Eveline Mary, born 1824 died 1841; Catherine Mary, born 1827, became a Franciscan Nun and is now at Tours, France, Franciscan Convent.

Randall Edmund Athy, born 1814, married daughter of Wm. Buchle named Margaret. He died in 1875. Issue: Edmund Lynch Athy and Mary who married F. Hounsell. Edmund Lynch Athy (present head of Irish family of Athy) born 1859, married 1881 Annett Gradwell, daughter of Richard Gradwell of Drogheda. Issue Harriett Pauline born 1883.

The above information as to the pedigree of the present Irish family furnished by Edmund Lynch Athy, present head of Irish house.

Wills proved in Dublin, Ireland, three of Athy to 1808. Two from Renville, viz: Phillip Lynch Athy, 1774. Edward Lynch Athy, 1808. Also Oliver Athy of Dublin, 1773.

GEORGE ATHEY

The first of the family to come to America, so far as research discloses, was George Athey (as the name in America is spelled) who was born in Galway, County Galway, Ireland, 1642. (The date of birth is fixed by reason of a deposition George Athey gave in St. Marys County, Maryland, in 1702 where he swore that he was then sixty years of age.)

George Athey came to Maryland in 1668. In 1675 he obtained the following patents to lands in Maryland from Lord Baltimore:

Patent to George Athey, of Charles County, for land called "Wakefield," Sept. 23d, 1675; Patent to George Athey for land called "Athey's Hopewell," Charles County, June 21st, 1675; Patent to George Athey for lands in Charles County called "Hutton Lockvice," June 19th, 1675; Patent to George Athey for lands in Charles County, called "Hopewell," Sept. 27th, 1680; Patent to George Athey for lands in Charles County, called "Stoney Hill," June 12th, 1688. All of the above are from the records of the Land Office of Maryland at Annapolis, Md.

George Athey was in 1682 assessed sixty pounds of tobacco as his annual tax, which he paid, Maryland Archives. The same authority stated that George Athey was returned a Captain of the Company of "Foot Militia" for Prince Georges County, 1694-96 and that he served as such captain.

The records of Prince Georges County, Maryland, show that Sept. 15th, 1707, Elizabeth Marsh gave to her nephew a deed of gift (C. 192, P. G. Co. Records) "to George Athey, Junr., ye soun of George Athey, Senior."

March 7, 1709/10 Luke Gardner qualified as administrator of the estate of Captain George Athey, late of Prince Georges County, Md., (Administrators Bonds, I, 47) and in December 21, 1709/10

Sarah Athey, wife, and John Athey, son, attested the correctness of the inventory. (B. B. I. 154.)

On February 17, 1723/24 George Athey made a deposition in Prince George County, Md., wherein he swore that he was the son of Captain George Athey; that he was then twenty-three years of age; his mother, Sarah Athey, also swore that she was then (1723/24) fifty-seven years of age. (That shows she was born 1666.) So we have George Athey born in Galway, Ireland, 1642, emigrated to America in 1664, married Sarah Marsh, daughter of Thomas and Jane Clements Marsh; issue (1) Mary, died Middlesex County, Va., Feb. 23, 1687, unmarried; (2) Edward, of James City County, Va., transferred land in York County, Va., in 1713; (3) John Athey and (4) George Athey, born in 1700. George was only nine years of age at the time of his father's death so he was not required to attest the correctness of the inventory while his brother John did attest, hence the elder.

THOMAS MARSH

From "Founders of Ann Arundel and Howard Counties"—by Warfield.

"This first Commissioner of Anne Arundel, coming up from Virginia with William Durand, surveyed lands, first upon Herring Creek, but later became a merchant of the Severn.

"He was an active member in every movement of the early settlers. Having become prominent in the Severn Contest, the Proprietary Government in 1658 refused to recognize his right to lands. His tract known as 'Major's Choice' became historic as a long disputed line dividing the counties of Anne Arundel and Calvert. He assigned a hundred acres upon the Chesapeake to Edward Dorsey and Thomas Manning. The latter, in a petition for a title to the land, recorded that it was taken up by Thomas Marsh, who, on account of his rebellion, was unable to secure title to the same. ('Major's Choice'—500 A.—Surveyed 24 June 1664 for Thos. Marsh.)

"Thomas Marsh also assigned to William Ayres, a tract upon Herring Creek.

"Removing to Kent Island he was made Captain of Militia.

"In his will of 1679 he names his wife, Jane, daughter of John Clements; his son, Thomas, and his daughters, Sarah and Mary.

"Ralph Williams of Bristol, England, residing in 1672, upon 'Towne Neck,' made Thomas Marsh, Senior, his residuary legatee. He was also, that same year, a witness to the will of Robert Burle, an Associate Justice, and Legislator from the Severn.

"The Foremans of 'Clover Fields' and 'Rose Hill' and other representative families of eastern Maryland, descend from this First Commissioner."

Will of Thomas Marsh of Kent County, Maryland, 12 Aug. 1679-28 Oct. 1679. From vol. I, "Maryland Calendar of Wills"—Baldwin:

"To wife, Jane, one-third of estate, real and personal; also personalty belonging to wife's deceased father, John Clements.

"To daughter, Sarah, one-third of residue of personalty, together with personalty left her by her mother.

"To daughter, Mary, one-third of residue of personalty.

"To son, Thomas, residuary legatee of estate real and personal; to be of age at 18 yrs. In event of either daughter dying under age, de'c'd's portion to be divided between her surviving sister and child of testator's two sisters, Margaret Berry and Elizabeth Tailor.

"Exs.: William Berry and Thomas Tailor.

"Test.: James Ewstis, Richard Kempton and Maurice Woolahand. 10:82."

From "Cavaliers and Pioneers of Virginia," Calendar of Virginia Land Grants 1623-1800—by Nell M. Nugent:

"Same to Thomas Holt, 500 A. in the Upper County of New Norfolk, 22nd May 1637, Page 423. On the N. side off the Eastern branch of the Elizabeth River upon a creek adj. land of Thomas Ranshaw. Due for his per. adv. and for the trans. of: Thomas Marsh, James Arundel, Yeoman Gibson, John Drake, William Smith, Samuel Taylor, Geo. Taylor, Nathaniel Cordey."

According to the same authority, William Durand came to New Norfolk County in 1637—transported by Richard Bennett.

Thomas Marsh is mentioned in Talbot County, Md., April-May 1669 (Md. Archives, vol. II.)

Vacancies in the Maryland Assembly in 1681, included that of Thomas Marsh, deceased. He was living in 1678. (Md. Archives, vol. VII.)

From Maryland Hist. Mag., vol. VIII, page 60, 7 Jan. 1649:

"Mr. William Durand demandeth 900 Acres of land for transporting his wife, and Elizabeth, his daughter, Joseph Long, Thomas Marsh and Margaret Marsh and 2 servants, viz: William Warren and William Hogg, in March last and Anne Cole, his servant, Sihence, into this province.

"Warr. inde. to lay out for Mr. Durand 900 Acres upon or near Patapsco River on the Western shore of the Bay or upon the Isle of Kent on the said Western Shore."

"April 2, 1661. 400 Acres of the above (John Abbott's) plantation sold to Thomas Marsh, merchant."

Also:

"John Bennett on April 11, 1657, is said to have given his cattle on Kent Island to Margaret Marsh and to have them recorded at Providence to her use."

From Maryland Archives, vol III—Liber B—page 169. Commission to the Commander of Anne Arundel County, Maryland:

"Wm. Stone, Esquire, Lieut. Gen. Chief Governor and Commander for the Province of Maryland, did appoint for Lord Cecilius Baltimore, Lord Proprietor of said Province, Mr. James Homewood, Mr. Thomas Meares, Mr. Thomas Marsh, Mr. Geo. Puddington, Mr. Matthew Hawkins, Mr. James Merryman and Mr. Henry Catlyn, to be Commissioner of Annarundel Co."

From same source, vol. III:

"At the Court of St. Maries, 28 June 1652, full power and authority was given Mr. Rich. Bennett, Mr. Edw. Lloyd, Capt. Wm. Fuller, Mr. Thomas Marsh and Mr. Leonard Strong, to treat with the Susquehanna Indians and Mr. Thomas Marsh was made Commander of Kent Island in 1652."

Thomas Marsh was a member of the Provincial Court in 1655.

Thomas Marsh was deprived of land grants in 1658 and "the matter left till word is received from Lord Baltimore."

Thomas Marsh is mentioned as being in St. Maries County in 1650.

JOHN ATHEY

Inventory of John Athey, son of Captain George Athey, filed in Prince Georges County, Md., Feb. 21, 1729/30. Next of kin mentioned Margaret, wife, Thomas and George, sons.

The following taken from Genealogist Quarterly Magazine, vol. I, page 249, records from Prince Georges Parish (Prince Georges County), Maryland:

"John Athey married Margaret Lewis, June 4, 1711. Zeph Athey married Lucy Duckett, November 13, 1790. Joseph Athey Married Jem. Smith, September 18, 1791."

February 1, 1761, will of Thomas Athey, son of the above mentioned John Athey, was probated in Prince Georges County. (Will omitted.) Heirs' names: Sarah, wife (she afterwards married John Turner), Mary, Sarah and Lucy, three daughters, and no sons.

George Athey, the son of Capt. George Athey, the immigrant, married Winnifred ——— and died before she did. She died in 1794 and the administration of her estate disclosed the following children: Thomas, Mary, Walter, Fenly, George and Benjamin. He moved into Prince William County, Va., which afterwards became Fairfax County, Va., just across the Potomac River from the home of the Athey family in Maryland, and died about 1794.

George Athey, grandson of Capt. George Athey and son of John Athey, the immigrant, married Mary ——— and died about 1733. Left two sons, Robert and John. Robert was the elder. John will be distinguished from the other John Atheys herein-mentioned by affixing to his name the "Sr."

Robert and John, Sr., were left orphans at a tender age. They were taken, so family tradition says, into Carolina County, Virginia, near Richmond and there reared and educated. They were born between 1725 and 1730. John, Sr., died in Morgan County, Virginia, at his farm on the Great Cacapon River, Horseshoe Bend, and his age at his death was given as 100. Robert Athey married and had four sons and four daughters. The sons were named, James B., Thomas, William and Presley. The daughters were named Susan, who married William Stevens, of Kenton County, Kentucky, and one married a Mr. Lockwell of Lawrenceburg, Indiana. The names of the other daughters are not known to the writer.

(Note — To this point everything is vouched for by official records.)

LAND OFFICE OF MARYLAND

Annapolis, Feby. 18th, 1897.

We have examined our records from the earliest to 1720, and find the following:

On the 3rd Nov. 1668, George Attee of St. Maries County proves his right to fifty acres of land due for his time of service performed to Mr. Dent, and assigns the same to Mark Cordea the same day.

Clement Hill of St. Marys County assigns rights for land to Geo. Athey of Charles County, 8th May 1675.

Patent to George Athee of Charles County for the above land called "Wakefield," 200 acres lying in Charles County, 23rd Sept. 1675.

Patent to George Athee of Charles County, "Athee's Hopewell"—100 acres—in Charles County, 21st June 1675.

Patent to George Athee of Charles County "Hutton Lockvice," 110 acres—in Charles County, 19th June 1675.

Patent to George Athea of Charles County, "Hopewell," 80 acres, in Charles County, 27th Sept. 1680.

Patent to Geo. Aithey of Charles County, "Stoney Hill," 88 acres—in Charles County 12th June 1688.

Yours truly,

Wm. O. Mitchell, Comm. of Land Office.

Per Geo. H. Shafer, Ch. Clk.

Saint Marys was a settlement in 1634—made a County in 1654. Charles, made a County in 1658—part of Saint Marys. Prince George, made a County in 1695, part of Charles County.

Mary E. Athey and John Higdon, Nov. 20, 1841.

Presley N. Athey and Mary E. Massey, June 6, 1843.

Marriage records antedating the Revolutionary War are to be found only in the several parishes records of the County of Prince Georges.

George Athey, Jr., left two sons, Robert and John (Sr.) Robert was the elder, John will henceforth be distinguished by adding "Sr." and there is a more complete record of him and his descendants than any of the other branches of the family. These sons were born 1725 to 1730.

Note: To this point all the above data is vouched for by official records from the Maryland Archives. From this point we assume and guess until we again get down to a date where some of the family have bible records or again find court records as is the case of John Athey, Sr., and Thomas Athey, Sr. These two families have complete and unbroken chain from records in Hampshire County, Va.

COUNTY RECORDS OF ROMNEY

The county records of Romney, Hampshire County, Va. (now West Virginia) consists of Deeds and Wills only. Marriages were destroyed during Civil War.—C. E. A.

(1) 1797. Deed Book No. 11, page 187. Thomas Hughes deeds 132 acres of land to John Athey, Sr., Berkeley County, Va., for 300 pound Sterling.

(2) 1798. Deed Book No. 11, page 401. Thomas Athey and wife, Elizabeth, deed to McCarty, land which he had received by patent, April 6th, 1771. (Registrar of Deeds states that deeds were issued in those days from the State Capitol, Richmond, Va. I asked the State Registrar by letter and he informs me the state has no record of this patent in 1771, but has a record of a patent issued to Thomas Athey, 1792.)

(3) 1803. Deed Book No. 13, page 334. Thomas Athey and wife, Elizabeth, buy from Matthew Peyman and wife, land on New Creek.

(4) 1818. Deed Book No. 21, page 220. Thomas Athy and wife, Martha Athey, deed land to John Coleshire. (This entry is notable because all the anterior entries are signed Athy, in this the husband signs Athy and his wife signs Athey, in later entries it is Athey.)

(5) 1826. Book of Wills; February 20th, 1826. Thomas Athey, Sr., wills his wife, Martha Athey, and their minor children, " his property, after debts and funeral expenses have been paid, for the support of her and minor children, Samuel, Nancy, Martha and Joseph D. Athey, until they are of age, when it shall be sold and divided equally among my children, Sarah, Elizabeth, Walter, Thomas Jr., Emma, Susan, Virtinty, Mary, Samuel, Nancy, Martha and Joseph D. Athey."

THOMAS ATHEY

The following records for D. A. R. Hall, Washington, D. C. See Athey Records of Virginia and Ohio, descendants of Thomas Athey and wife, Diana; and under Abrams Family of Pennsylvania, Virginia and Ohio.

Thomas Athey born Nov. 18, 1780, in Loudon County, Virginia, died Oct. 26, 1861. Diana (Abrams) Athey, born June 8, 1777, in Pennsylvania, died Oct. 8, 1863. The following are their children:

1. Delila Athey, born Dec. 11, 1801, died ———.
2. Eliza Athey, born March 18, 1804, died ———.
3. Henry Athey, born Nov. 30, 1805, died 1846.
4. William A. Athey, born Oct. 23, 1807, died Feb. 1899.
5. Hiram Robert Athey, born Jan. 9, 1810, died July 6, 1851.
6. James Harvey Athey, born Nov. 10, 1811, died Feb. 17, 1843.
7. John Athey, born Sept. 17, 1813, died ———.
8. Jessee Athey, born Nov. 4, 1815, died ———.
9. Presley Athey, born May 29, 1817, died Nov. 1, 1855.
10. Mary Jane Athey, born May 29, 1820, died June 5, 1881.
11. George Washington Athey, born Oct. 23, 1823, died about 1895.

Henry Athey and Mary Willoughby were married in Madison County, Ohio, in April 1826. I do not have date when Thomas Athey and Diana Abrams were married, but they were probably married in Chillicothe, Ohio, as I think they came to Madison County, Ohio, in 1813.

In 1798 Henry Abrams, Bazil Abrams and Reubin Abrams, brothers, lived in Chillicothe, Ohio. Diana Abrams was a daughter of Henry Abrams.

$5.00. Received of George Sanderson, one of the administrators of the estate of Henry Abrams, deceased, Five Dollars in part of the personal estate due my wife, Diana, formerly Diana Abrams, daughter and heir of said deceased.

(Signed) Thos. Athey.

April 5, 1829.

AFFIDAVIT

Charles E. Gray being first duly sworn says that he has examined the record in a Bible designated in writing "Diana Athey's Book" and find the following records of births and deaths, as follows:

WILLIAM ATHEY

William A. Athey, fourth child, who died about 1898 at London, Ohio, aged nearly ninety years. He gave the information himself as to his father and grandfather in a letter of which I have a copy.

London, Ohio, April 27th, 1896.

Judge Alex. Athey,
Prairie du Chien, Wisc.

I received three letters from you and was down sick in bed and not able to answer. I am still feeble and not able to write, but a young man proposed writing for me. I am eighty-eight and one-half years old. My father was named Thomas Athey and my grandfather was Robert Athey. My grandfather settled in Virginia in an early day and commenced farming, and when his family was about half grown he moved to Bourbon County, Kentucky, near Paris. He had four boys and I think four girls. The boys were named Thomas (my father), William, Presley and James. The girls were named Susan, who married William Stephens, of Kenton County, Kentucky, and one of her sisters married a man named Lockwell at Lawrenceburg, Indiana, and one of her sons got to be a Democratic member of Congress, etc. * * * Sometime back in the thirties I stopped at your Grandfather Elisha's and then it was he showed me a newspaper from Glasgow, Scotland, giving notice of the heirs of Athey family in the U. S. That there was a large fortune left by the name in Scotland. I do not remember the name but it was either John or George. There were two Athey girls. I do not remember whose daughters they were, but one of them married Dr. Ames and the other Gen. Jeff C. Davis and I sent the paper I spoke of to Dr. Ames' wife. Hoping to hear from you, etc.

(Signed) William A. Athey.

(Note: It is thought that the two daughters spoken of above are the daughters of Bennett Athey, son of Basil Athey and Mary Bruce, and brother of George Washington Athey and Judson William Athey. Bennett Athey left home and it was reported he had moved to Indiana, however, it is not certain—only rumor.)

Flora Gardner, one child; after her death he married Blanche

Lush in 1908 who died in 1909, leaving a babe.

Benedict died in 1880 and his wife died 1895-6.

A sister of Jonah C. Athey and daughter William Athey married Frank Haddox in Wood County, West Virginia. Her name was Elizabeth. This is all the data the writer has as to the children and descendants of Jonah C. Athey. (Note: Above it is said that Arnold Benjamin Athey was a son of Jonah C. Athey. That is taken from the history of Wood County where it appears as "Arnold B. Athey." Notice in the above that it is placed as "Benedict Athey." Probably the name was Arnold Benedict and the first Christian name was dropped in common usage.)

All births and marriages were in Wood County, W. Va. Except Dr. John Vanmore Athey, who was married at Steubenville.

Charles William Athey was the other son of William Athey, son of Robert Athey. He was born in Fairfax County, Virginia, and was younger than his brother Jonah C. Athey. He went to Wisconsin at an early day and settled in Green Bay, Wisconsin. He married a lady who had just arrived from Ireland, about 1850, name Martha Gibson. He moved into Brown County, Wisconsin, and bought a farm about six miles from Green Bay, Wis. Children: James, Charles, Joseph and Jonathan; the daughters Elizabeth Athey married William Munro, children: Colin Athey Munro, William, Wallace, Archibald and Neil Munro, a soldier in Spanish-American War who died of disease contracted in Porto Rico. Elizabeth Athey Munro died at Superior, Wis., May 6th, 1907. Martha Athey married Walter Scott Whitcomb and lives at Green Bay, Wis.

Jonathan Athey, son of Charles William Athey, married Jane Munro and lives at Iron River, Wisconsin; children: William and Robert. Charles Athey, son of Charles William Athey, was accidentally shot while out hunting; no issue. Joseph, the youngest child, died at the age of 14 years.

PRESLEY ATHEY, SON OF ROBERT

1878—Athey Family (in Biography Encyclopedia of Kentucky, page 426):

Hon. Robert A. Athey, Mayor of Covington, Ky., was born December 19, 1825, in Lexington, Ky. His father, Presley Athey, son of Robert Athey, was a native of Loudoun County, Va., and by pursuit a carpenter and builder. Mayor Athey received a good education in the academical department of Transylvania University under Bishop Bascom. He studied Law under Chief Justice Robertson, graduated in Transylvania Law School in 1845, and has since followed that profession. He represented Fayette County in Law Branch of Legislature in 1850 and 1851; was member of the Lexington City Council in 1849; was City Atty. of Lexington for 1849-1850; was Attorney for Kenton County in 1864-1865, having located in Covington in 1855; was city Attorney in 1866 and 1867 and 1871 and was elected mayor August 1874 for a term of four years. He was a member of the Presbyterian Church and one of the most active, enterprising, able and influential citizens of Covington. He was twice married, his last wife being the daughter of N. B. Stephens of that city.

JOHN ATHEY, SENIOR, REVOLUTIONARY SOLDIER

As to the descendants of John Athey, Sr., the brother of Robert Athey, there is considerable data as to his descendants. He was born about 1730, so tradition says, and was the son of George Athey, Junior. This George Athey was son of John Athey and grandson of Captain George Athey, immigrant. No sisters are known of John Athey, Sr. He had one brother, Robert, who was older than himself. John Athey, Sr., used to say that his parents died when he was so young that he could not remember them. That two uncles took Robert and himself into Virginia near Richmond and they were reared and educated there. Sometime about 1760-65, John Athey, Sr., married Sarah Foster, the daughter of Col. Foster, of the British Army. At the beginning of the Revolutionary War Col. Foster was stationed in New Hampshire. He left the British service and joined the American Revolutionists. His daughter has told Basil Athey, Jr., her grandson, about his British officers and soldiers trying for five years during the Revolutionary War seeking to get Col. Foster and offering rewards for his apprehension by the British. His son, that is the son of Col. Foster, was the first white man to row a canoe up the Scioto River, Ohio, and he settled in or near Ross County, Ohio, in 1796, where his descendants now reside, some of them having held high civil and military office.

When John Athey, Sr., was about 47 years of age he enlisted in Captain Phillip Richard Francis Lee's Company, Third Virginia Regiment, Continental Line, Commanded by Lieut. Col. William Heth, his enlistment being on the 6th day of February, 1776. His name appears on the rolls until February 1778. He served at Valley Forge as his name is mentioned as being there in Saffell's Revolutionary Records and elsewhere. The records of the Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., have an account of his services in the Third Virginia Regiment, Revolutionary War. He was living in Fairfax County, Va., at the time of the war as were all the Virginia Atheys, so it seems. The command in which the Benj. Athey above mentioned served was raised in Fairfax County, Va., and was commanded by Capt. Triplett, who also lived in Fairfax County, and was a fellow vestryman with George Washington of Truro Parish which included all Fairfax County.

To John Athey, Sr., and Sarah Foster, his wife, were born nine children, six sons and three daughters. The sons were in the order of their birth: John, Jr., Basil, Sr., Elijah and Elisha, twins, born in 1782, Thomas and George, the youngest child. The daughters were Nancy, Elizabeth and Mary, or Polly as she was called. Thomas and Polly were also twins.

JOHN FOSTER'S REMINISCENCES

Col. Foster's father, who was a brother of Sarah Foster, wife of John Athey, Sr., came to Ohio in the year 1796, on an exploring expedition. He first went to Kentucky to see his brother-in-law whose name was Cheneworth. He came up the Ohio River to the mouth of the Scioto in a canoe. In 1798 he emigrated with his family to Ohio from Cumberland County, Md. (Note: This should be Alleghany County, Md., near the town of Cumberland, Md.—C. W. B.) He first settled in Ross County, now Pike. From there he removed to the farm where Col. Foster now lives on the banks of the Scioto and lived in a log cabin about one year, and then built a hewed log house, the first house of the kind erected in the township. It is now standing and in good condition. Mr. Thomas Foster's family consisted of eight children, six daughters and two sons, John and Joseph. The latter died in the State of Indiana in 1864-5 at the age of seventy years. John was born Aug. 4th, 1801. He lived in township all his life and occupies now the room in which he was born. He is now nearly seventy years of age, but his well-preserved physical condition would not indicate he has reached that period in life. He is a practical farmer and one of the representative men of that section. His father had five brothers, Thomas, (This should be Lewis as will appear from reference to him below.—C. W. B.), John, Benjamin, Joseph and Richard. Richard was the first settler in Franklin Township, when all was dense wilderness filled with wild animals of all kinds. Col. Foster has held several offices during his lifetime, both civil and military. He represented the county in the legislature in 1848; was associate judge for a short time, when he resigned; was colonel of militia for several years. His family consists of nine children, all living, to-wit: Joseph, William R., Mary Davis, Thomas, Jane Javis, John W., James P., Samuel D. major in late Rebellion, and Rebecca Ann.

Rev. John Foster, of the M. E. Church, uncle of Col. Foster was born in 1771, died in 1839, was in the War of 1812, captain of a company, and was father of twelve children, to-wit: Sarah, Ruth, Catherine, Betsey, Joseph, John, Cassandra, Mary, Rachael, Thomas, Rebecca and Nancy. Lewis Foster another uncle was born Dec. 26th, 1760, and died at the age of ninety-two or three. Col. Foster's father and his father were the first white men who rowed the canoe up the Scioto River. A Mr. Chenoworth came to Ohio the summer before Col. Foster, but they came in wagons. T. C. Foster, son of Col. Foster, has seven children: Martha, Hannah, James, John, William and George. James served from Aug. 1861 to Jan. 1866 in the late Rebellion in the 53d, and 59th Ohio Volunteers, and some months in an Illinois Regiment the last year of the Rebellion, and six months on Veatch's staff; was major of regiment eighteen months; was at the battle of Shiloh, siege of Corinth, battle of Corinth and Sturgiss' defeat and battle of Tallulah, and is now treasurer of the township. Col. Foster has forty-five grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

During the Revolution, Sarah Foster Athey lived in Fairfax County, and the Census taken by the State of Virginia in 1782-3-5 shows that for 1782 Sarah Athey had a family of four children and one slave. That was before the birth of Elijah and Elisha, twins who were born in 1782. The same Census also shows that there were in the same county at that Census Ann Athey, Robert Athey, above mentioned, Thomas Athey, Samuel Athey. In the Census of 1785 they had left the county except Thomas Athey and there also then appears James Athey who was or has recently become the head of a family as there was only his wife. Thomas and James were brothers and the sons of Robert who had moved away. John Athey, Sr., and his wife had moved to Caroline County, Va., where John, Sr., took charge of a plantation, and where his three youngest children were born. In 1797 he purchased for three hundred pounds sterling ($1,500.00) a farm in the Horseshoe Bend of the Great Cacapon River, Morgan County, Virginia, or Hampshire County, as it was then before it was divided. It seems that the most of his children, if not all of them with the exception of Basil, Sr., and possibly John, Jr., also moved with him to Hampshire County, or Morgan County. He first moved to Berkeley County and worked a farm in Berkeley County for a time, that belonged to Jerry Stroud. Jerry Stroud married Elizabeth Athey, the daughter of John Athey, Sr., and Sarah Foster. The other daughter, Nancy, married Thomas Haines and they moved to Ohio and then to Missouri. Nothing more is known of them to the writer. John Athey, Sr., is described by his grandson Basil Athey, Jr., who was about sixteen years old when John Athey, Sr., died and who knew him well and frequently lived at his grandfather's house as a man of the highest character and bore a good reputation; that he was over six feet tall, large and bony, but not fleshy; that his wife, Sarah Foster, was quite stout and weighed about 180. That John, her husband, weighed over 200 pounds. John Athey, Sr., died about 1830 and was buried on his farm on the Great Cacapon River and that Jacob Conn made the coffins for both John Athey, Sr., and his wife, Sarah Foster Athey, who died within one year after her husband's death. Basil Athey, Jr., recounts some of the stories that John Athey, Sr. related of his experiences in the War of the Revolution. The children of John Athey, Sr., and their descendants will be given in the order of their birth—the daughters, the two elder ones having been accounted for.

(1) John Athey, Jr., so called Junior to distinguish him from the many other John Atheys in the family, was born about 1765-6 or thereabout in Fairfax County, Virginia, or possibly in Prince William County, Virginia, near the Occoquan River. He married a Miss Haines, first, probably in Berkeley County, Virginia, and settled in Alleghany County, Maryland. Of that marriage were born: Mary, Nancy, Sarah, Thomas, William, George, John and Elisha who died when he was 14 years old. Mary married a Mr. Crabtree and lived and died in Alleghany County, Md. Nancy, the second child, married James Perrin and lived and died in Alleghany County, Md. Sarah never married. She died at Brownsville, Pennsylvania, about 1885. Thomas died in West Virginia, but nothing more is known to the writer of him, nor as to any children or any marriage. William lived and died in Alleghany County, Md. George Athey lived and died in Alleghany County, Md. He had a son named James A. Athey. George Athey was born Jan. 15th, 1807, and died April 7th, 1886. Married Elizabeth Perrin, July 25, 1833. She died Nov. 12, 1845. Issue four children, one named James A. Athey, resided in Alleghany County, W. Va.; his first marriage was to Miss Shyrock, who died Nov. 30th, 1890. Dec. 12th, 1894, James A. Athey married Miss Sue Arnold, Loudoun County, Va. Eight children. He states that of the last marriage eight were born but gives no names nor data as to his children. George Athey married a second time to Mary McLaughlin. John, the seventh child of John Athey, Jr., was born 1811, died 1870. Married Frances Rue who was born 1810, died 1891. Issue: Jacob, Sarah, Jessie, Wilhelmina, Maria, Malinda, Margaret, John, and Elisha. Sarah married a Mr. Linaweaver. Issue: four children, Albert H., Anna Bell who died in infancy, Clara Alice, and John William Linaweaver.

The children born to the second marriage of John Athey, Jr., who married Deborah Jones, were seven, as follows: Annie, Hiram, Mariah, Elisha, Margaret, Dessa or Gedesse, Miranda. Anna married McAtee; Margaret married Mr. Deffenbaugh.

BASIL ATHEY, SR.

(2) The second son of John Athey, Sr., was Basil Athey, Sr., so designated Basil, Sr., to distinguish him from Basil, Jr., the son of Thomas Athey, son of John, Sr.

Basil Athey was born in Fairfax County, Va., about 1767-8. In 1789 he married Mary Bruce, of Prince Georges County, Maryland.

Mary Bruce belonged to a slave holding family which was opposed to this marriage so they eloped and married.

He settled at Shannondale Springs, Jefferson County, Virginia (now West Virginia). Of that marriage were born three sons and eight daughters. The sons were, in order of their birth, George Washington Athey, born 1797; Bennett Athey, born 1798, and Judson William Athey, born June 23, 1800. The dates of the births of the eight daughters are not correctly known to the writer.

(2.1) George Washington Athey, born 1797, was a large, athletic man known far and wide for his prowess as a boxer and wrestler. He lived to be more than 80 years old. He married (name of wife not at hand). He had three sons and three daughters. Sons were: Benjamin who died aged 11 years; James T. Athey and George Washington Athey, Jr. Daughters were Matilda who never married and died aged 80. Other daughters names not at hand.

James T. Athey, son of George Washington Athey, Sr., married Matilda Woodward of Jefferson County, West Virginia. Seven children were born to them: Rebecca, not married; Harriett married Daniel W. Snyder, lives at Summit Point, W. Va.; Margaret who married Wm. Flood, died 1903; George Elwood Athey married Georgia Roland, lives near Sharpsburg, Md.; James W. Athey went to St. Louis, 1880, married near St. Louis, Mo., name of wife not known to writer; John Lee Athey married Hertha Vickers, lives at Shepherdstown, W. Va.; E. J. Athey (Edgar Woodward Athey) married Lillie Schell, assessor of Jefferson County, West Virginia; serving his second term.

George Washington Athey, Jr., son of George Washington Athey, Sr., married twice, Misses Triggs, both wives were sisters. Four children: William, Elizabeth, Mary (dead) and Vernie. Frank P. Athey, Middleway, W. Va., is a grandson of George Washington Athey, Sr.

It seems that the three daughters of George Washington Athey, Sr., were: Matilda, not married, died aged 80; Martha married Thomas Flood, five children; and Elizabeth who married Chas. (or Louis Jolly) Crawford and lives in Texas.

(2.2) Bennett Athey moved away from Jefferson County, Virginia, at an early day and is supposed he went to Indiana and that two of his daughters there married, one a Dr. Ames and another Gen. Jeff C. Davis. Nothing certain is known of them at this time.

(2.3) Judson William Athey, born June 23d, 1800, the youngest son of Basil Athey, Sr., and Mary Bruce, left home when about 17 or 18 years of age. He went to Wheeling, Virginia (now West Virginia), where he taught school. Then he went to Ohio for a short time and in 1826 moved from Ohio to Parke County, Indiana, with the family of Aquila Justus, Aquila Justus being the son of John Justus, of Frederick County, Maryland. There, Parke County, Indiana, Judson William Athey on January 18th, 1827, and Susanna Justus, daughter of Aquila Justus, were married. Of that marriage were born:

(2.31) Basil Athey, March 31st, 1828; died in childhood.

(2.32) James Washington Athey, born Oct. 26th, 1829.

(2.33) Martha Athey, born Jan. 20th, 1831.

(2.34) Alfred Athey, born Feb. 4th, 1832.

(2.35) John Athey, born May 2nd, 1833.

(2.36) Margaret Athey, born July 12th, 1835.

(2.37) Ruth Athey, born Sept. 18th, 1837; died in childhood.

(2.38) William Joseph Athey, born Jan. 8th, 1839; died in childhood.

(2.39) Caroline Athey, born May 15th, 1813.

(2.40) Justus Milton Athey, born Sept. 24th, 1844.

(2.3) John Athey served in the 28th Iowa Inf. Vol. during the Civil War and came home and died in March, 1866.

(2.32) James Washington Athey married Catherine Brown at Johnson County, Iowa, July 14th, 1852. She was born May 13th, 1833, at her father's farm on Killbuck Creek, Ohio. Her father was named Joseph Brown, born July 8, 1790, in Pennsylvania (Washington County) and Mary Cruson, born on Killbuck Creek, Ohio, Aug. 17th, 1796, who were married in Mansfield, Ohio, Feb. 5th, 1820; the mother of Mary Cruson and grandmother of Sarah Catherine Brown was Elizabeth McCormick, of Virginia, who married Garrett Cruson, and after the marriage moved to Ohio, and when Simon Girty and his Indians made trouble there fled to Virginia until peace was restored. Elizabeth McCormick had two brothers named George and Benjamin who was a cripple. During the Revolutionary War Benjamin wanted to follow the troops and unable to walk "borrowed" a horse from a neighbor named Hogg and when he caught up with the troops sent the horse back to Hogg. Elizabeth McCormick's mother was named Tate who was a daughter of a Fairfax.

Of the marriage of James Washington Athey and Sarah Catherine Brown were born the following children:

- (2.321) Elizabeth and Mary who died in infancy.
- (2.322) Alexander Athey, born Oct. 28, 1857.
- (2.323) Emily A. Athey, born Aug. 17th, 1859.
- (2.324) Judson William, born March 14th, 1862.
- (2.325) John Athey born May 10th, 1864.

Nov. 12th, 1865, Sarah Catherine Brown died. The next marriage of James Washington Athey was to Mrs. Minerva Haughenbury. Children: James, Clinton, Roy and Cora.

(2.322) Alexander Athey, son of James Washington Athey, is an Attorney and lives at Prairie du Chien, Wisconsin. He is a Genealogist of no mean ability and has done much indeed to preserve the Athey Genealogy for posterity. Married January 11th, 1888, to Miss Minnie Cummings, of Chippewa Falls, Wisconsin; of that marriage were born:

Katherine Dolores Athey, born Jan. 21st, 1889; lives in New York City (1930).

Donald Robert Athey, born December 29th, 1890; newspaper writer New York City (1930).

Matthew Judson Athey, born April 21st, 1903, Civil Engineer, New York City (1930).

Emily A. Athey, married Nov. 1879 to Frank Hevener. She died Oct. 1904.

(2.324) Judson William Athey married in 1883 Laura Scott. Children: five sons and one daughter.

VIII Generation:

(1) Rockwell, James T., and (2) Cox, William, married Athey, Martha Jane. Children:

- 1. Rockwell, Mary Jane—born July 11, 1851, Parke Co., Ind.
- 2. Cox, Matilda Elizabeth—born Feb. 18, 1856, Marengo, Iowa.
- 3. Cox, John Wilson—born May 2, 1859, Marengo, Iowa.

(2.325) John Athey married Katherine Warner, 1883. Children: Nellie, Fanny, Earnest. (Names not at hand. Other data missing.)

(2.33) Martha Jane Athey, third child of Judson William Athey (2.3), was born in Parke County, Indiana, January 20, 1831, and died at Marengo, Iowa County, Iowa, 1859-61. She married first, in Parke County, Indiana, James T. Rockwell, Sept. 8, 1849. They had one child, Mary Jane Rockwell, born July 11, 1851, at or near Armiesburg, Parke County, Indiana, who died July 3, 1923, at Toledo, Ohio, and is buried there. Of whom, more later.

Martha Jane (Athey) Rockwell married (after the death of James T. Rockwell) (second) William Cox, January 26, 1854, in Parke County, Indiana, the Rev. William Perry Cummings, officiating. So we have William and Martha (Athey) Cox moving from the old home in Indiana to Marengo, Iowa County, Iowa, where their other children were born and where Martha (Athey) Cox lies buried in the Athey Cemetery on the old farm of her father, Judson William Athey and where he too is buried.

IX Generation:

Brockway, Warren, a soldier in the Union Army, married Rockwell, Mary Jane in Parke Co., Indiana. Children:

1. Brockway, May—born at Armiesburg, Parke Co., Ind., 1879.
2. Brockway, Carl Preston—born Oct. 12, 1881, Neodesha, Kans.
3. Brockway, "Scottie"—born and died in infancy at Neodesha, Kans.

Warren and Mary (Rockwell) Brockway left Indiana in the '70s and went to Neodesha, Kansas, where they lived several years. From there they went to Grant County in western Kansas, where like so many early Kansas pioneers, they "burned out" with the drought, hot winds and grasshoppers. From there they went back to Indiana, living at different times at Indianapolis, Terre Haute and Muncie. In later years they removed to Toledo, Ohio, where they both died and are buried.

X Generation:

Wilmeth, Fred, died at Moorefield, Nebraska; married Brockway, May. Children (one daughter):

Carl Brockway is an inventor of genius and his hobby, and that of Maurice, is photography. His wife, Grace (Sprague) Brockway is a talented artist. Their home is in Ridgewood, N. J.

IX Generation:

After the marriage of William and Martha Jane (Athey) (Rockwell) Cox, they went from Indiana to Marengo, Iowa County, Iowa, to live. Judson William Athey and his family went at about the same time which must have been sometime between 1851 and 1856 for the next child, Matilda Elizabeth Cox, was born at Marengo, Feb. 18, 1856.

Martha Athey Cox died near Marengo about 1859-1861 and we find little Matilda Elizabeth going several years later, with Warren and Mary Brockway to Kansas where they settled at Neodesha, Wilson County, in 1872, going from Iowa to Kansas in a "covered wagon."

Here Matilda, later, taught school in the "Birtsch" and "Pleasant Valley" Districts until her marriage in 1876.

William Cox was born at or near Chambersburg, Pennsylvania, June 12, 1812, the son of Abner and Sarah (Nicholson) Cox.

Abner Cox was the first white settler in Madison Township, Morgan County, Indiana, where he settled with his large family in 1821. Later he removed to Parke County, Indiana, where he and his son William Cox operated flat boats on the Wabash and Mississippi, making many trips to New Orleans. Abner Cox built the first mill near Montezuma in Parke County. He died and is buried in Parke County.

William Cox owned a general store near Armiesburg and Montezuma, Parke County, and in his old account book there are accounts with Abner Cox, Judson Wm. Athey, Alfred, Milton and John Athey, from 1841 to 1858.

William Cox married (1st) in Parke County, in 1838, Elizabeth Wannamougher, by whom he had one child, Daniel Cox, who served in the Civil War in Co. G, 8th Iowa Inf., dying of "congestion of the lungs" in camp at Sedalia, Missouri, Feb. 19, 1862. He is buried in the Athey Cemetery at Marengo, Iowa.

After the death of his wife, Elizabeth, William Cox married (2nd) Martha Athey Rockwell in 1854. Upon the death of Martha, he with his youngest child, John Wilson Cox, and his (3rd) wife, Helen Danskin Cox, of the Trenton, N. J. family of that name, followed the family of Warren and Mary Brockway to Kansas. This was sometime in the early '80's. Here he homesteaded land and lived until his death in March, 1896.

IX Generation:

Allen, William Albert, born March 3, 1851, at Olney, Illinois, son of John S. and Sarah (Landis) Allen, married Cox, Matilda Elizabeth, born Feb. 18, 1856, at Marengo, Iowa, March 30, 1876. Children:

VIII Generation:

Caroline Athey was born May 15, 1843, in Parke County, Indiana, died March 13, 1923, at Canon City, Colorado. Married John Reed Howard, born Aug. 8, 1834, at or near Nashville, Tennessee. He died Aug. 7, 1911, and he and his wife, Caroline, are both buried at Canon City, Colorado.

John and Caroline (Athey) Howard lived in Indiana and then in or near Garden City, Kansas. From there they went to live at Canon City, Colorado. John Reed Howard was a "Southerner" and several of his children were named for Confederate generals. Their children are:

1. Howard, Hardee—born Jan. 18, 1863 (deceased).

2. Howard, May Lee—born Feb. 22, 1866.

3. Howard, Early L.—born Oct. 14, 1867.

4. Howard, Eva H.—born March 18, 1869.

5. Howard, Ida H.—born May 7, 1870 (deceased).

6. Howard, Esther H.—born July 4, 1871.

7. Howard, Clyde S.—born April 5, 1873.

8. Howard, Nellie S.—born Sept. 30, 1874.
9. Howard, Warren P.—born March 31, 1876 (deceased).
10. Howard, Gaylord B.—born Oct. 22, 1877 (deceased).
11. Howard, Dollie C.—born July 10, 1879.
12. Howard, Samuel Y.—born Dec. 30, 1880 (deceased).
13. Howard, Shelby J.—born March 21, 1883.
14. Howard, Fred V.—born Jan. 17, 1886.

Of this family, May Lee Howard married ——— Athey, and lives at Des Moines, Iowa.

Eva H. Howard married R. M. Moore and has four sons and one daughter. She lives at LaVerne, California. She is a member of the D. A. R. and is interested in music as is May Lee (Howard) Athey.

Data is lacking as to the other members of the family.

VIII Generation:

(2.34) Alfred Athey married Matilda Elliot in 1860. Their children are:

1. Athey, James Washington.
2. Athey, Christeam.
3. Athey, Edward.
4. Athey, Aquilla.

All are married but data not at hand.

(2.35) Margaret Athey married a Mr. Furness (deceased).

(2.40) Justus Milton Athey married 1878, Matilda Athey. One child.

Of the eight daughters of Basil Athey, Sr., the writer has the following data:

Eliza married John Sullivan.

Deborah married first Chas. Clovell, second a Mr. Ross.

Harriett married a Mr. Benner.

Matilda married Mr. Claspey.

Lucretia married R. B. Dickey, a gunsmith at U. S. Armory, Harpers Ferry, before the Civil War, and whose son, R. B. Dickey, lives there now. This seems to be an error. It should be John Thomas Dickey as the husband of Lucretia Athey and R. B. Dickey is the son or grandson who now lives at Harpers Ferry, W. Va.

The data as to the other daughters of Basil Athey, Sr. is not definite.

Of Elijah Athey, son of John, nothing is known.

ELISHA ATHY AND HIS DESCENDANTS

(4) Elisha Athy was born in Caroline County, Va., July 23, 1782. He was educated in the common schools of Virginia and took a commercial course in Baltimore, Md., where on finishing his education, he engaged as bookkeeper in a flouring mill. About 1805 he gave up his position and emigrated to Kentucky, settling at Middletown, where he engaged in merchandising. He continued in business there until 1825, when he moved to Louisville and opened a retail dry goods store. He prospered in the retail business and subsequently opened a wholesale house, being the first wholesale dry goods merchant in the city. In 1840, he was reputed to be one of the largest land proprietors and slave holders in the State; but four years later he lost a large part of his fortune by indorsing for friends. Dr. Wm. F. Miller, of Louisville, in a letter dated March 3, 1896, thus refers to him: "I think I was about fifteen years old when I lived with your grandfather. If so, it must have been in the year 1836. He was then engaged in the retail dry goods business on Market Street, between Third and Fourth Streets. He was then one of the leading merchants and considered among the best and most prosperous. My recollection of him was that he was a plain, unassuming, unpretentious, rigidly careful, prosperous business man. He would have been the last man that I would have supposed would have failed in business, and, while I don't know the cause of his failure, I am sure it was not his fault. When he commenced business, I can't say. It must have been many years before I lived with him, as his house was then regarded as an old established house, and one my father regarded as most reliable. Such was the estimate placed on Elisha Athy, as my father called him; one of his parting admonitions to me, when leaving home, 'Son, do what Elisha Athy advises you and my word for it you will never go astray.' "

In this connection it may be stated that the firms in Baltimore and Philadelphia (he rode on horse-back to these markets twice every year to buy goods) hearing of his trouble, offered to furnish him all the capital necessary to continue in business, but it was declined on account of his advancing years. He then closed out his business in Louisville and moved to Hawesville, where he remained a year, going thence to Owensboro in 1847 to live with his son Mortimer Foster Athy. He married March 3, 1811, Ann Roley White (born Oct. 29, 1787, in Westmoreland County, Va.) daughter of William White, a wealthy Virginia planter, who had moved to Kentucky in 1795 and laid out Middletown in Jefferson County. Elisha Athy never connected himself with any church or secret order, though he was a regular attendant and contributor to the Christian Church. He died in Owensboro, Ky., April 27, 1856. His wife followed him to the grave May 13, 1859. They had eight children, four of whom grew to maturity, viz: John William Athy, Mortimer Foster Athy, Mary Eleanor Athy and Lee Elisha Athy.

(4.1) John William Athy, born at Middletown, Ky., Jan. 7, 1812; moved with his father to Louisville in 1825, where he was educated in the public schools. He did not complete his education, however, as he ran away and married July 13, 1832, Phoebe I. Yarnall, an orphan, and sister of Mordecai Yarnall, first Signal Service officer of the United States Government. He never engaged in active business, but was owner of a steamboat called "The Experiment," which ran from Cincinnati to New Orleans. He died June 26, 1853. He had only one child, who was born in Paris, Tenn., Dec. 25, 1833; moved to Louisville, Ky., in his infancy, and was educated there. He was for several years employed in the drug house of R. A. Robinson & Co., but moved to Memphis, Tenn., in 1856, and Holly Springs, Miss., in 1857. He was secretary of the Jones & McElway Foundry Co., at Holly Springs, which made the first gun used by the Confederate Army. The Confederate Government bought the foundry in 1862 and employed Mr. Athy as chemist and he served in that capacity during the war. Some twenty years ago, the Louisville Courier Journal contained a column and a half editorial commending the bravery and heroism of John Howard Athy, in his efforts to keep the Confederate Government in supplies. He was in the drug business in Holly Springs during the cholera epidemic in 1878, and his store was the only one kept open during the prevalence of the epidemic. When he, himself, was stricken, his son continued to fill prescriptions for the unfortunate inhabitants. He married Miss Cal. Hill, daughter of Gov. Hill, of Mississippi. He died June 20, 1901. Two sons survive him; William Beattie Athy, manager of the Athy Drug & Seed Co., of Holly Springs, and Dr. Wiley Jones Athy, Surgeon in the United States Army. John Howard Athy was a member of the Episcopal Church and a Knight Templar.

(4.2) Mortimer Foster Athy, born at Middletown, Ky., July 31, 1819. He moved with his father to Louisville in 1825, where he was educated in the city schools and at the Kentucky Military Institute, at Frankfort. Returning home from school, he clerked for two years in his father's store, but in 1842, at the earnest solicitation of Col. Phil Triplett, he went to Owensboro and opened a dry goods store. He prospered in his business, and in 1848 bought a farm five miles from Owensboro, Ky., which he improved and made one of the most attractive places in the county. He gave the land on which Athy Chapel was built, and it still stands a monument of his devotion to his church. He was a regular contributor to the newspapers and periodicals of the day, and, although a slave-holder himself, an earnest advocate of the manumission of slaves and their colonization in Liberia. He was a member of the Methodist Church. He married Dec. 12, 1844, Margaret McFarland, daughter of State Senator John S. McFarland, of Davies County, Ky. He died Feb. 13, 1850. Their children were Mortimer Foster Athy, Jr., born July 10, 1848, at Owensboro, Ky., where he married Fannir Stirman, daughter of Dr. W. D. Stirman. They were subsequently divorced. One child, William Athy, survives. He is a telegraph operator and lives in Chicago. (Omission—Mortimer Foster Athy, Jr., was educated at the Owensboro Academy; he was a newspaper man and was connected at various times with the Owensboro papers and was for several years, an editorial writer on the Sedalia, Mo., and St. Louis papers. He was Deputy United States Marshal for Kentucky under Gen. Eli Murray in 1868-72.) Ann Eliza Athy, born May 15, 1846, married Capt. Sam M. Anderson, of Danville, Ky., an officer in the Federal Army. They have raised a large family of children, one daughter, Mrs. Clark, of Paducah, Ky., being called one of the most beautiful women in Kentucky.

Online Matilda Athy, born Oct. 8, 1849, married Robert McCreery, son of ex-United States Senator McCreery; she was a woman of rare beauty and intelligence, and her husband was one of the most gifted of Kentucky orators. They moved to California soon after they were married, on account of his health, and both died there in less than two years, leaving one daughter, Margaret McCreery, who married Wynn Dixon, son of Dr. Arch Dixon, Henderson, Ky.

(4.3) Mary Eleanor Athy, born Dec. 1825. She was educated in the private schools at Louisville, Ky., and Nazareth Academy, Bardstown, Ky. She married June 25, 1846, Benjamin Bransford, Jr., of Owensboro, Ky., who had recently come from Virginia, to engage in the tobacco export business. They had ten children, seven of whom lived to maturity. C. W. Bransford, Owensboro, Ky., Banker and Genealogist, still living; only child known to be living.

(4.4) Lee Elisha Athy, born Jan. 17, 1827, in Louisville, Ky. He attended the city schools, and was a very precocious child. At the age of seven years, he was awarded a silver medal by the Board of Trustees for superior merit. He finished his education at the Kentucky Military Institute at Frankfort, Ky. He inherited a large fortune from his uncle, Lee White, for whom he was named. He was a politician and traveller. He died single July 6, 1859.

The above is all the data known to exist as to Elisha Athey by the writer.

(5) Polly Athey, daughter of John Athey, Sr., never married but went to Kentucky and lived with her brother Elisha Athey.

THOMAS ATHEY

(6) Thomas Athey, son of John Athey, Sr., wife's name Elizabeth Conn. Children: Basil, Jr., David and Jackson. (No daughters are given.) David and Jackson moved to Iowa about fifty or sixty years ago.

(6.1) Basil Athey, Jr., son of Thomas Athey, married in 1840 Miss Rebecca Jane Taggart, Hampshire County, Virginia (now West Virginia). She died in 1896. Children: Upton P. Athey, four children and three grandchildren; Thomas William Athey married Mary Matthews and has eleven children and one grandchild; Charlie Athey, and Annie Athey.

Newton David Athey married Miss Maggie Showalter and have two children.

John Conn Athey married Sally Brent and they have two children; his second marriage was to Maggie Shatzer and they have eight children; Charles Samuel Athey married Miss Mary Hendrickson and they have five children; Mary is unmarried; Winfield Scott Athey married Miss Cora Boor and they have three children; Phillip Sheridan Athey is unmarried; Louise Eleanor Athey married William Kirk Boor and have one child.

There was a George Athey who served in an Iowa Regiment, Civil War, who is probably a descendant of Thomas Athey here mentioned.

No other data at hand as to descendants of Thomas Athey, son of John Athey, Sr.

GEORGE ATHEY

(7) George Athey, son of John Athey, Sr., is said to have moved to Ohio at an early day and to have settled near Dayton, Ohio, where he was said to have had a vineyard and hop garden. No other data as to George Athey is at hand or known.

The foregoing is a nearly complete statement of all data as to the descendants of Robert Athey and John Athey, Sr., as can be made from what has been gathered so far.

9. Charles Janney Faulkner Athey, born in Clarke County, Va., April 6, 1857, died at Winchester, Va., May 29, 1932, buried in Mt. Hebron Cemetery, Winchester, Va. The following is from "The Star," Winchester, Va., May 31, 1932:

"Funeral rites were held today for Charles J. F. Athey, 75, for many years superintendent of the Winchester Paper Mills, whose death followed a heart attack. He was a son of Elisha Athey, drummer in 'Stonewall' Jackson's Confederate brigade, and a descendant of John Athey, who survived the siege of Valley Forge with Washington's army.

"He was a member of Loudoun Street Presbyterian Church. Surviving are a widow, Mrs. Margaret Evans Athey; two sons, Arthur G. and Harry F. Athey, here and two daughters, Mrs. May B. Griffin, this city, and Mrs. William B. Sinnott, Washington, D. C."

Charles Janney Faulkner Athey married at Winchester, Va., Dec. 19, 1883, Margaret Elizabeth Evans, daughter of William D. and Lovdy Evans. She was born at Mr. Savage, Md., March 1, 1864. Issue:

He was born March 21, 1891. Served overseas during the World War with 29th Blue and Gray Div., 110th Field Artillery. No children.

Second marriage of Elisha Athey. E. J. Athey of Winchester, Frederick County, Va., aged 61 years. The Register of Wills, Alleghany County, Md., gives same data as to John Athey, who died in that county 1850 where his estate was probated, i. e. John Athey, Jr.

There were some statements in the letters of some of the children of John Athey, Jr., or his grandchildren, moving to Ohio and elsewhere but nothing definite. There is a statement in the letter of E. J. Athey, son of Elisha, that his grandfather, John Jr., was in the War of 1812; that after the war they moved into Virginia near Shepherdstown, Jefferson County. The records of Alleghany County, Md., show that John Athey, Jr., died in that county 1850 and his estate was settled up there. That completes data as to the descendants of John Athey, Jr., that the writer has. It is far from complete and should be made full and complete by the descendants of John Athey, Jr.

THOMAS ATHEY, SR.

(321) Thomas Athey, Sr., son of George Athey, Jr., born 1746, died Sept. 18, 1826. Revolutionary War soldier, enlisted June 1777 in Fairfax County, discharged, wounded, Aug. 1779, Middlebrook, N. J. Thomas Bell Crawford was superintendent of The Hampshire Furnace & Forge. John W. Athey worked there. I do not know in what capacity. Superintendent perhaps. The father of Mary Ann Patterson, wife of Thomas Bell Crawford, owned all the land that now forms Alleghany and Cumberland Counties.

WALTER ATHEY, SR.

(321.3) Walter Athey, Sr., born 1780, died 1854. Married Clarissa Goldsmith, born March 12, 1788, died Sept. 2, 1865. Both buried in Fearing Township, Washington County, Ohio, Cemetery. Emigrated to Fearing Township, Washington County, Ohio, with wife and four children and his father-in-law, Benoni Goldsmith, and family. Bible Record: "Joined Methodist Church, Feb. 1804, moved to Ohio, March 1812, became member at Marietta, Ohio."

Clarissa Goldsmith, wife of Walter Athey, Sr., was the daughter of Benoni Goldsmith and Angelina (Williams) Goldsmith, she was born in 1788, died 1865. Her mother Angelina (Williams) Goldsmith was born 1756, died 1835. Clarissa's sister, Angelina Goldsmith, married Thomas Stanley. Her brother, John Goldsmith, born 1791, died Aug. 20, 1852, married and had two sons, maybe more. They were: James I. Goldsmith, who married Catherine Cherry, had nine children of whom Mrs. Flora Goldsmith Lapham, 612 Fifth Street, Marietta, Ohio, was one. Isaac Goldsmith, the second son, never married.

Benoni Goldsmith, born 1756, died 1822, served as a private in Captain Samuel Jordan Cabell's Co., 6th Virginia Regiment, commanded by Lieut. Colonel James Hendricks, during the Revolutionary War for a period of 6 years 7 months and 22 days. His name is borne on the rolls of that organization from April to July, 1777, which shows that he was "appointed Feb. 26, ——" The records show that he served in Captain Samuel Jordan Cabell's Co., Morgan's Rifles Regiment, Continental Troops. He was transferred to Captain Benjamin Taliaferro's Company, prior to December 1777 and his name last appears on a pay roll, for the period from February 1st, 1778, "to expiration of service, including 15 days allowed them for going to Virginia" with remark "discharged February 26." (By authority of the Secretary of War.) (Signed F. C. Ainsworth, Chief.)

Data known by his descendants show that he was wounded at the battle of Cowpens, where he was also taken as a prisoner.

He and his wife are buried on their original farm, at one time called Robinson's Mills, on Duck Creek, Washington County, Ohio, now known as the Jacob Spindler farm.

Clarissa and Angelina Goldsmith are buried in the Fearing Township Cemetery (Washington County, Ohio) with their husbands while John Goldsmith is buried in the Mound Cemetery, Marietta, Ohio.

Clarissa Goldsmith Athey, after the death of her husband, went to live with her son, Rev. Thomas Athey, on the farm of his son Charles Q. Athey, until his death when she went to live with her second son, Rev. George Athey, Moss Run, and she was then accompanied by Elvira Athey, her granddaughter, a daughter of Solomon Athey, after some time they returned to Fearing Township and lived with Solomon Athey, until her death in 1865.

(3218.1) Charles W. Athey died Dec. 9, 1912. Married Mary E. Dowling April 11, 1867. She died Nov. 21, 1921. Children:

1. May Elizabeth Athey, born June 21, 1868, married S. A. Palmer Dec. 25, 1895.

2. Charles Edgar Athey, born Nov. 23, 1871, unmarried, U. S. P. H. S. "The Palmetta," organ of A. T. O., college fraternity, issue of May 23, 1931, in its article "Worthy Alumni No. 3" says:

"In 1871, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Athey brought into the world an infant so destined to later become one of Ohio Beta Rho's most distinguished Alumni in point of service to his fellow men.

"Charles E. Athey, that child of typical American parentage, was born on November 23, 1871, at Marietta, Ohio, the settlement of adventurers and American pioneers. Perhaps too he was predestined to serve the world at large thus giving to others some of Marietta's spirit of friendliness and helpfulness.

"At school age he went to Marietta Academy and in 1889 entered Marietta College, later to leave this institution and enter Western Reserve in 1891. During the years at Marietta he took the course in B. Philosophy. In 1890 he joined Ohio Beta Rho Chapter of A. T. O. and was initiated in 1890. Later in Western Reserve he took up medicine graduating with the degree of M. D. in 1893.

"Dr. Chas. E. Athey practiced surgery and medicine in Toledo, Havana, Cuba, Mexico, Panama, South America, and is now located in Progreso, Yucatan, Mexico.

"Serving in the capacity of U. S. Public Health Service Officer, and in the Medical Corps during the Spanish American and World War, Dr. Athey has had experiences equal to that which Lowell Thomas could relate.

"A member of West End Club, Tehauntepec Club, Lotus Club, and Lincoln Club he has come into contact with men in all stations and parts of North and South America.

"We are glad that Brother Athey is one of us and we should like to meet him and that he should meet us. An A. T. O. with Alpha Tau's spirit of unity, brotherhood and service to not only the Northern and Southern States but to the whole Continents of North and South America.

"Thus we of Ohio Beta Rho honor him as worthy of a Nation's praise and friendship."

Copy of letter (original in archives of Virginia State Library, Richmond, Va.) written by Thomas Athey, Sr., Revolutionary War soldier:

Hampshire Co., New Creek, Va., Jan. 31st, 1822.

Mr. Thomas Swearengen,

Dear Sir:

After my compliments to you, I will inform you that I have a particular favour to ask of you which I hope you will grant me and that is this.

I am one of those old Revolutionary soldiers that is still alive and having never received nor gotten any lands in compensation for my services and being ignorant of the manner of procedure in order to get it, therefore I wish you to befriend me and give me all the information on the subject you can and also whether I can or cannot obtain my Brother's land, claimed for his services in the Revolutionary War, he dying in the service and if I can get it I wish you would inform me how to proceed in that case, and also and moreover, I wish you to write in the same letter to me how the heirs of James McDade deceased, is to proceed in order to get their father's land, who served out two enlistments in the United States service OC.

I wish you also to examine and see if there is anything to be done in the case in the City of Washington that you would do for me and if you should want any further information from me in order to enable you to proceed, write to me and I will give it if I can and I will pay you for all your trouble whensoever your account is forwarded to me.

Your friend, Thomas Athey.

P. S. You will direct your letters to Paddytown Post Office, Hampshire Co., Virginia.

Copy of letter to C. E. Athey from the United States, Department of Interior, General Land Office:

Washington, D. C., Sept. 29, 1932.

:West Virginia Lands.

Mr. C. E. Athey,
726 Fifth Street,
Marietta, Ohio.

My Dear Sir:

I have your letter of September 19, 1932, requesting information concerning a transfer of lands in Hampshire County, West Virginia, by Thomas Athey and wife Elizabeth to a person by the name of McCarty by a patent dated April 6, 1771. You state the land may have been granted as bounty for military services and ask if a patent has once issued under a military bounty land warrant if one may again draw a bounty land warrant.

West Virginia was formed from a part of Virginia and admitted into the Union June 19, 1863. The United States owned no lands in Virginia or West Virginia. Therefore, this office had no jurisdiction over land disposals in those States and has no records in regard to them. Information relative to such lands may be procured from the Register of Land Office, Richmond, Virginia.

Examination of the index of the names of Virginia soldiers in the Revolutionary War who received military bounty land warrants in consideration of services in that war, discloses that warrants Nos. 3247 and 6662 were issued to Thomas Athey.

Warrant No. 3247 authorized the principal surveyor of the lands set apart for the officers and soldiers of the commonwealth of Virginia, to survey and lay off in one or more surveys for Thomas Athey 100 acres of land in consideration of his services for three years as a soldier in the Virginia Continental Line, Revolutionary War, on June 29, 1784. July 21, 1784, Thomas Athey sold and assigned all his right and title to the warrant to John Gibson for value received. Gibson located the warrant and warrant No. 3245, issued to a Benjamin Athey and Warrant No. 3246 to James Conner, on lands identified as survey No. 2425, on the waters of Caesar's Creek, a branch of the Little Miami River within the Virginia Military District, Ohio. Gibson received a patent for the tract on July 6, 1801. This warrant is filed in the Virginia Military Patent Records, Vol. 2, page 386. A photostat copy of the warrant and of the assignment thereof found on the back of the warrant, may be procured for 30 cents.

Warrant No. 6662, for 100 acres, issued to a Thomas Athey in consideration of his services for three years as a private in the Virginia Continental Line on December 8, 1824. June 10, 1825, said Thomas Athey, of Hampshire County, Virginia, sold and assigned his right to locate said warrant to one Jonathan Hite of Hardy County for value received. Two pieces of scrip issued in lieu of said warrant and were forwarded to Joseph McMenen at Moorefield, Hardy County, Virginia, January 25, 1841, on request of the heirs of Jonathan Hite. This warrant is filed with Virginia military scrip application No. 435, under the act of 1833.

A photostat copy of the warrant and of the assignment thereof on the back of the warrant, may be procured for 30 cents. Additional 25 cents should be forwarded if a certified copy is desired.

The State of Virginia issued bounty land warrants for 100 acres of land to privates in the Revolutionary War and warrants for larger amounts to officers in that war. If the first warrant issued was not for the full amount to which the particular soldier or officer was entitled, a second warrant may have issued. A patent is the title-deed by which a government, either Federal or State, conveys its lands. Patents were issued by the Government for lands that were purchased from the Government as well as for those on which military bounty land warrants were located.

Very respectfully,

(Signed) D. I. C. Parrott,

Acting Assistant Commissioner.

Records taken from Athey Family (in Portrait & Biography) record of Delaware and Randolph Counties, Indiana, 1894, page 193:

Henry B. Athey was born in Hardy County, a part of what is now County of Grant in the State of Virginia, on the 27th day of September 1853. His Father Daniel Lewis Athey was a native of New York, but early accompanied his parents to Virginia and from early boyhood was engaged in driving cattle to the eastern markets, principally to Philadelphia and New York before the days of railroads. He married Lavina C. R. Smith, daughter of Henry Smith, Esq. of Virginia, and became the father of twelve children, six boys and six girls, nine of which are living at this time. * * * Henry B. being the eldest son. Mr. and Mrs. Athey left Virginia in 1855, immigrated to Illinois and settled in the County of Piatt, when that part of the state was almost wholly unimproved. Mr. Athey is now living in Farmer City, Dewitt County, Illinois, practically retired from active life. He has followed agriculture in which he has met with reasonable success, is independent in his political views, and for a number of years has been an active member of the Methodist Church. He is essentially a self-made man; his sole capital on reaching his new home in the west amounted to but $5.00, from which insignificant beginning he succeeded by his unaided efforts in acquiring a comfortable competence. At the age of two years

Henry B. Athey was taken by his parents to Illinois in which state he grew to manhood on a farm, and early became accustomed to the hard work incident to that useful occupation. His early educational training, owing to circumstances over which he had no control was sadly neglected and his attendance at school was limited to about eighteen months, divided over many years. His first school experience was in a little farm smokehouse upon his father's farm and the teacher, by no means a classical scholar, received his pay by the subscriptions of his patrons. Possessing an inquiring mind, Mr. Athey was not content to remain in ignorance of books and by wide reading and self culture together with a practical education acquired from contact with business men in various capacities, he has since become a well informed man. At the age of twenty he left the parental roof and began life for himself as a farm laborer and later found employment in a lumber yard, in which he subsequently purchased an interest. He continued in the lumber business for a period of seven years, selling out at the end of that time and accepting a position as traveling salesman for the Champion Machine Company of Springfield, Ohio, in which capacity he continued until 1889. While traveling for this firm in June 1883 located in Muncie and for some time thereafter kept books for R. H. Mong. Subsequently, he became manager of the Muncie Foundry & Machine Company, in which he owns a one-fifth interest, but he still looks after the business of the establishment, which owes much of its present success to his careful foresight. March 27, 1878, Mr. Athey was married to Miss Ella L. Green, daughter of George W. and Nancy (Fleming) Green, who has borne him one child, a girl, Georgia G. Athey, born Dec. 24, 1879. Mrs. Athey was born Sept. 24, 1854 on Walnut Street, this City. In politics, Mr. Athey is a Democrat and as such wields an influence for his party in Muncie and Delaware County. He served in the Village Council of Mansfield, Ill., for four years; acted as Treasurer or tax collector for some time in the County of Piatt; that state; and for one year served as village clerk and afterwards as Trustee of the Village of Mansfield. Mr. Athey is not identified with any church or religious order, being quite liberal in his views concerning all movements having for their object the welfare of his fellowmen. He is progressive, taking an active interest in the material development of Muncie and is deserving of mention with its representative citizens.
