This Armour Familysems to have the Genealogy of their Family well Preserved. Mrs. Claren P. Russell and what I found is the basis for the Scotland Armours.

I began work on this Genealogy of the Armour Family in the early 1920 in Cossitt Library, Memphis, Tennessee. After retirement in 1960 I began the work a new and have at it since then. There may be many errors in this work and it may be the ground for some one else to revise the work. I have found very little writing on the Armours.

I want to thank Mr. Roy W Balck, Bolivar, Tennessee; Lawrence Gardner, Memphis, Tennessee (Mr) and Mrs. Claren P Russell, Collierville, Tennessee for giving me key information. Also, I do express my appreciations to the people who answered my letters and gave information on their families on the questionnaires I sent

She is buried in Woodville Cemetery, 10th District Chester County, Tennessee. There is a monument to her grave.

My father Cullin Jackson Armour a son of Mitchell Hicks Armour and Martha Eliza Isbell Armour remembers his Grand Father James Armour the father of Mitchell Hicks Armour. In the 1880 Census of Hardeman County, Tennessee James Armour gives his birth place South Carolina and gives the birth place of his father South Carolina, Mitchell Hick Armour and his brother Sylvester A Armour made visits to George W Armour. Mr Thomas Brewer of McKenzie said his grand father George W Armour and the brothers Hicks and Sylvester were first cousins. Mr. Brewer remembers the fiddling which was a part of the visit. Mr Thomas Buford Brewer said George W Armour was a son of Oliver Armour. At odd times members of the Hicks Armour Family visited the William Armour family of Weakley County, Tennessee. They claimed kinship. William Armour was a grand son of Oliver Armour and a son of George W. Armour.

Mr Roy W Black, 213 South Main Street, Bolivar, Tennessee told me about the deed where the children of Robert Armour Sr sold their father's land to Skelton Shoat. Deed Book I page 461 This deed was signed March 1, 1834 and recorded May 11, 1849 at Waverly, Humphrey County, Tennessee. This deed was signed by Robert Armour Jr, William Armour, Alesworth Armour the wife of Mathew Williams, Oliver Armour and James Armour.
