PREFACE

The desire to know one's ancestry is surely natural. Such knowledge should help to explain many things that otherwise remain mysteries in personal development. The writer believes that a knowledge of relationship—especially the relation of large numbers—produces a sense of large responsibility. Such a multitude as that of the American Boyers will feel that they ought to be a power for good in the world. And this feeling will connect itself with the desire for a better education and closer church connections. Then, too, the achievements of our ancestors in vocations and professions will surely stimulate the coming generations of Boyers to do still better in all the walks of life. The religious fervor of our earliest forebears, the patriotic part they played in the history of American freedom and American defence and American union, should be cherished in our memories forever and prompt us to maintain unstained the fair fame of our name. The heads of families should urge sons and daughters to study this fair past, to revere it, to add new glory.

The difficulties of the genealogist are numerous and sometimes insuperable. The writer began his researches by visiting the oldest living Boyers and by a country-wide correspondence. The labor and expense of such an undertaking was often a serious matter. To make things worse, it was often quite impossible to secure replies from those who did not understand the purposes and values of the undertaking. As a result, many records will be found quite incomplete, much to the chagrin of the writer, and probably to the sorrow of many worthy people. Among the valuable sources of information in the identification of Boyers with their particular ancestral tree, are Church Records, Bibles, Wills, Deeds, Tax Lists, Tombstone Inscriptions, County Histories, Ship Lists, etc., many of which the writer has examined personally. In other cases he secured such records through correspondents who often went to much trouble to secure data. The writer is greatly indebted to more than fifty enthusiastic co-workers, and credit is given them in the chapters to which they have so nobly contributed. Probably the records could never have been completed as far as we have them had it not been for yearly reunions since 1904. At the first of these reunions, held at New Jerusalem, by the descendants of George Philip Bayer, the historian was formally elected, and the later reunions organized. The first president of the association was Charles B. Boyer, of Tatamy, Pa. His venerable father, Abraham Boyer, of Schofer's, Pa., was the first treasurer, and his son-in-law, Mr. J. L. Drumheller, of Reading, Pa., became the first, and thus far the only secretary. This secretary deserves very great credit. He wrote our constitution and by-laws almost bodily. To him also we owe our incorporation by charter. He secures most of the talent for our reunion programs, collects yearly dues, sends us notices, etc. His services have been an inspiration to all. To cap the climax, it must be said that the Boyer book could not have been published had not the Board of Directors bravely assumed the expense of publication, believing of course that the association would ratify the decision and support the undertaking in every way.

The historian is grateful to the multitude of correspondents and friends through whose co-operation the records have been completed, and trusts that the book may serve its purposes. The chapters have been arranged somewhat in the order of the arrival of immigrant ancestors. Many of the shorter chapters undoubtedly belong to the larger but incomplete chapters. Where the ancestral family-tree could not be found, the reports of correspondents had to be recorded as completely as possible.

The reader will probably find the Introduction, the Revolutionary Roster, and the Ship List very useful. The book closes with a brief address to the Living Boyers, explaining how each one of them may find himself and relatives through the chapter numbers near the close of the announcement postal cards of 1916. The writer regrets the necessity of dealing so briefly with individuals, and of confining the records largely to the masculine descendants.

It is hoped that the living Boyers of each ancestral line may agree upon some one as historian, and that reunion organizations may be fostered wherever possible. The writer of this volume trusts that births, marriages, deaths, change of address, etc., may be reported to him or the general secretary. We hope to continue our researches as long as necessary.

With the additional notification that a copy of this volume will be placed in the State Libraries at Harrisburg, Pa., Columbus, Ohio, Springfield, Ill., Richmond, Va., Jefferson City, Mo., the Library of the Historical Society of Pennsylvania, at Philadelphia, and the National Library, at Washington, D. C., we offer the book to its readers.

INTRODUCTION

In the year 58 B. C., Julius Caesar conquered the Helvetians and their allies, among whom were the Celtic Boii of Cisalpine Gaul. These Boii (See Section 28, Book I, Caesar's Commentaries) had won the admiration of the great conqueror, and he allowed them to settle in the land of the Aedui, other allies of the Helvetians. "They later migrated to Bohemia, to which and to Bavaria they gave their name" (See page 166, Vol. IX, The Century Dictionary and Cyclopedia). "The Bavarians take their name from the Boii, a Celtic tribe who inhabited the districts which, when conquered by the Romans, became the Roman provinces of Vindelicia and Noricum. After the fall of the Western Empire this territory was overrun by various Germanic tribes who formed themselves into a confederation like that of the Franks and Marcomanni and called themselves Boiarii. The confederacy of the Boiarii was made tributary first to the Ostrogoths and then to the Franks. Finally the sovereignty over them was assumed by Charlemagne, and on the death of that monarch the kings of the Franks and Germans governed it by their lieutenants, who bore the title of margrave, afterward converted into that of a duke, and latterly (1623) into that of elector." (See "Bavaria," Vol. II, The Americana).

The descendants of these Boiares have become intimately identified with the land and history of Germany, France, England, etc. In Austria the name is spelled Boiar; in Germany it is Bayer, Baier, Beyer, Beier, Byer, etc.; in France it is most often Boyer; in England Bowyer. It is interesting to know that Normandy furnished William the Conqueror a number of Boyer soldiers for the battle of Hastings (1066). and that those who thus became a part of England became distinguished enough to furnish a dozen or more coats of arms. Religious persecution beginning in the 16th Century under the Bourbons and ending in wholesale emigration caused many French Huguenots to flee to Holland, Switzerland, England, etc. Thus it came about that some Boyers were in the army of William of Orange in the battle of the Boyne (1690) in Ireland. Those who settled in Ireland—and perhaps Scotland—spell the name with an "s," namely Boyers, and are generally Presbyterian. The Boyers have a large place in the history of France. "Several branches belong to the nobility. Many have been distinguished as ministers, soldiers, [physicians, statesmen, etc.] A notable example was the late Cardinal Jean Pierre Boyer (1829-1896), Archbishop of Bourges. Prince Lucien Bonaparte, a brother of the great Napoleon, incurred the latter's displeasure by marrying a beautiful girl named Boyer. Many of this name were Huguenots." (See Stapleton's Memorials of the Huguenots in America, page 54). The Boyer historian has examined many city directories in Germany, France, England, and other European countries, and finds many Boyers in all the important walks of life.

The Boyers began to come to America as early as 1648. In that year Alexander Boyer, a Huguenot, was Deputy Commissary of the Colony. He was a man of great prominence (See Stapleton's Memorials). For half a century very few came. The Revocation of the Edict of Nantes (1685) by Louis XIV, it is estimated, caused 500,000 Huguenots to leave France, many of them coming through Holland and England to different parts of America. Some of them settled at Rio de Janeiro, Brazil; some at Port Royal, Nova Scotia; some at Charleston, S. C.; some in Virginia, where indeed we find a few English Bowyers soon after John Smith's arrival; some in Boston, Mass.; some in Rhode Island, and elsewhere; and many in Pennsylvania. Those who came to Pennsylvania were mostly from Palatinate Bavaria, on the river Rhine. (See Vol. 17, Second Series, Pennsylvania Archives, for ship lists, and Dr. Stapleton's Memorials, for naturalized Boyers in the different counties of Pennsylvania.) These Pennsylvania Boyers, as we learn from Rupp's Histories, were closely related. They have identified themselves with every state in the Union. Large numbers live in Canada.

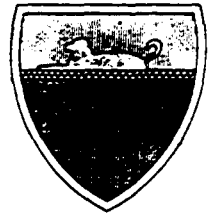

The Palatinates who settled in America spoke German very like the Germans of Nuremberg, Bavaria, today, but with large admixtures of the Dutch language of Holland. This unique form of speech has become known as "Pennsylvania Dutch" probably because it was in Pennsylvania that so large a majority of these Palatinates settled. The fact that the Pennsylvania Boyers soon very generally gave up the Germanic spelling of their name for the French spelling shows the feeling with which, in spite of the religious and political evils which had exiled them to America, they still felt the French blood in their veins.

The influence of the German Reformation on the Palatinates is seen in the fact that nearly all of the Pennsylvania Boyers were Lutherans. Some of them were Mennonites, Baptists, etc. The Huguenot immigrants generally allied themselves with the Reformed Church; the English Bowyers of the Southern States, with the Church of England and the Methodists, while those who settled in Canada and the far West or the far South commonly held to the Catholic Church.

The number of Boyers who served the cause of American independence from England is astonishing, as the Pennsylvania Archives and Colonial records show. The roster of Revolutionary soldiers will be found in the present volume, pages 14-19.

ARMS OF THE BOYERS D'EGUILLIS

ARMS OF LEIPSIC BOYERS

Among the interesting facts of the Boyer history is the use of "coats of arms," of which there are more than a dozen, some of them French, others English, and still others German. A full study of these arms would involve us deeply in "Heraldry," for which this volume is hardly meant. But we must try to set forth in the very briefest way the general significance of at least three coats of arms. (1) The crest adopted by the Association of American Boyers early in the development of their Reunions is a French type. The upper third of the shield is silver white, signifying light, brightness, joy. The rest of the shield is sky-blue, the complement of white, signifying hope, courage, fidelity. The repetition of these qualities in the smaller shield imbedded in a star is very emphatic. The star evidently signifies the strong desire to live in light, night as well as day. The French lily, "Fleur de lis," within the star-imbedded shield, evidently shows the intimate connection of the Boyers d'Eguilles with the throne. The whole scheme is one of dignity and recognized loyalty. (2) The German crest belongs to the family of Frederick Bayer (Chapter 45) who settled in York County, Pennsylvania, having come from the neighborhood of Leipsic, Germany. It is a large watch-dog at rest in a big heart. The meaning is very evident. This family had served some lord or king so faithfully in his fortress or palace that the lord or king trusted the man or family absolutely—with a big heart. A book on German Heraldry probably contains the record and explanation of this particular crest. (3) An English coat of arms, a reprint of which Attorney Otis Bowyer, (Chapter 1) of Baird, Texas, sent the writer—one of a dozen or more on record—consists of a drawn bow and a startled stag. The French Boyers who came into England with the Norman conquest were evidently archers of reputation, who had done noteworthy service and who had thus been permitted to record their honor.

The description of the crest adopted by the Association of American Boyers and belonging to the Boyer d'Eguilles of France is found on page 317, Plate 45, of "The Nouveau Traite Historique et Archologigue de la Vraie et Parfaite Science des Armories," published 1856. This volume is to be found in the State Library at Harrisburg, Pa., and in the Historical Society of Pennsylvania, whose building is located on Spruce Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

THE IMMIGRANT BOYERS

We learn from the Archives, as recorded in the chapter on the Bowyers of the South that there were at least several Bowyers or Boyers in the colonies soon after the settlement had been made. This was true especially of Virginia and Delaware and Pennsylvania and New York State. It is rather disappointing to find that masters of ships bringing immigrants did not always report passengers by name, or that such reports have been lost. Records not lost have been pretty fully reported in Volume 17, Second Series, Pennsylvania Archives, and this volume is to be found in almost any Public Library or State Library. The historian has not been able to follow all these immigrants, but he has fully recorded the descendants of other immigrants not found in these ship-lists. The following data may be of interest to our readers. They are nearly all from Palatinate Germany.

1. Jacob Beyer, settler in Lancaster County, Pa., came 1712.

2. Johann Heinrich Beyer, settler in Tulpehocken Twp., Berks Co., Pa., came 1728, from the Schoharie colony of New York State.

3. Jacob Bayer, arrived at Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 11, 1728, on the ship James Goodwill.

4. Christopher Bayer, with his sons Andrew and Henry, together with his nephew George, and a relative, John Philip Beyer, and their wives, arrived at Philadelphia, Sept. 11, 1731, on the ship Pennsylvania Merchant. They settled in Frederick Twp., Montg. Co., Pa.

5. John Jacob Bayer age 33, John Adam Beyer, aged 30, Joseph Beyer, aged 19, and four children, arrived at Philadelphia, Sept. 21, 1731, from London, England, on the ship Brittania. Evidently Palatinates.

6. Valentine Bayer and wife Anna, together with John Christopher Bayer and wife Anna, arrived at Philadelphia, Sept. 19, 1732, on the ship Johnson. John Christopher settled in Exeter Twp., Berks Co., Pa.

7. John Adam Beyer arrived at Philadelphia, Sept. 18, 1733, on the ship Brigantine Pennsylvania Merchant.

8. Hans Melchior Beyer, 21 years of age, arrived at Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 1, 1736, on the ship Harle. On the same ship came Dewalt Beyer.

9. Wilhelm Beyer, together with Peter Bier, aged 21, and Albert Biers, aged 28, arrived Sept. 30, 1737, on the ship Samuel.

10. John George Beyer arrived Oct. 31, 1737, on the ship William.

11. Andreas Beyer, aged 57, together with John Philip, aged 29, John Jacob, aged 22, Philip, aged 20, and Martin, aged 18, arrived at Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 5, 1738, on the ship Winter Galley. They settled in Berks and Carbon Counties.

12. Jacob Beyer arrived at Philadelphia, Pa., Oct. 27, 1738, on the ship St. Andrew.

13. John Beyer, 19 years old, arrived at Philadelphia, Pa., Aug. 27, 1739, on the ship Samuel.

14. Nicholas Beyer arrived at Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 27, 1740, on the ship Lydia.

15. Jacob Beyer arrived at Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 26, 1741, on the ship St. Mark.

16. John Nicholas Beyer arrived at Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 23, 1741, on the ship Marlborough.

17. Leonard Beyer, aged 27, arrived at Philadelphia, Pa., October 17, 1741, on the ship Molly.

18. Jacob Beyer and Philip Beyer arrived at Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 2, 1743, on the ship Loyal Judith.

19. Philip Bayer arrived at Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 30, 1741, on the ship Phoenix.

20. Andrew Beyer arrived at Philadelphia, Pa., with George Beyer, Oct. 9, 1747, on the ship Restauration.

21. Peter Beier and Peter Beier, Jr., arrived at Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 15, 1748, on the ship Two Brothers.

22. Carlos Boyer, aged 18, arrived at Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 16, 1748, on the ship Patience.

23. Johann Philip Beyer arrived at Philadelphia, Pa., from Erbach, Wurtemberg, Germany, Sept. 2, 1749, on the ship Albany.

24. Hans Michael Beyer and Johan Adam Bayer arrived at Philadelphia, Pa., Aug. 13, 1750, on the ship Bennett Galley.

25. Johannes Beyer and Johannes Beyer, Jr., arrived at Philadelphia, Pa., Aug. 13, 1750, on the ship Edinburgh.

26. George Friederick Bayer arrived at Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 3, 1750, on the ship Brotherhood.

27. Johann Conrad Beyer arrived at Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 5, 1751, on the ship Shirley.

28. Baltes Beyer and Joh Georg Friederich Bayer arrived at Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 25, 1752, on the ship Phoenix.

29. Johann Jacob Beyer arrived at Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 15, 1752, on the ship Two Brothers.

30. John Georg Friederich Bayer arrived at Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 27, 1752, on the ship Nancy.

31. Joseph Beyer arrived at Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 8, 1752, on the ship Louisa.

32. Jacob Beyer arrived at Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 24, 1754, on the ship Neptune.

33. Leonhart Beyer arrived at Philadelphia, Oct. 5, 1767, on the ship Sally.

34. Jacob Beier arrived at Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 17, 1771, on the ship Minerva.

35. Caspar Beyer arrived at Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 19, 1771, on the ship Tiger.

36. Friederich Beyer arrived at Philadelphia, Pa., Oct. 16, 1772, on the ship Crawford.

37. Nicholas Bayer and Friederich Bayer arrived at Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 30, 1774, on the ship Union.

38. John Nicolaus Beyer arrived at Philadelphia, April 17, 1804, on the ship Indostan.

REVOLUTIONARY ROSTER

A very large number of Boyers served the cause of American Independence as soldiers in the Revolutionary War. The volumes of the Fifth Series and of the Sixth Series, Pennsylvania Archives, record most enlistments from Pennsylvania. In most cases enough details are recorded in connection with such enlistments to make identifications possible. Among these details are the county—and sometimes the township—from which the soldier enlisted, the years of service, the company, regiment, rank, etc. These Archives are indexed, so that any one interested in the matter can readily find the pages referring to somebody in question. These Archives are to be found in the public libraries of such larger cities as Reading, Harrisburg, Philadelphia, etc. The historian has gone through the details of the Archives, and has identified many soldiers, as will be found in the various chapters. The living Boyers will thus be able to know whether or not they are entitled to join such associations as the Daughters and Sons of American Revolution.

ROSTER OF SOLDIERS OF 1812

The Boyers who served in the War of 1812-1814 against England, and in 1845 against Mexico, have also been recorded in the Pennsylvania Archives and the Archives of other states. A big volume might be written on the Boyers who were soldiers in the Civil War, some on the side of the North, others on the side of the South.

The following record includes only those soldiers that were sufficiently described for purposes of identification:

Abraham Boyer	Rockland Twp., Berks Co., Pa.	Pages 1311, 1314, Vol. 9
Andrew Byers		36, 136, Vol. 8
Christian Boyers	York County	1411, Vol. 9

CHAPTER I

MICHAEL BOWYER

The Records of Augusta County, Virginia, show, as Judge Otis Bowyer, of Baird, Texas, reports, that "John Bowyer was appointed guardian in 1761 of Luke Bowyer, orphan of Michael Bowyer." This record, by showing that Michael Bowyer died about 1761, shows also that he may have been born about 1700; especially when we remember the tradition that he left 12 children. At this writing we can not tell how he came to Augusta County, Virginia, nor do we know to whom he was married. Lucien Crockett, grandson of Colonel Henry Bowyer, wrote Judge Otis Bowyer years ago that "the family was certainly French; fled to England, where they remained several centuries, and the name became anglicized; and they then came to Virginia." They may be the Bowyers who came in connection with the John Smith settlement of Jamestown. The immediate descendants of Michael Bowyer were Episcopalians. It is almost certain that "John Bowyer appointed guardian of Luke Bowyer orphan of Michael Bowyer," was a brother of Michael, though he may have been Luke's brother, General John Bowyer, for Michael's son Michael was born in 1730, and his son John may have been a little older or a little younger.

The State Library at Harrisburg contains two books that seem to throw light on the subject. In the first one, "Lists of Emigrants to America (1600-1700)," it is recorded on page 121 that Daniell Bowyer, 30 years old, came on the ship "George," Aug. 21, 1635, and joined the Virginia settlement. On page 119, it is recorded that Thomas Bowyer, 19 years old, came the same year on the ship "Globe," and joined the Virginia settlement. In the other book, "Early Virginia Emigrants (1623-1666)," it is recorded (page 40-41) that Andrew Boyer came in 1635, William Boyer in 1636, Stephen Boyer in 1652, and Henry Bowyer in 1653. All these immigrants may be relatives—it is wholly likely that they were—even if the names are not all spelled with the "w." It seems very probable that those who came in 1635 were related, and that Henry Bowyer, who came in 1653, was of the same stock as Daniel and Thomas. The historian is inclined to believe that the Thomas of 1635, or the Henry of 1653, is the ancestor of the people recorded in the present chapter.

Whether the Bowyers of America, for whom the historian can not account in other chapters, belong to this Virginia settlement, or not, may be difficult to ascertain.

Who the twelve children of Michael Bowyer, father of the orphaned Luke, were has not been completely found, nor whether they all grew up, but the following sons are certain, namely, Michael, Thomas, William, and John. Two others, namely, James and Stephen, seem fairly certain.

B (1) Captain Michael Bowyer, son of Michael Bowyer and wife, was born in 1730, perhaps in Augusta County, Virginia, and died in 1809, at White Sulphur Springs, West Virginia. A small man, dark complexion. Episcopalian and a vestryman. Very fine character. Practised law at Staunton, Virginia. Soldier of the 12th Virginia, under Colonel Wood (See Heitman's Register). Served on the Committee that reported the famous memorial of the freeholders of Augusta County, Virginia, February 1775, and was a member of the House of Delegates under the New Constitution. In 1784 he purchased from Mrs. Kate Carpenter, widow of Nicholas Carpenter, a vast property in Greenbrier County, Virginia. He developed the "White Sulphur Springs," where he died 1809. See complete report "The Greenbrier Independent," August 2, 1883, Lewisburg, West Virginia. He married Frances Carpenter, daughter of Nicholas and Kate Carpenter. The children were John, James, William, Thomas, Mary, Frances, Elizabeth, Henry, Lewis, Augustus Alfred, and Alfred Augustus.

B (2) Major Thomas Bowyer, son of Michael Bowyer and wife, died a bachelor in 1785. Soldier of the Revolution. Officer of the Continental Line. (See Heitman's Register). Member of the Cincinnati Society of Virginia, and a wealthy man.

B (3) ——— Bowyer, son of Michael Bowyer and wife,
Married
Children: Colonel Henry Bowyer, a gallant officer of the Revolution—Second Lieutenant November 1777—and a member of the Cincinnati Society of Virginia. Married Miss Madison, niece of President Madison, and the family is connected with many of the old Virginia families. The Colonel died June 13, 1832. For partial reference, See Heitman's Historical Register (1775 to 1783).

B (4) Colonel William Bowyer, son of Michael Bowyer and wife, lived at Staunton, Augusta County, Virginia. Lieutenant Colonel of Augusta Militia in active service. High Sheriff of Augusta County after the war. Married a daughter of Israel Christian, and, after her death, a daughter of Thomas Lewis.

B (5) General John Bowyer, son of Michael Bowyer and wife, was born about 1720 and died at Thorn Hill, near Lexington, Va., in 1805. He was one of the founders of Washington and Lee University at Lexington, Virginia. Member of House of Burgesses from Botetourt, member of all the Conventions leading up to the Revolution, County Lieutenant and High Sheriff of Rockbridge Co., Va., Justice of Peace of Rockbridge and Botetourt. In active service as Colonel of Rockbridge Militia. Presidential elector in 1800. He married Mary Becker, and after her death, a daughter of Thomas Lewis. He willed his large estate to his nephew John Bowyer, son of his brother Captain Michael Bowyer. From this fact the historian infers that there were probably no children of his own.

B (6) James Bowyer, probably a son of Michael Bowyer and wife, lived in Montgomery County, Virginia. Married Frances Steadman. Children: Colonel Thomas Bowyer, of Montgomery County, Virginia, and Colonel John Bowyer, for whom Fort Bowyer was named in Mobile Bay. It is now called Fort Moraan. Colonel John was a gallant officer. There may have been other children.

B (7) Stephen Bowyer, probably a son of Michael Bowyer and wife, moved to Ohio in 1802, and settled near Dayton. Married Mary Jacobs before he moved to Ohio. Children: Descendants in the neighborhood of Dayton. Grandson General Eli Bowyer, of Olney, Illinois. Dr. W. C. Bowyer, Lebanon, Ohio, may help inquirers.

B (8) Attorney Luke Bowyer, son of Michael Bowyer and wife, was a partner of Patrick Henry in Law Firm. Married Patrick Henry's sister.

C (1) Attorney John Bowyer, son of Michael Bowyer and Frances Carpenter, was born at Staunton, Augusta Co., Va., in 1767, and died Oct. 23, 1853, in his 84th year. Educated at Washington College (later called Washington and Lee University), and at William and Mary College. Lawyer and public man. Member of Virginia Legislature for 30 years. Many times Presidential Elector. A man of absolute honor. His photograph shows him to have been dark eyed, black haired, and a prepossessing man. He married Elizabeth Hubard, daughter of James Hubard, of Williamsburg, Virginia. She was born in 1779, and died Dec. 1, 1857. The children were Henry Morton, Frances Hubard, Mary Calwell, John Colston, Louisa Merriwether, James Hubard, William S. Kelton, Michael Marmaduke, Charlotte, and Elizabeth H. The last one was born 1805.

C (2) James Bowyer, son of Michael Bowyer and wife Frances Carpenter, has not been traced by the historian's correspondents.

C (3) William Bowyer, son of Michael Bowyer and Frances Carpenter, was born June 31, 1803. "The best known private citizen in America" at the time of his death on April 29, 1880. He was the practical business man of the "White Sulphur Springs." Married Columbia Gwathey, and after her death, Ella F. Temple. There were two sons and one daughter, but these left no heirs, so far as the historian can ascertain.

C (4) Thomas Bowyer, son of Michael Bowyer and Frances Carpenter, has not been traced.

C (5) Doctor Henry Bowyer, son of Michael Bowyer and Frances Carpenter, was a graduate of Baltimore Medical College. Surgeon. Member of Staff of General Winfield Scott. Married Mary J. Churchman, of Baltimore, Md. Children: Dr. William P. Bowyer, Reverend Henry C. Bowyer, and Virginia Bowyer (wife of Colonel Breckenridge of Rockbridge Co., Va.)

C (6) Lewis Merriwether Bowyer, son of Michael Bowyer and Frances Carpenter, died a bachelor about 73 years old. Willed his estates to his nephew Michael Bowyer.

C (7) Mary Bowyer, daughter of Michael Bowyer and Frances Carpenter, married James Calwell. Children: (a) Virginia. She married Major Powell, and died at Washington, D. C. (b) Frances. She married Bowyer Miller, lawyer at Fincastle, Va. (c) Henry B. Calwell. Physician. Born 1802, died June 18, 1867. (d) Bedford Calwell. Address (1883) Sulphur Springs, W. Va. (e) James Calwell. Captain under Zachary Taylor in Mexican War. Killed at Vera Cruz, Feb. 23, 1847. (f) John Calwell. Lawyer and poet. Died a bachelor April 1875. (g) Edward Sullivan Calwell. Bachelor. (h) William B. Calwell. President of Sulphur Springs Company.

C (8) Frances Bowyer, daughter of Michael Bowyer and Frances Carpenter, married William Bedford.

C (9) Elizabeth Bowyer, daughter of Michael Bowyer and Frances Carpenter, married Major John Copeland.

C (10)-(11) Alfred August Bowyer and Augustus Alfred Bowyer, twin sons of Michael Bowyer and Frances Carpenter, both died single at 26 and 27 years of age respectively.

D (1) Henry Morton Bowyer, son of John Bowyer and Elizabeth Hubard, was born about 1801, and died at Greenfield, Botetourt Co., Virginia, in 1893, about 92 years old. Married Children: (a) William Bowyer. Address (1909) Greenfield, Botetourt Co., Va. Perhaps others.

D (2) Elizabeth Bowyer, daughter of John Bowyer and Elizabeth Hubard, married and left children.

D (3) Mary Calwell Bowyer, daughter of John Bowyer and Elizabeth Hubard, died at Lexington, Va., in 1887. Married Judge J. W.

Brockenbrough. Children: (a) Mrs. Thomas M. Lemmes. Address (1909) Lexington, Va. Perhaps others.

D (4) John Colston Bowyer, son of John Bowyer and Elizabeth Hubard, died at Washington, D. C., in 1880. Address granddaughter (1909) Mrs. Albert Gleaves, Care of Commander Gleaves, Washington, D. C.

D (5) Louisa Merriwether Bowyer, daughter of John Bowyer and Elizabeth Hubard, married Gardner, then Brown, and afterwards General R. E. Colston. Children: Horace Brown. Address (1909) Winchester, Va.

D (6) James Hubard Bowyer, son of John Bowyer and Elizabeth Hubard, was born at Thorn Hill, near Lexington, Va., and died at Abilene, Texas. Educated at Washington College and the University of Virginia. Episcopalian. Married Aurelia McDonald, of Washington, D. C., daughter of first chief clerk of the U. S. Senate. Children: Attorney Otis Bowyer, William McDonald, Attorney John, Elizabeth St. Clair, Ann Eugenie, and Frances Louisa.

D (7) William S. Kelton Bowyer, son of John Bowyer and Elizabeth Hubard, died single.

D (8) Michael Marmaduke Bowyer, son of John Bowyer and Elizabeth Hubard, died single.

D (9) Charlotte Bowyer, daughter of John Bowyer and Elizabeth Hubard, has not been traced.

D (10) Frances Bowyer, daughter of John Bowyer and Elizabeth Hubard, was born at Staunton, Va., in 1805, and died Nov. 1899, at Lexington, Va., where she is buried by the side of her husband. Married George Benskin Poindexter. "She was a woman of rare attractions, and greatly admired by all who knew her." Presbyterian. She married Mr. Lewis, second husband. Children: (a) William Bowyer Poindexter, Son Lieutenant F. L. Poindexter. Address (1909) Highland Park, Ill. (b) George B. Poindexter. (c) Fielding H. Bowyer Lewis.

E (1) Attorney Otis Bowyer, son of James Hubard Bowyer and Aurelia McDonald, was born Oct. 18, 1852. Address (1914) Baird, Texas. University education. Lawyer and Judge of his County. A brilliant and valuable man. Fine genealogist. Helped to record his people. Married Eliza Amelia Bell, daughter of Judge John W. Bell. Children: Maria Champe, James Hubard, Mary Appleton, Evelyn Byrd, Amelia Bell, Otis.

E (2) William McDonald Bowyer, son of James Hubard Bowyer, and Aurelia McDonald. Address (1909) Anson, Jones Co., Texas.

E (3) Attorney John Bowyer, son of James Hubard Bowyer and Aurelia McDonald. Address (1909) Abilene, Texas.

E (4) Elizabeth St. Clair Bowyer, daughter of James Hubard Bowyer and Aurelia McDonald, married Thomas Rhett, but has died.

E (5) Ann Eugenie Bowyer, daughter of James Hubard Bowyer and Aurelia McDonald, married Farley S. Bell. Address (1909) Baird, Texas.

E (6) Frances Louisa Bowyer, daughter of James Hubard Bowyer and Aurelia McDonald, married William Taylor. Address (1909) Merkel, Taylor Co., Texas.

CHAPTER II

ALEXANDER BOYER

A Swedish colony settled on the Delaware before William Penn's arrival. Alexander Boyer, doubtless a French Huguenot, became a part of this settlement, and was Deputy Commissioner of the colony prior to 1650. He was a man of great prominence. Dr. Stapleton says he had a large family, and that doubtless the Boyers who appeared on the Philadelphia and other Delaware Valley records prior to the German influx were descendants. From this old Delaware stock came Reverend Caleb Boyer. The Colonial records should show what became of some of Alexander Boyer's family, but they are silent on this subject.

B (1) Reverend Caleb Boyer, probably a great grandson of Alexander Boyer, was born about 1750-1760, below Dover, Delaware, and died between 1820-1830. He is buried at Wesley Chapel, Dover, Delaware. One of the first Methodist preachers of Delaware (1779), and of commanding influence in the founding of that denomination. Traveled a circuit in Delaware, Maryland, and New Jersey, with a companion preacher named Ignatius Pigman. He began about 1779 as an itinerant, but in 1788 he became the pastor at Dover, and preached here for a period of 25 years. The historian has not found to whom he was married. Rev. James W. Boyer, his grandson and the historian's correspondent, believes that there was only one child, namely, Francis Asbury Boyer.

C (1) Doctor Francis Asbury Boyer, son of Reverend Caleb Boyer and his wife, was born about 1770, and died 1822. Physician at Snow Hill, Maryland, for many years. Married a Miss Phipps. Only one of his children grew to manhood, namely, James William Duer Boyer, who believed himself to be the only surviving member of his father's immediate line.

D (1) James William Duer Boyer, son of Doctor Francis Asbury Boyer and his wife Phipps, was born 1822, at Snow Hill, Maryland, where he finally died and is buried, May 25, 1888. Merchant in Missouri, and later in California. Married Caroline M. Phipps, of Petersburg. Va., born 1833. In 1910 her address was 4 W. 47th St., New York. Only one child grew up, namely, Reverend James W. Boyer.

E (1) Reverend James W. Boyer, son of James William Duer Boyer, was born Jan. 13, 1857, at Sioux City, Iowa. Presbyterian minister. Address (1910) Johnstown, Ohio. Had a brother and sister. The former died without ch dren, and the sister is single. He married Maggie A. Weir, born Jan. 9, 1863. Children: Esther W., born April 25, 1889, and Ellen F., born Feb. 23, 1891. Both are graduates of Wooster University, Wooster, Ohio.

C (1) Reverend Charles William Boyer, probably a son of Reverend Caleb Boyer's brother. The historian's correspondents report that Reverend Charles William Boyer was the son of a slaveholder, probably of English descent, but the frequent occurrence of the name "Charles William in this family and that of "James William" of this chapter, together with the fact that both families were Methodists in adjacent districts, leads us to believe that this family is also of the Alexander Boyer "tree." He was born perhaps 1780-1790, as we judge from the birth date of his son Charles William (1810), and died suddenly of the shock caused by the death of his son. Methodist minister. Married twice, but the historian has not found to whom. Children: Archibald and John (sons of first wife), Edward, Sarah E., Elizabeth, and Charles William.

B (1) Archibald Boyer, son of Reverend Charles William Boyer, and his first wife.

B (2) John Boyer, son of Charles William Boyer and his first wife.

B (3) Edward Boyer, son of Charles William Boyer and his second wife, lived in Philadelphia, Pa., and was still there in the time of the Civil War. Married Children: Fannie Boyer (Mrs. Suttles), and others.

B (4) Sarah Boyer, daughter of Charles William Boyer and his second wife.

B (5) Elizabeth Boyer, daughter of Charles William Boyer and his second wife.

B (6) Charles William Boyer, son of Charles William Boyer and his second wife, was born April 25, 1810, at Baltimore, Maryland, and died suddenly at Geneva, Alabama, of heart failure, Dec. 1861. Buried at Geneva. Farmer and merchant. Black hair and eyes, closely built, and weighing about 180 pounds. Methodist. Came South during Mexican War, perhaps for his health. Married Fannie Farrell, and after her death Catherine Gillis, born July 20, 1823. Children: John Farrel, Sarah E., Julia Christian, Margaret Frances, Mary Louisa, Fannie L., Laura, Charles William, and Catharine.

C (1) John Farrel Boyer, son of Charles William Boyer and Fannie

Farrel, was born Aug. 6, 1846, at Clintonville, Ala., and died July 1906. He is buried at Opp, Alabama. A gifted man. Farmer. Book-keeper. Married Miss Godwin. No children.

C (2) Sarah E. Boyer, daughter of Charles William Boyer and Fannie Farrel, was born July 15, 1848, Clintonville, Ala., and died April 17, 1894. Married Julian P. Hutchison, Aug. 1864. Born March 6, 1843. Methodists. Farmers. Confederate soldier. Died May 1906. Left three sons and three daughters.

C (3) Julia C. Boyer, daughter of Charles William Boyer and Fannie Farrel, was born June 1850, at Geneva, Ala. Methodist, Teacher. Married (1865) Snowden Howell. Left a son, but he died young. All buried at Brenton, Ala.

C (4) Margaret F. Boyer.

C (5) Mary L. Boyer, daughter of Charles William Boyer and Fannie Farrel, was born Nov. 8, 1855. Married Lawrence Enzone. Address (1913) Millville, Florida. Two sons and three daughters.

C (6) Fannie L. Boyer, daughter of Charles William Boyer and Fannie Farrel, was born Aug. 1858, or 59, at Geneva, Ala. Methodist. Married Jack Conner. Both dead at Brenton, Ala.

C (7 and 9) Laura and Catharine Boyer.

C (8) Charles William Boyer, son of Charles William Boyer and wife Catharine, was born April 6, 1862. Methodist. Farmer and carpenter. Address (1913) Williston, Florida. Married Charlotte G. Clancy. Children: (a) Alton, (b) Charles, (c) Melville, and (d) Douglass.

CHAPTER III

JOHN PHILIP BEYER

John Philip Beyer came from Grunstadt, Palatinate Germany, if we may trust the tradition of his descendants. With him and other relatives, as we know from the ship list, Vol. 17, Second Series, Pennsylvania Archives, came his wife and children, on the ship "Philadelphia Merchant." They arrived at Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 11, 1731, and settled first in Frederick Township, Montgomery Co., Pa., with Christopher Bayer and his family, but soon moved into Oley Township, and finally into Amity Township, Berks Co., Pa. He was a member of the "Falckner Swamp" Lutheran Church, where five of his children were confirmed Sunday after Easter, 1746, by the Patriarch Henry M. Muhlenberg, who had arrived in America about 1742. Muhlenberg, in whose coming John Philip Beyer greatly rejoiced, admired him very much, as we gather from the "Hallischen Nachrichten," Vol. II, Page 147, where Beyer's final illness, decease, and burial are reported, together with an illuminating reference to the fact that John Philip, in the infirmities due to age, had been influenced, though not absorbed, by the sect known as "New Borns." It was John Philip's request that Muhlenberg should conduct the funeral services, and that he be buried in his private graveyard, on his Oley farm, which graveyard must have existed as early as 1746, when Beyer's friend—probably relative—Jacob Beck, was interred there Feb. 5, 1746. This graveyard, where his wife was probably also buried, has unhappily been lost to his descendants. He died May 7, 1753, as the church records show. Shortly before this, on April 21, he made a very interesting "will," recorded in full in Will Book K, page 79, Philadelphia Court House. The "will" makes detailed provisions for his beloved wife Elizabeth, and the following children: John Henry, Michael, Benedict (who is called the youngest son), Elizabeth, and Barbara (married to Conrad Specht, the ancestor of Dr. A. Stapleton, author of "Memorial to Huguenots"). The ship list seems to imply that he had a son by the name of Jacob, which inference tallies with a tradition of Louis W. Boyer, a descendant, that there were four brothers—all serving the cause of the American Revolution. Two daughters, Catharine and Juliana, confirmed in 1746, are not mentioned in the "will," probably because they had died single. And yet we can not be quite sure that John Philip names all his children then living, for Muhlenberg speaks of "a numerous family." This phrase may however mean "descendants," of which there were a large number in 1753.

B (1) John Henry Beyer, son of John Philip Beyer and wife Elizabeth, was born in 1714, in Palatinate Germany, and died at Amityville, Pa., on the old homestead, May 2, 1814, as recorded on his tombstone near the entrance to the Amityville Church—to the right. In 1743 he was married, probably by Muhlenberg, to Magdalene Kircher. He lived on a fine farm, known to his twentieth century posterity, as the "Holloway" farm, in the vicinity of the church. That he was actively engaged in the Revolutionary War can not be verified from records at the historian's command, and seems hardly possible, for he was 61 years old when the war began, and yet tradition connects him with the war. If he made a "will" it was not recorded, nor has the historian found "administration" records if there were such in the absence of a will. So far as the church records, or old Bibles show, he left the following children: Samuel, John Philip, Valentine, Adam, Henry, Charles B., and two girls. The girls may have been older than the boys.

B (2) Michael Beyer, son of John Philip Beyer and wife Elizabeth, was born Jan. 8, 1726, Palatinate Germany, and died Feb. 18, 1777, as the "Falckner Swamp" burial records show. He was confirmed Sunday after Easter, 1746, as already stated, and married Margaret Elizabeth Wartman, April 10, 1749, as the records show. His early death may be taken as proof of the tradition that the four brothers were soldiers. His father had willed him a farm in Nantmeal Township, Chester County, Pa. Whether he moved there is not known, but at any rate he kept up his membership in the Falckner Swamp Church, where the birth of his children is fully recorded, namely, Elizabeth, John Philip, Hannah, Catharine, Sarah, Susannah, and Michal Magdalene.

It is likely that John Philip, the son, enlisted from Chester County as a Revolutionary soldier, but the historian can not find any descendants.

B (3) Jacob Boyer, probably the son of John Philip Beyer and wife Elizabeth, was born about 1725, Palatinate Germany, as we judge from the birth of his first child, Elizabeth. He may have been older. The "Pennsylvania Magazine of History and Biography," No. 3, Vol. 18, page 372, published October, 1894, records that he married Barbara Dubbs, daughter of Jacob Dubbs, the grandfather of Rev. Dr. J. S. Dubbs, Allentown, Pa. According to this record—which agrees with the tradition of Louis W. Boyer, who calls him a relative of his ancestor Charles B. Boyer—Jacob Boyer went to Tennessee, and left many descendants. His son, John Henry Beyer, was born March 3, 1753, as recorded in the "Falckner Swamp" Church, showing that he was living in that neighborhood before he moved to Tennessee. The historian can not trace his descendants at this writing.

Perhaps, however, Jacob Boyer was not a son of John Philip Beyer at all—and this would seem likely, for no Jacob is mentioned in his "will." In that case he may be the immigrant of 1731, and a relative. This would account for his settling with the Falckner Swamp Boyers. It would be very interesting to find a Tennessee descendant who could help us answer the question.

B (4) (John) Benedict Boyer, son of John Philip Beyer and wife Elizabeth, was born August 13, 1727, died Jan. 2, 1777, and is buried at Amityville, Pa., where, by his side is also buried Elizabeth, his wife, born 1726, and who died February 26, 1802. The inscription on the tombstone says "John," and not Benedict. If this is not the same man it is impossible to account for the Amityville grave, and the historian after years of open-eyed search has found no trace of a "Benedict" Beyer in tax lists, old Bibles, Revolutionary Archives, etc. The only use of the name "Benedict" was in the confirmation list of "Falckner Swamp," Sunday after Easter, 1746, and the father's "will" in April, 1753. The name was probably the father's preference, but not used by Benedict himself and those who dictated the burial inscription. That he and Michael died so closely together in time, indicates that they died of the same disease, or perhaps, as the result of the same engagament in the Revolutionary War, for tradition makes four brothers soldiers. From the terms of his father's "will," we would infer that the young man was put somewhat under the supervision of his brother John Henry, and this may explain why he was buried at Amityville, instead of "Falckner Swamp," where his brother Michael, probably by preference of his wife, was interred. The "Falckner Swamp" marriage record includes John Bayer, married April 17, 1750. to Elizabeth Specht. This must be taken as almost absolute proof that he was "John Benedict" (1), because John Philip's daughter Barbara married Conrad Specht, very probably a brother to Elizabeth; and (2) because the burial inscription on the stone besides John's is "Elizabeth." Children: Known from Orphans' Court Returns, dated Feb. 25, 1778, for Amity Township, Berks Co., Pa.:

1. Samuel Boyer. Born about 1751-52.

2. Adam Boyer. See tax list 1788, Amity Twp., Berks Co., Pa. Born about 1760.

3. Jacob Boyer. Born about 1763. May be Port Carbon line.

4. Susannah Boyer.

5. Philip Boyer. Born about 1756. Accepted farm in 1778. Single then according to tax list. Still in Amity in 1828.

6. Charles Boyer. Born about 1754.

The historian has tried hard to find the descendants, but can not do it.

B (5) Barbara Beyer, daughter of John Philip Beyer and wife Elizabeth, was born in the Palatinate, Germany. Married Conrad Specht about 1753. Conrad came with his father John Peter Specht, 1738, from Wurtemberg, Germany. The known children of this union were John Peter Specht, born Jan. 27, 1755, John Specht, born Dec. 5, 1756; Christian Specht, born Dec. 27, 1758, and Matthias Specht, born April 1761. Christian Specht was the ancestor of Rev. Dr. Stapleton, author of "Memorials to Huguenots," and a personal friend of the Boyer historian.

C (1) Samuel Beyer, son of John Henry Beyer and Magdalene Kercher, was born Feb. 5, 1751, as recorded in a Bible owned by Mrs. Addis, Reading, Pa., at Amityville, Pa., where he died Jan. 20, 1822, and is buried. Lutheran. Farmer. Soldier of the Revolutionary War, probably from 1777 to 1780. See Vol. 5, pages 197, 230, and 238, Fifth Series, Pennsylvania Archives, where the items may refer to one or two men by the same name. Married July 29, 1777, Catharine Kuser of Amity, born Sept. 1752, died May 28, 1826. Children: John, Louisa, Elizabeth, Jacob, Maria, Henry, Eva, and Rachel.

C (2) John Philip Beyer, son of John Henry Beyer and Magdalene Kercher, was born Dec. 14, 1754, died July 31, 1832, and buried at Amityville, Pa., where his wife is also buried. Married Anna Christina ————, born Jan. 1, 1754, died Nov. 10, 1832. He made a "will" in 1831. No known war record. Children: John, Michael, Maria, Jacob A., Peter, and Daniel.

C (3) Valentine Beyer, son of John Henry Beyer and Magdalene Kercher, was born about 1760, died about 1822, buried at Amityville, Pa. Lutheran. Farmer and inn-keeper, half mile north of Douglassville, Pa. No known war record. Married Annie Maria Kerst, born 1763. Children: George K., Mary K., Elizabeth, Hannah, Henry K., Jacob K., and John K.

C (4) Adam Beyer, son of John Henry Beyer and Magdalene Kercher, was born about 1766 and died
The Pennsylvania Archives do not record him as soldier. Married Margaret Davidheiser. Children: Samuel, Henry, David, Jacob, George, Anna, Elizabeth, sister and John.

C (5) Henry Boyer, son of John Henry Beyer and Magdalene Kercher, born See Berks County History, page

635, Vol. I. If there is a war record, the writer has not found it so far (1913) Married Hannah ———. Children: Jeremiah, born April 26, 1810. He died March 3, 1848. Anna Maria, Julianne, Isaac, born 1817, died 1839; Henry, and Hannah Elizabeth.

C (6) Charles B. Boyer, son of John Henry Beyer and Magdalene Kercher, born probably about 1763, as, in the absence of Falckner Swamp and Amity records, we infer from the date of his service as a soldier of the Revolution. He entered the Berks County Militia, Continental Line, Dec. 17, 1781, and was discharged Feb. 17, 1782. Guarded Convention prisoners, probably at Reading, Pa. See Vol. 4, page 256, and Vol. 5, page 293, Fifth Series, Pa. Archives. His grandchildren Hannah Herbert, William E. Boyer, Earlville, Pa., and William W. Boyer, Washington, D. C., call him "soldier under Washington" in their reports to the writer. He was Lutheran, like his ancestors—a farmer and stone mason. At the time of his death in 1828, he lived on a farm in Earl Twp., Berks Co., Pa. Leaving no "will," his son Charles petitioned the Court for settlement of estates. From the records examined at Reading, the historian learns that there were three little farms, one of 27 acres, bounded on one side by the farm of Jacob Boyer, probably the brother of Rev. John Boyer, Chapter II, another of 23 acres, and a third of 27 acres. These farms were appraised at $1260, $330, and $280, respectively. In these Court transactions the twelve children of Charles B. Boyer are named. It is also recorded that one son George had received his portion before the father died. His eldest son John had died, but left seven children, who are also named in the petition. The oldest of these seven children, Henry, became guardian of his brothers William, Daniel, and Peter, and his sister Mary, while Thomas Delaplane became guardian of the other sister Sarah. This last item enabled the historian to prove that Louis W. Boyer, New York, and W. W. Boyer of Washington, D. C., were of this same family.

Charles B. Boyer married Maria Magdalena Reitnour, as we know from the mention of her Christian name in the baptismal records, and through the evidence of her granddaughter Mrs. Hannah Herbert, who knew the surname to be "Reitnour." The children, as the baptismal records and the Court petition show, were John, Charles, Adam, George, Samuel, Anna, Daniel, William, Elnora, Susannah, Mary, and Elizabeth. The baptism of Charles and Adam are recorded in the Oley Hill records and the others at Amityville.

C (7 and 8) Tradition credits John Henry Beyer and Magdalene Kercher with two daughters. The historian has not tried to ascertain their names and to record their descendants. The Boyer book would become too bulky if the descendants of the Boyer women were fully recorded.

C (2) John Philip Beyer, son of Michael Beyer and Margaret Elizabeth Wartman, was born Oct. 15, 1753, as recorded at "Falckner Swamp." There is no war record with which it is possible to identify this John Philip. To make the matter worse, the "Falckner Swamp" records are silent between 1772 and 1794 on Boyer baptisms. There is only one entry that may belong here: Philip Bayer and wife Elizabeth were sponsors for Hannah Bayer, born Aug. 10, 1794, daughter of Valentine Bayer and wife Maria. This Valentine, in that event, was his cousin, son of John Henry Beyer. Nor do the Amityville and Trappe records help us. The Goshenhoppen records seem equally silent, unless the entries of baptisms for children of Philip Bayer and wife Elizabeth from about 1774 to 1784 are for the above John Philip and his wife; but this can not be settled without a special study of the Old Goshenhoppen marriage records.

C (1, 3, 4, 5, 6) Five daughters were born to Michael Beyer and Margaret Elizabeth Wartman: Elizabeth, Feb. 27, 1752; Hannah, July 2, 1756; Catharine, July 3, 1758; Sarah, Nov. 1, 1760; Susannah, July 17, 1767, and Michal Magdalena, Feb. 1, 1772.

D (1) John Boyer, son of Samuel Boyer and Catharine Kuser, of Amity, was born April 14, 1778, died Feb. 13, 1831. Lutheran. Farmer 11 miles below Reading, Pa. Surveyor. Justice of Peace. Married Mary Ludwig, born 1780, died May 25, 1844. Children: Abraham Ludwig, Lydia, David, Charles, Samuel, Daniel, Mary Ann, Reuben, Levi, Hiram, Delilah, and Malinda.

D (2) Louisa Boyer, daughter of Samuel Boyer and Catherine Kuser, born Aug. 23, 1780. No data.

D (3) Elizabeth Boyer, daughter of Samuel Boyer and Catherine Kuser, born March 2, 1782. Married Jonathan Cleaver. Dr. Israel Cleaver, 235 S. Fifth St., Reading, Pa., is a grandson.

D (4) Jacob Boyer, son of Samuel Boyer and Catherine Kuser, born May 12, 1786, Amity Twp., Berks Co., Pa., died there 1870. Lutheran. Farmer. Lived above Earlville, Pa. Married Sarah Spang, died 1834. Children: Nathan, Frederick, Mary, Matilda, Gabriel, Amos, Margaret, Israel, Catharine, Percival, Sarah, Augustus, and Amelia.

D (5) Maria Boyer, daughter of Samuel Boyer and Catherine Kuser, married John S. Bertolet. No data.

D (6) Henry Boyer, son of Samuel Boyer and Catharine Kuser, born June 21, 1791. Lutheran. Stone mason. Mrs. Noll, a correspondent of the historian, says, Henry never married.

D (7) Eva Boyer, daughter of Samuel Boyer and Catherine Kuser, born May 7, 1793. Married Boone. Samuel Boone, Jacksonville, Pa. (1910) is a son.

D (8) Rachel Boyer, daughter of Samuel Boyer and Catherine Kuser, born Feb. 13, 1797. Married Weaver. No data.

D (1) John Boyer, son of John Philip Beyer and wife, Christina, was born Dec. 8, 1784. His son, Jacob H., and he are buried side by side, Amityville, Pa. Lutheran. Blacksmith at Hopewell Furnace. Powerful man. Soldier of War of 1812. Lived on the "Holloway" Farm, near Amityville, Pa. Married Susan Holter. Children: Jacob H., Levi H., Isaac H., Jeremiah, Andrew, Enoch, Anna, Sophia, and Harriet.

D (2) Michael Boyer, son of John Philip Beyer and wife, Christina, born Jan. 15, 1787, died Nov. 3, 1830. Married Helen D. Luther, born March 31, 1791, died March 3, 1847. See History of Cumberland County. Children: Hannah, Richard, Israel Luther.

D (3) Maria Boyer, daughter of John Philip Beyer and wife, Christina, born July 29, 1789, married George Koch. Great grandmother of Mrs. Frey, mother of Minnie Frey, address (1915), 339 Chestnut St., Pottstown, Pa., graduate of State Normal School, Kutztown, Pa.

D (4) Jacob A. Boyer, son of John Philip Beyer and wife, Christina, was born about 1780. Called "Haase Boyer." Stone mason. Contracted stone work on James River, Virginia. Children: Philip, Frederick, Solomon, Gideon, Jacob, Jeremiah, Justina, Susannah, Esther, Catherine.

D (5) Peter Boyer, son of John Philip Beyer and wife, Christina, born Jan. 15, 1787, died March 6, 1852. Twin with Michael. Farmer. Moved to vicinity of Loyalton, Dauphin Co., Pa., after 1830. Known as "Wammes" Boyer. Married Catherine Herb, born Jan. 27, 1791, died Dec. 15, 1875. Children: Elias, Gabriel, Josiah, Benneville, John, Isaac, Abraham, Benjamin, Sarah, Mary, Rachel, Catherine, Hettie, Leah.

D (6) Daniel Boyer, son of John Philip Beyer and wife, Christina, born March 15, 1792, died June 9, 1825. Appears to have died single. William E. Boyer, Earlville, Pa., who identified the other brothers could not speak of this one at all. If there were children, the historian can not find them.

D (1) George K. Boyer, son of Valentine Beyer and Anna Maria Kerst, born Dec. 18, 1801, Douglassville, Pa., died July 22, 1877, buried in Charles Evans Cemetery, Reading, Pa. Lutheran. Grocer in Reading, Pa. Married Eliza Lorah, born March 7, 1807, died Dec. 24, 1895. Children: Anna Maria, Sarah Amanda, Valeria, Jane, George Daniel, John Valentine, Allan Lorah.

D (2) Mary K. Boyer, daughter of Valentine Boyer and Anna M. Kerst, married Rhoads. Ex-Judge Henry Rhoads, who lived on Fifth St., between Elm and Buttonwood, Reading, Pa., was an honored son.

D (3) Elizabeth Boyer, daughter of Valentine Boyer and Anna M. Kerst, married Ex-Sheriff Bauman. Mrs. Amelia B. Ellis, Ashbourne, Pa., (1910) and Mrs. Mary E. Dickson, of the same place, are granddaughters. John Van Reed, Sr., Williamsport, Indiana, R. F. D., (1910) is a grandson.

D (4) Hannah Boyer, daughter of Valentine Boyer and Anna M. Kerst, born Aug. 10, 1794, died Nov. 8, 1863, married Jacob Reiff, born April 4, 1795, died Jan. 22, 1827. Charles D. Spohn, Willow Street Station, P. & R., Philadelphia, Pa., (1910) is a grandson. Two granddaughters are Mrs. Martha Fichthorne, 21 N. 9th St., Reading, Pa., and Mrs. Anna Fichthorne, whose address (1910) was Mrs. Dr. Carl Bergner, 950 Penn St., Reading, Pa.

D (5) Henry K. Boyer, son of Valentine Boyer and Anna M. Kerst, born about 1792, married Hannah Yoder. Children: Anna, Maria, Henry, Hannah Eliza.

D (6) Sarah Boyer, daughter of Valentine Boyer and Anna M. Kerst, died single.

D (6) Jacob K. Boyer, son of Valentine and Anna Maria Kerst, born before 1800. Buried about 1840, Reformed Church Yard, Reading, Pa. Conducted a general store in Reading, Pa. Married Sarah Nagle, buried on Charles Evans Cemetery. Children: Charles Edward, William Henry, Jacob K., Emma, Sarah.

D (7) John K. Boyer, son of Valentine Boyer and Anna M. Kerst, born July 14, 1809. Settled in Chicago, Ill. Both he and wife buried there. Married Elizabeth Aurand. Died 1870. Children: Dr. Valentine A. Boyer, Minnie E., and James A.

D (1) Samuel Boyer, son of Adam Beyer and Margaret Davidheiser, born July 10, 1787, Amity Twp., Berks Co., Pa. Lutheran. Married Elizabeth Eagle. Children: Isaac, Solomon, Adam, Jacob, Mary, Anna, Kathryn, Malinda.

D (2) Henry Boyer, son of Adam Beyer and Margaret Davidheiser, born Aug. 24, 1791. Lived in Amity Township, Berks Co., Pa. Married an English woman.

D (10) Maria Boyer, daughter of Adam Beyer and Margaret Davidheiser, born Sept. 9, 1784. (See Emmanuel Church Baptisms, Pottstown, Pa.)

D (1) Jeremiah Boyer, son of Henry Boyer and Hannah——— born April 26, 1810, died March 3, 1848. Married Nellie ———born Dec. 30, 1807, died Dec. 12, 1883. See page 635, History of Berks County, Vol. 1. Children: Reuben Boyer, perhaps others.

D (2) Anna Maria Boyer, daughter of Henry Beyer and Hannah ———born Aug. 9, 1812, died 1883.

D (3) Julianne Boyer, daughter of Henry Beyer and Hannah——— born Oct. 27, 1814.

D (4) Isaac Boyer, son of Henry Beyer and Hannah——— born Jan. 3, 1817, died Sept. 23, 1839. Grave at Amityville, Pa.

D (5) Henry Boyer, son of Henry Beyer and Hannah——— born May 2, 1825. No data.

D (6) Hannah Elizabeth Boyer, daughter of Henry Beyer and Hannah———born Feb. 9, 1830. No data.

D (1) John Boyer, son of Charles B. Boyer and Maria Magdalene Reitnour, born April 5, 1784, died before father's estate was settled in 1828. May be buried at Boyertown, Pa., or Amity. Children: (a) Henry, born Aug. 6, 1806; (b) Samuel; (c) Sarah; (d) Mary; (e) William, at Pottsville, Pa., about 1880, "Feed Store"; (f) Daniel; (g) Peter. Daughter Sarah appears to have married Enos Rau, Reading, Pa.

D (2) Charles Boyer, son of Charles B. Boyer and wife, Maria Magdalene Reitnour, born June 14, 1785. See Erie Cemetery Record. Baptism recorded in Oley Hill Church. Lutheran. Married Mary Elizabeth Delaplane, (nee Moody), born Jan. 12, 1789, died July 27, 1864. In 1828 he petitioned the Court to settle up his father's estate for himself and his brothers, as described before. In 1829 or 1830 he moved to Erie, Pa., or that vicinity, as his descendants report. The writer has not ascertained what his occupation was, but in church connection he was Lutheran. There were ten children. Six lived to maturity: Anthony, Ephraim, Silas, Thomas, Louis Wellington, and Sarah (Mrs. Colt).

D (3) Adam Boyer, son of Charles B. Boyer and Maria Magdalene Reitnour, born May 3, 1787. Baptism recorded at Oley Hill. He died Jan. 10, 1875. Buried at Oley Hill Church. Lutheran. Married Moser, born Nov. 10 1797, died June 5, 1834. Children: Elijah, Sarah, and Charles.

D (4) George Boyer, son of Charles B. Boyer and Maria Magdalene Reitnour, born Oct. 8, 1788. Buried at Amityville, Pa. Lutheran. Carpenter. Lived at Maxatawny Bridge, near Earlville, Pa. Married Sarah Eisenhower Feb. 19, 1815 (Swamp). Buried near husband. Children: William E., Isaac, John, Anna, Mary, Sarah, Amanda.

D (5) Samuel Boyer, son of Charles B. Boyer and Maria Magdalene Reitnour, born March 26, 1790. Died at Moselem, Pa. Buried at St. Peter's Church, Richmond Twp., Berks Co., Pa. Blacksmith at Hunter's Furnace. Lutheran. Married Sarah Deibert. Children: (1) David Boyer, born 1826; (2) Solomon Boyer, (3) Hannah Boyer, (4) Charles Boyer, son of second marriage.

D (6) Anna Boyer, daughter of Charles B. Boyer and Maria Magdalena Reitnour, born Jan. 1, 1794. She married Jacob Bast, of Pricetown, Pa.

D (7) Daniel Boyer, son of Charles B. Boyer and Maria Magdalene Reitnour, born Feb. 23, 1795. No data.

D (8) William Boyer, son of Charles B. Boyer and Maria Magdalena Reitnour, born Aug. 26, 1797. Constable at Orwigsburg, Pa., many years. Powerful man. Died and buried at Orwigsburg, Pa., or Red Church. Lutheran. Married Maria Henrietta Kroll, born Dec. 22, 1799, Hamburg, Germany. Her parents were Hanoverians. She was light haired. CHAPTER IV

CHRISTOPHER BAYER

The baptismal records of the Old Goshenhoppen Church, in Salford Twp., Montgomery Co., Pa., show that Christopher Bayer, with his wife Anna Maria and two sons—perhaps other children—came from the neighborhood of Grunstadt in Dackrum, Palatinate, Germany. The same ship which brought this family, namely the "Philadelphia Merchant," and landed at Philadelphia, Sept. 11, 1731, also brought George Bayer, probably an orphaned nephew, and the family of John Philip Beyer. They all settled in Frederick Twp., Montg., Co., Pa., and became identified early with the Old Goshenhoppen Church. John Philip was undoubtedly closely related to Christopher, but became identified with the Swamp Church, probably through Dr. Muhlenberg, who buried him in 1753.

We do not know the date of birth for Christopher and his wife, but she was still living in 1752, when the baptismal records for his grandchildren were transcribed into the Old Goshenhoppen book. From the fact that his son Andrew was born in 1709, we must infer that Christopher was born about 1689 or earlier. Father and mother are no doubt buried in the old graveyard of this church, but the historian can not locate the graves. They were Lutherans, and so were their descendants. If this worthy couple had other sons besides the two sons Andrew and John Henry, whose children are recorded up to 1752, they can not be identified. Andrew Bayer of the Trappe Church, as recorded in Vol. 6, Penna. German Archives, was certainly a relative.

B (1) Andrew Bayer, son of Christopher Bayer and wife Anna Maria, was born Nov. 30, 1709, Palatinate, Germany, as recorded on page 43, of the Old Goshenhoppen book. Lutheran. Farmer. He lived on the Perkiomen Creek near Zieglerville, Pa. In 1754 he was overseer of highways in Frederick Twp., Montg. Co., Pa. "On March 22, 1763, the respected Andreas Bayer presented a little box to the congregation (Old Goshenhoppen), which is to serve as a receptacle to place in it and preserve the church documents and accounts. It is all complete with lock and keys." His wife was Susanna Bauman, to whom he was married Nov. 8, 1733. She died Aug. 13, 1744. There must have been a second wife Anna Maria, in order to account for the presence of Andrew and Anna Maria Bayer at baptisms between the years 1761 and 1768, as recorded in the Old Goshenhoppen book. This conclusion corresponds with the fact that he was only 35 years old when his wife Susanna died. It also agrees with the tradition of Samuel H. Boyer, and his brother John G., of Norristown, Pa., who say that their grandfather John Jonas, was a son of Andrew Bayer. But if John Jonas was a son of Andrew and Maria Boyer he should be recorded in the Old Goshenhoppen book. The historian can not find him recorded, which must mean that he was born in those years between 1752 and 1756, when there were no records, or that perhaps John Jonas was the son of the Andrew Bayer of the Trappe, as recorded in Vol. 6, Pennsylvania Archives. The children of Andrew and Susannah Bayer, as recorded in 1752, were John Valentine, Leonard, John William, Philip, and John Henry. A son by second marriage, whose name we do not have, probably accounts for the Boyers at the close of this chapter beginning with C, after the F's.

B (2) John Henry Boyer, son of Christopher Bayer and wife Anna Maria, was born June 5, 1724, in Palatinate, Germany, as recorded in the Old Goshenhoppen book, on page 43. Lutheran. The tax lists of Frederick Twp., or Salford Twp., Montg. Co., Pa., would probably help his descendants to study biography. The church records show that he married Maria Magdalene Kercher, February 1746. She was born in Kreuznach, Palatinate, Germany, in 1718. The Old Goshenhoppen book contains the baptismal records of his children on page 43. They were John George, John Philip, Conrad, John Henry, and John Valentine. In 1752, when this entry was made in the Church Records, he was only 28 years old. The historian can not find any other children in the Old Goshenhoppen book, and that in the face of the fact that he evidently did not move out of the neighborhood, for his children's children are recorded in the same church book. The historian believes that John Henry died in 1752, and that his brother Andrew's wife died in the same year. The necessary services of a minister in both families would explain the reason for the very unusual family history of page 43, of the Old Goshenhoppen book, where the Palatinate origin of the brothers is recorded with the birthis and baptisms in both families. Andrew no doubt married again, as explained before, and continued faithful to this church till death, and his brother's widow undoubtedly brought up her children in the same connection.

C (1) John Valentine Bayer, son of Andrew and Susannah Bauman Bayer, was born March 2, 1734, as the Old Goshenhoppen book says. Lutheran. The marriage record of John Valentine is very complete, and very significant. His descendants will find this record on page 192 of the old book. From this record we learn that he was a shoemaker, and that he was married to Maria Christina Winckie, Reformed, daughter of Caspar Winckie, a Catholic of Maxatawny Twp., Berks Co., Pa., and his wife Gertrude, Reformed. The bans were published June 8, 15, and 22nd, and the marriage took place in his father's barn June 24, 1755. The publication of the church bans, looks like Catholic influence, but who performed the marriage ceremony, and why it was performed in the barn instead of the house, has not been recorded. That the ceremony was probably performed by a Reformed pastor of the Old Goshenhoppen Church seems altogether likely, and perhaps something had happened to the house to prevent its use for the occasion. So far as the old book enables the historian to find the children, they were Dewald, Maria Gertrude, John, Catharine, and Leonard. It is likely that there were others, as the Trinity Records of Reading may prove.

C (2) Leonard Bayer, son of Andrew and Susanna Bauman Bayer, was born May 1, 1737, as the old book has it. Lutheran. His wife's name was Margaret, as we learn from the old book on page 242. On page 668, of Vol. 3, Sixth Series, Pennsylvania Archives, we learn that Leonard Bayer was a soldier of the Revolution from Montgomery County. He was a private under Captain Gougler, of the 4th Battalion, in 1786, being then 49 years old. Four other Boyers, one a cousin named Andrew, and three sons of George Bayer of Frederick Twp., Montg. Co., were in the same company. His children, so far as recorded in the old book, were John William, Catharine, John, Elizabeth, Leonard, Jacob, and Samuel.

C (3) John William Boyer, son of Andrew Bayer and wife Susanna Bauman, was born Jan. 21, 1739. Lutheran. Married Appolonia. See Old Goshenhoppen Church Records, page 263. Children: Philip, John, and no doubt others.

C (4) Philip Boyer, son of Andrew Bayer and wife Susanna Bauman, was born Nov. 13, 1740, as recorded in the Old Goshenhoppen book and in a family Bible in possession of the Strohecker family, Reading, Pa. Lutheran. He may be the Philip Boyer mentioned on page 663, Vol. 3, Sixth Series, Pennsylvania Archives, as a private soldier from Montgomery County in 1785. His wife's name was Catharine, as we know from the old Church book. Children: Andrew, John Philip, Henry, Elizabeth, Catherine, Jacob, Christian, Catharine, Magdalena, and Sarah.

C (5) John Henry Boyer, son of Andrew Bayer and wife Susanna Bauman, was born Oct. 31, 1742. Lutheran. He may be the one mentioned on page 665, Vol. 3, Sixth Series, Pennsylvania Archives, as a private soldier of Captain Shuler's Company, 4th Battalion, from Montg. Co., Pa., in 1785. Perhaps his son was the one. Wife's name was (Maria) Magdalena, as the Old Goshenhoppen Records show, on page 239. Children: John Henry, Anna Elizabeth, Andrew, and no doubt others.

C (6) John Jonas Boyer, probably the son of Andrew Bayer and a second wife, whose name was Anna Maria, as recorded on page 251 of the Old Goshenhoppen records, was born at Boyertown, Pa., as the historian's Norristown correspondents report. Lutheran. Married Mary Snyder, born at Green Tree, Montg. Co., Pa. Children: Jonas, born at Green Tree, Feb. 28, 1805, and probably others.

C (1) John George Boyer, son of John Henry Bayer and wife Mary Magdalena Kercher, was born June 18, 1746. Lutheran. Married Children: M. John, John William, Anna Maria, Jacob, George, etc.

C (2) John Philip Boyer, son of John Henry Bayer and wife Mary Magdalena Kercher, was born June 30, 1746, or July 1, 1747, in Montg. Co., Pa., and died March 25, 1832, at Freeburg, Pa., where he had moved. Lutheran. Married Elizabeth Nungesser, who is buried at Trappe, Pa., and after her death, Catherine Keely, born Jan. 29, 1761. She died Jan. 8, 1835, at Freeburg. They were married Nov. 26, 1801. Children: Elizabeth, Catherine, Jacob, Magdalena, Susannah, Salome, John Philip, John, Isaac, and Francis A.

C (3) Conrad Boyer, son of John Henry Bayer and wife Mary Magdalena Kercher, was born Nov. 20, 1748, and died April 13, 1827. Lutheran. Lived in Limerick, Pa., and is buried at the old Trappe Church. On page 661, Vol. 3, of the Sixth Series, Pennsylvania Archives, it is recorded that he was a private soldier under Captain Brooke, on May 20, 1785. In May 1770 he married Elizabeth Seidel, born May 14, 1745. She died June 13, 1837. Children: Isaac, Catharine, Mary, Elizabeth, Conrad, and another son whose name the historian can not learn.

C (4) John Henry Boyer, son of John Henry Bayer and wife Mary Magdalena Kercher, was born March 31, 1750. He may be the Henry mentioned on page 742, Vol. 3, Sixth Series, Pennsylvania Archives, as private soldier from Frederick Twp., Montgomery Co., Pa., between 1783 and 1790. Wife's name was Margaret, as the Old Goshenhoppen record shows, page 255. Children: Catharine, John Philip, Sarah, Magdalena, John Henry, Jacob, Elizabeth.

C (5) John Valentine Boyer, son of John Henry Bayer and Mary Magdalena Kercher, was born Nov. 11, 1751.

C (1) Martin Boyer, son of an Old Goshenhoppen Boyer, perhaps of John Henry Boyer and Maria Magdalena Kercher, though not recorded in the Church records of 1751, or what is just as probable, of another son of Christopher Bayer and his wife Anna Maria, was born about 1739, as we infer from the birth of his son Christian, whose baptism is recorded in Trinity Church, Reading, Pa., in 1759. From these records, and from an old Bible in the hands of Elkhart, Indiana, relatives, we know that the name of Martin's wife was Barbara. His descendants in Reading report that he came from the vicinity of the Old Goshenhoppen Church in Montgomery Co., Pa., and that he lived at the corner of 11th and Penn Sts., Reading, Pa. These relatives also report some of the children in the Trinity list of baptism, such as Sarah, and Abraham. From the Trinity list we also learn that Martin Boyer's wife, Barbara, mother of Christian Boyer, must have died, perhaps, soon after Christian's birth. Martin then married Anna Maria, and left a large family of children. They were, as far as we can gather from the Trinity list, and Reading relatives, as follows: Christian, Elizabeth. George, Susannah Elizabeth, Isaac, Sarah, Mary, Hettie, Jacob, and Abraham.

D (1) Dewald Boyer, son of John Valentine Boyer and wife Maria Christina Winckie, was born Oct. 7, 1756. Lived in Robeson Twp., Berks Co., Pa. On page 187, Vol. 5, Fifth Series, Pennsylvania Archives, a Dewalt Boyer is recorded as private soldier from Alsace Twp., Berks Co., Pa., Jan. 5, 1784. The records of Trinity Church contain the baptisms of three children of a Dewald Boyer as late as 1794 to 1798. and connect the man with Robeson Township. It is undoubtedly the same man. The wife's name was Christina. The children's names in the Trinity records are Sara, John, and Anna.

D (7) Jacob Boyer, son of John Henry Boyer and wife Margaret, was born Feb. 6, 1789, and died at Trappe, Pa., May 1869. Married Children: Jacob H., and perhaps others.

D (1) Christian Boyer, son of Martin Bayer and wife Barbara, was born March 16, or August 16, 1759, in Exeter Township, Berks Co., Pa. If this is not the connection, the historian can not tell what became of this Martin, nor can he find the Martin whom descendants of Christian Boyer record in the family Bible. The picture of David C. Boyer, Christian's grandson certainly describes the well-known features of the Montgomery family tree. He may have spent his early youth in Berks County, but is known to have been one of Snyder County's—then Union —early settlers. He died Nov. 16, 1839, at Freeburg, Pa., where he is buried. He was married first to Miss Cook, as reported by a granddaughter through Miss Mary Wiest. The name of the second wife was Hannah Nagle. She was born 1783, and died July 21, 1853, at the age of 70 years, 3 months, and 11 days. He must have married the first wife about 1780-1785, and the second, 1803, when he was about 44 years old. He was a soldier of the Revolution, as the traditions of his grandson affirm, though the Pennsylvania Archives record no Christian Boyer from Berks or Union County. This may mean that he was active in connection with the war without enlisting. The children of the first marriage were Catherine, Elizabeth, Polly, and John Christian. Catharine married Strayer; Elizabeth, Mr. Albert; Polly, Heintzelman; John Christian, Mary Epley. The children of Christian Boyer and his second wife

Hannah Nagle, were David, Jacob, Henry C., Peggy (Schaeffer), Sarah (Kuhns), Rachel (Leonard).

D (2) Elizabeth Boyer, daughter of Martin Bayer and second wife Anna Maria, was born July 25, 1768, as the Trinity Records, Reading, Pa., show.

D (3) George Boyer, son of Martin Bayer and his wife Anna Maria, was born Feb. 16, 1770, but there are no records of descendants.

D (4) Susan Elizabeth Boyer, daughter of Martin Bayer and wife Anna Maria, was born Nov. 17, 1776.

D (7) Abraham Boyer, son of Martin Boyer and wife Anna Maria, was born in Exeter Twp., near Reading, Pa., Jan. 17, 1791. His Reading relatives say he went West, and so they lost all connections with descendants.

D (8) Jacob Boyer, son of Martin Bayer and wife Anna Maria, was probably next youngest son. Lutheran. Cooper. Resided on Penn street, Reading, Pa., above 10th street. Relatives do not recall his wife's name. The children were John, who died single; Hettie, wife of Mr. Rieger, of Adamstown, Pa., and Catharine.

D (9) John Boyer, son of Martin Bayer and wife Anna Maria, was probably the youngest son. Lutheran. Lumber merchant. Resided at 10 North 10th St., Reading, Pa. Buried in Lutheran cemetery, Neversink Mt., Reading, Pa. Married Sarah Ritmeyer. Children: Martin, Sarah, Lydia, George, Henry, John. All died single except Martin and Sarah.

D (1) Henry Boyer, probably the grandson of John Henry Bayer of the Old Goshenhoppen neighborhood and his second wife, lived in Ohio, where his nephew Henry Boyer visited him shortly before he died in 1846. So says Annie T. Boyer, the historian's worthy correspondent. But this is all we may ever know about Henry Boyer unless we find his Ohio descendants in some way. From the geographical clews, and the names, we judge that his sons were George M., Charles E., and perhaps others.

D (2) John Henry Boyer, brother of the above Henry Boyer, was born in Pottstown, Pa., 1775, died August 11, 1840, and is buried on the old cemetery at Hanover and Chestnut Sts., Pottstown, Pa. Had

CHAPTER V

GEORGE BAYER

Volume 17, of the Pennsylvania Archives, Second Series, shows that George Bayer came with John Philip Beyer and Christopher Bayer from Palatinate, Germany—probably from Grunstadt—in 1731. The ship "Philadelphia Merchant" arrived at Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 11, 1731. John Philip Beyer and Christopher Bayer settled in Frederick Township, Montgomery Co., Pa. The fact that George Bayer remained in Frederick Township with the Christopher Bayer posterity, and that his name is spelled with an "a" in his "will," goes pretty far to prove that he was a relative of Christopher rather than of John Philip. The fact that he was only five years old in 1731 probably shows that he was an orphan son of Christopher's brother. He is buried on the old homestead, touching Mr. Gebert's farm, some distance from Zieglerville, Pa., where the historian found very valuable dates on tombstones, of which there is a respectable group. The direct descendants should purchase the ground, and assure the preservation of the graves. According to the inscription George Bayer was born July 23, 1726, without doubt in Germany. He died April 23, 1792. He was a farmer. Why he was not buried in the Old Goshenhoppen graveyard close by is not clear, for the Church Records show that his posterity was connected with this congregation. His wife Catharine, born Jan. 10, 1734, is buried by his side. She died Feb. 10, 1826. In the "will" which George Bayer made, dated March 28, 1792, Frederick Township, Montgomery Co., Pa., and recorded at Norristown, Pa., he names his wife Catharine, and his children Henry, George, Anthony, William, Jacob, Catharine, and Elizabeth. The Archives do not show that he was directly interested in the Revolutionary War, although at least three of his sons were enlisted soldiers.

B (1) Henry Bayer, son of George Bayer and his wife Catharine, was probably the oldest for he is named first in his will. He is buried near his parents, aged 56 years, 8 months and 1 day. From baptismal records of the Old Goshenhoppen Church, we learn that his wife's name was Maria. The historian finds only three of the children recorded in the baptismal records: Magdalena was born in 1776; George, Jan. 6, 1779; and Nellie, March 16, 1781. There may have been others, but what became of them is not known. That the father was still living in 1792 appears from the fact that he was named in his father's "will" in that year.

B (2) George Bayer, son of George Bayer and his wife Catharine, was born in Frederick Twp., Montg. Co., Pa., about 1746. Lutheran. His wife's name was Anna Barbara. This couple left only one child, George.

B (3) Anthony Bayer, son of George Bayer and his wife Catharine, was born in Frederick Twp., Montg. Co., Pa., about 1755, as we guess from the date of his first son, and died in 1831, as we learn from Rev. Allen Boyer's notes. He was a soldier of the Revolution, from Montg. Co., Pa., as we learn from page 668, Vol. 3, Sixth Series, Pennsylvania Archives. After the war—so we guess from the date of his first child, he married Salome Reinhart as we know from the Old Goshenhoppen records and Mrs. Kahle's notes. The children were George, John R., Jacob R., Henry, Simon R., Isaac, and one whose name the historian can not learn.

B (4) William Bayer, son of George Bayer and wife Catharine, was born Nov. 20, 1768, and died Dec. 26, 1857, as we learn from Bible records in the hands of his grandson Henry Boyer, of Frederick, Pa. He is buried at Keelor's Church, Frederick Twp., Montg. Co., Pa. Lutheran. Carpenter. His wife's name was Christina. She was born Dec. 20, 1776. The children, as we learn from the same notes, were Christiana, Catharine, Annie, Amos, Elizabeth, Mary Ann, Enos, Henry, Josiah, Madeline, Lydia, Catharine, Reuben, and Joseph. P. S.—It is just possible that this William Boyer was the John William Boyer, son of John George Bayer and his wife Catharine, for he was born Nov. 22, 1768, as the Old Goshenhoppen books says. But if he was that John William, the historian has no trace of the William named in the will of George Bayer born 1726.

B (5) Jacob Bayer, son of George Bayer and wife Catharine, was born August 1754, and died Feb. 11, 1796. Buried at Old Goshenhoppen Church. He lived in Perkiomenville, Montgomery Co., Pa., and was a private soldier. See page 668, Vol. 3, Sixth Series, Pa. Archives, where he is recorded with his brothers, in 1786. His wife's name was Catharine Schantz. In his "will," made 1796, and recorded at Norristown, Pa., it is stated that there were six sons and five daughters. They were Jacob, Henry, Samuel, Daniel B., Magdalene, Catharine, Susannah, Elizabeth, John, Philip, and a girl whose name the historian can not learn.

B (6) Catharine Bayer and Elizabeth, daughters of George Bayer and wife Catharine, can not be traced.

C (1) George Bayer, son of Henry Bayer and his wife Maria, was born Jan. 6, 1779.

CHRISTOPHER BEYER.

This man was a Palatinate, as we know from the records. He came to Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on the ship "Johnson," Sept. 19, 1732. See pages 48 and 49, Volume 17, Second Series, Pennsylvania Archives. With him came his wife, Anna Maria. Also Valentine Bayer, Anna Bayer, Katharine Bayer, and perhaps smaller children. From the ship list we learn that Christopher Beyer's full name was John Christopher, and that the surname is also spelled Bayer. He appears in the earliest list of Exeter Twp., Berks County, Pennsylvania, taxables in 1752, and as late as 1775. In 1767 he made a "Will," whose executors were his wife Anna Maria and Alex Klingler, presumably a son-in-law. See Vol. 2, page 98, "Will" Book, Recorder's Office, Reading, Pa. He was a farmer, and a member of the Schwarzwald Lutheran Church, Exeter Twp., Berks Co., Pa. The historian can not find his grave, nor a record of his death, but it is likely that he rests in the old cemetery at Schwarzwald, or in some private burial plot. According to his "Will" his children were Christopher, Henry, Engelberd, John, Simon, Catrina, and Maria Sabina. From this list it seems pretty certain that the Valentine Bayer who came with him was not a son.

B (1) Christopher Beyer, son of Christopher Beyer and his wife Anna Maria, was probably born soon after the arrival of the parents in America. On page 70, Vol. 3, Sixth Series, Pennsylvania Archives, he is recorded as a soldier of the Revolution, May 5, 1785. According to Vol. 5, Fifth Series, he was in the militia service 18 days, and died May 3, 1789. The historian has not ascertained his burial place. Deeds recorded in Reading show that he owned property in Exeter Twp., Berks Co., Pa., in Allegheny County, Pa., and in the borough of Reading, Pa. In A, Book 17, page 157, there is a record of his purchase of land from his brother John Beyer, who went to Virginia. His wife, as reported by Squire Shires, was Maria Elizabeth Simons, whom he married June 18, 1754, as recorded in the records of Trinity Church, Reading, Pa. In 1799 he made a "Will." See page 532, Vol. B., and page 280, Vol. 3, Will Book, Reading, Pa. According to this "will" he was a Lutheran, and his children were Christopher, John Henry, Jacob, Maria, Elizabeth, Daniel, Hannah, and Catharine. At the time of the father's death his home was on Penn St., Reading, Pa.

B (2) Henry Beyer, son of Christopher Beyer and his wife Anna Maria. He was a land owner in Exeter Twp., Berks Co., Pa., as early as 1758, and still single in 1766. Married Angelina , as reported by Samuel M. Boyer, Pottsgrove, Pa. Children: Jacob K., John R., Sarah Ann, Leah, Charlotte, Catharine, and Ellen.

B (3) Engelberd Beyer, son of Christopher Beyer and his wife Anna Maria, was born about 1734-36. Recorded (single) in the Exeter Twp., Berks Co., Pa., tax list as early as 1758, in connection with his father and his brothers Henry, Christopher (single), and John (single). The name Jacob Beyer occurs in the same list, and may be a brother, though not mentioned in the "Will," but perhaps he was a son of the Valentine Bayer who came in 1732, or belonged to the Amityville family tree. In 1772 Engelberd Beyer appears in Robeson Township, Berks Co., Pa. Also in 1773 and 1774, but not afterwards. The historian can find absolutely no trace of this man after 1774.

The historian believes that Engelberd Beyer married a woman of Robeson Twp., Berks Co., Pa., soon after 1766, and then lived there, but that he died about 1775, leaving a son born about 1769. This son was then probably brought up in the mother's family, whose surname may have begun with the letter "R." If this conclusion is correct, it corresponds exactly with the fact that a John R. Boyer, often confused with a cousin from Pottsgrove, Pa., was born about 1769, and that his wife Esther Worrall, probably of the vicinity of Geigertown, was buried there, as reported by Mrs. Mary Leeds.

B (4) John Beyer, son of Christopher Beyer and his wife Anna Maria, was born perhaps about 1722. His name appears, with that of his brother's, in the tax lists as early as 1758, and at least until 1772, when it appears in Robeson Twp., Berks Co., Pa. In 1762 his name appears in the Exeter list with that of a son John (single). This son was probably born about 1742. If this conclusion is correct he married Elizabeth , and had a son born Aug. 2, 1769. See Trinity Church Records, Reading, Pa.

B (5) Simon Beyer, son of Christopher Beyer and Anna Maria. The historian's correspondent, Rev. Simon K. Boyer, 89 East Duval St., Germantown, Pa., writes that his grandfather John Boyer, who died about 1830, came from Reading to Hinkletown, Pa., when a boy, and that he was a Lutheran. The name "Simon" and the location "Reading" and "Lutheran," seem to show that John Boyer was a son of Simon Beyer. If this conclusion is not correct, the historian can not place this John at all.

B (6) Catrina Beyer, daughter of Christopher Beyer and Anna Maria.

B (7) Maria Sabina Beyer, daughter of Christopher Beyer and Anna Maria.

C (1) Christopher Boyer, son of Christopher Beyer, and Elizabeth Simon. He died and was buried at Schwarzwald. He was a farmer, as reported by William H. Boyer, 146 W. Green St., Reading, Pa. Married. Children: Samuel, George, Daniel, Benjamin, and Kate.

C (2) John Boyer, son of Christopher Beyer and Elizabeth Simon, was born about 1775. In the year 1800 he moved to Augusta County, Virginia. See A, Book 17, page 157, Deeds, July 18, 1800, Reading, Pa. According to these records he was a wheelwright. Benjamin F. Long, of Dayton, Virginia, says he came alone, a young man. He married Dorcas Lokey. They were both Lutherans. His daughter, Mr. Long's aunt, still living in 1910, reports that she heard her father speak of brothers. He was a soldier in the Mexican War. His wife died about 1837. In 1850 he moved with three sons and a daughter to Sullivan County, Tennessee, where he died at Kingsport, about 1870, his age about 95. There were twelve children: Navina, Margaret, Mary, Martha, Permelia, Eliza, Amanda, William, Joseph, Robert, David, and Richard.

C (3) Henry Boyer, son of Christopher Beyer and Elizabeth Simon, was born May 8, 1773, and is buried with his wife in Fulmer Church Cemetery, Pottsgrove, Pa. He lived and died near Pottsgrove, Montour Co., Pa. He married his cousin, Catharine Beyer, daughter of Henry Beyer and Angeline. See records of Trinity Church, Reading, Pa. She was born Jan. 10, 1779, and died Sept. 18, 1841. The children were Benjamin Engle, Jacob, Henry, Christopher, Susan, Phoebe, Maria, Catharine, and Leah.

C (4) Jacob Boyer, son of Christopher Beyer and Elizabeth Simon, was born April 12, 1780, in Exeter Twp., Berks Co., Pa. He moved to Montour County, Pa., about 1808, and died there in 1868. Carpenter. Lutheran. Married Mary King, born Jan. 28, 1780, in Exeter Twp., Berks Co., Pa. She died in Montour County, Aug. 9, 1857. They are both buried at Strawberry Ridge, Pa. Children: Christopher, Isaac, Levi, Elizabeth, Susan, Katherine, Polly, Rebecca, and Henry.

C (5) Maria Boyer, daughter of Christopher Beyer and Elizabeth Simon. Married Abraham Griffith.

C (6) Elizabeth Boyer, daughter of Christopher Beyer and Elizabeth Simon. Married Jacob Krause.

C (7) Daniel Boyer, son of Christopher Beyer and Elizabeth Simon, born perhaps 1760. Lived in Oley Twp., Berks Co., Pa. Married Charlotte. Children: John, Samuel, Mary, Abraham, J. Joseph, Daniel, William, and Elizabeth.

C (8) Hannah Boyer, daughter of Christopher Beyer and Elizabeth Simon, married John Meyer (Moyer).

C (9) Catherine Boyer, daughter of Christopher Beyer and Elizabeth Simon, was born 1785. At the time of her father's death she was a catechumen in Trinity Church, Reading, Pa. She married William Schoener. There were seven children. One of these, Mary, married Isaac Seltezer. Their daughter, Rosa Seltzer, is a fine genealogist. Address (1912) Box 91, Beach Haven, N. J.

C (1) Jacob K. Boyer, son of Henry Beyer and his wife Angelina, married Sara. See Trinity Church Records, Reading, Pa. Children: James.

C (2) John R. Boyer, son of Henry Boyer and Angelina. Lived in the neighborhood of Pottsgrove, Pa., with his sisters Catharine and Leah, as attested by William McKnight Ritter, Catherine's grandson, and by S. M. Boyer of Pottsgrove, Pa. His youngest sister Charlotte, came from Reading, Pa., later, and married Robert Montgomery. Shortly after this marriage, John R. Boyer went with this sister Charlotte and her husband—and doubtless others—in two covered wagons drawn by four horses each—to Tennessee. He was a carpenter, as we know through John Shalter, who heard John R. Boyer's nephew, Jacob Hoffa, of Reading, Pa., speak about him very frequently. This Mr. Hoffa had worked as a carpenter with his uncle John R. Boyer. In the neighborhood of Sparta, Tennessee, John R. Boyer took up land. The number of the grant was 2757, and Mr. William McKnight Ritter holds a copy of this grant. All the ancestors of S. M. Boyer, Pottsgrove, Pa., declare that John R. Boyer died a single man. His sister Ellen, married a John Deeter, and this man's grandson, Harry Garman, Court St., Williamsport, Pa., a jeweler, who appeared to be the nearest heir of John R. Boyer, when the matter was investigated, was declared his heir about 1910. There were other claimants. They believed that this John R. Boyer was the same John R. Boyer who married Esther Worrall, whose granddaughter, Mary Leeds, of Philadelphia, Pa., went to Sparta, Tennessee, in 1909, and consulted Ex-Judge White and others regarding the claims. But the testimonials of the Pottsgrove people shows beyond a doubt that the men could not have been the same. Those Pottsgrove people also contend that the John R. Boyer of whom they knew never returned to Pennsylvania, while the descendants of the other John R. Boyer report that their John R. Boyer returned to Pennsylvania for his wife and daughters, but that they did not go with him to Tennessee.

C (3) Sarah Ann Boyer, daughter of Henry Boyer and Angelina, was born 1770, and married Henry Hoffa, of the vicinity of Reading, Pa. His son, Reuben Hoffa, was a resident of Reading, Pa., until recently.

C (4) Leah Boyer, daughter of Henry Boyer and his wife Angelina, married John Deeter, and resided in the neighborhood of Pottsgrove, Pa., at the time when her brother John R. Boyer went to Tennessee.

C (5) Charlotte Boyer, daughter of Henry Boyer and his wife Angelina. Her husband was Robert Montgomery, with whom she had moved to Sparta, Tennessee. She was not willing to go without her brother John R. Inquiry into her family history appears to show that she left no descendants.

C (6) Catharine Boyer, daughter of Henry Boyer and his wife Angelina, was born Jan. 10, 1779, as recorded in Trinity Church, Reading, Pa., died Sept. 18, 1841, and is buried in Follmer Cemetery, Pottsgrove, Pa. She married her cousin Henry Beyer, born May 8, 1773. Her children, as recorded in C, of this chapter, were Benjamin Engle, Jacob, Henry Christopher, Susan, Phoebe, Maria, Catharine, and Leah.

C (7) Ellen Boyer, daughter of Henry Boyer and his wife Angelina, was a twin sister of Catherine above. She married a Mr. Garman. Their son Harry Garman, jeweler, of Williamsport, Pa., inherited the claims of John R. Boyer, Sparta, Tennessee, about 1909, as explained under John R. Boyer. The children of Ellen Boyer are not known.

C (1) John Boyer, son of Simon Beyer and his wife, was born about 1760-1770, and died in the neighborhood of Hinkletown, Pa., about 1830. He came from Reading to Hinkletown, when a boy. Here he left the Lutheran Church and became a member of the "German Baptists —Brethren." He followed carpet weaving. He married Miss Roland. Children: Philip, John R., Gideon, Catharine, Hannah, and Ann.

C (1) John R. Boyer, son of Engleberd Beyer and wife, was born 1769. According to his descendants, he went West—perhaps to Tennessee—about 1832—and returned about 1834 for his wife and daughter Hannah. They refused to go with him, but why is not known to the historian. For some time he was identified with his cousin John R. Boyer, of Pottsgrove, Pa., who took up land at Sparta, Tennessee. John R. Boyer, of Robeson Twp., Berks Co., Pa., married Esther Worrall, and left the following children: Thomas, John, Lydia, and Hannah. Others.

C (2) James Boyer, son of Engelberd Beyer and his wife, was born about 1770-1774, probably in Robeson Twp., Berks Co., Pa. This, at any rate, is the historian's conclusion. His reasons are the following: (1) The Robeson Township tax list shows that Engelberd Beyer, of Exeter Township, north of Robeson, appeared in Robeson Township, in 1769, and remained there at least until 1774—perhaps died there. His presence, so far as the historian can discover, is the only explanation for the John R. Boyer (Esther Worrall) "tree," and the James Boyer "tree." (2) Amos Boyer, of White Bear, regarded Isaac Boyer, son of James Boyer, as his father's relative (probably cousin). (3) Isaac Boyer and others of his line are buried at St. Paul's Church, Geigertown, Pa., just as John R. Boyer's wife Esther Worrall, and others of this "tree" are buried there. (4) The name Esther seems to be a favorite tradition in both "trees," and the name "Brook" Boyer appears in both "trees," at Harrisburg, Pa., in the John R. Boyer "tree," and at Marsh, Pa., in the James Boyer "tree." It is known that James Boyer lived in the neighborhood of White Bear, Pa., but what his occupation was, where he is buried, or to whom he was married, may not be easy to ascertain. The children were Isaac, Margaret, Mary, Jane, and perhaps others.

CHAPTER VII

GABRIEL BEYER (BEIOR).

According to tradition recorded by his great granddaughter, Mrs. McMahon, who gathered up all available data (1860), Gabriel Beyer was born in Tartary, Asia, where his German parents had gone for some reason or other. The same tradition makes him the husband of a distant cousin of Mary Queen of Scots. Be this as it may, his first wife died, and he found a second wife Catharine in Berks County, Pennsylvania, as recorded by his great grandson Henry Boyer, son of Henry Boyer of York, Pa., and grandson of Gabriel's son John. Her name is mentioned on page 322, Mortgage Book A A, Reading Court House. We can not find when he came to America; but, according to a "deed" still (1913) in the hands of Squire Kauffman, Friedensburg, Berks Co., Pa., he owned a large farm in Oley Twp., Berks Co., Pa., as early as 1733, and, according to page 244, Vol. 26, Fifth Series, Pennsylvania Archives, he was still there Jan. 20, 1758. He was still there in 1762, as the list of Berks County Taxables shows, and May 11, 1763, as recorded on page 324, Mortgage Book A A, Reading, Pa. He was naturalized at Philadelphia, Pa., in 1743. Administration records at Reading, Pa., show that he had identified himself with the Reformed Church of Oley, Berks Co., Pa. Judging from known dates, he was probably born about 1700. He is probably buried in Oley, but, as in the case of John Philip Beyer, of Amityville, near Oley, his grave is lost. It is altogether likely that the first wife left children, but the historian has no knowledge of them because the Oley Church Records were poorly kept and lost. Thanks to Mrs. McMahon's records, which bring the descendants up to 1860, we know two sons, probably both of the second wife, namely John and Peter, but no daughters.

B (1) John Boyer, son of Gabriel Beyer and second wife Catharine, was born about 1750, or earlier, in Oley, Pa., as we reckon from the birth of his oldest son Gabriel. Mrs. Mary A. Kluhenspies, John Boyer's granddaughter reports that he was built stout and straight, six feet three inches tall, called the strongest in a thousand. She says that he was a soldier in the French and Indian Wars, meaning probably the Revolutionary War, and that he was a favorite with the officers, frequently dining with them. Perhaps he was the Sergeant mentioned on page 155,

Vol. 5, Fifth Series, Pennsylvania Archives, 1777. What his occupation was after the war is not definitely recorded, but he was probably a farmer near Frankford, Philadelphia, Pa., in which locality he found his wife Mary Smith. The children of this union were Elizabeth, Rebecca, Gabriel, Sarah, Peter, Henry, Mary, David, Jacob, and John.

B (2) Peter Boyer, son of Gabriel Boyer and second wife Catharine, was born about 1753, in Oley, Pa. He died August 18, 1797, at Bound Brook, New Jersey, where he is buried in the Presbyterian Cemetery. He went, probably from his Oley home, to Rahway, N. J., when a young man, and here he married Ann Castner, of Huguenot descent. The hostelry which he kept became a famous rendezvous for American officers in the Revolutionary War. Presently he also enlisted, as Mrs. McMahon records, evidently with proper authority, and was promoted to the captaincy of a company, but returned by and by broken in health, conducting his hostelry until death. His wife, who later married Captain Hillyar, and died July 3, 1810, is buried near Peter. Both belonged to the Dutch Reformed Church. The children of this union were James, Jacob, and Mary.

C (1) Elizabeth Boyer, daughter of John Boyer and Mary Smith, married William Bowman of Germantown, Pa., and became a Dunkard, or German Baptist. The historian knows of one son, John Bowman, but can not find the descendants. Probably Mrs. Mary Bridenback, Tarkio, Mo., can find these in the manuscripts of Mrs. McMahon.

C (2) Rebecca Boyer, daughter of John Boyer and Mary Smith, married John Mower. Mrs. Bridenback may be able to find the descendants up to 1860.

C (3) Gabriel Boyer, son of John Boyer and Mary Smith, was born Oct. 5, 1772, in Germantown, Pa., and died June 26, 1827. Like his father, he was a powerful man, but the historian knows no details of his life. He married Margaret Wilson, who was born Jan. 10, 1780, and died Feb. 22, 1879. The children were James S., John W., Ann, Catharine, Marget, Rebecca, and Jenette.

C (4) Sarah Boyer, daughter of John Boyer and Mary Smith, married Jonathan Quicksall. The children were Harvey, single; Mary Ann (Heyberger), Rebecca (Shephard), Elizabeth (Black), and Harry. The latter lived in New Jersey.

C (5) John Boyer, son of John Boyer and Mary Smith, married Elizabeth Cowper.

C (6) Peter Boyer, son of John Boyer and Mary Smith, was born March 6, 1780, in Germantown, or Phila., Pa., died in 1854, and is buried either on the Cedar Hill Cemetery, Phila., Pa., or on the Presbyterian church yard, at Germantown, Pa. Like all his brothers, he was tall and strong. He was a farmer at Rowlandville (Olney, Pa.) The Rowland-ville farm is now a part of Philadelphia. He married Ann Castner, and after her death, Mrs. Ann Buirkesback, nee Jones. The only child of the first marriage was Lewis Boyer. The children of the second marriage were George C., Melvina (Long), Ann E., Emily N. (Myers), Mary J. (Kluhenspies), and Adelaide (Israel).

C (7) Mary Boyer, daughter of John Boyer and Mary Smith, married John Dewees.

C (8) Henry Boyer, son of John Boyer and Mary Smith, was born 1790, between Germantown and Frankford, Pa. Cabinet maker. Married Mary A. Platts, born 1804, and became an Episcopalian. Both are buried at York, Pa., where the family lived. The children were Mary Ann (Wilson), Jacob Shelly, Elizabeth, and Henry.

C (9) David Boyer, son of John Boyer and Mary Smith, married a girl from Delaware.

C (10) Jacob Boyer, son of John Boyer and Mary Smith, was born 1813, at Rowlandville(now a part of Phila., Pa., and died in Olney, Pa., 1872. Married a Quakeress, Elizabeth Merion. The children were George W., Jacob, John, Adelbert, Henry, Bruner, Ann, Sarah, Elizabeth, and Leah.

C (1) Rev. Stephen Boyer, son of Peter Boyer and Anne Castner, was born March 18, 1783, in Rahway, N. J., and died Nov. 10, 1848. His father died when he was about 14 years old. Stephen was then placed in a store owned by George Herberton, Phila., Pa. He returned to his father's home, but went back to the store, and grew more contented. He became a member of the old Arch and Third Street Presbyterian Church, and made up his mind to study for the ministry. Worked himself through Jefferson College, Cannonsburg, Pa., teaching during his vacations. He entered this college in 1804. Great linguist. Effective speaker. Oct. 20, 1806, he married Sarah Ann Dunlap, daughter of the Rev. Dr. James Dunlap, then President of the College. She was born in Unionville, Pa., August 20, 1786. A highly accomplished and beautiful woman. After his course was completed he started with his wife and a little daughter born Sept. 17, 1807, for Somerville, N. J. On their way they stopped over at the home of Peter Boyer, Frankford, Phila., Pa., his cousin, son of John Boyer. At Somerville, N. J., or near Bound Brook, he taught school and pursued his theological studies. His first "call" was to Easton, Pa., where, because there was no edifice, he preached in the Court House. He became the Principal of an Academy there, in connection with his ministry. Presently he received two calls, one from Lancaster and another from Columbia, Pa. He accepted Columbia. Here he again combined teaching with preaching. Presently he was called to the Principalship of the York County Academy. He accepted this offer, but continued to preach for his Columbia congregation quite a while.

These people loved him and called him "father Boyer." He moved to York in 1833. On Aug. 31, 1835, he lost his faithful spouse by death. Later he married again. A tablet to his memory is placed in the church he served so long. His biographers accord to him the very highest praise as a man, as a teacher, as a minister. Alexander McClure was one of his York pupils. The Association of American Boyers placed his picture on the button of the 1909 reunion. The children were Sarah Ann Dunlap, Rachel DeGroot, William Dunlap, Stephen Spencer, Mary Wilhelmina, and Calvin.

C (2) Mary Boyer, daughter of Peter Boyer and Anne Castner, married Captain Benjamin Taylor, son of Benjamin Taylor, owner of the Weston Mills, New Brunswick, N. J. Captain Taylor was a sea captain, and was lost at sea. Mrs. I. V. Talmage was the only living daughter in the 60's. Her address then was Bound Brook, N. J. Cemeteries of the old Dutch Reformed Church, Bound Brook should furnish data.

C (3) James Boyer, son of Peter Boyer and Anne Castner, married into the Eastburn family, but the historian has no data, except that he died at New Brunswick, N. J., a victim of cholera. There may have been no descendants.

D (1) James S. Boyer, son of Gabriel Boyer and Margaret Wilson, was born July 24, 1804, in Bristol Twp., near Frankford, Pa., and died Nov. 17, 1866. Both are buried in Hood Cemetery, Germantown, Pa. He married Mary Ann Nickum, who was born Oct. 13, 1806, and died March 30, 1866. The children are Oswald M., Alexander H., Franklin A., Margaret V., and James H.

D (2) John W. Boyer, son of Gabriel Boyer and Margaret Wilson. Married Sarah Hubbs. Children: George W., John C., Caroline, Lizzie, and Edward.

D (3) Ann Boyer, daughter of Gabriel Boyer and Margaret Wilson, married Samuel Lawrence. The children are Melvina, Margaret, and others.

D (4) Catharine Boyer, daughter of Gabriel Boyer and Margaret Wilson, married James Thompson. The children are Lawrence Thompson, whose address (1910) is Huntingdon Valley, Montgomery Co., Pa.

D(5) Margaret Boyer, daughter of Gabriel Boyer and Margaret Wilson, married Daniel L. Pick. Both are deceased (1913) and the historian has no data.

D (6) Rebecca Boyer, daughter of Gabriel Boyer and Margaret Wilson, married Abraham Buckins. The children are Morris Buckins, whose address (1910) was Germantown, Pa., and others.

D (7) Jennette Boyer, daughter of Gabriel Boyer and Margaret Wilson, married Samuel Buckins. The children were at home in Abington, Montg. Co., Pa.

D (1) Lewis C. Boyer, son of Peter Boyer, the second, and Ann Castner, probably a cousin, was born March 10, 1823, in Rowlandville, Pa., and died about 1849. The burial place of the family is Cedar Hill, near Frankford, Pa. He was a farmer and a Methodist. Married Sarah P. Heath, and after her death Sarah J. Connor. The children were Emma M., Susan P., Annie M., Edwin C., Louis H., Mary A., and Harriet H. They have all passed away except Anna Maria, born July 9, 1851. Her address (1910) was Mrs. Samuel B. Thomas, 4816 Hawthorne St., Phila., Pa. She was the third and last child of the first marriage.

D (2) George Chandler Boyer, son of Peter Boyer and Anne Burklebach, his second wife, was born about 1831, and died 1881. He was a perfumer and manufacturer in Frankford, Phila., Pa. He married Cynthia A. Vandyke. The only son is Harvey M., whose address in 1910 was 133 S. 4th St., Phila., Pa. He was born May 6, 1859, married Violet I. Anderson, but leaves no descendants. He is a banker. His sister Mary died at the age of 16.

D (3) Melvina Boyer, daughter of Peter Boyer and Ann Burklebach, was born Jan. 1, 1829. She married Professor Henry Long, but left no descendants.

D (4) Ann Elizabeth Boyer, daughter of Peter Boyer and Ann Burklebach, was born Aug. 24, 1833, and died unmarried.

D (5) Emily N. Boyer, daughter of Peter Boyer and Ann Burklebach, was born Feb. 24, 1835, and married Henry Myers, of Phila., Pa. Children: Eugene and Emily.

D (6) Mary Jane Boyer, daughter of Peter Boyer and Ann Burklebach, was born Feb. 24, 1837. She married Lewis Gluenspies of Bavaria, Germany, and in 1911 was still living with her daughter, Mrs. H. M. McFetridge, at 229 First St., Aspenwall, Pa.

D (7) Adelaide Boyer, daughter of Peter Boyer and Ann Burklebach, was born Dec. 25, 1839, and died Dec. 9, 1899. Her daughter Mrs. Israel lived on Durham St., Mt. Airy, Phila., Pa., in 1911.

D (1) Mary Ann Boyer, daughter of Henry Boyer and Mary A. Platts, was married to Wilson.

E (1) Lewis Wilson, son of Mary A. Boyer and husband Wilson, was a railroader. Address (1908) 445 Mauch Chunk St., Pottsville, Pa.

D (1) Jacob Shelly Boyer, son of Henry Boyer and Mary A. Platts, married Adeline E. Address (1908) 47 E. Philadelphia St., York, Pa.

D (2) Elizabeth Boyer, daughter of Henry Boyer and Mary A. Platts, married Mr. Myers. Two children, Clarence Myers and Ida Myers Ross, lived in York, Pa., 1908.

D (3) Henry Boyer, son of Henry Boyer and Mary A. Platts, was born Feb. 11, 1837, in York, Pa. In 1859, after a most strenuous boyhood, he became a locomotive engineer for the Pennsylvania railroad, and with the exception of the period of his enlistment in the Civil War, he served this company up to March 1, 1907. Every President of the United States from Grant on down rode on his trains. He never had a wreck. The historian met him in 1908, and has a photograph. He was an Episcopalian and married Sylinda Hester Bright, who was born Oct. 30, 1844. The children were Henry B., Lewis S., Daisy I., Jacob S., and Sylinda Theresa. The family lived at Bennings Station, Washington, D. C., in 1908.

D (1) George W. Boyer, son of Jacob Boyer and Elizabeth Merion, was born 1848. Address (1908) Olney, Pa.

D (2) Brothers: Jacob, John, Adelbert, Bruner; and sisters: Ann, Sarah, Elizabeth, Leah.

D (1) Sarah Ann Boyer, daughter of Reverend Stephen Boyer and Sarah Ann Dunlap, was born Sept. 17, 1807, at Canonsburg, Pa., and died at Reading, Pa., Oct. 7, 1871. She wrote for a number of religious papers and several New York weeklies. In 1860 she began to write the genealogy of Gabriel Beyer, her immigrant ancestor, and this work in manuscript is in the hands of Mrs. Mary Bridenbaugh, Tarkio, Mo. She was the wife of Rev. Alexander McMahon, a Presbyterian divine of beautiful life and great power. He was born 1794 at Coleraine, Ireland, and died at Canonsburg, Pa., 1873. Here he is buried in the U. P. Cemetery. His biography is found in the church of the U. P. Church. The children Sarah D., James, Alexander, and Mary E.

D (2) Rachel DeGroot Boyer, daughter of Reverend Stephen Boyer and Sarah Ann Dunlap, was born May 16, 1809, in York, Pa. On March 25, 1830, she married John Lauck, of Shermansdale, Pa. He died Jan. 18, 1872. The children were Mary F., Stephen, Katherine, Margaret, and Sarah A. D.

D (3) William Dunlap Boyer, son of Reverend Stephen Boyer and Sarah Ann Dunlap, was born Sept. 28, 1813, at Little York, York Co., Pa., and died March 14, 1854. He is buried at New Bloomfield, Pa. Presbyterian. Printer. On Feb. 1, 1842 he married Maria P. Fritz, born June 22, 1842. She died 70 years old at New Bloomfield, her birthplace. The children were Stephen B., Elizabeth J. W., and Mary J.

D (4) Stephen Spencer Boyer, son of Reverend Stephen Boyer and Sarah Ann Dunlap, was born Jan. 10, 1816, in York, Pa. Attended Dickinson College, Carlisle, Pa., for several years. A fine linguist. Foreman of New York Herald for seven years. Afterwards published paper of his own in Western New York. At time of death publisher of Peterson Magazine. In 1846 he married Jane F. Henderson, born Jan. 24, 1823, in Preston, Lancashire, England. Highly educated woman. In 1909 her address was 5416 Jefferson St., Phila., Pa. Her husband died in 18 . CHAPTER VIII

ABRAHAM BEYER.

A number of diligent informants, among them Dr. Charles H. Boyer, Huntingdon, Pa., and Dr. W. F. Beyer, Punxsutawney, Pa., find that Abraham Beyer was born in Silesia, Germany, probably about 1690. He married a Silesian girl, Rosina Yeakel, born about 1699. Although he ship list, Vol. 17, Second Series, Pennsylvania Archives, contains no record of it, he came to America about 1736 with wife and children. He bought land in Worcester Township, Philadelphia County, Pa. (now Montgomery Co., Pa.) from Jacob Metz, March 26, 1736. The family became identified with the Schwenkfelders, and many of his descendants have continued faithful adherents of this church. He died Oct. 30, 1754, and his wife July 30, 1770. They are probably buried in the vicinity of their earliest home in Montgomery Co., Pa. He left a "will." This "will" was proved March 3, 1796, in connection with settlement of properties; it is registered in Will Book 1, pages 498, 499, and 500. The "will" is number 186 of the Register's Office, Orphans' Court, docket No. 2. page 69, Norristown, Pa. His heirs were his children: Abraham, Andrew, Anna Rosina, Anna Maria (wife of Abraham Yeakley,) George (who died Sept. 19, 1744, as recorded in Dr. Reuben Kriebel's "History of the Schwenkfelders" 1879), and Susannah. Note.—The writer owes much to Dr. Kriebel's splendid work for help in this chapter.

B (1) Abraham Beyer, son of Abraham Beyer and Rosina Yeakel, was born about 1722, in Silesia, Germany. He purchased land in Norriton Twp., Montgomery County, Pa., from John Dickinson, Aug. 2, 1790. Died March 6, 1796. His "will" is dated April 26, 1794, and was proved March 30, 1796. He married (Nov. 8, 1750) Barbara Hiestand, who survived him. Children: John, Jacob, Henry, Abraham, Andrew, Susannah, Hester, and Barbara.

B (2) Andrew Beyer, son of Abraham Beyer and Rosina Yeakel, was born about 1738, and died April 19, 1778, aged nearly 40 years. Lived at Valley Forge, Pa. Married Philipina Weand, Nov. 7, 1758. She lived about 100 years. Children: Susannah, Abraham, Jacob, Wendell, David, Daniel, Rosanna, Andrew, and Anna.

B (3) Anna Rosina, Anna Maria, and Susanah Beyer, were sisters of Andrew Beyer.

B (4) George Beyer, son of Abraham Beyer and Rosina Yeakel, died Sept. 19, 1744, a mere child. See Dr. Reuben Kriebel's "History of the Schwenkfelders."

C (1) John Boyer, son of Abraham Beyer and Barbara Hiestand, was born Oct. 23, 1752. He came with his brothers from Montgomery County to Huntingdon Co., Pa., about 1796 or 1799, and located near Marklesburg, in Penn Twp., then Hopewell Township.

C (2) Jacob Boyer, son of Abraham Beyer and Barbara Hiestand, was born Dec. 6, 1755, and died May 17, 1815. He came from Montgomery to Huntingdon Co., Pa. Tenant farmer in Penn Twp., (then called Hopewell Twp.) for a number of years. Later purchased 140 acres of land from James Entreken. A granddaughter owned the farm as late as 1910. He married Susannah Stauffer, of Berks Co., Pa. She died June 8, 1847. Children: Elizabeth and Jacob.

C (3) Susannah Boyer, daughter of Abraham Beyer and Barbara Hiestand, was born June 3, 1758, and (C 4) Esther, May 26, 1760.

C (5) Abraham Boyer, son of Abraham Beyer and Barbara Hiestand, was born March 10, 1762. Dr. David Boyer, Middleburg, Indiana, and H. H. Turner connect this man definitely with his tree, but do not know the wife's name. They know two sons Abraham and Jacob, though there may have been others. One daughter Nancy, married John Coy.

C (6) Henry Boyer, son of Abraham Beyer and Barbara Hiestand, was born Nov. 12, 1764, in Montgomery Co., Pa., and died May 12, 1845. Wife and he are buried at Marklesburg, Pa., where he arrived with brothers about 1796. Lived in Penn Twp., Huntingdon Co., Pa. Married Catherine Roberts, born Jan. 21, 1777, only child of John R. Roberts. She died April 21, 1829. Her father was the son of Samuel R. Roberts, and grandson of Edward Roberts, a Welshman, born about 1690. The children of Henry Boyer and Catherine Roberts were Hannah, Barbara, Sarah, Elizabeth, John, Henry, Catharine, Rachel, Rebecca, Abraham, and William. The last child, William, was born Nov. 2, 1812. He and his brother Abraham died single.

C (7) Andrew Beyer, son of Abraham Beyer and Barbara Hiestand, was born Oct. 31, 1769, if H. H. Turner, Husted, Ohio, has the correct data. According to this authority, he married Susannah Hiestand, probably a cousin on his mother's side. Her father, Johannes Hiestand, came from Germany (1731) to Montgomery Co., Pa. The historian can not find the descendants if there were any.

C (8) Hester Boyer, daughter of Abraham Beyer and Barbara Hiestand, was born May 26, 1760, and married John Read. (C) 9 Barbara.

CHAPTER IX

ANDREAS BEYER (BEIER).

From the fact that another Andreas Beyer, born Feb. 2, 1710, came from Ebstein, Palatinate Germany, and settled in Tulpehocken Twp., Berks County, Pa., quite close to Berne Twp., Berks Co., Pa., the historian infers that the Berne Andreas Beyer also came from the neighborhood of Ebstein, Palatinate Germany. Andreas Beyer, of Berne Township, was born in 1681, as we know from his age—57—in 1738, when he landed, Sept. 5th, at Philadelphia, Pa., with his four sons. See the ship list, Vol. 17, Second Series, Pennsylvania Archives. The ship that brought this family was the "Winter Galley." The sons, with their age, are named, but no mention is made of the mother. Perhaps the mother was dead. Perhaps the older boys came with wives, but there is no record of such wives. The family was of Lutheran origin, as we judge from their affiliations both in Carbon and Berks counties. We do not know where Andreas Beyer is buried. The children were John Philip, John Jacob, Philip, and Martin.

PART I

B (1) John Philip Beyer, son of Andreas Beyer and wife, was born 1709. He came Sept. 5, 1738, with his father and brothers. The historian has absolutely no trace of his descendants.

PART II

B (2) John Jacob Beyer, son of Andreas Beyer and wife, was born 1716, Palatinate, Germany. Coming with father and brothers, he settled near Lehigh Gap, Carbon County, Pa., on a farm. In 1758 he was shot and scalped by the Indians, who came upon him while he was plowing. His children, Frederick, Dorothea, and Catharine, who witnessed the attack upon the father, were taken captives. The mother was never seen again, and was probably also massacred.

C (1) Frederick Beyer, son of John Jacob Beyer and wife, was born near Lehigh Gap, Carbon Co., Pa., Dec. 31, 1742, and died Oct. 31, 1832. Buried in Towamensing Cemetery, Palmerton, Pa. The claim that he was nearly 99 years old, and that he was born Dec. 31, 1732, as recorded on the gravestone, implies that John Jacob Beyer his father was only a little more than 17 years old at the time of Frederick's birth. Be that as it may, he was captured, with his sisters, in 1758, as already related, and taken to Canada. Here he remained a prisoner for five years, and was then sent to Philadelphia, Pa., to be exchanged. That he found his way back to his father's farm in Towamensing, was to be expected. Soon after this he married Susannah Mehrkam. His name appears as a private soldier in Captain George Nolf's Company, Northampton County Associates, 1780-1781. His grandson Charles Boyer, of Fremont, Ohio, thinks he was an officer. The children were George, John F., Henry, Andrew, Mary, Susan, Katherine, and Elizabeth.

C (2-3) Dorothea and Catherine Beyer, were the two sisters of Frederick Beyer, and like him they were carried captives to Canada. One of the sisters was married to an Indian Chief, and highly honored. A Western paper long in possession of Charles Boyer, Fremont, Ohio, relates how the Indians erected a monument over her grave and called her the "White Queen." She came to see her brother Frederick once, with two little Indian children—boys—, but returned to her husband, saying he was very good to her, and that she had promised him to return.

D (1) George Beyer, son of Frederick Beyer and Susannah Mehrkam, was born about 1767, Towamensing Twp., Carbon Co., Pa., and died Feb. 5, 1861. Lutheran. Farmer. Lived and died within half a mile of the spot where he was born. Jackson Democrat. Venerable man. Loved by whole community. Married Christiana Fley. Both buried in Towamensing Cemetery, Palmerton, Pa. Children: John, William, Adam, Jacob, Andrew, Sarah, Lydia, and another daughter.

D (2) John F. Beyer, son of Frederick Beyer and Susannah Mehrkam, was born Nov. 4, 1780, and died July 6, 1872. Farmer. Soldier in Mexican War. Grandson Martin B. Boyer, has his sword. Married Elizabeth Schneider, born Sept. 13, 1784. She died May 9, 1872. Both buried in Towamensing. Children: John A., Jacob, Samuel, Daniel, David, Leah, Polly, Elizabeth, Sallie, and Susan.

D (3) Henry Beyer, son of Frederick Beyer and Susannah Mehrkam, was born Jan. 17, 1784, and died 1863, 79 years old. Married Mary Strohl, born Oct. 7, 1796. Children: Reuben, Abraham, Joseph, Jonas, Mary, Catherine. Jonas died young.

PART III

B (3) Philip Beyer, son of Andreas Beyer and wife, was born 1718, Palatinate, Germany, and died about 1769, near St. Michael's Church, Bern Township, Berks Co., Pa. He came with his father and brothers, as already related, in 1738. The historian has not learned the name of his wife, because the old church records of St. Michael's have been lost and the inscriptions on the old gravestones of the cemetery are no longer decipherable. From tax lists at Reading, the historian learns that his children were Michael, Henry, John, and Christopher. There were no doubt others.

C (1) Michael Beyer, son of Philip Beyer and wife, as we infer from the Bern Township tax list in possession of the Berks County Historical Society, was probably born in the neighborhood of St. Michael's Church, Bern Twp., Berks Co., Pa., not far from Hamburg, Pa. His name appears in the tax list in 1767, as a property holder, whereas his father Philip's name appeared as early as 1755. The loss of St. Michael's church records makes it impossible for the present to find his wife's name. Perhaps administration records at Reading, Pa., may be found by and by. His name disappears from the Bern tax list in 1773, and the historian has not been able to find him in a neighboring township. Perhaps he died young, but judging from the appearance of his name in 1767 as a tax payer he was probably born about 1740 or 1745. Thus far the historian has found only five of his sons—perhaps there were no more. Names: Andrew, Philip, Michael, Henry, and George.

C (2) Henry Beyer, son of Philip Beyer and wife, as we infer from the Bern Township tax list to which reference is made above, was probably also born in Bern Twp., Berks Co., Pa. His name appears in the tax list in 1768 and only in that year. The historian can not figure out any conclusion for the present.

C (3) John Beyer, son of Philip Beyer and wife, as we infer from the same Bern tax list, was probably also born near St. Michael's Church. His name appears in 1768, 1769, and 1770. Perhaps both brothers moved into Windsor Township, or into the neighborhood of Reading.

C (4) Christopher Beyer, son of Philip Beyer and wife, as we infer from the Bern tax list, was probably born in that township. His name appears as a tax payer in 1779 and disappears in 1785, when as we know from his connection with Frieden's Church, near McKeansburg, Pa., he had moved to that vicinity. He was a soldier in the Revolutionary War for a brief service under Colonel Gehr, of Bern Township, as recorded in connection with the date May 4, 1784, on page 86, Vol. 3, Sixth Series, Pennsylvania Archives. This fact makes all his descendants eligible to membership in the Sons and Daughters of the Revolution. In his history of Frieden's Church, Pastor Weller, quotes an interesting article to which Christopher Beyer's name is signed, and on the back of which is scribbled the date 1768 or 1786. The latter is undoubtedly correct. Pastor Weller also says that Christopher Beyer's house was a log structure put up against the foot of the hill back of Frieden's Church, probably on church property. This would help us understand why his name does not appear on the Brunswick Township tax list until 1791. He may have been the teacher of the parish school connected with the church. His house, as Pastor Weller reports from references in records now lost, was the stopping place and his barn the auditorium of itinerary missionaries. In 1811 his name appears, I think, for the last time, in the tax list, and the tradition is that he died in McKeansburg, Pa. From all accounts, he must have been a man of importance and character. An old Bible now in possession of Mrs. Walborn, mother of Claude D. Walborn, gives his wife Catharine Reifschneider. Orphans Court records, Reading, Pa., show that she was the daughter of John Reifschneider and Dorothy Hottenstein (wife). See page 191. They are probably both buried in Boyers' Row, Frieden's Church. The children as we know from the family Bible and living descendants were at least the following: Christopher, Henry, Jacob, Christian, Daniel, Joseph, and two sisters, one of whom was married to a man by the name of Osenbach. The Administration Records at Pottsville, Pa., filed June 4 and 19, 1817, give us Joseph's name, and apparently also Peter and Samuel. Peter may be the "Cressona" line. Henry, second son, was the administrator. There must have been another son Stephen. This Stephen had a son William, born Dec. 12, 1812, and with his wife Lloyd moved to Fairfield Co., Ohio, before the close of the year. This departure shows why his name does not occur in the Administration accounts.

D (1) Andrew Boyer, son of Michael Beyer and wife, as we surmise on local grounds, was born about 1764, probably near St. Michael's Church, Bern Twp., Berks Co., Pa. Lutheran. Carpenter. Later a farmer near what is now Bern Station—200 acres. Papers showing that his son Jacob was his administrator are in the hands of Elias Boyer, Hamburg, Pa. These papers give us the name of one brother of Andrew, namely, Philip. Andrew is buried at St. Michael's Church. Married twice—the second time to Kate Schlappig, who is also buried at St. Michael's. His children were Samuel, Jacob, John, Sarah, Lydia, Polly, Rebecca, Susan, Lovina, and Andrew.

D (2) Philip Boyer, son of Michael Beyer and wife.

D (3) Michael Boyer, son of Michael Beyer and wife, if Andrew and Philip were sons, for Andrew Boyer son of Andrew names Michael as an uncle. This Michael Boyer lived in Reading, Pa., near what is now known as Farmers Bank, between Fifth and Sixth Sts., on Penn. His nephew Andrew says that Michael died about 1844. D (4) Henry Boyer.

E (1) Samuel Boyer, son of Andrew Boyer and first wife, went West young and never returned to his relatives. His fate is unknown.

E (2) Jacob Boyer, son of Andrew Boyer and first wife, was born July 11, 1795, and died July 3, 1886. Buried at St. Paul's Church, Windsor Twp., Berks Co., Pa., near Hamburg. Lutheran. Farmer. Part IV

B (4) Martin Beyer, son of Andreas Beyer and wife, was born 1720, Palatinate, Germany. Came Sept. 5, 1738, with father and brothers. There are no traces of his descendants to be found, unless George Boyer, of Windsor Twp., Berks County, Pa. was a son.

C (1) George Beyer, probably the son of Martin Beyer, one of the four sons of the immigrant Andreas Beyer. The first Boyer baptism recorded in St. Paul's Church, Windsor Township, Berks County, Pennsylvania, is that of John George Beier, son of George Beier, May 10, 1756. From the fact that Samuel Beyer, son of Christian Beyer and his wife—of the historian's family tree—was baptized in this congregation February 1, 1807, the historian believes that the above named George belongs to the same "tree," and although John George Beyer is the only child of George Beyer (Beier) recorded in St. Paul's Church, the historian believes that John George Beyer had at least the following brothers: Jacob, Benjamin, and Daniel. These three appear in Richmond Twp., Berks Co., Pa., as early as 1772. In the Richmond Tax-list Jacob Beyer is recorded as an "inmate." This term probably denotes that he was "at home" in the township for the time being, but that he really belonged to a neighboring township. Whether these four boys were really brothers or not, may never be known, but one thing is certain, that the descendants of Jacob Beyer, a number of whom the historian has seen and known, resemble his own people so closely that there can be almost no doubt of the family connections.

D (1) John George Beyer, son of George Beyer (Beier) and his wife, was baptized May 10, 1756, as recorded in St. Paul's Church, Windsor Twp., Berks Co., Pa. No Boyer baptisms are then recorded until August 10, 1795, when George Michael Beyer, son of Michael Beyer and his wife Gertrude, was born. To this same couple a daughter Hannah was born March 3, 1798. On May 9, 1803, George Michael Beyer, son of Frederick Beyer and his wife Margaret, was born. The historian believes that Michael Beyer and Frederick Beyer were sons of John George Beyer, but has thus far found no trace of the descendants. A Joseph Beyer, son of Daniel Beyer and wife Susanna, was born May 17, 1826, and was probably also a relative. Interesting confirmation records are also found, but remain unidentified.

D (2) Jacob Beyer, probably a son of George Beyer and his wife, was very likely born in Windsor Twp., Berks Co., Pa., about 1750-1755, judging from Richmond Twp. Taxlists. He appears in this township as an "inmate" in 1772, a young man. From accounts found in Moselem Church, Richmond Twp., he was a "carpenter." This occupation would account for his being only an "inmate" in the township. He must have been "of age" in 1772 in order to be taxed, and not a property holder, but a "boarder." His youngest child was born in 1811, so that he probably died some years later. He married Rebecca Elizabeth (or Margaret) Adolph, as certificates in the hands of Joel Boyer, Moselem, show, and then lived near Moselem Church. Children: Samuel, George? David? Solomon, John Henry, and Polly.

D (3) Benjamin Beyer, son of George Beyer and his wife, married Catharine Pifer and afterwards a second wife. Children, so far as reported: Jacob, George, Albert.

CHAPTER X

MICHAEL BAYER

A "will" in the hands of Harry E. Boyer, Lebanon, Pa., makes it possible to begin this chapter. From this will it is gathered that Michael Bayer came from Germany about 1732, and settled on a farm at what has since become North Lebanon, Pa. There is no record of his arrival in Vol. 17, Second Series, Pennsylvania Archives. The Harrisburg records should show "warrants" for this land. His "will" was made in 1748, but the historian has not found a record of it at Lebanon, and none at Harrisburg. To make the problem harder, this will does not enumerate the children, nor name the wife. The historian is inclined to think that Michael Bayer died young. If the baptismal records of Salem Lutheran Church, Lebanon, Pa., are the family record, he left the following children: John (whose name we know only through his son, Michael's will in 1788), Adam, Jacob, Frederick, and perhaps some girls.

B (1) John Bayer, son of Michael Bayer and wife, was probably born about 1736, or earlier, and is buried at Salem Church, Lebanon, Pa. Stones flat on graves of husband and wife—covered in 1911. Wife's name was Christina. Children: John, George, Samuel, Maria Catharine, John Frederick, Michael, John Joseph, David, Daniel, Isaac, Mrs. Hunsicker, Susannah, Abraham.

B (2) Adam Bayer, son of Michael Bayer and wife, was born probably about 1738. Married Maria Sarah, as the "Salem" records show. Children: Adam, born May 20, 1774. The old records of Zion's Lutheran Church, Harrisburg, may contain other children.

B (3) Jacob Bayer, son of Michael Bayer and wife, was born about 1740, or later. Married Maria Catharine. Children: John Jacob, born Oct. 18, 1782. The "Salem" church records mention no others, but this may mean that the family moved away from Lebanon.

B (4) Frederick Bayer, son of Michael Bayer, if we may judge from the fact that his child Juliana was baptized by the "Salem" pastor. Frederick Bayer was then living in New Holland, Lancaster Co., Pa., and might have had his child baptized there if he did not belong to the Lebanon people. Correspondents credit this Frederick with a son Frederick, born about 1784.

C (1) John Jacob Bayer, son of Michael Bayer and Catharine, first wife, born May 20, 1775; C (2) Maria Barbara Bayer, born Nov. 2, 1779; C (3) Anna Maria Bayer, born Aug. 1, 1781; C (4) John Henry Bayer, born Dec. 1, 1785; married Catherine. Children: William Fichthorn, Samuel, Maria Catharine, Elizabeth, Joseph, Henry, and Sarah (twins). Perhaps others; C (5) Christopher Bayer, born Dec. 1, 1785, twin to John Henry. Physician. Married. Children: William Henry, Elizabeth, Carl (Charles), Maria Catharine, John C.; C (6) Nicholas Bayer is mentioned in his father's "will" in 1788, but can not be found; C (7) (8) Two daughters, Christina and Catherine, are mentioned in the father's "will."

C (1) John Jacob Bayer son of Jacob Bayer and Maria Catherine, born Oct. 18, 1782. Married Maria. Children: John, Maria Magdalena, Jacob, William, Caroline, Benjamin. Perhaps others.

C (1) Juliana Dorothy Bayer, daughter of Frederick Bayer and Juliana Dorothy, born Aug. 29, 1782; C (2) Frederick Bayer, born about 1784, married Maria. Children: Leah Boyer, born June 7, 1834; Gideon Boyer, born Feb. 13, 1836. Perhaps others.

C (1) John George Bayer, son of John Bayer and Christina Daub, born Aug. 10, 1791, married Margaret. Children: Daniel, Elizabeth, Philip, Catharine, George, Peter; C (2) Samuel Bayer, born April 22, 1796, may have died young; C (3) Maria Catharine Bayer, born Dec. 26, 1798; C (4) John Frederick Bayer, born Oct. 31, 1800. Lutheran. Married. Children: Gideon, Noah, John, David, Mrs. Aaron Bricker, Mrs. Hugh Black; C (5) Michael Bayer, born April 10, 1803, married Hannah. Children: Lucetta, Catherine, Christina, Jeremiah; C (6) John Joseph Bayer, born June 12, 1806, married Rebecca Fassnacht. Children: Solomon F., Joseph, John H., Martin, Gottlieb, Rosanna, Leonhard, Frederick; C (7) David Bayer, born Sept. 10, 1809, died about 1890, and is buried at Ebenezer Church, Mt. Lebanon, Pa. Farmer. Married Sarah Ely, born 1822, died 1902. Children: Harry E., Samuel, Joseph, perhaps others; C (8) Daniel Bayer, son of John Bayer and Christina Daub, born Dec. 28, 1812, died Oct. 8, 1906, and is buried at Ebenezer Church, Mt. Lebanon, Pa. Lutheran. Married Catharine Fassnacht. Children: Solomon, Junius, Edward, Ephraim, Elias, Ann; C (9) Isaac Bayer, son of John Bayer and Christina Daub, born Sept. 12, 1813, is buried at Kimberling's Church, North Lebanon, Pa. Lutheran. Farmer. Married Wolf. Children: Asa, Ezra, Angelina, Lovina, Noah. Perhaps others; C (10) A daughter, married Hunsicker; C (11) Susannah Bayer, born Sept. 22, 1817, married Daniel Long. Children: John, D. B., others; C (12) Abraham Bayer. Address (1908) 46th and Winthrop Ave. Indianapolis, Ind. Married Fannie. Children: John, Daniel, Abraham, Fannie.

CHAPTER XI

JOHN HENRY BEIER (BEYER).

In some records the man's name is spelled Beier, in others Beyer and Bayer. On page 87 of Rupp's History of Berks and Lebanon Counties, published by G. Hills, Lancaster, Pa., in 1844, we are told that "After the Huguenot colonies at New Rochelle, West Chester County, and Esopus, Ulster County, N. Y., had been formed, some of their number at an early day emigrated to the County (Berks), and commenced settlements." On page 13 of Linn's Annals of the Buffalo Valley, we are told that the emigration from Schoharie, N. Y. to Tulpehocken, Berks Co., Pa., began in 1723. John Henry Beier came in 1728. The historian finds his name in the church records of Stouchsburg in 1743, though he was probably a member of the "Little Tulpehocken" congregation much earlier, and of the St. Daniel's or Corner Church near Robesonia after 1751, as Rev. Caspar Stoever's records appear to show. From these records we learn that he was married to Elizabeth Maria Zerbe, May 31, 1730. She died in 1756, and then he married Salome Suess. of Tulpehocken, July 24, 1754. From the will which he made on April 22, 1757, and which is recorded on page 40, Vol. I. of the "Will Book," Register's Office, Court House, Reading, Pa., we learn that he had the following children: George, Asahel, Henry, Anne, Mary, Samuel, Susannah, Anne Catharine, Anne Magdalena, Catharine, Barbara, Maria Salome, and John Jacob. There was a son named John, born Feb. 4, 1749, but he must not have been living in 1757, for his name is omitted from the "will." The name of the second wife "Salome" is mentioned. The historian has not been able to find the graves of John Henry Beier and his wives, but it is likely that they might be found in the old part of St. Daniel's (Corner Church) near Robesonia, Pa., unless the burying plots were private on some farm belonging to the family. That they were Lutheran and therefore not Huguenot French but Palatinate is evident from their church affiliations as settlers, and from the spelling of the name. John Henry died 1764, in Tulpehocken Twp., Berks Co., Pa. See "Accounts" (1754-1804) Reading, Pa. Note: Only George and Asahel, sons of the Henry Beier, the Tulpehocken immigrant, have been traced in this chapter.

PART I

B (1) George Beyer, almost without doubt the son of John Henry Beyer of Tulpehocken Township, Berks Co., Pa., was born March 3, 1734, died March 29, 1806, and is buried with wife in the Mennonite burying ground, Washington Township, Berks Co., Pa. If this is true, it accounts for George the son of John Henry Beyer, of whom the historian can not find any other trace. Time, locality, and circumstances confirm the identity of the man. He appears a single man in the tax list of Hereford Twp., Berks Co., Pa., as early as 1757, and was still single early in 1761. His wife's name, as we know from the tombstone inscription was Elizabeth, born Dec. 25, 1739. She died July 15, 1806. In the "will" which he made shortly before his death, two sons are named, John and Jacob, the latter—if not both, living in Douglass Township, Berks Co., Pa. This corresponds with the statement of Betsy Weiss Bowman, Congo, Pa., to the historian. See Administration Records, Vol. 6, page 238, Reading Court House, Registry Office. It will interest his descendants to know that George Beyer—his name is spelled Bayer, in the records—was a Revolutionary soldier, belonging to the Berks County Militia from Hereford Township in 1783, under Captain Miller. See Vol. 5, page 248, Fifth Series, Pennsylvania Archives.

C (1) Reverend John Boyer, son of George Beyer and wife Elizabeth, was born Jan. 10, 1762, probably in Hereford Township, Berks Co., Pa., as we learn from an old family Bible. He married Susannah Bauer, April 27, 1785. She was born March 2, 1767. Lived in Douglass Township, Berks Co., Pa., not far from Boyertown, until 1814, on a farm in the hands of Jonathan W. Moser in 1913, as Betsy Weiss Bowman writes. Then he moved to Harmony, Pa., where he purchased 1200 acres of land from Abraham Ziegler for $17,419, as the records show. He preached in Harmony and Zelienople until 1825, when he and the Mennonites built a stone church near Harmony. Here he preached until his death June 19, 1828. His sons and daughters became the owners of his lands. He is buried in the adjoining cemetery. The church is preserved through the income of an $820 fund. A stone fence encloses the 20-acre cemetery. All the older settlers are buried here. His descendants speak of Rev. John Boyer in terms of praise and love. The children, as we know from the old Bible, were John, Elizabeth, Susannah, George, Catharine, Mary, Jacob, Nancy, Samuel, and Henry.

C (2) Jacob Boyer, son of George Beyer and wife Elizabeth, born about 1764, in Hereford Township, Berks Co., Pa., remained in Pennsylvania, perhaps in Douglass Twp., Berks County, or in Earle Twp., where a Jacob Boyer's farm adjoined Charles B. Boyer's farm. The historian can not find the descendants. Mr. D. B. Weisz, of Mallet Creek, Ohio, speaks of "Sheriff" Boyer, of Montgomery Co., Pa.

C (3-4) There were sisters, one of them was married to Mr. Weiss, grandfather of Henry M. Wise, the other was married to Mr. Knetz, grandfather of Jacob Knetz, East Greenville, Pa.

C (1) Abraham M. Boyer, son of George Boyer and wife Sarah Moyer, was born 1830. Address (1915) Ashland, Ohio. Farmer. Married Barbara Nussbaum. Children: (1) George, Claremont Ave., Ashland, Ohio. (2) Peter, Ashland, Ohio. (3) Abraham, Ashland, Ohio. (4) Anna, (5) Ella, wife of Mr. Yoder, Route 4, Ashland, Ohio; E (2) George Boyer was born 1834, and died 19 years old, at Ashland, Ohio, single; E (3) Hannah Boyer married Peter Zehner. Address (1915) R. F. D. 8, Box 83, Ashland, Ohio.

D (1) Elizabeth Boyer, daughter of Rev. John Boyer and wife Susannah Bauer, born March 23, 1786, married Jacob Knetz, whose grandson Jacob lived in East Greenville, Pa., in 1914.

D (2) John Boyer, son of Rev. John Boyer and wife Susannah Bauer, was born Jan. 19, 1788, probably in Douglass Twp., Berks Co., Pa., and died Nov. 8, 1866, in the vicinity of Harmony, Pa. On Sept. 9, 1810, as the Falckner Swamp marriage records show, he married Magdalena Longanecker, born Sept. 6, 1789. She died Aug. 29, 1877. "Not many years after their marriage these young people left their kin and friends in the East to settle way out West at a place called Harmony, Pa." Mrs. Boyer was the daughter of Henry Longanecker, born about 1750, near Mingo, Pa. This Henry Longanecker was probably the grandson of Daniel Longanecker, a Mennonite minister who came from Switzerland about 1720. See Cassell's History of the Mennonites. The children of John Boyer and Magdalena Longanecker were Lydia, wife of Joseph Lutz; Sarah, wife of Jesse Rice; Isaac L., Henry L., John, Susannah, Samuel, Daniel (or David), and Jacob.

D (3) Susannah Boyer, daughter of Rev. John Boyer and wife Susannah Bauer, born May 19, 1791, married Samuel Moyer. Left a large family, to be found in the West.

D (4) George Boyer, son of Rev. John Boyer and wife Susannah Bauer, was born May 18, 1794. Lived near Ashland, Ohio. Married Sarah Moyer. Children: Nancy, Polly, Katie, Elizabeth, Abraham M., Sarah, Deborah, Lydia, Fannie, Esther, Catharine, Hannah, George, Susan, and Vesper. Note. Esther and Fannie died young.

D (5) Mary Boyer, daughter of Rev. John Boyer and wife Susannah Bauer, born Feb. 17, 1794, married Benjamin Moyer. Children: Elizabeth, Sarah (wife of Jacob Funk Wise, father of Levi M. Wise, genealogist), John B., Henry B., Polly, Susan, Catharine, Samuel B. Note. Attorney Levi M. Wise, of Butler, Pa., has rendered most valuable services in writing up Rev. John Boyer's descendants. Married Bertha Laing.

D (6) Catharine Boyer, daughter of Rev. John Boyer and wife Susannah Bauer, born Feb. 2, 1796, married Jacob Weisz. They lived on a big farm, and were well to do. Children: Elizabeth, Henry B., Jacob, Hannah, John, George, Daniel (of Mallet Creek, Ohio, 1915).

D (7) Jacob Boyer, son of Rev. John Boyer and wife Susannah Bauer, was born April 3, 1800. Married Sarah Tronsue. Children: Mary, Caroline, Deborah, Hannah, and perhaps others.

D (8) Nancy Boyer, daughter of Rev. John Boyer and wife Susannah Bauer, born April 15, 1803, married Abraham Sechler. Left a large family scattered all over the West.

D (9) Samuel Boyer, son of Rev. John Boyer and wife Susannah Bauer, was born July 12, 1805. Lived in Venango Twp., Butler Co., Pa. Married Mary Moyer. Children: Mollie, Daniel, Nancy, Andrew. The last one moved to California, where his descendants can probably be found.

D (10) Henry Boyer, son of Rev. John Boyer and wife Susannah Bauer, was born Aug. 28, 1809. Buried in Nebraska. Lived on father's homestead. Then at Ashville, Ohio, and in Nebraska. Married Lydia Schwartz and a second wife, who bore him five children. Children: Susan, David, John, Daniel, Katie, Nancy, Mary Ann, Enos, Edward, Lydia, Laurena, Sarah, and one other.

E (1) Lydia Boyer, daughter of John Boyer and wife Magdalena Longanecker, born Jan. 12, 1815, married Joseph Lutz; E (2) Sarah Boyer, born Sept. 29, 1816, died about 1895; E (3) Isaac L. Boyer was born Oct. 2, 1818, and is buried at Harmony, Pa. Carpenter. Lived in Lancaster Twp., Butler Co., Pa. as late as 1895. German Reformed Church. Married Mary Rice. Children: John R., Henry, Elias R., Isaac R., Levi, Susan, Agnes, Ranius R., Josephus, Jessie, Abraham Lincoln, J. Sydney, Ira R., and Elizabeth; E (4) Henry L. Boyer was born March 10, 1822. Address (1909) Freedom, Pa. Married. Children: Henry, Andrew, Harry H., Abraham, Jacob, Sadie, Katie, Monroe, Elizabeth, and perhaps others; E (5) John Boyer was born March 29, 1824; E (6) Susannah Boyer, born March 17, 1826, is buried at Harmony, Pa.; E (7) Samuel Boyer was born March 17, 1828, and died in Elkhart County, Indiana. He was married to Mary Locher, but left no children; E (8) Daniel Boyer was born Jan. 7, 183 . Lived in Clay County, Indiana. Blacksmith. Married Hannah Gephart. Children; E (9) Jacob Boyer was born Feb. 4, 1834, and is buried at Harmony, Pa. Carpenter and coal miner. Soldier in Civil War. Married. Children.

E (1) Sarah Boyer, daughter of Henry Boyer and his second wife, resides at Bern, Indiana (1915). Note. The children of Henry Boyer and his first wife Lydia Schwartz, have all died, and, if the historian interprets correctly the fine report of Daniel Boyer Weisz, of Mallet Creek, Ohio, there are no male descendants. The historian can not ascertain the address of Edward Boyer, son of Henry Boyer and second wife; E (1) Daniel Boyer, son of Samuel Boyer and wife Mary Moyer, Venango, Pa. Perhaps at Franklin, Pa., on some rural route; E (2) Andrew Boyer moved to California; E (3) Molly Boyer and Nancy Boyer both married but the historian has no records.

F(1) John R. Boyer, son of Isaac L. Boyer and wife Mary Rice, was born 1838. Farmer. Reformed, Harmony, Pa. Married Sophia Bombaugh. Children: (1) Austin S. Boyer. Farmer, Harmony, Pa. Married. Children. (2) William E. Boyer, Harmony, Pa. Owner of the historic farm "Black Walnuts"; (3) Adam Benjamin Boyer. Married. Children: Russell, Floyd, George; (4) Lizzetta Boyer, wife of Edward Sahle; (5) Mary N. Boyer, wife of Jesse Rice; (6) Nettie L. Boyer; (7) Sarah Boyer; (8) Agnes Boyer; (9) George W. Boyer. Died 17 years old.

F (2) Henry Boyer, son of Isaac L. Boyer and wife Mary Rice, has not been reported.

F (3) Elias R. Boyer, son of Isaac L. Boyer and wife Mary Rice, was born March 23, 1842, at Harmony, Pa. Address (1915) Harmony, Pa. Lutheran. Civil War veteran. Married Susan Lambert. Part II

B (2) Asahel Beier, son of John Henry Beier and Elizabeth Maria Zerbe, was born about 1735, in Tulpehocken Twp., Berks Co., Pa. His name is variously spelled Asahel, Assel, Oziel, and Asamus, Assemus, Asomas, etc. In 1754 he took out a patent deed for 300 acres of land in Pinegrove Twp., then Berks but later Schuylkill Co., Pa. In this document, still in possession of the Bretz family who own the old homestead, his name is Asemus, Asimos, and Asomas, showing the loose spelling of the times. In 1768 he paid tax on a 50-acre farm in Heidelberg Twp., Berks Co., Pa., probably owning two farms at the time. See page 132, Vol. XVIII, Third Series, Pennsylvania Archives. Here the name is Assimus. On page 256 of the same Volume, where his tax on 150 acres in 1779 in Pinegrove Twp. is recorded, the name is Assamus. On page 259 his son is recorded as a single freeman paying a small tax in Pinegrove Twp. Here the name is Assamus. On page 388, where the father pays tax on 100 acres in 1780, the name is Assimus. So is the son's, who is still single. The same is true of both on page 515 in the year 1781, where 200 acres are in question. On page 673, Vol. X, Second Series, Pennsylvania Archives, the name is "Oziel" Boyer. Here it is stated "Oziel Boyer killed in action." He belonged to the 8th Penna. Regiment, Continental Line, a private soldier. The soldiers in question here served between July 20, 1776 and Jan. 17, 1781. On page 364, Vol. 3, Fifth Series, Pa. Archives, the year of his death is recorded —1778. His Schuylkill County descendants, as Abram R. Wingate, of Washington, D. C., reported 1908, call him Awsel, and Assel. Rev. John Caspar Stoever married Asahel Beier to Maria Eva Spieler, of Atolhoe (Rehrersburg vicinity), Berks Co., Pa., July 24, 1757. This was about three months after his father's death. So far as reported by his descendants, the children were Asahel, Samuel, Adam, John, Barbara, sister (Mrs. Leatherman), Christina, Katrina, and another sister.

C (1) Asahel Boyer, son of Asahel Beier and Maria Eva Spieler, was born about 1756, near Pinegrove, Pa. Lived in Pinegrove Twp., Schuylkill Co., Pa. It was then Berks County, Pa. Married Magdalene Nagle. Reported on page 259, 391, 517, 647, and 775, Vol. 18, Third Series, Pennsylvania Archives, respectively in 1779, 1780, 1781, 1784, and 1785. A single freeman at least up to 1781. In 1784 he was taxed in Pinegrove Twp. for 169 acres of land. This looks as if he had taken possession of his father's inheritance. On page 250, Vol. 26, Third Series, Pennsylvania Archives, Asel Boyer, evidently the man in question, is reported as a warrantee for 300 acres of land in Berks Co., Pa. The transaction is dated June 17, 1802. On April 16, 1805, he made a will. See Will Book, Reading Court House. Vol. 4, page 414, and A 540. This will names his children: Johannes (John), Elizabeth, Christina, Barbara, Filbina, Margaret, Eva, Adam, Katrina.

C (2) Samuel Boyer, son of Asahel Beier and Maria Eva Spieler, was born about 1757, near Pinegrove, Pa. Lived in Pinegrove Township. Several Samuel Boyers were Revolutionary soldiers from Berks Co., Pa., but at this writing the historian can not identify this Samuel with any of the men recorded in the Archives. He married Elizabeth Schmidt (Smith). The historian's informant knows the name of only one child, namely John, but it is likely that there were others.

C (3) Adam Boyer, son of Asahel Beier and Maria Eva Spieler. Married. Children: Adam, Frank, John, and probably others.

C (4) John Boyer, son of Asahel Beier and Maria Eva Spieler, was born about 1780, and died about 1855 or 1860. Farmer. Married. No children. Buried at Salem Church (Hetzel's), in the neighborhood of Pinegrove, Pa.

C (5) Barbara Boyer, daughter of Asahel Beier and Maria Eva Spieler, born about 1765, quite likely near Pinegrove, Pa., married Michael Struphar, son of John George Struphar, who arrived in Pennsylvania Sept. 15, 1749, on the ship Phoenix, and wife Bauscher. Both belonged to the Dunkard Church. Built house with large stone basement, in which Dunkard meetings were held many years. He was born about 1762. Children: Catharine, sister (Mrs. Zimmerman), Michael, and perhaps others.

C (6) A daughter of Asahel Beier and Maria Eva Spieler, married Leatherman.

C (7) Christina Boyer, daughter of Asahel Beier and Maria Eva Spieler, born about 1765, married Philip Zerbe, born Oct. 23, 1765. They lived about three miles east of Pinegrove, Pa., in 1790. Children: Philip, John, Philosophene, Daniel, Catharine, Christina. C (8) Katharine.

D (1) John, (2) Elizabeth, (3) Christina, (4) Barbara, (5) Filbina, (6) Margaret, (7) Eva. (8) Adam, (9) and Catherine, were children of Asahel Boyer, Jr., and his wife Magdalene Nagle, as we know from his "will" April 16, 1805. In this "will" Adam's daughter, Elizabeth, is mentioned. Adam was then dead.

D (1) John Boyer, son of Samuel Boyer and Elizabeth Schmidt, was baptized in 1777 by Rev. Miles, near Pinegrove, Pa. He lived for awhile in Maxatawny Twp., Berks Co., Pa. About 1820 he moved to Little Mahanoy Twp., Northumberland Co., Pa. In 1835 he moved to Columbia Co., Pa., about two miles east of Numidia. He married Catherine Weikel. On Sept. 5, 1838, he made a will, which was probated Oct. 11, 1838, at Bloomsburg, Pa. His wife was then living. The children are named: Jacob, John, Elizabeth, Magdalene, Catherine, Dinah, and Daniel.

D (1) Adam Boyer, son of Adam Boyer and wife, died about 1860 or 1865, as Mrs. Bretz reports. Married first to Sophia Clouser, and later to Elizabeth Rhoades. Children: William, Adam, Sophia, Sarah, Catharine, Lucinda, Harriet, Daniel, Eli, Georgé, Jacob, Philip, John, Martin, Charles, Louisa, Caroline, Eliza, and others that died young.

D (2-3) Frank Boyer and John Boyer, sons of Adam Boyer and wife, have not been reported.

D (1) Catherine Struphar, daughter of Barbara Boyer and Michael Struphar, born about 1787, near Pinegrove, Pa., died in 1856, and is buried at Oil City, Pa. Married to John Wolf, born 1777, near Jonestown, Lebanon Co., Pa. He died 1869, in Venango Co., Pa., and is buried at Oil City, Pa. Probably a Dunkard. Children: Solomon and Catherine.

E (1) John Boyer, son of Boyer, who died 1831, and is buried somewhere in the neighborhood of Pinegrove, Pa. He was born April 3, 1816, in Schuylkill County, presumably in the neighborhood of Pinegrove, died Nov. 30, 1881, and is buried at Fredericksburg, Lebanon Co., Pa. Physician at Fredericksburg, Pa. Married Catharine Zerbe, born 1822, in Schuylkill Co., Pa., presumably in the neighborhood of Pinegrove, Pa. She died March 18, 1886. From the fact that this family of Boyers was associated and intermarried with the Zerbe people, and that Daniel Zerbe, son of Daniel Zerbe, who lived in Pinegrove, was born in August 1824, and that he had a sister by the name of Kate or Catharine, the historian argues that John Boyer was a grandson of Samuel Boyer, son of Asahel Bayer, Jr., or of a brother, or cousin of this Samuel Boyer. The affiliation of this branch of Boyers with the Church of the Brethren adds much force to the argument, and leaves almost no doubt. The children of John Boyer and Catharine Zerbe were Henry F., Elizabeth, Mary, and Annie.

CHAPTER XII

ANDREAS BEYER.

Church records show that Andreas Beyer was born February 2, 1710, at Ebstein, Chur-Pfaltz, Germany, and that he died May 27, 1768. He is buried in the old graveyard of the "Little Tulpehocken" Church, Tulpehocken Twp., Berks Co., Pa. The church is located one and one-half miles west of Bernville, Pa., and was founded by Rev. John Caspar Stoever, about 1729-30. Andreas Beyer resided in North Heidelberg Twp., close to the church, in his later years. This is shown by the fact that he left a "will," written in the year of his death, and recorded in the Will Book at Reading, Pa., Vol. 2, page 42. The executors were Samuel Bayer, his son, and Paul Lengel, who was probably a son-in-law. From this "will" we learn that his wife's name was Maria Sevilla. From the fact that her marriage is not recorded by Rev. Stoever, we infer that she came with Andreas as a bride. The "will" names eleven children, and the "Little Tulpehocken" records give us valuable dates and other details. The children were John Jacob, Elizabeth, Samuel, John, John Peter, Susanna, Abraham, Martin, Anna, Sabilla and Yotter. The last one is not in the graveyard records.

B (1) John Jacob Beyer, son of Andreas Beyer and his wife Maria Sevilla, was born March 2, 1731. Probably died 1791, in Heidelberg Twp., Berks Co., Pa. See "Accounts" (1750-1804) Recorder's Office, Reading, Pa. The estate of a George Beyer of the same township was administered May 20, 1839. See Vol. 14, page 53. Nov. 10, 1819, John Boyer's estate was administered by George Boyer. See page 275, Vol. 8. June 30, 1832, Jacob Boyer's estate was administered. See Vol. 11, page 259. It is likely that these men were sons of John Jacob Beyer, but it has not been proved, nor can we find other children if there were others.

B (2) Elizabeth Beyer, daughter of Andreas Beyer and wife Maria Sevilla, was born March 28, 1733.

B (3) Samuel Beyer, son of Andreas Beyer and wife Maria Sevilla, was born April 27, 1737. His wife's name was Elizabeth, as we know from the "will" made 1808 in Heidelberg Twp., Berks Co., Pa., and recorded in Vol. A 547, Vol. 5, page 67. In this "will" the children are named. They were Jonathan, Christina, Catharine, Maria Elizabeth, Abraham, and Sibilla. Jonathan's name appears in the Hain's Church records Nov. 14, 1784, and Dec. 10, 1787, unless we are mistaken.

B (4) John Beyer, son of Andreas Beyer and wife Maria Sevilla, was born Feb. 2, 1740, and died 1784. Lived in Heidelberg Twp., Berks Co., Pa. Wife's name was Gertrude, as we know from his "will" made Jan. 20, 1783, and recorded in Vol. 3, A 58, page 331, at Reading, Pa. Children: John, probably the one named in Vol. 10, page 240. Feb. 19, 1828; Henry, Michael, Veronica, Maria, Barbara, Catherine, Elizabeth.

B (5) John Peter Beyer, son of Andreas Beyer and wife Maria Sevilla, was born Oct. 27, 1740, and died March 29, 1784. Buried at the "Corner Church," Robesonia, Pa. Wife's name Anna Barbara, as we know from "will" made 1784, in Heidelberg Twp., Berks Co., Pa., and recorded in Vol. A 66, Vol. 3, page 45. The children were Daniel and Eva. In 1796 Daniel made a "will." See Vol. B 422, Vol. 3, page 240. His wife was Mary, but he had no children. Probably the Peter Boyer, of Sinking Springs, born 1772, was also a son.

B (6) Susannah Beyer, daughter of Andreas Beyer and wife Maria Sevilla, was born March 2, 1745. She married Christian Gruber, brother of Adam Gruber, the great-great grandfather of Professor Calvin Gruber, of the Keystone State Normal School.

B (7) Abraham Beyer, son of Andreas Beyer and wife Maria Sevilla, was born May 2, 1747, and is buried at the "Corner Church," near Robesonia, Pa.

B (8) Martin Beyer, son of Andreas Beyer and wife Maria Sevilla, was born Sept. 21, 1750. This date shows that he was not the Martin Beyer of the Hain's Church records, for the latter was about 30 years older. But the two Martins were probably relatives. The historian believes that he and Andreas, father of the younger Martin, and also John Henry, of Tulpehocken, were either brothers or cousins.

C (1) William Boyer was probably a grandson of Andreas Beyer, of Heidelberg Twp., Berks Co., Pa., or of John Henry Beyer, of Tulpehocken. His daughter Sarah's birth in 1794, recorded in the Hain's Church, shows that he was born about 1774 or earlier. The wife's name is not mentioned in this record, but it is known that she was Elizabeth Hemmich of Oley, Pa. He died at the age of forty years, and is buried at the Hain's Church. Perhaps this means that he was Reformed, and that he belongs to the Andreas Beyer people. His children were Sarah, Kate, Nellie, Isaac, I. Jeremiah, and John Henry.

C (1) John Boyer, probably the son of John Boyer and his wife Gertrude (See B 4), was born about 1760. We have no data except the particulars taken from an old Bible in possession of a Port Clinton, Schuylkill Co., Pa., family. Here the children are named: George, Andrew, Henry, and Joseph.

C (1) Peter Boyer was probably the son of John Peter Beyer and his wife Anna Barbara, of Heidelberg Twp., Berks Co., Pa., or one of John Peter Boyer's brothers. Correspondents report that Peter Boyer was born about 1772, probably in the vicinity of Sinking Springs, Berks Co., Pa. Proprietor of Sinking Spring tavern. "Migrated (1818) with family to Ohio, where he lived for a while, and then proceeded to Missouri with a number of brothers and sisters and all of his family, about the year 1837." The preceding sentence is quoted from a report by Attorney John S. Boyer, St. Joseph, Mo. His wife was Elizabeth Binckley. Peter Boyer died 1856, in Buchanan Co., Mo., and his wife 1859. There were twelve children. Eleven grew to maturity: Henry, George W., Jacob, Monroe, Lydia, Sarah, Matilda, Alcina, Joseph, Eliza, Maria. The Deed Book at Reading Court House may throw light on the parentage of Peter Boyer. The Sinking Springs Church records do not help us. Perhaps the Trinity Church Records, Reading, or some other neighboring church will finally give up the secret.

D (1) John H. Boyer, son of William Boyer and Elizabeth Hemmich, was born 1810, Berks Co., Pa. Buried at Hain's Church, near Wernersville, Pa. Reformed. Weaver. Married twice. CHAPTER XIII

JAMES BOYER

Dates obtained from Francis W. Boyer, not of this family, but deeply interested in New England records, show that James Boyer and his wife Mary, were probably of Huguenot stock, and that they came to America among the earliest settlers. They must have located in Boston, Mass., as the fact that the birth of at least some of their children are found recorded there. What brought them, what became of them, or where they are buried, the historian has not been able to ascertain. They had the following children: Peter, born Nov., 1721. He must have died before 1726, for another child named Peter—probably after the first one—was born July 11, 1726. A daughter Susannah was born March 16, 1727, and a son named Daniel June 14, 1729. There were probably other brothers. It is said that one of these brothers settled at Quebec and another in Pennsylvania.

B (1) Peter Boyer, son of James Boyer and his wife Mary, was born July 11, 1726, probably in Boston, died July 20, 1790, and is buried in King's Chapel Burial Grounds, Tremont Street, Boston, Mass. "He was the Treasurer of the Bay State Colony—afterwards called Massachusetts. His name is signed to the first paper scrip (money) authorized by Congress March 8, 1780. His name is signed in red ink and is at present (March 1908) legible. The bill calls for two Spanish milled dollars. Peter Boyer was a merchant in Boston and drew up the agreement that no merchant would buy or sell tea until the English Government removed the obnoxious tax which resulted in the great "tea-party" when aboard the British ship disguised as Indians they threw the chests of tea into the harbor. Paul Revere was a silversmith and made a punch bowl of large size around the edge of which are carved the names of a club called the "Sons of Liberty." In the list of names appears that of Peter Boyer. Benjamin F. Stevens, President of the Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance Company, has this bowl (March 1908)." Francis H. Boyer, 364 Somerville Ave., Somerville, Mass., says this family of Boyers has been thoroughly written up, and that they came originally from France. The Boyer historian has not had the opportunity to obtain such records. They are in all probability to be found in Boston. Peter Boyer lived on Sudbury Street, Boston, then and now a business section. He married Susanna Buckley, Nov. 10, 1757, but she died 1768, and on Dec. 20, 1774, he married Charlotte Johonnot. The children were James, Susannah, Peter, Mary, and Daniel, and probably others.

B (2) Daniel Boyer, son of James Boyer and his wife, Mary, was born June 14, 1729, probably in Boston.

C (1) James Boyer, son of Peter Boyer and his wife Susannah, was born 1760. Note.—James A. Boyer, born 1828, at Little Rock, N. Y., was a son of this James or his brother Peter. This James A. Boyer, was an architect and contractor, and lived at Indianapolis, Indiana. He died suddenly at Sabetha, Kansas, in 1913, but the historian can not find his people; C (2) Susannah Boyer was born Jan. 1762; C (3) Peter Boyer was born May 29, 1764; C (4) Mary Boyer was born 1765; C (5) Daniel Boyer, son of Peter Boyer and Susannah, was born Oct. 10, 1766, and died at sea, a sea captain. After a beautiful letter to his wife, Polly Cushing, whom he married 1798, written just before he s iled for home, he was lost probably in storm near Essequibo, West Indies. His wife died of a broken heart after hope of his return was given up. Two children were born to them: Daniel and Marshall S.

D (1) Daniel Boyer, son of Captain Daniel Boyer and Mary Hughes, was born March 1799, at Lexington, Mass., and died at Cincinnati, Ohio, where he had gone to find his only daughter, who had gone West. He failed to find her.

D (2) Marshall Spring Boyer, son of Captain Daniel Boyer and Mary Hughes (Polly Cushing), was born May 18, 1804, in Lexington, Mass., died Feb. 10, 1882, and is buried at Cambridge, Mass., on a plot adjacent to Mount Auburn Cemetery. Married (1826) Caroline F. Nickerson. Children: Charles W. Boyer, and Charlotte Bazin Boyer.

E (1) Charles W. Boyer, son of Marshall S. Boyer and Caroline F. Nickerson, was born Jan. 29, 1848, in Cambridge, Mass. Soldier, 23rd Maine and 56th Massachusetts Volunteers. Afterwards a "regular" of 17th U. S. Infantry in Texas. Very honorable career in civil life. Captain of police. Died March 11, 1904. He was married to Hattie Moody, born Feb. 11, 1860. Children: Mildred M., Charles W., Mercy H., Roland S., Ruth B. Note.—Charles W. Boyer was born Oct. 30, 1889. Address (1912) 47 Putnam Ave., Cambridge, Mass.

E (2) Charlotte Boyer, daughter of Marshall S. Boyer and Caroline F. Nickerson, born June 29, 1845, in Cambridge, Mass., married Captain E. F. Robbins. Children: (a) Marshall F. Robbins. Address (1912) Brockton, Mass; (b) Charles W. Robbins, Waltham, Mass. The mother resides (1915) at Cotuit, Mass.

CHAPTER XIV

JAMES NICOLAS BOYER

The historian relies mainly on the reports of his correspondent, C. P. Boyer, Edgemont Station, East St. Louis, Mo., for the following chapter. According to traditions recorded by this correspondent, Nicholas Boyer, was the grandson of a noted French surgeon who waited on "Champlain" when he was wounded by the Indians. The surgeon in turn was a son of a merchant of Rouen, France, 1613. Nicolas Boyer probably lived at Kaskaskia, Illinois. When he was born has not been ascertained, but his son Jacques was born Dec. 8, 1759. We may therefore guess that the father was born about 1730-1740. He married the widow of Governor St. Ange, of Illinois, and later, perhaps without children from his first wife, he married (1756) Dorothy Olivier. She left, so far as reported, a son Jacques, and a daughter, Marie Louise, born Feb. 13, 1763. "This Nicolas Boyer was one of the engineers who built Fort Chartres, which was one of the most remarkable enterprises in America at the time. A remnant of this famous stronghold still remains."

"Nicolas Boyer had a brother named Antoine who died at Cahokia, Sept 8, 1790. He was a member of General Clark's regiment in that notable expedition from Kaskaskia to Vincennes against the British. The records of Cahokia show that he was a prominent citizen of that town. The probate records in Belleville show that his estate was administered in 1790."

B (1) Jacques Boyer, son of Nicholas Boyer and Dorothy Olivier, was born Dec. 8, 1759, at Kaskaskia, Illinois. Catholic. Moved to St. Genevieve before 1785. Married Marie Louise. Husband buried at Old Mines, Mo. Children: Louis, Antoine, Gabriel, John, Joseph, and perhaps others; B (2) Marie Louise Boyer was born Feb. 13, 1763.

C (1) Louis Boyer, son of Jacques Boyer and his wife Marie Louise, was born about 1780, and died about 84 years of age. Married. Children: Louis, John (born 1807), Francis, Antoine, Michel, Stephen, Thomas, Xavier, and Peter. Note.—Francis left at least Firman Boyer, and Firman's son Jules Z. Boyer, lived at Cadet, Mo., in 1910; C (2) Antoine Boyer. Married. Children: Frank, Eli, and perhaps others; C (3) Gabriel Boyer was born 1790. Married. Children: Mary C., Jules, Antoine, Eli, and perhaps others; C (4) John Boyer. Catholic.

Farmer. Indian burial ground on his farm. Married Rosalie Roussin. Children: Pelagie, John, Edward, Alexis, Damase Arelius, Cyrus, Martha, Cotilda, Deslie, Mary, Felicien; C (5) Joseph Boyer. Married Children: Baptiste, Xavier, John, Firman, Ferdinand, and perhaps others.

D (1) Mary C. Boyer, daughter of Gabriel Boyer and his wife; D (2) Jules Boyer was born July 4, 1821. Died almost 91 years old. Catholic. Lime business, outside of St. Genevieve, Mo. Married Rosine Mayot. Children: Gabriel Clovis, M. J. Firmin, Catharine Marie, Josephine, M. Victorine, Louis Amedee, Jules F., Cyprien, Joseph Augustin, J. Oscar, M. Elizabeth Emma, Henrietta, M. C. Rosalie Elizabeth, Benjamin, and Mamie; D (3) Antoine Boyer was a cabinet maker and a genius; D (4) Eli Boyer, St. Genevieve, Mo.; D (5) Others.

CHAPTER XV

GEORGE NELSON BOYER

This man came from Berlin, Germany, if the tradition of the seventh George Nelson is well founded. The historian can not verify the tradition in the ship lists of immigrants, but that is true of well known immigrants. It is still more difficult to account for this man's middle name. This man, or perhaps only his five sons, Michael, Jacob, John, David, and George Nelson, are said to have come to America between 1710 and 1720. They were thirteen months in coming, and landed at Philadelphia, Pa. If tradition holds, Michael settled in Berks Co., Pa., Jacob in Dauphin Co., Pa., John in Bucks Co., Pa., David in Montgomery Co., Pa., and George Nelson at Mt. Joy, Lancaster Co., Pa.

B (1) George Nelson Boyer, fifth son of George Nelson Boyer, of Berlin, Germany, settled at Mt. Joy, Lancaster Co., Pa. Church records or cemetery inscriptions should furnish facts and dates. The occupation of the man is not known, nor his church connections, nor his wife's name. Children: Solomon, Samuel, David, Joseph, George, and perhaps others.

F (1-4) Samuel, Solomon, David, and Joseph Boyer, sons of George Nelson Boyer, the fifth, and his wife, have not been reported.

F (5) Jacob Boyer, son of George Nelson Boyer, the fifth, and wife, born about 1780, lived at Mt. Joy, Lancaster Co., Pa. Killed Jan. 18, 1814, at New Orleans in our war with England. Married to a Miss Burgher. Her father was a Scotch Earl. Children: David, born 1802; Joseph Benjamin, born July 19, 1804; Catharine, Christina, Lydia.

F (6) George Nelson Boyer, son of George Nelson Boyer, the fifth, and his wife, was born about 1800, or before that date. Lived at Mt. Joy, Lancaster Co., Pa. Sold out. Moved to Berks Co., Pa., where he died about 1870, leaving large possessions. Two George Nelsons became trustees, both second cousins of George H. Boyer, Fairport, N. Y. When the heir named in the "will" could not be located, three executors disposed of the estate.

G (1) David Boyer, son of Jacob Boyer, of Mt. Joy, Lancaster Co., Pa., and his wife Burgher was born 1802; G (2) Catharine (Jane) Boyer married George Enderline, blacksmith and wagoner. Address (1910) Elizabethtown, Pa.; G (3-4) Christina and a sister have not been reported; G (5) Joseph Benjamin Boyer, son of Jacob Boyer and wife Burgher, was born July 19, 1804, at Mt. Joy, Lancaster Co., Pa., and was killed in battle of New Orleans 1814. Lutheran. Graduate of Franklin and Marshall College. With General Scott in Black Hawk War. Also Civil War veteran. Farmer. Died in Soldiers' Home, at Bath, Steuben Co., N. Y. Married Nancy Maria Cline, born May 28, 1826. She died Jan. 23, 1889, and is buried with husband at Sodus, Wayne Co., N. Y. Children: (1) Joseph H. Boyer. Address (1913) Fairport, Monroe Co., N. Y. (2) George Nelson Boyer. Address (1911) North Brookfield, Mass. Born March 6, 1848, at Springfield, Otsego Co., N. Y. Methodist. Soldier of Indian wars of 1867 and 1868. Farmer. Government scout. Heir to ancestral estates.

CHAPTER XVI

JACOB BEYER

Records show that Jacob Beyer settled in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, in 1712. Trinity Church, Lancaster, Pa.—Lutheran—records the birth of Boyer children as early as 1740. If the historian does not jump at false conclusions here, the parents of these children, namely, Peter Beyer, Martin Beyer, Melchior Beyer, Wendel Beyer, and others, must have been sons of Jacob Beyer, one of the earliest German forebears of the American Boyers. An examination of tax lists and "wills" at Lancaster may give the historian the data in question.

C (1) John Boyer, probably a son, or grandson, of Jacob Beyer and his wife, is the first definite Lancaster County Boyer in the historian's records. George Boyer, born 1817, a descendant of this John Boyer, informed the historian's correspondent that John, or his father, was a soldier of the Revolution. This tradition seems to be confirmed on pages 7, 223, 227, 242, 247, 258, 259, 261, 285, and 918, of Vol. 7, Fifth Series, Pennsylvania Archives. If these pages refer to the John Boyer here in question, he belonged to the 3rd Battalion of Lancaster Volunteers in 1780, 1781, and 1782, and must be John's father. To whom John Jr. was married has not been reported, nor what his occupations were. Probably a "will," or other Lancaster County records can be found. One of his sons was George Boyer. Another son, Benjamin Boyer, father of Michael Boyer, was born Aug. 29, 1804. The descendants of these two sons have been pretty completely recorded.

D (1) George Boyer, son of John Boyer and his wife, was born about 1770, and died May 17, 1839. He moved from Lancaster County to Somerset Co., Pa., before 1791. Married Catharine. Children: John, Michael, Henry, Kate, and perhaps others; D (2) Benjamin Boyer married Christina Duffman. Children: Michael Boyer, Joseph, Abraham, Samuel, Lydia, as found in the History of Dekalb County, Indiana. Page 588. Published 1885.

E (1) John Boyer, son of George Boyer and his wife Catharine, was born Aug. 9, 1791, in Somerset Co., Pa., and died Nov. 5, 1856. He is buried in the farm graveyard of the old homestead in that county. Lutheran. Liberal education in English and German. Blacksmith and farmer. Married Barbara Humbert, and after her death, Hannah Ringler. Hannah Ringler was born March 8, 1801, and is buried with her husband. Children: Polly, George, Elizabeth, Sarah Ann, Catharine, Susan, Sophia, Hannah, Peter, and Harriet; E (2) Michael Boyer married Mary Ringler and moved to Garret Co., Maryland. Children: Aaron, Jacob, Solomon, and perhaps others; E (3) Henry Boyer was born in Cambria County, Pa., 1796, and died Feb. 25, 1878. Followed saw milling and farming. Married Margaret Helen. Children: John, Henry, George, Eva, Hettie, Martin, Barney, Joseph, Mary, Reuben, Emmanuel. Write Edgar Marcellus Boyer, son of Emmanuel, chemist in laboratory of the Carnegie Steel Company at Braddock, Pa. Born Oct. 27, 1869, Johnstown, Pa.; E (4) Kate Boyer married Brown.

E (1) Michael Boyer, son of Benjamin Boyer and wife Christina Duffman, was born Aug. 29, 1804, in Somerset Co., Pa., died June 27, 1886, buried at Fairfield Center, Ind. Reformed. Farmer. Moved from Somerset Co., Pa. to Indiana. Married Christiana Troutman, born Jan. 31, 1800. Children: Solomon, Maria, Josiah, and Elizabeth; E (2) Joseph Boyer was born near Bedford, Pa.; E (3) Abraham Boyer died at Dixon, Illinois. Married. Children: Rudolph Boyer. CHAPTER XVII

GEORGE BOYER

Correspondents report that George Boyer was born in 1762, probably in Virginia, where he lived before going to Lexington, Kentucky, where he died 1833, and is buried. From the fact that his son, Dr. Alfred Z. Boyer, was Episcopalian, we may infer that the father was of Virginian stock. What his occupation was the historian has not learned. He married Anna Mary Zealer, born 1767. She is buried with her husband. The children, so far as reported, were Henry and Alfred Z.

B (1) Henry Boyer, son of George Boyer and Anna Zealer, was born about 1792 in Virginia. He died at Paris, Ky., about 1862. Farmer in Bourbon Co., Ky. No children; B (2) Dr. Alfred Z. Husband's name was Graves. Children: Two girls and a boy.

CHAPTER XVIII

JOHN BOYER

According to the historian's correspondents, John Boyer came from Maryland to Newtown, Connecticut. Judging from the fact that his son John was born 1785, he was probably born between 1760-1765. The historian has not learned what his occupation and church connections were, but he was married to Mehetable Briscoe, and left the following children: John, James, Polly, Sarah. Miss Susan Fairchild, 81 Franklin St., Bridgeport, Conn., granddaughter, reports that the tradition that John Boyer came from Maryland rests upon the fact that he went to West Virginia and remained there, probably because he had relatives there. The fact that his daughters were Episcopalians is a strong confirmation of the tradition that he was of English stock, and that he may have come into Maryland from Virginia. His settlement in Connecticut would also support this contention. The English Boyers settling in Virginia generally spelled the name Bowyer, but not invariably and John may have adopted the common spelling of the Northern and New England States.

B (1) John Boyer, son of John Boyer and Mehetable Briscoe, was born 1785, died Nov. 2, 1852, and is buried in Norbourn cemetery. Went to Martinsburg, W. Va. when a young man. The historian does not know what his occupation and church relations were. He married Elizabeth Alburtis, who died Nov. 25, 1838. Children: Sarah, John Alburtis, David, Mary Elizabeth, Emily Susan, Thompson Brooke, and Richard; B (2) James Boyer, born at Newtown, Connecticut, married Caroline Hawley. CHAPTER XIX

The historian's correspondents report that the forefathers of John Boyer were French. From the fact that his wife was born 1734, we may guess that he was born about 1730-1735. Mrs. Bowser says that he is buried in New York. His wife, Mary Simms, and her children, came to New Brunswick with Loyalists, and landed at St. Johns, N. B., about 1762, or a little later, probably after her husband's death. She died in 1811, at the age of 77 years. Mrs. Phoebe Shaw, a descendant, thinks there were only two children, Charles and James. A grandson of Charles, namely Shepherd M. Boyer, of Hartland, N. B., Canada, says, April 13, 1914, that when John Boyer and Mary Simms, his wife, left New York as "loyalists," the son Charles watched the parents "pack up the most valuable things they could take away, such as a silver spoon."

B (1) Charles E. Boyer, son of John Boyer and Mary Simms, was born about 1768, and was only six years old when his mother went to New Brunswick. He died Feb. 4, 1861, 93 years of age, and is buried at Victoria, N. B., Canada. Baptist. Worked in ship yard. Farmer. Blind the last 10 years of life. Married Elizabeth Kenney. She was born 1780, and died April 13, 1864. Children: George Rex, Charles E., John, William, Edward, Asa, Moses, Victoria, Polly, and Jane.

B (2) James Boyer, son of John Boyer and Mary Simms, was sent from New Brunswick to New York on some errand when young, but was lost at sea, and so far as known, left no descendants.

C (1) George Rex Boyer, son of Charles E. Boyer and Elizabeth Kenny, was born 1801, died June 1886, and is buried at Victoria, N. B., Canada. Baptist. Farmer. Tanner. Manufacturer. Married Chloe Churchhill. Children: Pumitia, George W., James W., Amos, and Caroline, and three others; C (2) Charles Boyer was born April 1799, and died Jan. 1881. Lived at Florenceville, New Brunswick, Canada, just across the river from John. Married Elizabeth Tompkins. Children: Maria, James, Dorcas, Nelson, Hulda, Ruth, Mary, Edward, Hilkiah, Catharine, Lois, Wesley, Charles; C (3) John Boyer was born about 1798, and died at the age of 82. Lived at Florenceville, N. B., Canada. Farmer and miller. Married: (1) Ruth Partridge, (2) Naomi Wheeler. Children: John, Charles, Jonas, William, Betsy, Sarah, Mary, Ruth, Esther, of first wife; Edward Wheeler, George, Charles N., Nancy E., Isabelle V., Fannie, Addie; C (4) William Boyer was born Nov. 28, 1817, died 74 years old, at Summerville, N. B., Canada. Married Susannah H. Shaw. Children: Phoebe Elizabeth, Emma Adelia, Annetta A., Herbert N., William Henry, Reverend A. B., Elmer S., and five others that died young; C (5) Edward Boyer died 72 years old. Lived at Victoria, New Brunswick, Canada. Married. Children: Gordon E., Charlotte, and Letitia; C (6) Asa Boyer was born about 1818, died about 52 years old at Victoria, N. B., Canada. Methodist "class leader." Worker in leather. Married Prudence. Children: Edward M., and Thomas; C (7) Moses Boyer was the youngest and died 68 years old. Lived at Victoria, N. B. Married Martha Shaw. Address (1912) 98 Princes St., Victoria. Children: Shepherd M., Adolphus E., Nehemiah S., Emma, Alice, Ann, Charles, and five others; C (8) Victoria, Polly, and Jane Boyer were the daughters of Charles E. Boyer and Elizabeth Kenney.

D (1) John Boyer, son of John Boyer and first wife Ruth Partridge, married Mary Stuart. Children: Ruth, Eliza, Agnes, Alice, Douglass; D (2) Charles Boyer probably left no children; D (3) Jonas Boyer. No data; D (4) William Boyer. No data; D (5) Betsy Boyer married: (1) Kinney, (2) Hiram Hatch. Children: Ruth, Emily, Helen, Lucretia, Annabell; D (6) Sarah Boyer married Edward Cox. Children: Ruth, William, Murray, Agnes, George, Burpie, Spurgeon, Mary. Ruth married William Miles. William married Miss Watson; D (7) Mary Boyer married Phillips. Son: Allison; D (8) Ruth Boyer married Absolom Kimball. Children: Richard, John, Ida, Frank, of Bridgewater, Me.; D (9) Esther Boyer married Fennemore. Children lived in New Brunswick; D (10) Edward Wheeler Boyer, son of John Boyer and second wife Naomi Wheeler, was born 1836. Farmer. Baptist, Florenceville, N. B. Married Harriet Atwood Harnett. CHAPTER XX

MICHAEL BAYER

Correspondents report that Michael Bayer was born Dec. 25, 1746, and died August 3, 1820. He lived in Northampton County, Pennsylvania. The Pennsylvania Archives record, in Vol. 8, pages 126, 151, 199, 207, 222, 517, Fifth Series, and in Vol. 4, page 646, that Michael Bayer, of Northampton County, Pa., was a private soldier, under Captain Santee, in 1781, 1782, and 1783. This was evidently the Michael Bayer in question. These Archives also record Frederick Bayer, John Bayer, David Bayer, Adam Bayer, Henry Bayer, Paul Bayer, and several others from the same county. They may be brothers and cousins. The tax lists, old church records, "wills," etc., of Northampton and Bucks Counties may prove relationship. That Michael Bayer was a German is certain, for the old Bible in which his son recorded dates is German, and so are the family records. Who the parents were remains to be found, but that there were people of this name in Northampton and Bucks Cos., Pa., prior to 1746 is shown by Naturalization records and Land Patents. Michael Bayer married (1768) Margaret, born 1747. She died Jan. 8, 1850. Children (so far as reported): John, Jacob, John George, and Michael. Probably there were others—especially girls. Jacob was born April 22, 1774, and died young.

B (1) John Boyer, son of Michael Bayer and his wife Margaret, was born Oct. 4, 1769, in Nazareth Township, Northampton Co., Pa., and died before 1844. Married Catharine. Children: Anna, Jacob, David, Margaret, John.

Postscript on Adam Bayer

This man lived in Williams Township, Northampton County, Pennsylvania, or in a neighboring township, as we judge from the fact that he belonged to the Lutheran congregation of that township. Perhaps he lived in Saucon Township. Perhaps he was a brother of the father of Michael Beyer, born 1746. Adam Beyer, as we judge from the dates of birth of his children, was born about 1720, very likely in Germany. His wife's name was Anna Maria. The children were Anna Margaret, born March 4, 1741; John, born June 6, 1742; William, born Oct. 8, 1746; John Jacob, born Sept. 24, 1753; and perhaps Peter, whose marriage (April 20, 1762) to Anna Maria Shultz is recorded in the Reformed church of Egypt, Lehigh Co., Pa., not far from Adam Beyer's home.

From the Egypt record we take it that John Beyer, son of Adam Beyer and wife Anna Maria, married Anna Maria Sauerbrey, Nov. 29, 1768. If there were children, they were not recorded in this church. From the records it appears that Anna Maria died, and that on August 16, 1785, he married Maria Rupp. But what became of these people is an absolute mystery to the historian.

CHAPTER XXI

JOHANNES BAYER

From the fact that his wife was born in 1750, we infer that Johannes Bayer was born before that time, or about that time. Correspondents do not report his parents, nor do we know for certain when he came to America. He lived on a farm less than a mile North by West of the Lower Saucon Church, in Northampton County, Pennsylvania, where he and his wife were buried. From these local facts we infer that he may have been the brother of Michael Bayer, born Dec. 25, 1746, for he, too, lived in this community at the same time. Perhaps, indeed, they were the sons of a German immigrant, for there were several in this county, and we have no other trace of the descendants. That they were both Germans is well known from old Bibles and family records in these Bibles. It is altogether likely that both men were soldiers of the Revolution, as the Pennsylvania Archives for Northampton County would show. These archives record Adam Bayer, John Bayer, Michael Bayer, Frederick Bayer, David Bayer, Paul Bayer, and others. The tax lists at Easton, and perhaps Boyer "wills" should show relationship. Church records may help us in the end. Johannes Bayer married Anna Maria Lerick (Lerch), born Nov. 21, 1750. Children, so far as reported, Jacob, Isaac, John, and Margaret (Fulmer).

B (1) Jacob Boyer, son of Johannes Bayer and Anna M. Lerch, was born about 1772, and died about 1852. Lived at Howertown, Northampton County, Pa., where he is also buried. Reformed. Farmer. Married Mary M. Dreisbach, who died 1868. CHAPTER XXII

PETER BEYER

Who were the parents of Peter Beyer may be impossible to ascertain. That he was a German, and quite likely an immigrant, appears from the spelling of his name in the scanty records at our command. From the fact that his son Leonhart was born in 1768, we assume that he was born as early 1748, perhaps earlier. He appears to have lived in Plainfield Twp., Northampton County, Pa., where he was probably married, but the historian has not been able to ascertain to whom. Some church records or court records may give us the facts. We do know that he was a Revolutionary soldier, and that therefore all his descendants are eligible to such orders as the Sons and Daughters of American Revolution. For the proofs, see pages 22 and 24, Vol. 8, Fifth Series, Pennsylvania Archives. He enlisted from Northampton County, Pa., July 9, 1776, and was killed in the battle of Long Island, Aug. 27, 1776. The historian has not ascertained whether his body was interred in Plainfield Twp., Northampton Co., Pa., or not, but his widow probably lived there, and appears to have died a few years later, for his son Leonhart was apprenticed to a stranger.

Note.—Perhaps Peter Beyer was the son of Adam Beyer and his wife Anna Maria, recorded at the end of Chapter 20. In that case he was married to Anna Maria Shultz, April 20, 1762.

B (1) Leonhart Beyer, probably the only son of Peter Beyer and his wife, was very likely born in Plainfield Twp., Northampton Co., Pa., about 1768, as we reckon from the fact that he died March 26, 1820, in his 52nd year. "On March 9, 1779, his guardian Caspar Doll, indentured him for nine years to Valentine Metz, shoemaker, of Plainfield Twp., Northampton Co., Pa. The historian has a copy of this indenture, secured from A. F. Sickman, Holyoke, Mass., a relative. When he became a man he located in Snowden Twp., Allegheny Co., Pa., at Croca's Tanyard. In 1812 we find him building a log house on the Library road. He married Mary Deemer, of Westmoreland Co., Pa., and her parents, like his, were from Eastern Pennsylvania. She was born 1771, and died Dec. 25, 1859. They are both buried at the Peter's Creek Baptist Church, Library, Pa. The children were Jacob, Elizabeth, Mary, Peter, Andrew, Ann, John.

C (1) Jacob Boyer, son of Leonhart Beyer and Mary Deemer, was born Jan. 1, 1795, in Snowden Twp., Allegheny Co., Pa., and died Aug. 19, 1874. He is buried at Peter's Creek Baptist Church, Library, Pa. Tailor. Farmer. Baptist. Married Rebecca Piersol, of Chester Co., Pa., Baptist. Celebrated their golden wedding. Children: Matilda, Elizabeth, George, Leonhart P. C (2) Elizabeth Boyer married Henry Pomerine. Children: David, Martha, Mary, Henry, Leonard, Elizabeth, Frank, and Madison. C (3) Mary Boyer was born April 1, 1800, died Nov. 16, 1853, and is buried at Library, Pa. She married Samuel Boyer, born Nov. 9, 1791, Washington Co., Pa., but of Maryland stock, belonging to Christopher Boyer and Ann Youst, descendants. See Chapter 35. She died July 18, 1878, and is buried at Library, Pa. The children were James B., Peter B., John W., Elizabeth Lucinda, Amma, Nancy, and Annie. C (4) Peter Boyer was born Jan. 14, 1803, in Northumberland Co., Pa., and died Sept. 2, 1881. He is buried at the Library Baptist Church. Farmer. Married Oct. 21, 1833, to Elizabeth Philips, born Jan. 29, 1808, who died Sept. 16, 1843, and then to Jane Cochran, born March 12, 1828, in Allegheny Co., Pa. Address (1909) Library, Pa. Resides on farm purchased by Leonhart Beyer. Children: Matilda, Mary A., Sarah B., Leonard, James Cochran, and Elizabeth A. CHAPTER XXIII

JOHANN FRIDERICH BOYER (BEYER)

The "Burial Records" of the old "Red Church" (Zion's), near Orwigsburg, Pa., inform us that Johann Friderich Boyer, born in Germany, died Sept. 11, 1804, at the age of 86 years, 4 months and 16 days. Accordingly he was born April 25, 1718. The same records inform us that Anna Maria, born at Schaffshausen (?), Germany, died Nov. 18th, 1805, at the age of 76 years, 10 months and 23 days. She was therefore born Dec. 25, 1728. The Pennsylvania Archives record in Vol. 17, that a Joh. Georg Friederich Bayer came to America on the ship "Nancy," last from Rotterdam, landing at Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 27, 1752. This was undoubtedly the man in question, but his wife is not named in the list of passengers. She may have arrived later, as was sometimes the case. From the fact that a Frederick Beier appears in the tax-list of Ruscombmanor Township, Berks County, Pa., as early as 1758 and up to 1772, and that this name then occurs in Brunswick Township (then Berks, but later Schuylkill County), we must infer that the couple first settled in Ruscomanor Township, and that their children were born here. The family moved to the neighborhood of the old Red Church about 1774, where they spent the rest of their life, and where they, together with a number of their descendants are interred. They were Lutherans as we judge. The children, so far as we know without access to Court House Records at Pottsville, Pa., were Frederick, George, John Jacob, Johann Gottfried, and Peter. Whether the Leonard Bayer who died in Bruns-Twp., Berks Co., Pa., in 1777, was a brother, or son, or neither, remains to be proved.

B (1) Frederick Bayer, son of Johann Friderich Bayer and his wife Anna Maria, was born about 1750, as the Pennsylvania Archives show. (See Vol. 4, page 133.) He died in North Manheim Twp., Schuylkill Co., Pa., and is buried at the "White" Church, Orwigsburg, Pa. A red gravestone behind the church shows the spot. He was a soldier of the Revolution, remaining in Virginia through the war. He belonged to the 4th Regiment, Continental Line. See page 1073, Vol. 2, Pennsylvania Archives, and page 133, Vol. 4, where we learn that in 1835 he was 85 years old. From this fact it appears that he must have been born in Germany. After the war he came to North Manheim Township, Berks County, later Schuylkill County, Pa., and took up 800 acres of land. A "Thomas" family lived on parts of this land in "Tumbling Run" about 1910. By and by Frederick found Margaret Rabenold at Paradise, near Danville, Pa., and brought her to his North Manheim home. Here all his children were born and raised. He belonged to the old "Red" Church, and why he is buried at the "White" Church is not known to the historian. His children were Michael, Polly, Sarah, John, and Daniel.

B (2) George Bayer, son of Johann Friderich Bayer and his wife Anna Maria, was born about 1752, if the historian guesses correctly. His descendants report that he lived on a large farm before the Revolutionary War, "just across the Second Mountain," from the place where his brother Frederick afterwards settled down. It appears, so his descendants report, that he had gone with his brother Frederick to Virginia, but was not a soldier. He died about 1820, as Daniel S. Boyer, of Minersville, Pa., reports, and, although he belonged to the "Red" Church, he was buried at the "White" Church, probably because he lived at Orwigsburg, or because his wife was Reformed and was buried there. He married Maria Hossinger. The children were Daniel, Kate, Henry, David, Peter, and Mary.

B (3) John Jacob Bayer, son of Johann Friderich Bayer and his wife Anna Maria, was born Nov. 20, 1771, as the "Red Church" burial records show. He belonged to the old Red Church, where his birth and baptism are recorded, but the historian has not found his grave. The historian has not learned the name of his wife, but knows the names of three sons, Peter, Andrew, Benjamin, and one daughter Mary. The Pottsville, Pa., Court Records may add to our information. Note.—John Boyer, born about 1793, and settling in Jefferson Co., Pa., almost certainly a son.

B (4) Johann Gottfried Bayer, son of Johann Fridrich Bayer and his wife Anna Maria, was born Jan. 2, 1774, probably in North Manheim Twp., Berks, but later Schuylkill Co., Pa. He died Sept. 29, 1826, and is buried on the Union Cemetery, Schuylkill Haven, Pa. From Rev. Weller's burial records we know that his wife Magdalene Hardinger, was born in 1771 and died 1848. Children: Abraham, Philip, Lewis, Henry, Daniel, and Anna Maria, so far as the historian knows without access to Court Records or Bibles.

B (5) Peter Bayer, son of Johann Friderich Bayer and his wife Anna Maria, was born Sept. 10, 1777, and died March 5, 1851, as we learn from the inscription on his tombstone in Union Cemetery, Schuylkill Haven, Pa. He was Lutheran and a farmer. He married Anna Maria Kamp, born March 22, 1782, dying Jan. 22, 1871. Children: Peter, Israel, Elijah, Nellie, Polly, and Kate.

C (1) Michael Boyer, son of Frederick Bayer and Margaret Rabenold, was born in 1802, above the Big Dam, at Tumbling Ru North Manheim Twp., Schuylkill Co., Pa. He was a "Red" Church Lutheran, but is buried in the Lutheran Cemetery, Orwigsburg, Pa. A miner nearly all his life. Worked with his son Daniel S. Boyer about 20 years. Married Barbara Tittle. She is buried beside her husband. The family at one time lived on a farm in Walker Twp., Schuylkill Co., Pa., known to the historian as the property of John Koch, and also in the house near the old saw mill below Simon Merkel's home, where the historian passed on his way to church and school. Children: Daniel S., Joshua, Kate, Sarah, William, Susan, and Benjamin; C (2) Polly Boyer married George Stoudt. Children: James and George. Both died single; C (3) Sarah Boyer married James Lyons. Both are buried at Laudertown, near Port Carbon, Pa. The historian has no data to record; C (4) John Boyer was born in Tumbling Run, Pa. Lutheran. Wood chopper. Married Kate Schmidt. Both are buried at Laudertown, Port Carbon, Pa. Children: John, Daniel, and Frank. The son John was a soldier of the Civil War, and his address in 1910 was Soldiers' Home, Norfolk, Va. No children. His brothers, Daniel and Frank, both single, and good soldiers, were captured at South Mountain, Little Round Top, Pa., and perished in Andersonville prison; C (5) Daniel Boyer was born about 1810. Lutheran. Gunsmith. Went to Indiana before the Civil War, and afterwards to Michigan. His wife's name is not known to the historian. The children were Frank, and others; C (6) Katherine Boyer married Peter Singley. Both buried at Laudertown, Port Carbon, Pa. The children were Henry and others.

C (1) Daniel Boyer, son of George Bayer and Maria Hossinger, was born about 1790 (Historian's guess). He and his wife, Elizabeth Schock, are both buried in the Lutheran Cemetery, Hegins, Pa. Lutheran. Lived in Deep Creek Valley, Pa. Owned a saw mill. Children: Joseph, Catharine, Mary, Phoebe, Caroline, Hannah, and Elizabeth; C (2) Kate Boyer, born 1798, died about 1884. Married Thomas Schock. Lived in Lewistown Valley, Walker Twp., Schuylkill Co., Pa., and were almost neighbors of the historian's father. Children: Hannah, Adam, and Henry; C (3) Henry Boyer was born Sept. 1812, probably in Oley, Pa., but where the historian does not know. Lutheran. Blacksmith. His home was at Pottsville, Pa. Married Sarah Rishel, and after her death, Sarah Frayzer. Children: Amanda, Emma, Ella, Celinda, William, Ellen, Linda, Edward, and Deborah; C (4) David Boyer was born April 3, 1806, and died June 23, 1888. Buried on the Lutheran Cemetery, Orwigsburg, Pa. Lutheran. Gunsmith. Married Susannah Montgomery, and after her death Hannah Beck. Children: Joseph (of first wife), Violet, Lawrence, Matilda, George B., William, Anna, David, Barney, Lillie, and George; C (5) Peter Boyer was born Jan. 1, 1816, and died Aug. 15, 1895. Buried on the Lutheran Cemetery, Orwigsburg, Pa. Lutheran. Lived on his father's farm. Address used to be Orwigsburg, Pa. Married Esther Hollenbach. Children: James Boyer, who died single, and Louisa Boyer, who married John Potts, and whose address (1910) was Orwigsburg, Pa.; C (6) Mary Boyer apparently died single.

C (1) Peter Boyer, son of John Jacob Bayer and wife, was born 1802, died in Harrison Co., Ohio, 1875. Lived in the vicinity of Orwigsburg, Pa. Farmer. Lutheran. Married Susannah Fritz. Children: Nathan, Jacob, Reuben, William, Noah, Elizabeth, Laura, Susana, Leanna, Rebecca, Joseph; C (2) Benjamin Boyer, born Nov. 25, 1805. Lutheran. Farmer on "Sculp's Hill," vicinity of "Red Church," below Orwigsburg, Pa. Married Leah Schrader. Children: Jacob Boyer, Amanda E. Boyer, Lewis Boyer, Mary Boyer, Sarah Boyer, Matilda Boyer, Kate Boyer; C (3) Andrew Boyer has not been reported; C (4) Mary Boyer married Mr. Rider. Mary had a sister, but Mrs. Thrall can not name her. But she recalls the name of Benjamin's wife, "Leah Schrader"; C (5) John Boyer, almost certainly a son of John Jacob Bayer of the "Red Church," was born about 1793, and moved to Jefferson Co., Pa., in 1842. He died 1855, and is buried in Jefferson Co., Pa. Lutheran. Farmer. Married. Children: Benjamin, James, Harriet, two other girls and one other boy.

C (1) Abraham Boyer, son of Johann Gottfried Bayer and Magdalena Hardinger, was born Dec. 20, 1795, in Schuylkill Haven, Pa. He died Sept. 24, 1880, and is buried on the Lutheran Cemetery, Schuylkill Haven, Pa. Schuylkill Haven now covers the large farm which he owned. His wife, Susannah Luckenbill, was born in 1829 and died in 1888. Children: Frederick Gottfried, Henry, George, Daniel, and Anna Maria; C (2) Lewis Boyer. Married. Children. CHAPTER XXIV

STEPHEN BOVYER

The historian finds, through descendants, that Stephen Boyer, the subject of this chapter, came to America from England, but that his ancestors were Huguenots who left France at the time of the "massacre" —likely the Massacre of St. Bartholomew's Day, August 24, 1572—going to Holland, and then settling in Cheshire, England. The letter "v" appears to have crept into the name in Holland. Stephen Boyer married Sarah Campbell of England. They came to Rhode Island in Roger Williams' time. In the "History of the Church of Narragansett," by John Updike, he is mentioned as warden and vestryman. Being loyalists, and refusing to take the oath of allegiance to the U. S., the family moved to P. E. Island at the time of the American Revolution. At Bunbury and Cascumpeck is a place still (1910) called "Bovyer's Cove." There were eight children, but at this writing only William is known. William was the third child.

B (3) William Boyer, third son of Stephen Boyer and Sarah Campbell, settled in Stanhope, P. E. Island. Married Margaret Kelly. Children: Elizabeth, Isabella, James, Samuel, Rebecca, Albert, Matilda, and William.

C (1) Elizabeth Boyer, daughter of William Boyer and Margaret Kelly, married Rev. Matthew Smith. Children: Christopher, Margaret; C (2) Isabella Boyer married Peter Wilson. No children; C (3) James Boyer married Mary Lawson. No children; C (4) Samuel Boyer, born Nov. 18, 1817, at Cove Head, P. E. Island, died Jan., 1899, buried at Mt. Auburn, Cambridge, Mass. Methodist. Builder in Boston and vicinity. Married Joanna Higgins, born about 1820. She died at Boston, Aug. 28, 1859, and is buried at Forest Hill. After her death Samuel Boyer married a second wife. His children were: George S., Frederick William, Henry Banks, Herbert Lincoln, Homer; C (5) Rebecca Boyer married William Auld. No children; C (6) Albert Boyer married Eliza Shaw. Children: Charles, Alfred, Frank, Nelson, Rhoda, and Jane; C (7) Matilda Boyer married John Diamond. No children; C (8) William Boyer went to California in 1855. Married Phoebe Baker. Children: Alice, Edward, Effie.

CHAPTER XXV

ANDREAS BAYER (BEIER)

The records of the New Goshenhoppen Church (Lutheran, St. Paul's, Six Corner), below Pennsburg, Pa., show that Andreas Bayer was elected June 5, 1752, as Elder. From this fact we may judge that he was not a very young man. The Goshenhoppen connection suggests that he may have been a cousin of Andreas Bayer, son of Christopher Bayer, of the Old Goshenhoppen Church, and that he was born in the Palatinate, Germany. The Andreas of the New Goshenhoppen Church can not be the Andreas of the Old Goshenhoppen Church, for the wife of the latter lived long after the New Goshenhoppen Andreas married a second time. His first marriage was to Elizabeth, probably in 1752, and there was one son, Thomas. She must have died soon after Thomas was born. On Dec. 22, 1758, Andreas married Dorothy Gabel. The children were John Peter, Andreas, George, Michael, and perhaps others. The historian can not identify this Andreas with any Revolutionary War data, and thinks he was not a soldier.

B (1) Thomas Bayer, son of Andreas Bayer and his wife Elizabeth, was born Nov. 7, 1753. Lutheran. Married Christina. CHAPTER XXVI

GEORGE PHILIP BAYER

George Philip Bayer, born Jan. 30, 1750, in Baden, Germany, was a son of Conrad Bayer. This Conrad was the "Rathscrhreiber" von Gemmige, Liebenstadt A. R. Grandduke of Baden. He left his home and country a young man, but we do not know why. On board the ship which brought him to New York he met and married Catharine. They were both "redemptioners" for several years in New Jersey, where several children were born to them. Eventually they settled in Richmond Township, Berks County, Pennsylvania. George Philip Bayer died Sept. 18, 1824. He and his wife are buried in Mertz Church yard, Rockland Twp., Berks Co., Pa. They were Lutherans and farmers. The children, so far as the descendants can ascertain, were William, Jacob, Abraham, Michael, and Lydia. When, several years ago, the descendants of John Philip Bayer, sent an attorney to Baden to inquire into Conrad Bayer's family and estate, they found that this estate had been distributed among other children, and that John Philip's descendants could not lay claims to any share that might have fallen to them had John Philip kept in touch with his family.

CHAPTER XXVII

HENRY BAYER

The researches made by the late Emmanuel R. Boyer, of Chicago, Illinois, go to show that his immigrant ancestor, Henry Bayer, settled in York County, Pennsylvania, where he took up 375 acres of land. That he came from Germany is certain, but the ship lists do not contain his name, which is not unusual. The historian has not examined the patent deeds of York County, nor church records. From "wills" recorded in York, Pa., and which were copied for the historian by Dr. A. Stapleton, we infer that the family lived in Manheim Twp., York Co., Pa. We do not know to whom he was married but Bible records furnish the names of his children. They were Henry, Jacob, John, Benjamin, Jonas, Christopher, Daniel, and Maria. Mr. D. V. Byers, of Sterling, Illinois, reports the tradition that these boys were soldiers of the American Revolution. What the Archives record will be stated presently. Perhaps, accordingly, the oldest son was born about 1740, so that we may assume that the father was born in Germany about 1720 or 1725. It is just possible that Henry Bayer was the brother of Samuel Bayer of Chapter 28, and that their father was Samuel Bayer from Switzerland.

B (1) Henry Boyer, son of Henry Bayer, of Manheim Twp., York County, Pa., and his wife, was born about 1740, judging from his "will." Lived in Manheim Township, and left a "considerable estate." His "will" was probated at York, Pa., August, 1812. He had made it when he was "old and weak." Married Barbara Winter. Children:

John, Henry, Christian, Daniel. and Magdalena. From page 486, Vol. 2, Sixth Series, Pennsylvania Archives, we infer that this Henry Boyer was a soldier of the Third Battalion, York county, Pa. Militia in 1781, together with his brother John. The name is spelled Byer in the archives.

B (2) Jacob Beyer, son of Henry Bayer, of Manheim, and his wife. On page 606, Vol. 2, Sixth Series, Pa. Archives, we find Henry, John, Jacob, and Philip Beyer, enlisted in the York County, Pa. Militia in 1776. We take it that these boys were relatives. Probably one of Jacob's sons was Jacob of Frederick Co., Md. See C.

B (3) John Boyer, son of Henry Bayer, of Manheim, and his wife, was born a year or two before or after 1740, as we judge from the statement "old and weak" in his "will." Left large estate in Manheim Twp., York Co., Pa., probably his portion of his father's 375 acre property. The "will" was probated April 1809. In it he names his wife Elizabeth, and speaks of nine children. They were Henry (the "eldest"), Daniel, Christian, Benjamin, John, Magdalena, Elizabeth, George, and one other not known. George is not mentioned in this will, but brother John's, nor is John mentioned, but implied by the phrase "John. Senior." If, as D. V. Byers, of Sterling, Illinois, says, this "John Senior" came from Switzerland, the family must have come after 1740.

B (4) Benjamin Boyer, son of Henry Bayer, of Manheim, and his wife. Perhaps he and Jacob, his brother, were killed in the Revolution. There is no trace of descendants.

B (5) Jonas Byer, son of Henry Bayer, of Manheim, and wife, was born March 17, 1760, probably in Manheim Twp., York Co., Pa. He died Feb. 10, 1849, in Markham, Canada. Settled near Markham, Ontario, Canada, 1811. Farmer. Married Elizabeth Schwartz, born March 21, 1761. She died Sept. 24, 1822. Children: David, Benjamin, Samuel, Susanna, Elizabeth, Christina.

B (6) Christopher Boyer, son of Henry Bayer, of Manheim, and his wife, lived in Pennsylvania. Married. Children: Samuel, John, David, Elizabeth, Nancy, and Mrs. Moul.

B (7) Daniel Boyer, son of Henry Bayer, of Manheim, and his wife, was born about 1795, as reported by his son Amos. Moved from York County, Pa., to East Germantown, Ohio, where he and wife are buried. Lutheran. Married to Rosina Gladfelter. Children: Amos, Cassilius, Rebecca, Elizabeth, Daniel, and John. The last one was married, but left no children.

B (8) Maria Boyer, daughter of Henry Boyer, of Manheim Twp., York Co., Pa., and wife, married Mr. Caslow. Children: Henry, John, Jacob, Samuel, Magdalena.

C (1) John Boyer, son of Henry Boyer and wife Barbara Winter, moved to Bedford County, Pa. His nephew John H. Boyer, of Bradford, Ohio, says he hears that uncle John had two sons, one a conductor on the B. and O. Railroad, and the other had a hotel in Pittsburgh, Pa. Perhaps Daniel Boyer, of Bedford, Pa., is a son; C (2) Henry Boyer lived at Iron Ore, York Co., Pa., married Elizabeth Weikel. Children: Michael, George, Elias, Rebecca, and Elizabeth; C (3) Christian Boyer. His nephew John H. Boyer, says he knows very little about this uncle. Oren Boyer says Abraham Boyer, of Canton, Ohio, is a son; C (4) Daniel Boyer was born in Manheim Twp., York Co., Pa., in 1799, died Dec. 30, 1846, and is buried at Garber Cemetery. Lived on one-third of the "old homestead." Married Elizabeth Hoff, born 1800. She died 1885, in Darke Co., Ohio, where she had gone with her children. Children: Jonas, Maria, Barbara, Manassas, Kate, Henry, Daniel, John H., Samuel, Elizabeth, and Aaron; C (5) Magdalene.

C (1) Jacob Beyer, probably son of Jacob Beyer, of Manheim Twp., York Co., Pa. Our correspondent Charles W. Boyer, of Martinsburg, West Virginia, says that "Jacob Beyer, born about 1785, was a soldier of 1812." Married a girl of the same name from Garrett County, Maryland. They were both Protestants. The same correspondent says that Jacob Beyer's father served with Washington in the American Revolution, but he can not name the man. Jacob Beyer lived in Frederick County, Maryland. Our correspondent thinks Jacob Beyer's father was a descendant of John Beyer—perhaps Henry—who settled near York, Pa., in 1710, about 30 or 40 miles from where the Jacob in question, and his sons, were at home. Children: Jacob, Solomon, George W.

C (1) Henry Boyer, eldest son of John Boyer and his wife Elizabeth; C (2) Daniel Boyer; C (3) Christian Boyer; C (4) Rev. Benjamin Boyer was born about 1760-1766. Bishop in River Brethren Church. Died several miles north of Carlisle, Pa. Married Anna Miller, April 2, 1786. Children: Elizabeth, John, Barbara, Susannah, Henry, Samuel, Anna, Daniel, Maria, Christian; C (5) John Boyer lived in Franklin Township, York Co., Pa., as his "will" shows. It was probated August 1823. Owned a farm. Left it to his brother George. This would seem to mean that John had no children. He also provided for his wife Barbara and left something for his mother Elizabeth. He was weak in body when he made the "will"; C (6-7) Magdalena and Elizabeth were daughters of John Boyer and wife Elizabeth, as known from the "will" in 1809; C (8) George Boyer fell heir to the farm of his brother George in 1809.

C (1) Amos Boyer, son of Daniel Boyer and wife Rosina Gladfelter, was born Nov. 4, 1830, in York Co., Pa. Came with parents to East Germantown, Indiana, in 1838. "Christian Church." Married Sarah Hamm, born Dec. 14, 1834, in Berks Co., Pa. Children: (1) Clara, born Dec. 4, 1860. Saleslady in Atlanta, Hamilton Co., Ind., and Clem, born Sept. 25, 1862. Address (1915) Atlanta, Indiana. Tinplate worker. Married. Child: Hugh, born Oct. 28, 1896; C (2) Cassilius Boyer, Cambridge City, Indiana; C (3) Charles Boyer, Galesburg, Ill.; C (4) Rebecca Boyer married Mr. Sninn, 2001 E. Main St., Richmond, Ind.; C (5) Elizabeth Boyer married Oldacker, East Germantown, Indiana; C (6) Daniel Boyer, Cambridge City, Indiana.

C (1) David Byer, son of Jonas Byer and wife Elizabeth Schwartz, was born June 16, 1791, in Canada, and died Sept. 1, 1844, Markham, Ontario, Canada. Married Anna Donner, born May 6, 1798. She died Nov. 18, 1865. Children: Jonas, Susanna, David, John Hoover, Anna Christina, Elizabeth; C (2) Benjamin Byer was born Nov. 3, 1787, and died Nov. 6, 1852. Married Elizabeth Martin, born Oct. 30, 1787. Children: David, John, Mary, perhaps other daughters; C (3) Samuel Byer was born Feb. 2, 1806, and died Aug. 19, 1878. Married Mary Whitney, born Sept. 24, 1803. Children: Abraham, Jonas, Catherine, Elizabeth, Dinah, Mary, Susanna; C (4) Susanna Byer married Abraham Miller. She died Oct. 2, 1833, aged 32 years, 10 months and 3 days; C (5) Elizabeth Byer married Peter Ramer. She died March 2, 1876, aged 81 years, 5 months and 20 days; C (6) Christina Byer married John F. Hoover. She died April 15, 1861, aged 76 years, 6 months, 29 days.

C (1) Samuel Boyer, son of Christopher Boyer and wife. Married. Children: (1) Sarah, wife of Mr. Stambaugh; (2) Magdalene, wife of Mr. Rorbaugh; Andrew, of Iron Ore, York Co., Pa.; (3) Leah, (4) Maria, (5) Rebecca; C (2) John Boyer; C (3) David Boyer. CHAPTER XXVIII

SAMUEL BOYER

The historian's correspondent hands down the tradition that Samuel Boyer came from Switzerland. An old Bible records the dates of birth and death, 1725 and 1824. In 1734, or just before that, a Samuel Boyer purchased land from Amos Strettle, of Strasburg Twp., Lancaster Co., Pa., and the record belongs to this family. It would indicate that Samuel's father was the purchaser, and that his name also was Samuel. The Samuel born 1725 founded a family in York County, Pa. To whom he was married has not been reported, nor do we know how many children he left. The only one definitely reported is Jacob, born 1754. It is just possible that the older Samuel Bayer was a brother to Henry Bayer, the founder of the York County line of Chapter 27.

C (1) Jacob Boyer, son of Samuel Boyer and wife, was born 1754. It is not known at this time how he made a living and what his church affiliations were, nor whether he took any part in the Revolutionary War. He married Christiana Shultz, born 1755. The correspondent, Mr. Martin E. Boyer, a descendant, has records to show that there were at least the following children: Samuel S., John, Henry, Elizabeth, and Daniel. There may have been others.

D (1) Samuel S. Boyer, son of Jacob Boyer and his wife Christiana Shultz, was born Aug. 16, 1795, in Lancaster Co., Pa., died Feb. 20, 1867, and is buried on Carroll's Manor, near Frederick, Maryland. Moved about 1842 from Lancaster County, Pa., to Carroll Co., Md., near what is now (1913) called Lineboro. Afterwards he moved to Frederick Co., Md. "He came from Pennsylvania with part of his children," says one correspondent, who copied the statement from a "Frederick" paper of 1867. Married Sarah Lefever, daughter of Samuel Lefever. Children: John L., Samuel L., George L., Jacob L., Henry L., Mary, Sarah, Barbara, Leah; D (2) Daniel Boyer was born about 1799, and died 1864. Before 1840 he moved to Freystown, York Co., Pa. The place is now a part of York, Pa. Married Anna Maria Kissinger, born 1802. Children: Abraham, Daniel, Simpson, Mary, Conrad, Sarah, Rachel, Jacob, Christie, Henry, Susan; D (3-5) John, Henry, and Elizabeth Boyer, children of Jacob Boyer and Christiana Shultz, have not been reported.

E (1) John Lefever Boyer, son of Samuel S. Boyer and wife Sarah Lefever, was born Nov. 7, 1820, in Spring Twp., York Co., Pa., and died Jan. 16, 1892. Baptized by Rev. Mayer, Reformed minister. He and his wife are buried at New Freedom, York Co., Pa. Married Nancy Lamotte, born Feb. 7, 1830. Children: (1) John Henry Lamotte Boyer, New Freedom, Pa., R. D. Born Nov. 22, 1857, Carroll Co., Md. Reformed. Merchant. Teacher for 11 years. Married Priscilla E. Stanford, born Jan. 22, 1857. Children: John Roy, born June 21, 1890. Telegrapher, New Freedom, Pa.; Blanche Marie, born March 18, 1895. CHAPTER XXIX

FREDERICK BEYER

Correspondents report that this Frederick Beyer lived mostly in Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania. Judging from the date of his marriage he was born about 1750, but the historian can not find his parents. The ship list, Vol. 17, Second Series, Pennsylvania Archives, records a Frederick Beyer coming to America in 1772, on the ship "Crawford," landing at Philadelphia, Pa., Oct. 16. The fact that the Frederick of this chapter was married to Margaret Mann, of Berlin, Germany, about 1768, seems to identify the man. A grandson reports that Frederick is buried in the neighborhood of Germantown, Pa. The children were George, John, Catherine, Margaret, Frederick, and Jacob.

CHAPTER XXX

FREDERICK BAYER

From records in the hands of Reverend Madison S. Boyer, a descendant, the historian learns that Frederick Bayer came to America from Strassburg, Germany, where he was born probably before 1700. County Superintendent John Edgar Boyer, of Kingman, who once saw an old family Bible, thinks the date is 1704. Samuel S. Boyer, of Duncannon, reports that Frederick Bayer settled in Lebanon County, Pennsylvania, before 1760. It is altogether likely that he was the George Frederick Bayer who came on the ship "Brotherhood," sailing from Rotterdam, and reaching Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 3, 1750. This corresponds with the records of Rev. M. S. Boyer, who says that Frederick came between 1725 and 1750. See ship list, Vol. 17, Second Series, Pennsylvania Archives. The Revolutionary Archives record no Frederick Bayer from Lebanon County, and we do not expect it, for he would have been too old to be a soldier. The traditions of Rev. M. S. Boyer record two brothers, Solomon and another, but do not state whether they came to America with Frederick. We do not know to whom he was married, nor just how many children he left, but Samuel S. Boyer says that two of his boys, Frederick and another, went to Kentucky. Rev. M. S. Boyer names this other one Philip. A third son, Peter, whose descendant is Samuel S. Boyer, lived and died in Cumberland County, Pennsylvania. Rev. M. S. Boyer says there were four brothers.

B (1) Philip Bayer, son of Frederick Bayer, of Strassburg, Germany, and his wife, was born in Pennsylvania about 1750, as Rev. M. S. Boyer's data show. What his occupation and church connections were is not reported, nor can the historian identify him with any of the Philip Boyers in the roster of Revolutionary soldiers. He married Catharine Metz. After his marriage he moved to Jefferson Co., Kentucky, where he became a slave holder, but freed his slaves before he died. Catharine Metz bore him nine children: John, Philip, Frederick, Solomon, Polly, Katie, Susie, Judith, Betsy. Then he married again, and there were three more children: Abraham, Christina, and Sallie.

B (2) Frederick Bayer, son of Frederick Bayer, of Strassburg, Germany, and his wife, was probably born in Lebanon Co., Pa., like his brothers, and settled in Kentucky, but the historian has not identified his descendants in 1915.

B (3) Peter Bayer, son of Frederick Bayer, of Strassburg, Germa.., and his wife, was born about 1760, in Lebanon Co., Pa., as we gather from accounts by Samuel S. Boyer. Farmer in Cumberland Co., Pa., from 1808 till death, about 1842. Lutheran. Buried at Enola, Pa. Married three times. The name of the second wife was Moulfair. She died at Enola about 1850. He left eleven children: Michael, Samuel, George, Philip, John, Jacob, Barbara, Betsy, Elizabeth, Rebecca, and Catherine.

B (4) Tradition records a fourth son, but the historian has not found his descendants.

C (1) Michael Boyer, son of Peter Boyer and his wife Moulfair, born Nov. 10, 1793, died at Markelville, Pa., June 28, 1870, and is buried there. Lutheran. Farmer. Located at Port Royal, but moved to Markelville, Pa. Married Eva Anna Koons. She died July 2, 1846. Age 49 years, 4 months and 20 days. Children: Philip, George, John P., Catherine, Jane, Polly; C (2) Samuel Boyer, born Oct. 8, 1800, near Lebanon, Pa., died May 24, 1884, and is buried with wife at U. B. Hill Cemetery, Buffalo, Perry Co., Pa. Married to Catherine Elenbarger. She died Aug. 20, 1859, aged 55 years, 7 months and 3 days. Children: Jacob, Christian, John Peter, Samuel S.; C (3) George Boyer, born 1799, died 1858, buried with wife at Enola, Pa. Farmer. Married Elizabeth Strayer, born Oct. 26, 1799. Children: John Peter, Philip, Margaret, Elizabeth, Catharine, Mary, and George; C (4) Philip Boyer. Farmer. Buried in Irish Grove Cemetery. Married Catherine Brown. Children: William, Peter, Mary Ann, Elizabeth; C (5) Jacob Boyer was born 1816, Cumberland Co., Pa., and is buried at Brick Church, Enola, Pa. Married Mary Howerter. Only child: Jacob Henry, Kewanee, Ill. Born Jan. 18, 1863, West Fairview, Cumberland Co., Pa. Christian Church. Single in 1913; C (6) John Boyer, son of Peter Boyer and third wife Margaret. Married Elizabeth Seidle, and after her death, Mary Stucky. Children: Adam Boyer, West Fairview, Pa.; John C. Boyer, Steelton, Pa.; Catharine Boyer. Mrs. Daniel Eichelberger, West Fairview, Pa.; Sarah Boyer. Mrs. Benjamin Kimmel, Wormleysburg, Pa.; C (7-11) Barbara, Polly, Elizabeth, Rebecca, and Catharine, were daughters of Peter Boyer.

C (1) John Boyer, son of Philip Boyer and wife Catharine Metz, was born about 1870? He married Elizabeth Derr in Pennsylvania. In 1796 he moved to Kentucky, then to Illinois, and (1820) to Corydon, Indiana. His second wife was Miss Ponds. They are buried presumably at Corydon, Indiana. His children, as enumerated by his grandson, John A. Boyer, were William, George, John, Joseph, Catharine, Sarah,

Lydia, Martha, Leanna, Anna Elizabeth, and Mary. C (2) Philip Boyer settled in Edgar County, Illinois. Married Miss Pinnell. Children: Elijah, William, Louis, and two girls. Then he married widow Bennett, and there were several children. C (3) Frederick Boyer also moved to Edgar County, Illinois. Soldier of 1812. Married Naomi Kester. Children: John K., William F., Ephraim, and Pressly P. Then he married his first wife's sister, Fannie Ann Kester, and there was one son, Frederick, soldier in the Union Army of the Civil War. C (4) Solomon Boyer was born 1797, in Kentucky, died Dec. 13, 1866, and is buried near his second wife at Drakeville, Iowa. His mother, Catharine, died when he was a small boy. He also moved into Edgar County, Illinois. Married Matilda Shaw, and there was one child, Matilda, wife of Samuel H. Ashmore, Coles Co., Ill. Then he married (1828) Nancy Modrell, born 1809, and moved (1854) to Drakeville, Iowa, where she died July 15, 1857. Five of her eleven children grew up, namely, Madison Modrell, Solomon Greenberry, William Henderson, Amanda Susan, Emily Katherine. C (5) Polly Boyer married John Ponds, and remained in Kentucky. C (6) Katie Boyer married William Weigel, and settled in Illinois. There were children, among them William, Jr. C (7) Susie Boyer married Jacob Dick. Children: Ferdinand, Nicholas, Solomon, Polly, Eliza, Kitty, Jane, Lucy. C (8) Judith Boyer married James Ennis, and moved to Illinois. Children: Frederick, Jonathan, William, John, Kitty Ann, Eliza, etc. C (9) Betsy Boyer married Robert Anderson and moved to Illinois. Children: John, Allen, Elvira, Zipporah, Martha, and a boy. CHAPTER XXXI

FREDERICK BOYER

Correspondents report that Frederick Boyer lived on a farm near Isaac Potts, at Valley Forge, Montgomery County, Pa. The Boyers of this family were great friends of George Washington. From the data of his son John we infer that this Frederick was born 1730-1740, but can not identify him with his parents. Perhaps he was the John George Frederick Bayer who came from Germany, in 1752, as recorded in Vol. 17, Second Series, Pennsylvania Archives. He may belong to the Lancaster County Boyers, judging from the names of his sons. The wife's name is not reported. There were about a dozen sons: Abraham, Joseph, William, Daniel, John, and seven other boys. Three of the dozen boys were killed in the war. Mrs. Kinports says, "I have heard my grandfather John Boyer tell of Washington being in his mother's house [Frederick's house]. She gave all but the kitchen to Washington's men in the memorable winter of 1777, when John was only 15 years old." Frederick Boyer was buried in the Manor Meeting House Graveyard, in the vicinity of Valley Forge. This burial may mean that he was a Mennonite and should be visited.

B (1—4) Joseph, Abraham, William, and Daniel Boyer were sons of Frederick Boyer, of Valley Forge, Pa. B (5) John Boyer, son of Frederick Boyer and wife, was born 1761 or 1762, at Valley Forge, Pa., and died June, 1861, aged 99 years and 11 months. He is buried at Mt. Zion, Burnside Township, Clearfield Co., Pa., near Mahaffy. A large man, like his brothers. Great friend of Washington. Eight brothers remained at Valley Forge when John started for Clearfield County, about 1820 or 1821. His Irish friends of Clearfield County called him "Byers," but the name on his tombstone is Boyers. His wife's name was Mary Colgate. The children were: Benjamin, William, John, Gideon, Samuel, George, Lemuel, and Ellen.

C (1) Benjamin Byers, son of John Boyers and wife Mary Colgate, was born Dec. 25, 1793. Died 1876. Lived at Roseland, Pa. Farmer and postmaster. Buried at Utahville, Pa. Married Sadie Hetherington. Children: Benjamin, Coalport, Pa.; James H., Gideon D., Mary, Anna M., Ellen, Amanda. C (2) William Byers was born Feb. 29, 1796. Lived at Selinsgrove, Pa., where he is probably buried. Married. Children: (1) John Nelson Byers, Williamsport, Pa. (2) William Byers. Address (1890) Selinsgrove, Pa. (3) Others; C (3) John Byers was born May 3, 1798; died Oct. 11, 1879, and is buried in Mt. CHAPTER XXXII

JOHANNES NICHOLAS BEYER

The historian is indebted very largely to three capable informants for the chapter of Johannes Nicholas Beyer. Through Professor Lyman Fremont Bowyer, West Plains, Mo., we have the direct word of John Nicholas Beyer's second youngest son, Rev. Joshua Boyer. Attorney L. S. Boyer, Scott City, Kansas, has the Revolutionary traditions and Mr. Schroeder the Church and Bible records. According to Rev. Joshua Boyer, his father Johannes Nicholas Beyer was born in Bavaria, Germany, in 1753. When he was only a few years old his parents—their names are not given—came with him to America. Vol. 17, Second Series, Pennsylvania Archives, does not contain this record, which seems to show that he may have come by way of New York instead of Philadelphia. His parents settled in the neighborhood of Reading, Berks Co., Pa. The father died when Johannes Nicholas was about four years old, but where he is buried can not be ascertained, although it is possible that he is buried at Spiece Church, Alsace Twp., Berks Co., Pa. When the father died he committed little Johannes Nicholas to the mother with most tender concern, requesting that the boy be brought up a Lutheran. It appears that the family had migrated from Bavaria for religious reasons. The boy did grow up a Lutheran, and lived in the neighborhood of Spiece Church. He was a tanner, as reported by Mr. Schroeder. Tradition reported by Attorney L. S. Boyer makes Johannes Nicholas Beyer a soldier of the Revolution for about a year. A gun burst either in his own or another's hands, and he had powder specks in his face, which he removed from time to time even when he was old. This tradition appears to be confirmed on pages 20, 34, and 52 of Vol. 4, Fifth Series, Pennsylvania Archives. If these records refer to him, he belonged to the Third Regiment, Continental Line, serving in the neighborhood of Philadelphia. His name appears in the tax list of Alsace Twp., Berks Co., Pa., in 1786. He died on Pentecost early in June 1823, and is buried at Spiece Church. Age 74 years, 4 months, and some days, as Rev. Joshua Boyer reports. He married twice—first a Wentzel girl, and then after her death, a first cousin of his wife, Amelia Catharine Wentzel, daughter of Philip Wentzel. There were nineteen children, the names of whom except two are as follows: Jacob and Susan, children of the first wife. Then Samuel, called the oldest in the "will" of his father, whose executor he was to be. The historian has not been able to find this will in the Reading Court House. It may not have been recorded. The other children were Susannah, Solomon and Daniel (twins), Abraham Philip, Jonathan, William, George, Henry, John, Rachel, Hannah, Joshua, Nicholas.

B (1) Jacob Boyer, son of Johannes Nicholas Beyer and his first wife Wentzel, was born Feb. 12, 1776. See Spiece Church records. He married and a son was born Dec. 11, 1804, but the church records of the time are so defective that his name is not given. According to Rev. Joshua Boyer, this brother moved his family into the vicinity of Cleveland, Ohio, but thus far (1913) the historian has no trace of his descendants; B (2) Susan Boyer married Jacob Hoyer, as reported by Mrs. Thompson, a relative; B (3) Samuel Boyer, son of Johannes Nicholas Beyer and his second wife Amelia Catherine Wentzel, was born about 1780-1785. In his father's will (1823) he is called the "oldest son." This seems to prove that Jacob was dead in 1823, unless it means the oldest son of his second wife. He is buried near the entrance of the old graveyard at Spiece Church, but has no tombstone. Lutheran. Farmer in Amity Township, Berks Co., Pa., and also near New Holland, Lancaster Co., Pa., after 1819, where he lived four miles from Hinkletown, Pa. He married Magdalena Gerber, born July 5, 1789. Children: Amos G., Levi S., Charles G., Matilda G., Deborah G., Mary G., Sarah G.; B (4) Solomon Boyer was twin to Daniel Boyer, but the date of birth is uncertain. He married Catharine Weller, and they were sponsors at a baptism of some relative June 15, 1802; B (5) Daniel Boyer, twin to Solomon, married Catherine. A son was born July 21, 1805, and a daughter, Elizabeth, March 27, 1818. If there were other children they were probably recorded elsewhere; B (6) Susannah Boyer was born March 24, 1781; B (7) Abraham Boyer was born before 1800. Paper manufacturer. Lived at West Hanover, Dauphin Co., Pa. Married Elizabeth Heilman. Children: John, Solomon, Stephen, Abraham, David, Andrew, Rebecca, Sarah, Amanda, Elizabeth, Kate, Ella, Susan. It was through information obtained from Jno. A. Boyer, West Hanover, Pa., and an aunt of his, that the identification of this son of John Nicholas became possible; B (8) Philip Boyer lived in Alsace Twp., Berks Co., Pa. Married. Children: Emma Boyer. Mrs. Jonathan Spayd knows of no other child. This is, however, not conclusive; B (9) Jonathan Boyer was born Dec. 3, 1797, in Alsace Twp., Berk Co., Pa., died March 27, 1873, and is buried at Belleman's Church, Alsace Twp., Berks Co., Pa. Lutheran. Farmer. Married Polly Becker, born Sept. 19, 1801, died Nov. 24, 1883, and is buried near her husband. Children:

Isaac, Sarah, Mary, Elizabeth; B (10) William Boyer, son of John Nicholas Boyer and his second wife Amelia Catherine Wentzel, was born about 1780, in the neighborhood of Spiece Church, Berks Co., Pa., near Reading. It was very difficult to identify him with his ancestral tree until the historian compared the character of the man as described by Dr. Turner with that of his father's care by his immigrant father as recorded in the beginning of this chapter. When, however, Attorney L. S. Boyer, of Scott City, Kansas, reported his father's cousin settling in Stephenson County, Carroll County, and Ogle County, Illinois, it covered Dr. Turner's complete reports so absolutely that all doubt vanished forever. He lived at several places, including Chambersburg and Mechanicsburg, Pa. Lost his eye sight while blasting for Cumberland Valley Railroad, and died in the 50's. May be buried at Mechanicsburg, Pa. The name of his wife was Margaret. She died at Altoona, Pa., where she lived with her son Solomon. His grandson Albert remembers that she read a German Bible. She died about 82 years old. There were twelve children: William, Solomon, Jacob, Margaret, Sophia, Mary, Samuel, Susan, and four others who probably died young; B (11) George Boyer, son of Johannes Nicholas Beyer and Amelia Catherine Wentzel, lived at Centreville, near Belleman's Church, says Mrs. Spayd. Married. Children: David, Jacob, Adam, Hannah; B (12) Henry Boyer; B (13) John Boyer. He and Susannah Lorah—probably his sister—stood sponsors for a child baptized Aug. 17, 1794. If the Spiece Church records are for him, he married Catharine, and two of their children were recorded. A daughter was born March 26, 1819, and John Sept. 22, 1829; B (14) Rachel Boyer; B (15) Hannah Boyer lived in Alsace Twp., Berks Co., Pa. Mrs. Spayd does not know to whom she was married; B (18) Joshua Boyer was born Feb. 12, 1805, Alsace Twp., Berks Co., Pa., died Oct. 28, 1884, Dayton, Ohio. Lutheran. Became a U. B. minister. Buried in U. B. Cemetery, West Dayton, Ohio. Migrated from Lancaster Co., Pa., to Carroll Co., Ill., and in 1866 to Dayton, Ohio. He was a young carpenter at work in the neighborhood of Reading, Pa., when he saw General Lafayette on his visit to the U. S. (1824-25). Married Susannah Buck before he left Pennsylvania. She was born March 3, 1803, died Nov. 4, 1884, and is buried near her husband. Children: Henry B., Kate, Jonathan, Daniel, Susannah, and others; B (19) Nicholas Boyer lived in Manheim, Lancaster Co., Pa., about 1880.

C (1) Amos G. Boyer, son of Samuel Boyer and Magdalene Gerber, was born Feb. 20, 1814, in Amity Twp., Berks County, Pa., died at Bern, Pa., and is buried there. Shoemaker. Lutheran. Lived in Oley, Reading, and Bern Township. Married Elizabeth Hartline, of Oley Twp., Berks Co., Pa. Children: Rachel, Hetty, William H., Elizabeth L.,

Sarah H., Samuel T.; C (2) Levi G. Boyer was born Feb. 23, 1819, at New Holland, Lancaster Co., Pa. On Dec. 4, 1838, he married Catherine Dillon, born Nov. 17, 1818. The family lived in Reading, Pa., where his eight children were born: Wellington D., Virginia D., Mark D., Elvena D., Annie D., Edwin D., Emma (Agnes) D.; C (3) Charles G. Boyer. Married. Children: Sarah, Louis, perhaps others; C (4) Matilda G. Boyer married Womer; C (5) Deborah G. Boyer married Haffer, formerly of Reading, Pa.; C (6) Mary G. Boyer, born in Heidelberg or Maidencreek Twp., Berks Co., Pa., married Wertz. Children: Cyrus, Reading, Pa. Perhaps others; C (7) Sarah G. Boyer, born Nov. 27, 1824, in Heidelberg Twp., Berks Co., Pa., married Jesiah Thompson. Children: Charles B., Frank B., Levi B., George B., Howard B., Deborah B., Maggie B., Ellen B., Jane B., Dora B. Howard B. Thompson. Address (1910) 326 N. 10th St., Reading, Pa.; C (8) A daughter married Mr. Leinbach.

C (1) John Boyer, son of Abraham Boyer and wife, was born in West Hanover, Dauphin Co., Pennsylvania, and died 76 years old in Stark County, Ohio. He is buried at Centre Church, Louisville, Ohio. United Brethren Church. Stone mason. Wife's name was Mary. She died 56 years old. Children: Abraham, John, Henry, Martin, Elizabeth, Mary Ann, Martha, David; C (2) Solomon Boyer was born Sept. 1830, at West Hanover, Dauphin Co., Pa. United Brethren Church. CHAPTER XXXIII

JOHN BOYER

We learn from John Boyer, Lewistown, Pa., that the John Boyer of this chapter came to America on the same ship with his future wife Mary McKean, of Ireland. He settled in Lancaster County, Pa., among what were no doubt his German relatives, for this was the rule of earlier Pennsylvania immigrants. His grandson, John H. Boyer, of Elizabethtown, Pa., reports that his grandfather lived at White Oaks, Lancaster County, and that he is buried at Hanover, Pa., while his wife is buried in the White Oaks Lutheran Cemetery. How they became acquainted is not exactly known, but they came as "redemptioners" and apparently found each other after their arrival in Lancaster County. As far as we know there were at least six children: George, William, Joseph, Peter, Sarah, and John. There may have been others.

B (1) George Boyer, son of John Boyer and wife Mary McKean, was born June 16, 1800, in Lancaster Co., Pa., and died July 30, 1868, at Tyrone, Pa. Lutheran. Married Lydia Roop, born Feb. 21, 1798. CHAPTER XXXIV

MARGARET BAYER (BEYER).

The historian's correspondents have tried hard to find the Christian name and family tree of the Boyer to whose fine posterity this chapter is dedicated, but thus far all efforts have been failures. Equally baffling is the inquiry into the maiden surname of Margaret his wife. There were three sons: William H., John, and Peter. Descendants of Peter Boyer report that Margaret came with her sons from Grassy Valley, near the line of Pennsylvania and Maryland to Shenandoah County, Virginia, into the neighborhood of Strassburg. She died March 7, 1819, about 70 years old. She was therefore born about 1750. Perhaps this is also approximately the birth date of her husband. Margaret evidently came with her sons from Germany into Pennsylvania, after the father's death in Germany, as we infer from the records in the hands of William's grandson, Harvey Boyer, Fries, Va. This is the record: "Grandfather and mother, William Henry Boyer and Elizabeth Boyer, came from Germany to Pennsylvania and from there to Virginia."

A genealogical dream: If the name of Margaret Boyer's husband was "Reese," it would account for the recurrence of this name in Chapters 34, 44, and 65. The geography of the case is marvellously suggestive.

Similar dreams have come true in our researches. This one may come true. Reese Bayer, of the dream, may have been brother of Caspar Beyer, and Margaret would follow into America, after her husband's death, settling in parts near relatives of her husband.

B (1) Peter Boyer, son of Boyer and his wife Margaret, was born April 4, 1771, and died May 19, 1845. He came with mother and brothers into Shenandoah Co., Virginia, and lived three miles south of Strassburg. Moved east of the Shenandoah River in 1808, and to Cedar Creek in 1822. Here he and his wife died, and are buried near the home. Both held to the "Christian Church." His wife's name was Elizabeth K. Snap, born May 2, 1765, and married April 7, 1793. Children: Margaret, Sarah, Jacob, William, Catharine, and George K.; B (2) John Boyer came with mother and brothers, but settled further south in the same valley. Correspondents presume that his descendants are to be found in Rockingham, Augusta, and Rockbridge Counties, Virginia. Probably also in Tennessee and Kentucky. Two sons are known: Peter and John; B (3) William Henry Boyer was probably born about 1763. Came with wife, mother, and brothers from Pennsylvania into Virginia. Later he settled east of the Blue Ridge Mountains, Virginia. Grayson County, Virginia, became the nesting place. His wife's name was Elizabeth. Children: Daniel, John, Samuel, and perhaps others. Samuel never married.

C (1) Daniel Boyer, son of William Henry Boyer and Elizabeth, was born Jan. 17, 1783, at Elk Creek, Virginia, and died Dec. 19, 1852. Married Susan, born May 29, 1792. Children: Daniel, John, William, James, Stephen, Granville, Elizabeth, Ephraim, Caroline, Susan, Mary, Frances, Freeland, Harvey; C (2) John Boyer lived on Elk Creek, Grayson Co., Virginia. Farmer. Married Long. Children: Churchwell, Johnson, Stephen, Morgan, Robert, Delila, Nancy, Mahala, Rosamond, Eva, Lucinda; C (3) Samuel Boyer never married.

C (1) Margaret Boyer, daughter of Peter Boyer and wife Elizabeth Snap, born Feb. 26, 1796, married Sherman, and lived in Indiana; C (2) Sarah Boyer, born March 23, 1798, married Stover, and lived in Ohio; C (3) Jacob Boyer was born April 20, 1800, and died about 1854. Went to Indiana. Lived and died in Iowa. Farmer. Married Susannah Reitnour, who died 1852, and is buried with husband at New Madison, Dark Co., Ohio. Children: Jacob B., George B., Mary C., Sarah J., Barbara A., Susan E., Nancy M., Alfred, Peter, and Daniel William; C (4) William Boyer was born Oct. 13, 1804, and died July 12, 1889. Member of Church of God, and an exemplary man. Farmer. Owner of furnace. Married Regina Stickley, March 16, 1830. She was born May 5, 1811, and is buried near Pelton, Va. Children: William M., Benjamin F., John D., Andrew J., David S., Mary E., George

A., Jacob E., Eliza C., Anna R., and Samuel E.; C (5) Catharine Boyer, born Dec. 31, 1806, married Reitnour, and lived in Ohio; C (6) George K. Boyer was born April 4, 1811, and died about 1855. Married Catharine Mowry. Children: Elizabeth A., Ann R., George F., Mary S., Martha V., Emily Catharine, Cornelius B., Jacob, James, and John.

C (1) Peter Boyer, son of John Boyer, of Rockingham County, Virginia, and his wife, was born about 1796, for his grandson, Samuel Henry Porter Boyer, of Lafayette, Indiana, says he was a pensioner of the War of 1812, or of the Mexican War of 1845. He died about 1873, and was 87 years old. The grandson says that Peter Boyer could speak German. The family Bible may be in the hands of John Jordan, of Montevideo, Virginia, for his father lived with Peter Boyer till his death. The maiden name of his wife may have been Hudlow. There were nine children: Jacob, John, Levi, Peter, Polly, Ruth, Elizabeth, Isabella, and Ann. Peter Boyer, Jr., died when a boy, and his brother Levi died single. The mother died about 1840-50; C (2) John Boyer went to California with his son John and a party of immigrants during the "forties," but all of them except his son, John, were killed by the Indians in Iowa. Samuel Henry Porter Boyer thinks this boy may have remained in Iowa, but has lost all trace of him.

D (1) John Boyer, son of Daniel Boyer and wife Susan, was born Nov. 4, 1810, Grayson Co., Va. Baptist. Farmer. Married Jane Fielder. CHAPTER XXXV

BOYER.

Who were the parents of the Boyers to be recorded in this chapter may never be known, unless the historian finds church records or court records in which the list of the children occurs. Professor Longdon, one of the correspondents of the historian, believes that the family lived in the neighborhood of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. It is, therefore, not only possible, but very likely, that the family belongs to Montgomery County, Bucks, Lancaster, or Chester County. If, as the dates of birth, coupled with settlement in Maryland, seem to prove, the Christopher in question, was really the Christopher listed as brother of Michael and others by the descendants of Michael—and their data comes from old Bible records—the parents may have moved with their children and be found buried in Hagerstown, Maryland. The children were Michael, Christopher, Catherine, sister, sister, Margaret, Susan, Elizabeth, and Andrew (probably).

B (1) Michael Boyer, son of Boyer and wife, born about 1750, died Aug. 9, 1810. Married (1st Margaret Clapper, (2nd) Dorothy Wolfe Noch. Children: Henry, Mary, Elizabeth, Catherine, Christina, Michael; B (2) Christopher Boyer was born May 20, 1752, died Feb. 10, 1832, and is buried on Francis Giltner's farm, Hunter Bottom, Carroll Co., Kentucky. If Professor Longdon is not mistaken he came from Philadelphia, Pa., to Hagerstown, Md. before the year 1796. He was a Revolutionary soldier, wounded at the Battle of Brandywine. The only Christopher Boyer of the Revolutionary War, not already identified by the historian, is Stofel (Christopher) Boyer, recorded on page 9, Vol. 7, Fifth Series, Pennsylvania Archives. This Christopher Boyer was a private soldier, in 1775, from Heidelberg Twp., Lancaster Co., Pa. If this is the man in question, the historian may be able to identify him with the Lancaster County earliest Boyer settler. In the year 1796, or later, he moved with his family to Bourbon County, Kentucky, where he became an expert Indian fighter. In 1809 he moved to Clark County, Indiana. He was married to Ann Youst, and at the time of his residence in Clark County, Indiana, he had eleven children. Ann Youst was born June 20, 1756, and died Sept. 20, 1831. The children were John, Jacob, Michael, Catharine, sister (Mrs. Redinbow), Elizabeth, sister (Mrs. Robert Henry), Philip, Abraham, and two others; B (3) Catharine Boyer married Abraham Dumbauld, born 1758. Children: Fred, Mary, Philip, David, Peter, Christina, Elizabeth, Barbara, Dollie; B (4-8) Mrs. Karns, Mrs. Abram Dumbauld, Margaret, and Susan (Heck), and Elizabeth (wife of Abram Horner), were sisters of the above Catharine.

C (1) Henry Boyer, son of Michael Boyer and Margaret Clapper, born Oct. 14, 1772, probably in Pennsylvania, but perhaps in Hagerstown, Maryland, died Dec. 29, 1863, and is buried near Thornville, Ohio. Lutheran. Farmer. Settled in Ohio 1808. Enlisted in War of 1812, but, on reaching Indiana, found peace declared. Married Elizabeth Wolfe, born April 19, 1775, Franklin Co., Pa. Children: John, Anna Maria, Elizabeth, Magdalene, Anna Christina, Margaret, Michael, Jacob, Henry, Lydia, Susan; C (2) Mary Boyer, born 1780, married Peter Mechling, in Westmoreland Co., Pa. Children: John, Catharine, Franscina, Elizabeth, Mary, Jacob, Sophia, Hannah, Rebecca, Sarah, Lydia, Samuel, Michael. Note: A granddaughter of Franscina, namely, Mrs. L. Stockley. Address (1912) 919 Belden Ave., Chicago, Ill., gave the historian valuable data; C (3) Elizabeth Boyer married Jacob Stahl. Children: Henry, Michael, Jacob, sister—perhaps others; D (4) Catharine Boyer born about 1782, married David Hess. Children: Peter, David, Philip, Frederick, Christina, Barbara, Mary, Dolly, Elizabeth; C (5) Christina Boyer, born 1786, married George Stockberger. Children: Mrs. Peter Dumbauld, John, Elizabeth (Wagoner), George B., Thomas L., Nancy, Susan, Hannah, Mrs. Jere Fisher, Polly, Solomon, Jason, Mrs. Daniel Wagoner; C (6) Michael Boyer married Hannah Enos. Four children.

C (1) Elizabeth Boyer, daughter of Christopher Boyer and Ann Youst, born Dec. 18, 1779, died Dec. 18, 1835. Married Frank Giltner, born March 4, 1770, and died Jan. 29, 1849. The Giltners, as Dr. B.

Wallace, 50 N. Water St., Franklin, Indiana, reports, came from Lehigh County, Pa., to Bourbon Co., Kentucky. Children: Catherine, Elizabeth, Michael, Sarah, Philip, David. Three children died young, and one a bachelor; C (2) John Boyer, born Jan. 17, 1782, in vicinity of Hagerstown, Maryland. Methodist. Blacksmith. Sargeant in War of 1812. Died in Charlestown, Indiana, 1835. Married to Mary Rowe, April 15, 1806. She was born Jan. 26, 1789. Children: Andrew J., Polly (Wilson), James, Sarah (Hancock), William, Letitia (Payne), John A., Eli M., Eliza (Beswick), Margaret (Kirkwood); C (3) Catherine Boyer married Henry Liter; C (4) Jacob Boyer, son of Christopher Boyer and Ann Youst, lived in Boone County, Indiana. Married. Children; C (5) Philip Boyer was born about 1784, and died at Hagerstown, Md., about 1820, rather young, as Solomon Boyer, of Evansville, Indiana, reports. Married. Children: Solomon, Philip, Levi, Rebecca, Abraham, Sarah, Elizabeth, Mary; C (6) Abraham Boyer was born Jan. 10, 1788, at Hagerstown, Md. Died July 10, 1869. Buried at Waterville, Ohio. Married Elizabeth Deitrick Wolf, of Dayton, Ohio. Children: Philip, John, Samuel, Wilkin, Lewis; C (7-8) One of his sisters married Ridenbow, the other married Robert Henry; C (9) Michael Boyer, born Feb. 1, 1798, died unmarried, June 17, 1859, in Carroll Co., Kentucky.

D (1) John Boyer, son of Henry Boyer and Elizabeth Wolfe, born May 16, 1796, married Lydia Ream. CHAPTER XXXVI

JOHN HENRY BAYER (BEYER).

We learn from Dr. George Z. Bretz, a genealogist of great acumen, and a descendant, that John Henry Bayer's parents came from the neighborhood of Munich, Bavaria, Germany, in 1743, and settled near Bethlehem, Northampton Co., Pa. Dr. Bretz did not name the parents, and the writer has not been able to find them. It would be interesting to know what became of them, but probably they were massacred by the Indians who captured their two children. These were Ann Bayer and Henry Valentine Bayer.

B (1) Ann Bayer, daughter of John Henry Bayer and wife, was born near Bethlehem, Pa. Like her brother, she was captured in Donegal Twp., near Derry, Pa., Sept. 9, 1757, by the Indians. When she grew up she became the wife of an Indian Chief, but the writer has no further knowledge of her life; B (2) Henry Valentine Bayer was born 1750, near Bethlehem, Pa. On Sept. 9, 1757, the Indians captured him in Donegal Twp., Northampton Co., Pa., near Derry. He was traded at Philadelphia, Pa., and settled near Reading, Pa., where he remained all his life. He is probably buried in the Alsace Church yard, now on the outskirts of Reading. Dr. Bretz does not name his wife, but he mentions one son, John Valentine, and three daughters, Elizabeth, Catherine, and Mary Ann.

C (1) John Valentine Boyer, son of Henry Valentine Boyer and wife, was born June 9, 1774, probably in Alsace, near Reading, Pa., and died July 8, 1831. Reformed. Lived a mile west of Alsace Church, on the turnpike, where the Reading railroad crosses the pike. The little stone building was still there when Dr. Bretz collected his data. Weaver of cloth, linen, etc. Married Sophia Barto, of Barto's Station, Berks Co., Pa. She died at Chilliclothe, Ohio, in 1805, and is buried there. After her death, he married Catharine Garrett, born Feb. 1, 1799. She died June 20, 1863. The children of the first marriage were John, Samuel, Daniel, William, and Elizabeth. The children of the second marriage were Catharine, Sallie, Polly, Mary, Diana, and Jacob. The father and his second wife are buried at Alsace, near Reading, Pa.; C (2) Elizabeth Boyer, born Dec. 6, 1777, probably in Alsace, near Reading, Pa., married George Ziegler, born July 3, 1768. The family lived at Harrisburg, Pa. She is buried in Lot 53, Section E, Harrisburg Cemetery. Children: Mary, Catherine, and Elizabeth; C (3) Catherine Boyer married Mr. Kepner, of Reading. No children; E (4) Mary Ann Boyer was born 1781, probably in Alsace, near Reading, Pa., and died at Harrisburg, Pa., where she is buried. Married Jacob Bretz, a carpenter. Children: Jacob, William, George Z., Amelia, Catherine, and Elizabeth.

D (1) John Boyer, son of John Valentine Boyer and Sophia Barto, was raised by Mrs. Jacob Bretz, at Harrisburg, Pa. Died at Cincinnati, Ohio. Dr. Bretz, the family historian, and cousin, says nothing of children. This omission would indicate that there were none; D (2) Samuel Boyer died at Cincinnati, Ohio. Dr. Bretz says nothing else; D (3) Daniel Boyer married Miss Schmehl, of Muhlenberg Twp., Berks Co., Pa. Children: Reuben, Daniel, and Lizzie; D (4) William Boyer was born Oct. 5, 1801, probably in Ohio. Lived near Bernhardt's Station, near Reading, Pa. Weaver and boatman. Alsace Reformed church. Married Elizabeth Hoyer, born May 14, 1799. Both buried at Alsace Church. Children: Elizabeth, Amelia, Simon, adn Mahlon; D (5) Elizabeth Boyer, born Sept. 8, 1803, married Frederick Decker. Children: Jacob Christopher, William Harrison; D (6) Catharine Boyer, daughter of John Valentine Boyer and second wife Catharine Garrett (Gehret), was born Dec. 29, 1811. Married Joseph Rothenberger. Children: Catharine, John B., Mayberry, Joseph P., and Mary E.; D (7) Sallie Boyer married Alfred Carstine. Children: Jacob, Caroline, Elize, others; D (8) Polly Boyer, born Jan. 10, 1817, married Daniel Windbigler, born June 10, 1810. Buried at Alsace, Pa. CHAPTER XXXVII

VALENTINE BOYER.

One correspondent, namely, Valentine K. Boyer, of Bolivar, N. Y., reports that Valentine Boyer was born in Berks Co., Pa., perhaps about 1760-1770, but does not know the parents. He lived in Schuylkill County, Pa., moved to Mercer Co., Pa., and was killed by accident after 1856, as Val. K. Boyer knows. The historian has not ascertained the occupation or church connections of the man in question. Married Henrietta Kean, born 1767, at Philadelphia, Pa., and died about 1800, at Pottsville, Pa. Children: Jacob, Henry, George, Samuel, and three girls, so far as reported.

B (1) Jacob Boyer, son of Valentine Boyer and Henrietta Kean, was a blacksmith, near Kutztown, Pa., as Valentine K. Boyer reports. Married. The same correspondent thinks one of Jacob Boyer's sons was a doctor in Reading. Probably it was Carl Beyer, who, as Rev. John Stoudt says, contributed to the Reformed Church, June 13, 1785, at Egypt, Lehigh Co., Pa.; B (2) Henry Boyer lived near Sharon, Mercer Co., Pa. Married. Children; B (3) George Boyer lived in Wisconsin. Died single; B (4) A daughter married Troutman. She had two sisters; B (7) Samuel Kean Boyer was born 1799, near Port Carbon, Pa., died July 1840, and is buried at Port Carbon. Land agent for Pennsylvania. CHAPTER XXXVIII

FREDERICK BAYER.

It is recorded in the history of Lehigh County, Pennsylvania, that Frederick Bayer came from Palatinate, Germany, about 1733. The Boyer historian can not verify this tradition by comparison with the ship list. He settled in the neighborhood of the present Unionville, Pa. Church, and was shot in his meadow by an Indian. He may be buried at the Unionville Cemetery. The writer has not been able to get the information. Nor do we know to whom he was married, but he left one son, Henry.

B (1) Henry Bayer, son of Frederick Bayer and wife, was born about 1760, or earlier. Lived at Rockdale, Lehigh Co., Pa. Married Margaret Hankey. Children: Henry, John, two other sons, and three daughters.

C (1) Henry Boyer, son of Henry Bayer and Margaret Hankey, was born March 19, 1780, died June 26, 1855, and is buried in the Unionville Cemetery, Lehigh Co., Pa. Married Susan Deibert, born Aug. 8, 1777. Children: Daniel, and a sister who lived in the West: C (2) John Boyer was born at Rockdale, Pa., Dec. 26, 1781, died Feb. 20, 1874; and is buried at Unionville, Pa. Farmer. Married (1802) Elizabeth Reber. Only three children grew up, namely, Elizabeth, who married Daniel Woodring, but left no children: Polly, who married Abraham Woodring, but left no children, and Solomon: C (3) John and Henry Boyer had two brothers and two sisters, for whom we have no data.

D (1) Daniel Boyer, son of Henry Boyer and Susan Deibert, was born Aug. 13, 1815, and died 23, 1875. Lived near Schnecksville, Lehigh Co., Pa. Married Maria. Children: Charles E., Tilghman H., and Mary. Note: A daughter of Daniel Boyer lived in the West.

D (1) Solomon Boyer, son of John Boyer and Elizabeth Reber, was born at Rockdale, Pa., Oct. 29, 1816, died Feb. 17, 1897, and is buried at Allentown, Pa. Member of Unionville Reformed Church, and later of Salem Reformed Church, Allentown, Pa. Postmaster and merchant at Rockdale, Pa., till 1871, when he moved to Allentown. He was interested in the building of railroads, in iron mining, and furnaces. He organized the Allentown National Bank, and was a director for nearly forty years. On Oct. 29, 1843, he married Lucy A. Miller, born March 4, 1825. Children: Flora A., Lucinda, John P., Lewis F., William H., Amandes, Agnes M., Lillie C., Sallie J., and three others.

CHAPTER XXXIX

CONRAD BAYER (BYER).

The historian is greatly indebted to Attorney John K. Byers, Warrensburg, Mo., for the data of this chapter, and he writes that he has his father to thank for the definite knowledge of his ancestry. According to these testimonies Conrad Byer was born March 14, 1744, near what is now known as Bayerstadt, Germany. He died Jan. 2, 1806, near Greensburg, Pa., and is buried in Feightner's Cemetery. He came to America about 1762, and, in company with several of his countrymen, Feightner, Kepple, Jacob Houck, and others, went from Philadelphia, Pa., westward across the mountains, about 1765 or 1766, and settled in Westmoreland Co., Pa. He purchased 800 acres of wooded land, at 25 cents per acre, from the government, receiving the patent in 1773. Over a splendid spring, he built a large house of hewn logs, and a large bank barn of the same material, near by, about 1767. The house remains (1913), but was weatherboarded and otherwise improved by his grandson, Jacob Byers, in 1876. The barn was torn down in 1818 and another built one-fourth mile northwest. This building remained until 1906, when his great grandson, Marian Miller Byers, assisted by John K. Byers, pulled it down to build a finer one. Conrad Byer took an active part in the Revolutionary War, and had papers relating to this experience. Just what his services were the historian does not know, and the Archives do not tell. About 1770 or 1771, by agreement, he met his old-time German playmate in Philadelphia, when she came from Germany, and they were married in this city. Her name was Margaret Riel, as the "will" shows. Reformed. She died about 1836, in the home of the attorney's father, at Foxtown, Pa. Children: Peter, Andrew, John, and Mary. Conrad Byer's "will" was recorded Jan. 4, 1806, at Greensburg, Westmoreland Co., Pa.

B (1) Peter Boyer, son of Conrad Byer and Margaret Riel, born 1773, married in 1796. Children: Michael and Jacob; B (2) Andrew Boyer was born March 1, 1776, died April 9, 1852, and is buried in Feightner's Cemetery. Lived near Greensburg. Married Catherine Schrader, born 1782. His "will" was made Dec. 6, 1847. Children: Conrad, Henry, Daniel, David, Leonard, Abraham, Margaret, Pauline, Hannah, Sarah; B (3) John Boyer was born June 26, 1785, near Greensburg, Pa., died there Jan. 27, 1835, and is buried in Feightner's Cemetery. In 1806 he married Susan Houck, daughter of Jacob Houck, a Revolutionary soldier. She was born near Greensburg, Sept. 30, 1786. In his "will" he left 450 acres to his sons, John and Jacob, and the "Painter" farm to his son Michael. Children: Michael, John H., Jacob, and Sarah. Note: Conrad and Mary Boyer had a daughter named Mary.

C (1) Michael Boyer, son of Peter Boyer and his wife, was born 1809. Moved to Clinton County, Mo., in 1863, and purchased 320 acres of land, three miles northeast of Clinton, Mo. Married 1796. Children: Dr. Truman S. Boyer, of Salt Lake City, Utah. Perhaps others; C (2) Jacob Boyer was born 1811. Married. He went to Clinton County, Mo., in 1863, and purchased 160 acres of land, now (1913) the business part of Clinton, Mo. Married again. Children: William, Adam, Jacob, Jennie, Margaret, and Eliza. William died unmarried at Bryan, Ohio, and Adam died unmarried in California. The rest are traced.

C (1) Conrad Boyer, son of Andrew Boyer and Catharine Schrader, died in Ohio when his only child, William Harrison, was two years old. This must have happened before Dec. 6, 1847, when his father's "will" was made. Married Anna Cole. Son: William Harrison Boyer, resides at Youngwood, Pa. (1913); C (2) Henry Boyer was born 1809, died 1897, near Greensburg, Pa. Acquired much property near Greensburg, Pa. Married Sarah Steele. Children: Catharine, John S., Eliza Jane, Martha, Andrew, William, and Sarah; C (3) Daniel Boyer was born 1811, died near Greensburg, Pa., in 1897. Married Ellen Hunter. Children are all dead; C (4) David Boyer married Miss Sherrick. They and all their children are dead (1913); C (5) Leonard Byers was born 1814. Married Margaret Leasure. Children: Matilda, Jackson, William, Mamie; C (6) Abraham Byers was born 1816. Married. Only son: Abraham Byers, of New Stenton, Pa.; C (7) Margaret Byers married John Felgar (dead). Lived near Mt. Pleasant, Westmoreland Co., Pa.; C (8) Pauline Byers married John Steele. Lived near Greensburg, Pa.; C (9) Hannah Byers married James Andrews. Lived near Mt. Pleasant, Westmoreland Co., Pa.; C (10) Sarah Byers married Peter Rumbaugh. Lived near Mt. Pleasant, Pa.

C (1) Michael Byers, son of John Boyer and Susan Houck, was born April 10, 1811, near Greensburg, Pa., died March 10, 1897, and is buried at Warrensburg, Mo. Farmer and miller. In 1836 he married Sarah Brinker, daughter of Jacob Brinker, Harrison City, Pa. Children: Lucy Ann and Lydia. In 1851, Michael Byers married Rebecca Kunkle, daughter of John S. Kunkle. The children of this marriage are Mary Jane, John K., Emma Eliza; C (2) John Houck Byers was born Oct. 18, 1814, died Jan. 18, 1906. Lived on farm inherited from

CHAPTER XLI

JOHANNES BAYER.

The most important correspondents for the family tree of Johannes Bayer, is Francis H. Boyer, Somerville, Mass. According to this correspondent Johannes Bayer was the son of an immigrant from Alsace, Germany, coming to New York about 1750, or earlier. He was born near New York City about 1750, if the historian guesses correctly, and is buried in the old "Yellow Church" yard at Manheim, Herkimer Co., N. Y. He was one of the first settlers on the Glenn Purchase, a few miles north of Little Falls, N. Y., arriving there a little before 1770. He was a soldier, and lost his horse in the Battle of Orinsky. A pension was granted to him in 1812. See page 436, History of Herkimer Co., N. Y., published by Nathan S. Benton, 1856. The historian has not learned to whom he was married, but he left at least two sons, John and Henry, perhaps others.

B (1) John Boyer, son of Johannes Bayer and his wife, was born about 1770, in Herkimer Co., N. Y., and is buried on his own farm, at Clifton, Decatur Co., Indiana. He went to Indiana after the War of 1812, in which he served as soldier. He was present in the Battle of Sacketts Harbor. Married Margaret Ritter, born 1771. She is buried at old Yellow Church, Manheim, Herkimer Co., N. Y. She died March 10, 1812, aged 41. Afterwards he married Kate Bateman Kramer. His children were: John, Peter, Benjamin, Robert, Daniel, Nancy, and Herman (of second wife); B (2) Henry Boyer was born about 1781, and was the youngest son. Farmer. Went from Herkimer County, N. Y., to Chester Twp., Eaton Co., Michigan, in 1837. The historian has not been able to find to whom he was married, but he left a large family. Two sons, Edwin and Jorum, came to the historian's desk through a newspaper containing reference to them and pictures. The former was born 1825, the latter 1835. Correspondence has brought no reply.

C (1) John Boyer, son of John Boyer and Margaret Ritter; C (2) Peter Boyer was born Nov. 30, 1798, at Manheim, Herkimer Co., N. Y. He died Jan. 18, 1856, and is buried with his wife at Mount Prospect, near Little Falls, N. Y. A very devout Lutheran. Lawyer and abolitionist. Cloth dyer. Contractor owning stone quarry. Married Mary Von Swartwout, born June 26, 1807. She died Feb. 20, 1856. Children: Lanson, Nancy, Sarah Ann, James Allen, Alice, Mary Eliza, Sarah Ann, Francis Howard; C (3) Benjamin Boyer was born at Manheim, N. Y. Lived in Indiana. Married. Children: Nancy, Martin, and perhaps others; C (4) Robert Boyer. Married. Children: At Kokomo, Indiana; C (5) Daniel Boyer was born about 1800, Manheim, N. Y., died 1879, and is buried at Clifton, Indiana. One of God's best men. Followed his father to Indiana. Lived at Flat Rock, Decatur Co., Indiana. Farmer. County Commissioner for many years. Splendid financier. Married Leanna, a Kentucky girl. Children: Peter and Emily; C (6) Nancy Boyer, born 1786, Manheim, N. Y., married Pickett, and moved to Indiana or Iowa; C (7) Herman Boyer, son of John Boyer and his second wife, Kate Bateman Kramer, was born at Manheim, N. Y., and died at Los Angeles, Cal., in 1896, about 80 years old, but left no children.

E (1) Sarah N. McKinn, daughter of Mary Eliza Boyer and William S. McKinn, married William Ried. Children: Address (1908) Mrs. Sarah N. Ried, Neosho Rapids, Kansas.

CHAPTER XLII

SAMUEL BOYER

The grandson of Samuel Boyer writes that his grandfather was born in Scotland. The historian thinks the family came into Scotland from France as early as the wars of Robert Bruce, if not earlier. If these people were an off shoot of the Norman conquest (1066) they would very probably have acquired the English spelling "Bowyer," instead of the French "Boyer." The historian has not learned when Samuel came to America, but he settled first in Pennsylvania, and later migrated to Tennessee. What his occupation was has not been reported, nor his church affiliations. He married. The only child reported is Isaac Boyer.

B (1) Isaac Boyer, son of Samuel Boyer and his wife, was born in Tennessee, and died 1884 or 1885, in Hamilton Co., near McCleans-boro, Illinois. Farmer. Came from Tennessee to Illinois, but lived later in Missouri. Married. Children: George W., Robert N.

C (1) George W. Boyer, son of Isaac Boyer and his wife; C (2) Robert N. Boyer was born 1847, in Hamilton Co., Illinois, and died 1907. Married. Children: William I., a farmer; John H., of Clark Hill, Indiana; Thomas J., a farmer, and Dr. J. A. Boyer. Address (1909) Jessup St., Carmi, Ill. Born 1872, Hamilton Co., Illinois. Blue eyes, black hair, and five feet seven inches in height. Taught school. Graduated from St. Louis, Mo., Medical College, in 1899, with honors. Practised in Brownsville, White Co., Ill., five years. Then moved to Carmi, Illinois. Married (1900). Children: Son.

CHAPTER XLIII

JACOB BEYER (BEIER).

The ship "Minerva," last from Rotterdam, Holland, brought Jacob Beyer, son of Anthony Beyer (Beier), of Germany, to Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 17, 1771. With him came his wife, his son Peter, and, if traditions preserved in the family are correct, two brothers, John and Samuel. The three brothers located in the neighborhood of Reading, Pa. According to the same traditions, the father came over late in the 18th Century, but returned to Germany, and died there. John and Samuel remained in Pennsylvania, but Jacob and his son Peter, with their families, moved to Augusta County, Virginia, before 1793. Presently, to conform with the Virginian, or English spelling, the name became Bowyer. The historian has not been able to find the descendants of John and Samuel Boyer. The tax lists of Berks County do not show their presence. This probably means that they located in a neighboring county, and that they will be identified by and by. Jacob Beyer (Beier) is probably buried in Cass County, Indiana, and, so far as we know, left only one son, Peter.

B (1) Peter Beyer (Beier), son of Jacob Beyer and his wife, born probably in Alsace, Germany, died Oct. 10, 1850, and is buried in May's Cemetery, Cass County, Indiana. Captain John Marshall Bowyer, to whom the historian is largely indebted for the traditions of this family, says that Peter was a matross in Captain Turnbull's Company of the Second Pennsylvania Regiment of Artillery, commanded by Colonel Proctor. Even if this occurred as late as 1784 Peter was hardly 18 years old, unless he died a very old man. On the rolls and pension records his name is spelled Peter Bowyer. He was married twice, but nothing except that her first name was Eva is known. On Aug. 16, 1793, he married Catherine Shellman (Katrina Schelman), in Augusta County, Virginia. She was born Sept. 29, 1773, probably in Hagerstown, Maryland. Peter Bowyer lived in Greenbrier County, West Virginia, for some years. He was a blacksmith. He kept his books in German, but could speak English. He also lived for a time at Bowyer's Ferry, on New River, (now Sewell's Station, C. and O. Ry.), but finally moved to Walton, Cass Co., Indiana. The family Bible records the following children: Elizabeth and Jacob (of his first wife Eva), John, Daniel, William, Pauline, Lewis, Magdalena, Ann, Catharine, Peter, Catherine (2nd), Adam, and Susannah (Single).

C (1) Elizabeth Beyer, daughter of Peter Beyer and his wife Eva, was born Oct. 14, 1791, and we do not have any further knowledge; C (2) Jacob Beyer was born April 13, 1793, but the family traditions are silent; C (3) John Boyer, son of Peter Boyer and Catherine Shellman, was born April 26, 1794, at Lewisburgh, Greenbrier Co., West Virginia, and died Dec. 28, 1878. Methodist. Soldier in the War of 1812, and Marshall of the Western District of Virginia for several years. Represented the County of Putnam in the Legislature. Farmer. Married Permelia Brown, born Dec. 16, 1806. Children: George C., Napoleon Bonaparte, Maria Louisa, Victoria, Jerome Toledo, Cicero Lewis, Dimidoff Pamly, and Ledru Rollin; D (4) Daniel Boyer was born Nov. 23, 1795, died about 1905, and is probably buried near Walton, Cass Co., Indiana, where he came to live in 1834. He married. Children: William—perhaps his name was Washington—Peter, Daniel, Robert, Phoebe, Franklin, Jane—and perhaps others. Note: Jane's address (1909) Mrs. Jane Murphy, Tipton, Indiana; C (5) William Boyer, born Nov. 7, 1797, died in Fayetteville, West Virginia. Married. No male descendants; C (6) Pauline Boyer, born Oct. 19, 1799, married Gideon Frederick. No children; C (7) Lewis Boyer was born in Greenbrier Co., W. Va., Jan. 15, 1801, died Jan. 1, 1855, in Cass Co., Indiana, and is buried in Williams Cemetery. Farmer. Married Melinda Wilson, born in Virginia, May 9, 1806. Children: Lewis F., Allen W., C. Granville, Napoleon B., S. Clayton, J. Marion, Virginia, Eliza; C (8) Magdalene Boyer was born Dec. 26, 1803. No records; C (9) Ann Boyer, born June 10, 1805, married James Mays, born 1805. She died June 21, 1883. Children: John S. Mays married Sarah. Children: Charles Mays. Address (1908) Onward, Indiana. R. F. D. 18; C (10) Peter Boyer, born Oct. 10, 1808, lived in Fayette County, W. Va., but moved to Winfield, W. Va., and died there in the 70's. Married. Children: John L., Mary, Harvey, Martha, Anna, Thomas, Catherine, and James; C (11) Catherine Boyer was born March 23, 1807. Another Catherine was born July 7, 1811, probably named after the first one because she died an infant. We have no records; C (12) Adam Boyer was born May 18, 1814, but we have no records; C (13) Susannah Boyer.

D (1) George C. Bowyer, son of John Boyer and Parmelia Brown, born March 28, 1829, at Sulphur Springs, Greenbrier Co., W. Va., died Feb. 4, 1906, at Winfield, W. Va. Member of House of Delegates from Putnam County, under the restored government of Virginia, at Wheeling. A member after West Virginia was admitted into the Union of States. Commissioned Brigadier General of Militia, by Governor A. J. Boreman, first governor of W. Va. Present at Battle of Appamatox. President of County Court for several years. Held other positions. At time of death he owned 545 acres of land on the Kanawa River, adjoining Winfield. He married March 23, 1853, Sophia Miller, born May 23, 1835, daughter of Charles C. Miller. She died at Winfield, June 30, 1882. Children: Charles Clendenen, Jennie Clendenen, Demic Cameron, Frank Chancellor.

D (2) Colonel Napoleon Bonaparte Bowyer, born Aug. 14, 1832, on Sewell Mountain, Fayette Co., Va., died Dec. 23, 1910, at Tampa, Florida. In 1832 he visited California in search of gold. Commanded the 10th Virginia Cavalry, Army Northern Virginia. Present at Appamatox. Engaged in orange growing and investments at Tampa, Fla. Married Anna Burton Roberts, Aug. 15, 1853. She was born Oct. 30, 1833, in Nicholas County, Virginia, and died July, 1860, in Wharton Co., Texas. The children of this union are: Ida Henrie Anna, Ernest Napoleon, and Egbert Jerome. In 1868, Colonel Napoleon Bonaparte Bowyer, married Victoria E. Handley. She was born Oct. 27, 1838, in Putnam Co., W. Va., and died in Lakeland, Florida, May 30, 1898. The children of this second marriage are: Frank C., Frederick Earl, and Carl Griffin. The Reunion Committee of the Association of American Boyers placed the Colonel's photograph on the 1911 Reunion button; D (3) Maria Louisa Bowyer, born April 18, 1835, in Teays Valley, Fayette Co., Virginia. In 1855 she married John C. Miller, son of Charles C Miller. Children: Amanda Victoria, Georgie Anna, Demidoff W., Carrie C., Capt. Harry N. Miller: D (4) Victoria Bowyer, born Jan. 4, 1838. In 1855 she became the wife of Capt. James Benton Dudding, who commanded steamboats on the Kanawha and Ohio Rivers for years. Address (1909) Winfield, W. Va. Children: John Bowyer Dudding, Alice P., Victoria F. C., Charles B. C., Dynn W. C., Kate C., Bryan C., George S., Charles M., Florence D., and Jerome; D (5) Colonel Jerome Toledo Bowyer was born Feb. 22, 1841, in Teays Valley, Kanawha (now Putnam) Co., W. Va., and died about 1910. Student in Ohio University, Athens, Ohio, for three years. The Civil War put an end to his college course in 1861. Studied law under Judge James W. Hoge and Capt. H. C. Parsons. Admitted to the bar in 1868. CHAPTER XLIV

CASPAR BEYER.

Caspar Beyer was born 1732, near Constrat, in Wurtemburg, Germany. He was a married man, and had a family of children before he migrated to America. The ship "Tiger," which brought them all, reached Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 19, 1771, as recorded in Vol. 17, Second Series, Pennsylvania Archives. Just where in Pennsylvania he first settled has not been brought to the writer's attention. According to records in the hands of Mrs. Fronheiser, daughter of Mrs. Mary Seymour, and confirmed on pages 41 and 42, Vol. 5, Fifth Series, Pennsylvania Archives, he was a Lieutenant under Colonel Miller, in the Revolutionary War. In 1780 he was "overseer of the poor" in Dauphin County, Pa., living in Paxtang. He died in 1793, and, so far as the writer can ascertain, he is buried in Adams County, Pa. The children were John, Michael, Lambert, Peter, Gabriel, Detrick, Jacob, Catherine, Elizabeth, Frederick, David, and perhaps others.

B (1) John Beyer, son of Caspar Beyer and wife, was the oldest of the children, and died single, as his relatives declare. Between 1791 and 1795, he went with his brother, Jacob, and two sisters, to Kentucky, where he acquired possession of a large farm. He served in the War of 1812; B (2) Michael Beyer, probably the next son of Caspar Beyer and wife, appears to have been a soldier of the Revolution, with his father Caspar, and his brother Lambert. According to Heitman's Historical Register, he was Second Lieutenant, Sixth Maryland, on April 1, 1777; First Lieutenant in November of the same year, and Captain on May 25, 1778. He retired Jan. 1, 1781. His Kentucky relatives affirm that he married Catherine Arter, but the writer has no knowledge of children; B (3) Lambert Beyer is not mentioned by David B. Byers, a very reliable correspondent, but may be the Lambert of Heitman's Register. If so, he was also a Second Lieutenant, of the Sixth Maryland, on April 1, 1777, and discharged Oct. 8, 1777; B (4) Peter Beyer, born 1760, Wurtemberg, Germany, enlisted from Paxtang, near Harrisburg, Pa. First Lieutenant German Regiment, July 12, 1776. Came from Pennsylvania to Maryland. One of the founders of Westminster, Maryland. Spoke German. Lived on Lingamore Creek, Frederick Co., Md., and later in Montgomery Co., Md. Died 1805. Buried under a chestnut tree on farm now owned by Professor Walker, near Browningsville. Married Mary Musseter. Methodist. She died July 22, 1827 and is buried at her husband's side. Children: Elizabeth, Susan, Catherine, Margaret, Mary, John, Adam, William, Michael, Peter; B (5) Gabriel Beyer was born Dec. 1, 1766, probably in Constrat, Wurtemberg, Germany. Reformed. Lived in Frederick Co., Md. Died July 28, 1835. Buried in Krider's Burial Ground, near Westminster, Md. Married Elizabeth C. Arter. Children: Michael, Elizabeth, Catherine, Sarah, John, Henry, and Mary H.; B (6) Detrick Boyers was born probably in Germany. Lived in Frederick County, Md. Died single. Mr. J. F. Boyer, Monrovia, Md., a fine genealogist, owns this Detrick's precious walnut cabinet, or desk; B (7) Jacob Boyers was born May 12, 1770. Went from Maryland to Harrison County, Kentucky, between 1791 and 1795. With him went his brother John and his sisters Elizabeth and Catherine. He died May 11, 1843. Private grave, Harrison Co., Kentucky. Married Dorothy Lemmons, July 1, 1795. Children: Esau, Jacob, John, Rachel, Elizabeth, Catherine, Amelia; B (8) Catherine Boyers, born March 17, 1773, married John Arter. Came to Ohio, 1806. Children: Michael, Jacob, Ann M., Elizabeth, David, Catherine, Sarah; B (9) Elizabeth Boyers died 1851, wife of David Lemmons, of Kentucky. Children: David, Elizabeth, George, Jacob, Torsey, Amelia, Eliza, and another girl; B (10) David Byers was born July 25, 1777, Fredericck Co., Md., and died Oct. 17, 1854. Farmer and cooper. In 1811 he resided in Westminster, Md. In 1857 he married Elizabeth Williams. Children: David, Dixon, Benjamin W., John Frederick; B (11) Frederick Byers was born 1782, and died Feb. 26, 1815. Lived in neighborhood of Westminster, Md. Married. Children, as David Dixon Byers recalls, died young.

C (1) Elizabeth Boyers, daughter of Peter Boyer and Mary Musseter, married Basil Longsworth. Went to Ohio about 1820. CHAPTER XLV

FREDERICK AUGUSTUS BAYER.

Born in Leipsic, Germany, June 2, 1756, Frederick Augustus Bayer, came to America with Nicholas Bayer on the ship "Union," last from Rotterdam and Cowes, landing at Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 30, 1774. This agrees with the testimony of his descendant, Aaron Boyer, Dover, York Co., Pa., the historian's correspondent. On the same ship came Valentine Beyer, of whom this correspondent says nothing, and whom the historian has not identified. Frederick settled in Newberry Township, York County, Pennsylvania. He married a woman by the name of Shull, born June 2, 1765, and of a good German family. He died Dec. 4, 1840, and his wife April 1845, aged 79 years, 10 months and 1 day. They are both buried near Ball Hill, Newberry Twp., York Co., Pa. Lutherans. Frederick Bayer took part in the American Revolution, serving under General Washington eight years. On page 887, Vol. 3, Fifth Series, Pennsylvania Archives, he is reported serving under Count Casimir Pulaski, the famous Polish patriot who had come to help the Colonies in their struggle. He served in Pulaski's legion from 1778 to 1783. The historian has the coat of arms belonging to his ancestors—a watch dog resting in a big heart—and hopes to find the meaning, no doubt full of honor, in some book on heraldry. The children of this worthy couple were Peter, John, Jacob, Augustus, Joseph, Charles, James (Jay), Catherine, and Elizabeth.

B (1) Peter Boyer, son of Frederick Augustus Bayer and wife Shull, was born 1789, in York Co., Pa. Millwright and farmer. Active in Salem Lutheran Church. Lived a retired life for twenty years. He died 1881, aged 92 years, and is buried at the Salem Church, Union Cemetery. Married Sarah Hidelbaugh, born in York County, Pa. Children: Solomon, Elizabeth, Israel, Sarah, and John. (Israel Boyer left no descendants); B (2) John Boyer was born at Dover, York Co., Pa., and is buried at St. John's Church, near Shiremanstown, Pa. He lived 66 years. Lutheran. Millwright and farmer. CHAPTER XLVI

FREDERICK BAYER.

Born April 5, 1766, in Prussia, Germany, Frederick Bayer came to America in the year 1786, a "Redemptioner," according to Mrs. Wible, his granddaughter, and other descendants. Remained for some time in Baltimore, Maryland. Went to Oxford, Adams Co., Pa., where he took up mercantile pursuits. Here he met and married (1791) Elizabeth Young, born March 4, 1770. By and by he moved to a farm near Gettysburg, Adams Co., Pa., and made farming his life work. He died Sept. 24, 1845, and his wife June 9, 1839. Their bodies with those of four sons and three daughters rest in Evergreen Cemetery, Gettysburg, Pa. Children: John, Mary, Jacob, Frederick, George, William, Elizabeth, Rebecca, Henry, Daniel, Anna Margaret, and another child who died in infancy. Note: Frederick Bayer had a half-brother, Philip Bayer, who came with him to America. This Philip Bayer settled near Fayetteville, Franklin County, Pa., and went by the name of "Byers." At the time of this writing the historian has not found this man's descendants, unless it was Philip Boyer of Chapter 55.

CHAPTER XLVIII

MARTIN BEYER.

If the traditions reported by Andrew Jackson Boyer hold, Martin Beyer came to America with wife and children before 1800. Presently the father and mother returned to Germany, with the daughters, leaving the sons. Apparently there were five sons, though tradition hints at eight. The family had located at Schaefferstown, Lebanon County, Pa., where the sons began their life after the return of the parents and sisters to Europe. At least some of the sons, if not all of them must have been old enough to help themselves, and probably to decide on their own account to remain in America. It would be impossible to explain the return of both parents, with the daughters, on any other reasonable supposition. The sons were David, Andrew, Jacob, Martin, Joseph. One daughter married a Mr. Pfeffer. The ship list, Vol. 17, Second Series, Pennsylvania Archives, contains no reference to Martin Beyer's coming to America.

B (1) Jacob Boyer, son of Martin Beyer and wife, was probably the oldest of the five boys, born in Germany. Unless one of his sons was John Boyer, we know nothing at all about him. See C.

B (2) David Boyer, son of Martin Beyer and wife, of Schaefferstown, Pa., was born in Germany, probably about 1770, and came to Pennsylvania. He died of tuberculosis, leaving one son, so far as we know. This was David K. Boyer, of Dayton, Ohio. In 1870 he had two sons, David and Joseph. The latter died without issue.

B (3) Martin Boyer, son of Martin Beyer and wife, died on his way from Schaefferstown, Pa., to Ohio, probably without issue.

B (4) Joseph Boyer, son of Martin Beyer and wife, was shot by accident, leaving no issue.

B (5) Andrew Boyer, son of Martin Beyer and wife, was born April 19, 1775, in Germany, and came to Schaefferstown, Lebanon Co., Pennsylvania. In 1797 he married Elizabeth Whistler, of Lancaster County. He lived in Cumberland County for some time, but in 1823 he moved to Rocky Springs, Franklin Co., Pa., where he died in 1856. He was a farmer, blacksmith, and Dunkard minister. Mrs. Boyer died in 1849. Both are buried in a little graveyard on a farm in the hands of (1908) Jacob Rohrer. So reports Andrew Jackson Boyer, his grandson. Children: David C. Byers, Daniel Byers, Benjamin Byers, Kate Byers, Lydia Byers, Polly Byers, and Margaret Byers.

C (1) John Boyer, son of Jacob Boyer, of Schaefferstown, (son of Martin and his wife), unless all proofs of locality fail. Judging from known dates of birth in his family, he was born about 1770-1775. From the fact that Jacob Boyer was then living at Schaefferstown, and that this John, according to correspondents, lived there, we can hardly be mistaken. If he was not Jacob's son, he was a son of his Schaefferstown brothers. We do not know to whom he was married. Three of the children were John, Jacob, and Peter. There may have been others. Jacob died young.

C (1) David K. Boyer, son of David Boyer and wife. Address (1870) Dayton, Ohio. Andrew Jackson Boyer reports that he was not living in 1908. Two sons, David and Joseph. Only the latter left descendants. See Chapter 105.

C (1) David C. Byers, son of Andrew Boyer and wife Elizabeth Whistler, was born April 13, 1807, in Cumberland Co., Pa. He died at Martinsburg, West Virginia, and was buried there in 1888. Farmer. Member of United Brethren Church. Married Catharine Crall, born in Lancaster Co., Pa., Feb. 13, 1811. Children: Joseph, Levi, John, James K., Andrew Jackson, Maria, Kate, Elizabeth, Isabella; C (2) Daniel Byers died in 1876. He is buried with his wife, two sons, and his parents, in the little family graveyard on the old farm near Rocky Springs, Franklin Co., Pa. Children: John Byers, David S. Byers, Mrs. Schlichter, Mrs. Lesher, Mrs. Devine, Lydia (single); C (3) Benjamin J. Byers was born 1817, near Chambersburg, Franklin Co., Pa. He died 76 years old, and is buried on Mt. Hebron Cemetery, Winchester, Va. Married Catharine Reife, born 1818. Children: Samuel A., of Stephenson, Virginia; David C., of Laurel, Maryland, and others; C (4) Kate Boyer married John Rohrer. Children: Jacob. Address (1908) Beautiful, Franklin Co., Pa. Elizabeth, wife of Mr. Hoover, near Pleasant Hall, Franklin Co., Pa.; C (5) Lydia Byers married Henry Hoover. Children: Benjamin, of Mansfield, Ohio, and others; C (6) Polly Byers married Jacob Whistler. Children: Mrs. William Kriner, of Greencastle, Pa., and others; C (7) Margaret Byers married Mr. Wingert. Children: A. B. Wingert, of Chambersburg, Pa., R. F. D. 4, and others.

D (1) John Boyer, son of John Boyer, of Schaefferstown, and his wife, was born about 1779, two miles from Shoeneck, Pa., and died about 1872. Farmer. Married Susan Kolb (Kulp). Both buried on his farm at Cocalico, Pa. Children: William, Rebecca, Sarah, Mary, Catharine, Susan; D (2) Peter Boyer. Married. Children: Cyrus, Henry, Peter, Daniel, John, and perhaps others.

D (1) Joseph Byers, son of David C. Byers and wife Catharine Crall, born 1833, died 1872. Miller and farmer. Married Rebecca Ruth. Children: Irene, Isaac, of McConnellsville, Pa., and Rev. Ralph Byers, Presbyterian minister, of Silverton, Colorado; D (2) Levi Byers was born Oct. 9, 1835, in Franklin Co., Pa., died April 24, 1877, and is buried in Luigan, Franklin Co., Pa. U. B. Church. CHAPTER XLIX

TOBIAS BAYER.

The records on page 672, Vol. 2, Sixth Series, Pennsylvania Archives, show that this Tobias Bayer—the name is written Tobies Boayer—was a soldier of the Revolutionary War. He belonged to the York County Militia. The same page records Henry Boayer, evidently a brother. The administration records at York, Pa., show that this Tobias Bayer had a brother Martin, whose estate he administered March 29, 1794. There can hardly be a doubt about this relationship, for the only other Tobias Bayer in Pennsylvania, so far as the historian can discover, was born July 12, 1800, and was evidently the son of the administrator. Mrs. George W. Lauver, daughter of the Tobias, born July 12, 1800, writes that her mother told her that the father of the Tobias, born July 12, 1800, came from Germany, he being one of nine brothers. His brother Henry died in 1795, in the same Township, namely Heidelberg, and his estate was settled up, October 23, 1795, by Anna Bayer, probably his wife, and apparently there were no children. There were two other Boyers in the York County Militia in 1782, namely Petter Boyer and John Boyer. Although the names are not spelled Boayer, for they may have been recorded in different companies—see pages 673 and 675, Vol. 2, Sixth Series, Pennsylvania Archives,—it looks as if these were also brothers of Tobias Boayer. This conclusion would account for five of the nine brothers in the tradition of Mrs. Lauver's mother. Whether the descendants can be found is difficult to predict. Tobias Bayer, senior, may have been only about 22 years old in 1782, judging from the fact that his son, Martin, was born in 1787. From this conclusion it may be deducted that his brothers, Martin and Henry, died young, leaving no descendants. The historian must find the York Court House records to prove the case. Perhaps Tobias and the brothers, Martin and Henry, are buried in Heidelberg Twp., York Co., Pa., and the dates may be found on the tombstones, or in Church records. The names of the wives may also be found in the same connections. The sons of Tobias Bayer were Mennonites, which would go to prove that the immigrant brothers were Mennonites, and kin to the Lancaster County Boyers of that faith. Tobias Bayer, the elder, left two sons, Martin and Tobias.

B (1) Martin Boyer, son of Tobias Bayer and his wife, was born Oct. 7, 1787, died Oct. 18, 1841, near Biglerville, Pa., and is buried at Mummasburg, Pa. Married a woman born Sept. 7, 1789. CHAPTER L

GEORGE BEYER.

The "old" cemetery at Harrisburg, Pa., is the resting place of George Beyer, born in Germany, Oct. 31, 1760, as recorded on his tombstone. He died May 24, 1831. At the time of this writing (1913) the historian does not know the name of George Beyer's wife, nor why he migrated from Germany, nor what his occupation was, nor to what church he held. Perhaps he left a large family, but we know only two sons, namely, George and William.

B (1) William Boyer, son of George Beyer and his wife, lived in Harrisburg, Pa., but died single; B (2) George Boyer was born Sept. 16, 1781, probably in Harrisburg, Pa. He died Feb. 9, 1839, and is buried near his father, on the "old" cemetery. Lutheran. Proprietor of the celebrated "Lamb" Hotel, Harrisburg, Pa. Married Mary Kopendaufer. Children: Theodore F., William L., Henry K., Camilla, and Mary.

B (1) Theodore F. Boyer, son of George Boyer and Mary Kopendaufer, was born March 21, 1824, and died Feb. 4, 1881. Baptist. Grocer. Buried near his parents. Married Lydia K. Winslow, of Elk Co., Pa. Children: Charles L., Frank D., Emma, Susan, and Caroline; C (2) William L. Boyer was born 1815, and died Dec. 17, 1879. Lived in Harrisburg, Pa., but is buried in Phila., Pa. Married Susan Strock, born 1826. He was a manufacturer of agricultural implements. Only child: Clara, died young; C (3) Henry K. Boyer was born Oct., 1818, died March, 1881, and lived in Philadelphia, Pa., where he is buried. Married Martha A. Peoples, born 1820. Manufacturer of agricultural implements. Children: Mary E. Boyer, born Sept. 20, 1846. Address (1913) 1830 N. 16th St., Phila., Pa., and George W. Boyer, born May 1848. He was president of the Northern Electric Light Company. Resided at 1425 N. 7th St., and died without descendants, Feb., 1891; C (4) Camilla Boyer married Reverend Dewees Boyer, an Adventist. Child: Ella Boyer. In 1910 she was single; C (5) Mary Boyer married a Mr. Hall. Left a son, Frank Hall. Address (1912) Baltimore, Maryland.

D (1) Charles L. Boyer, son of Theodore F. Boyer and Lydia K. Winslow, was born May 29, 1851, in Elk Co., Pa. Address (1912) 7th and Maclay Sts., Harrisburg, Pa. Baptist. Single. This man has accomplished wonders in "Rescue and Charity Work," in London, England, and in Harrisburg, Pa. At the present writing he is Superintendent of the Home Invalids' Union and the Old Folks' Home, Harrisburg, Pa. Robert F. Gorman, says of him, in the Harrisburg News, Nov. 24, 1911: "Had he devoted his unquestioned executive ability and unbounded energy to business, he would be one of the wealthy men of the city." "He is in constant touch with misfortune in its blackest forms, yet remains an optimist of the highest type—the optimist of deed as well as creed." "He scatters sunshine all along his daily way," and is loved by all who know him; D (2) Frank D. Boyer was born May 23, 1853. Address (1912) New Cumberland, Pa. Baptist. Superintendent of water works. Married Miss Trough. Children: Frank, 261 Herr St., Harrisburg, Pa.; Florence. Mrs. Florence Guyer, Cor. 7th and Woodbine Sts., Harrisburg, Pa.; Harvey, 16 N. 17th St., Harrisburg, Pa.; William Boyer, of New Cumberland, Pa.; D (3) Emma Boyer married J. C. Cassell, of Roanoke, N. C. A son, James, was in Mercer College in 1912; D (4) Susan Boyer married S. E. Howard, who died some time ago. Her address (1912) was 16 N. 17th St., Harrisburg, Pa.; D (5) Caroline Boyer married J. Burd Sharp, of St. Louis, Mo.

CHAPTER LI

JONATHAN BAYER.

The historian's informants write that Jonathan Bayer was a Palatinate German. He came to America after the Revolutionary War, and settled in Charming County, New York State. Married Elizabeth Heckert. Perhaps the date of birth and death of both may be obtained by and by, for they are buried at Big Flat, N. Y. The children of this union were Samuel, John, and Philip, so far as reported.

B (1) Samuel Boyer, son of Jonathan Bayer and Elizabeth Heckert, was buried at Big Flat, Charming Co., N. Y. Married Elenora Emmons, an English girl. Children: Samuel H., Mary Adelia, John L., Elizabeth Arabella, and Sarah O.; B (2) John Boyer has not been reported; B (3) Philip Boyer was born Aug. 5, 1791. Married. Children.

CHAPTER LII

JONATHAN BAYER.

Correspondents report that Jonathan Bayer was born in Germany. He came to America when he was fifteen years old, perhaps about 1800, and first lived in Pennsylvania or Maryland. He married in Maryland, and, in 1857, came to Indiana. Who his first wife was the historian can not discover. His second wife, named Elizabeth, is buried with him at the Salem Cemetery, Burlington, Indiana, where she died April 2, 1892. Perhaps there were children of the first marriage, but those of the second were John William, Ezra, Sarah, Caroline, Levi, Josiah, and Isaiah.

B (1) John William Boyer, son of Jonathan Bayer and his second wife Elizabeth, was born Sept. 15, 1837, near Friedburg, Maryland. Stone mason and farmer. Soldier in Co. CHAPTER LIII

NICHOLAS BAYER.

Correspondents inform us that Nicholas Bayer was born about 1783, in Germany. They do not tell us in which year he arrived in America, but he must have come about 1803, for in 1806 his son, David Washington, was born. Some correspondents think he came to Pennsylvania and went from there to Maryland, where it appears his children were born. The name of the woman he married is not reported, but judging from the name, David Washington, she was closely linked with Revolutionary sires. Nicholas Bayer, it appears returned to Germany, perhaps on a visit, it is really not known, and died there about 1862. His boys were David Washington, William, Thomas, John, and Basil. There was at least one daughter, Frances, wife of Mr. Murray. Son, Murray Murray. Address (1915) Milton, Iowa. Chapter 115 may belong here.

CHAPTER LIV

NICHOLAS BEYER.

Correspondents report that this Nicholas Beyer resided in Berks County, Pennsylvania, and that his wife's family name was Becker. The tax lists show that he lived in Amity Township as early as 1740 and as late as 1786. Apparently he did not belong to the Amityville Church, for the baptisms of his children are not recorded there. He may have belonged to another congregation near by. The ship list of Vol. 17, Second Series, Pennsylvania Archives, records a Nicholas Beyer. He came to Philadelphia, Pa., on the ship "Lydia," Sept. 27, 1740, quite likely from Palatinate, Germany. If this is the man, he must have been over sixteen years old, and born between 1720-1724. Inasmuch as the other townships of Berks County do not record a Nicholas Beyer early enough to be this man, we take it that there can be little doubt about the identity. His great grandson, Henry, thinks there were three children, Jacob, and two others, but does not know for certain. It is certain that the Amity Nicholas was not the same as the Spiece Church Nicholas, of Chapter 32, for that Nicholas was born 1753, and could therefore not have been a tax payer in 1754.

B (1) Jacob Boyer, son of Nicholas Beyer and wife Becker, was born about 1760, probably in Amity Township, Berks Co., Pa., and died about 1851, as reported by his grandson, Henry. "Lived on a little stony farm in Berks County." Revolutionary soldier, according to tradition. Two Jacobs are recorded as soldiers in 1777, but whether this Jacob was one of them, or which one, can not be determined without going deeply into the matter. He married Elizabeth Lorah. Children: John, Abraham, Jeremiah, Jacob, William H., Hannah, Mary, Elizabeth, Catherine, Hettie.

C (1) John Boyer, son of Jacob Boyer and wife Elizabeth Lorah, lived in Iowa. Married Catherine Baker. Children (large family): (1) Lavina, married and died in Michigan; (2) Elizabeth, wife of Reuben Kile, born Aug. 1, 1828, died June 20, 1909. Children: Kate, a teacher. Address (1910) West Point, Iowa; C (2) Abraham Boyer lived at Liberty Mills, Kosciusko Co., Indiana. Children: Elizabeth, wife of Mr. Prizer, and others; C (3) Jeremiah Boyer was born June 17, 1809, in Berks Co., Pa., and died June 11, 1882, at Columbus Grove, Ohio. Employed in a paper mill at Reading, Pa., and on the little farm. Came with parents to Jackson Twp., Wayne Co., Ohio, about 1826. Married Eliza Watkins, moved to Henry Twp., Wood Co., Ohio, and in 1864 to Pulaski, Williams Co., Ohio, where he owned a mill. Children: William, Henry B., Josiah, Isaac C., Cyrus F., George H. (called Harry"), the historian's correspondent; C (4) Jacob Boyer married Catherine Boyer, a relative. Both died in Michigan. Children: Christopher, boy, Emaline, Hetty, girl; C (5) William H. Boyer was born June 1, 1826, in Berks Co., Pa., and died Aug. 28, 1871. Enlisted Aug. 25, 1862, Co. G, 21st Regiment, Ohio Volunteers, Infantry. Served two years and ten months. Honorably discharged at close of war, June 5, 1865. Good man. Married Elizabeth Copus, born Dec. 17, 1828. He died Sept., 1906. Children: (1) Emily, wife of Mr. Hogeboom, Delta, Ohio, R. D. 27. Born April 11, 1858. Address of daughter (1910) Mrs. John Beadle, Morenci, Michigan, R. D. (2) Albert J. Boyer, of Morenci, Michigan, born Sept. 8, 1855, married Henrietta Bundy, born April 28, 1857. Children: L. Ray Boyer, of Ventura, Cal., and Ada, wife of G. H. Chapelle, Elk Grove, Cal. (3) John W. Boyer, born July 27, 1860. He died at Coffeyville, in Kansas, 1905. (4) Elizabeth, wife of Adrian Mercing, born Nov. 9, 1866, died at Pine Bluff, Arkansas, 1905. (5) Hattie, wife of Mr. Raymond. Address (1910) Wauseon, Ohio; C (6) Hannah Boyer married a Mr. Boyer, who died soon afterwards. Then she married Jacob Greenly, and left a number of children; C (7) Mary Boyer married Peter Boyer and moved to Missouri. Children: (1) Rufus Boyer died at Charlotte, Michigan. (2) Benjamin Boyer, (3) girl; C (8) Elizabeth Boyer married Matthew Dawson. Children: (1) Mary J., (2) Jacob. Address (1910) 517 Seventh St., Redlands, Cal., (3) William; C (9) Caroline Boyer married Daniel Keller, and left children; C (10) Hetty Boyer married George Walmer, and left children: Mary J., and others.

D (1) William Boyer, son of Jeremiah Boyer and wife Eliza Watkins, was born Dec. 31, 1832. Lived and died in Easton Co., Michigan. Married Elizabeth Norris in 1859, but left no children; D (2) Henry B. Boyer was born June 24, 1834, in Wayne Co., Ohio. Moved from Wood Co., Ohio, to Michigan, where he died. Married Sarah Otts in 1857. Children: (1) Andrew, dead in 1910, but his widow resided at Sunfield, Michigan. There are two sons; (2) Lucinda, wife of Lou Johnson, of Delta, Ohio; (3) Stella, of Sunfield, Michigan; (4) Jennie, wife of Mr. Gee, Sunfield, Michigan; D (2) Susan C. Boyer, born March 1, 1844, died Oct. 28, 1897. Wife of John A. Slemmons, born Sept. 13, 1855. Address (1910) Defiance, Ohio. Children: (1) Leo B., dead; (2) Blanche A., wife of William A. Strow. Address (1910) Columbus Grove, Ohio, Box 523. Historian's correspondent; D (3)

Cyrus F. Boyer was born June 27, 1845. Address Luray, Russell Co., Kansas. Married Mary A. Creek. Children: (1) Minnie, wife of Mr. Kinnear, of Delta, Colorado; (2) Sibyl, wife of Mr. Wilkinson, of Luray, Kansas: (3) Zoe, wife of Mr. Missemer, of Luray, Kansas; D (6) George H. Boyer was born Sept. 22, 1850. Druggist. Address (1910) Masonic Home, Springfield, Ohio. Single. Known as "Harry." The historian's correspondent through Mrs. Strow, his niece.

CHAPTER LV

PHILIP BOYER.

Researches by Rev. J. Edward Byers, of Bloomsburg, Pennsylvania, show that his ancestor, Philip Boyer, died in Washington County, Maryland. From the date of his "will," Oct. 29, 1794, we may infer that he was born as early as 1730, if not earlier. His executor was Jacob Boyer. This Jacob was probably his son, though he might have been a brother. Jacob sold land to Christian Boyer in Westmoreland Co., Pa. A "will" of Christian Boyer is dated Nov. 13, 1809. Judging from dates, Christian was Philip's brother. The likelihood is that Jacob and Christian were Philip's sons. Christian Boyer had a brother John, and deeded a farm to John Boyer, Jr., which was evidently John's son. If the historian guesses correctly this John, Jr., came to spell his name Boyers in Westmoreland County, where the population probably took the initiative. Rev. J. Edward Byers goes back to his great grandfather, John Boyers, evidently the John, Jr., in question. The matter would therefore be summed up thus: Philip Boyer, of Washington County, Maryland, left at least three sons: Jacob, Christian, and John; or, Philip was the brother of these three. In that case we can not find the father at this time. We know, however, that John Boyers had a brother Peter, and at least two others whose names are not at command. Note: It is quite possible that Chapter 55 belongs to Chapter 46 or 16.

B (1) John Boyer, son of Philip Boyer, of Washington County, Maryland, and his wife, was probably born as early as 1750. We have absolutely no particulars, except that he was married, and left at least two sons, John Boyers and Peter Boyers; B (2) Jacob Boyer, son of Philip Boyer, of Washington County, Maryland. Owned land in Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania, and may have resided there; B (3)

Christian Boyer, son of Philip Boyer, of Washington County, Maryland, was born perhaps 1750. Bought land from Jacob Boyer in Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania, and probably lived there. His will is dated Nov. 13, 1809, from which we guess that he was born about 1750.

C (1) John Boyers, son of John Boyer, of Westmoreland Co., Pa., was born as early as 1770, judging from the date of his death, 1845. Lutheran. Occupation not known. Wife's name not known. Children: David, George, Samuel, Joseph, Susan, Elizabeth; C (2) Peter Boyers. No details at hand; C (3) A son. Married. Children: Jacob Boyers. Went West. Mary, Sallie; C (4) A son, Boyers. Married. Children: Henry and sister Boyers, wife of Mr. Bickley.

D (1) David Byers, son of John Boyers and his wife, was born July 20, 1797, and died April 21, 1846. Farmer. Lutheran. Lived near Newport, Maryland. Married Martha Brewer, born Jan. 16, 1801, died March 15, 1875. Children: (1) Mary, wife of Jacob Beard, born Jan. 1, 1825, died Nov. 5, 1895; (2) Rosanna, born Jan. 13, 1826, died June 22, 1900; (3) Sarah J., wife of Harrison Angle, born June 8, 1827; (4) Susan C., born Aug. 28, 1828, died Oct. 4, 1899; (5) John D. Byers. Address: Hagerstown, Md., R. D. 2. Born Sept. 7, 1830. Farmer. Lutheran. Married Eliza J. Leiter. Children: (a) Rev. J. Edward Byers, 111 N. Market St., Bloomsburg, Pa. Born May 31, 1871. Graduate of Gettysburg College and Theological Seminary. Fine minister. Married Virtue E. Hoover. Children: Helen E., Daniel H. (b) George T. Byers. Address: Hagerstown, Md. Born Feb. 27, 1865. (c) Martha L., wife of Mr. Neikirk, Hagerstown, Md., R. D. 2. (d) Emma J. Byers, Hagerstown, Md., R. D. 2. (e) Mame E., wife of Samuel C. Barnes, Hagerstown, Md., R. D. 2; (6) Emily L., wife of John Bickley, born Feb. 20, 1832; (7) Eli W. Byers, born Feb. 8, 1837, died March 28, 1909; (8) Martha E. Byers, born April 11, 1841, died July 31, 1889; (9) Laura V. Byers, born Nov. 17, 1843. Living in 1912; D (2) George Byers lived near Eldorado, Ohio. Married. Children: George, Joseph, and two sisters; D (3) Samuel Byers died single; D (4) Joseph Byers married Lefever. Children: (1) William Byers lived and died at Shepherdstown, Virginia; (2) Joseph Byers. Address (1912) Hagerstown, Md.; (3) George Byers, (dead); (4) Sallie Byers, wife of Mr. Herbert, Williamsport, Md.; (5) Sister Byers, wife of William Lefever; D (5) Susan Byers married Hoffman, Eldorado, Ohio. Children; D (6) Elizabeth Byers married Rohrer. No children.

CHAPTER LVI

MATTHEW BOYERS.

Matthew Boyers came from Ireland, born about 1765, and settled at Gallatin, Tennessee, where he was a schoolmaster. His wife was born in Wales. Thomas Boyers, our correspondent, has life-sized portraits of both, and of the son, Robert Morris. The children of this worthy couple were as follows: David, Robert Morris, and others, but only the latter left children.

B (1) David Boyers, son of Matthew Boyers and wife, graduate of Harvard University, Cambridge, Mass., was a pupil and personal friend of the poet Longfellow; B (2) Robert Morris Boyers was born in York District, S. C., July 28, 1788. Presbyterian. Merchant. Married Elizabeth Banks, of Murfreesboro, N. C. He is buried at Gallatin, Tennessee. One son: Thomas Boyers.

C (1) Thomas Boyers, son of Robert Morris Boyers and wife Elizabeth Banks, was born March 21, 1826, at Gallatin, Tennessee. Newspaper man. Presbyterian. Married Annie O'Mahoney Brown. Children: Thomas, Annie.

D (1) Thomas Boyers, son of Thomas Boyers and wife Annie O. Brown, was born at Gallatin, Tennessee, June 29, 1859. Newspaper man. Address (1915) Gallatin, Tennessee. Married Sophia Baber Foster. Children: Louise Smith, Alice Guthrie, and Thomas B.

CHAPTER LVII

LEONARD BOYER.

This Leonard Boyer, as correspondents write, was born in Chester County, Pennsylvania. Perhaps it was Montgomery County, Pa. It is not known to the historian to whom Leonard was married, nor what his occupation was, nor anything else. Married. They died and were buried in Chester Co., Pa. Children: John, and five sisters, if our correspondents remember correctly.

B (1) John Boyer, son of Leonard Boyer, of Chester County, Pa., and his wife, was born perhaps about 1775-1800. Member of the Church of God, Landisburg, Pa. Stone mason. Married Sarah Swarmer. Children: John, William, George, Elizabeth. George died young.

CHAPTER LVIII

DR. JOHN BYERS.

We learn from the history of Allegheny County, Pennsylvania, page 695, that Dr. John Byers, of Pennsylvania, settled at Lewes, Delaware. He was a practising physician. Married Miss Edwards. Children: John, perhaps others. Dr. Byers, it is said, came from Scotland.

B (1) John Byers, son of Dr. John Byers and wife Edwards, was born at Lewes, Delaware. Married Harriett Webb. Children: John A., Joseph, and perhaps others. Write Rev. Horace E. Hayden, Mallory Place, Wilkes-Barre, Pa., for John's children.

C (1) John A. Byers, son of John Byers and wife Harriett Webb, was born at Lewes, Delaware, Sept. 15, 1806. Civil engineer. Engaged as early as 1826 in the most important inland navigation work in Maryland and Virginia. The last work of importance performed by John A. Byers was the survey of the James River and Kanawha Canal. He died Dec. 16, 1854, leaving fine books recording his services. Children: John M., Charles E., Joseph, Ellwood, Robert, Walter P., Henry W. The mother of these boys was Charlotte Weitzel; C (2) Joseph Byers was born at Lewes, Delaware, in 1808. Civil engineer with brother. Married Jane Peplow, Dec. 16, 1829, and died at Blairsville, Pa., Dec. 16, 1854.

D (1) John M. Byers, son of Joseph Byers and wife Jane Peplow, was born July 14, 1832. Connected with railroad building since 1848. In April 1871, he was appointed chief engineer of the Pittsburgh, Virginia, and Charleston Railway, and was engineer and superintendent of it until completed in 1881. Son: James; (6) Margaret I. Byers and Catharine Byers are still at home. Miss Jennie Markwell Byers, our most delightful correspondent, of New Castle, Pa., says all the "Byers" are Episcopalians.

CHAPTER LIX

DR. THOMAS BOYER.

Correspondents report that Dr. Thomas Boyer was born 1776, probably at Hagerstown, Md. He died 1835, and is buried at Tiffin, Ohio. Tradition has it that his people came from Bordeaux, or Lyons, France, but the historian has no proofs. He must have practised medicine at Hagerstown, Md., where he married Hannah Metcalf, May 10, 1808. In 1832, he moved to Tiffin, Ohio, where he died three years later. His wife was born 1791, and died at Tiffin, 1847. Children: Thomas M., Francis H., Richard M., William G., Edmund A., Mary Rabena, Elizabeth M., Augustine Theodore, and Frances H.

B (1) Thomas M. Boyer, son of Dr. Thomas Boyer and Hannah Metcalf, was born Aug. 20, 1811, at Hagerstown, Md. No descendants; B (2) Mary R. Boyer was born March 23, 1809, at Hagerstown, Md. No descendants; B (3) Elizabeth Boyer was born May 31, 1812, at

Address (1912) Boyer Place, Tiffin, Ohio.

CHAPTER LX

HENRY BOWYER.

Correspondents report that this Henry Bowyer and his brother Joseph—perhaps others, were the children of a Virginian or Maryland Bowyer. Joseph went to Kentucky, and at this time the historian has no trace of him or his posterity, if he left any. Henry was born about 1760, and came to Howard County, Missouri, in 1820, where he married Marjory. Soldier in War of 1812, under General Jackson. Children: Mary, Elizabeth, Catharine, Jane, Sarah, Nancy, William, and Jesse.

B (1-6) Mary married Simmons; Elizabeth, John Cherry; Catharine, William Goodman; Jane, John Kemper; Sarah, Needham Tyer; Nancy, Manoah Singleton. Note: See Chapter 110.

B (7) William Bowyer, son of Henry Bowyer and wife, was born March 12, 1803, in Rutherford County, Tennessee, where his father had settled before he came to Missouri. He came to Howard Co., Mo., with his parents. Married Martha Tyler in 1825. Soldier in Mexican War. Children: (1) Mary E., wife of Milton Cross; (2) Margie J., wife of John L. Thomas. Children: John J., Jesse, Price, Lee, Lewis, Walter, Doc, Emma, Eva, Alice; (3) Sarah, wife of J. L. Philips, both dead. Children: Mary, Cora, James E.

CHAPTER LXI

JOHN BOIER (BOYER).

A grandson of John Boyer reports that he was born about 1760 or 1770, in France, and that the spelling there was either Borer or Boier. He was a soldier under Napoleon Bonaparte for eight years. Came to America. Died very old (1860-1870) at Cincinnati, Ohio. Married in France. Children: Sebastian, Josephine, Elizabeth, George.

B (1-3) Sebastian, Josephine, and Elizabeth, children of John Boyer, of France, have not been reported; B (4) George Boyer was born April 23, 1802, in France, and died at Springfield, Ohio, Nov. 21, 1893. Employed in glass factory. Married Mary Friend, born in Switzerland, 1816, and died at London, Ohio, Aug. 27, 1874. Children: (a) Mary Boyer, born April 22, 1849, died Aug. 4, 1890, at London, Ohio. Married to Silas Kent. One child: Edith; (b) Robert J. Boyer, born Jan. 9, 1853, painter and decorator, of Columbus, Ohio. Married Margaret Anthony, born Sept. 11, 1856. It was in Robert's time that the spelling became "Boyer," by the advice of Judge Crab, of Madison Co., Ohio. Children: (1) Florence A., born Sept. 30, 1877; (2) Mabel, married John W. Hartman, of 316 S. Princeton Ave., Columbus, Ohio; (3) Emily, married Frederick A. Ohrsted, of 343 S. CHAPTER LXIII

CHRISTIAN BAYER.

Through descendants we know that Christian Bayer was born in Germany, probably between 1775 and 1780. When he came to America is not known to the historian. He owned the land on which part of Cincinnati, Ohio, is now located. A powder mill belonging to him was blown up in the War of 1812, and in this accident he lost his sight. His son, Solomon, cared for him the rest of his life. The land was leased to the city for 99 years. His brother, Christopher, owned the land on which Hamilton, Ohio, is now located, by lease, just as in the case of Christian. Christian Bayer married. Children: Samuel, Solomon, perhaps others.

B (1) Samuel Boyer, son of Christian Bayer and wife, lived in Maryland, or Virginia; B (2) Solomon Boyer lived in Fredericksburg, Maryland. Married daughter of Colonel Staley. Children: Solomon, Cyrus, Benjamin, Hiram, Joshua, Elizabeth, Mary, Susan, Anna, Margaret, Catharine.

C (1) Solomon Boyer, son of Solomon Boyer and his wife Staley, married. Children: Benjamin, of Hastings, Nebraska; Sarah, wife of Henry Drake, of Hastings; C (2) Cyrus Boyer. Married. Children: Luther, James, Frank, and Elizabeth (Drake), all of Greenville, Ohio;

C (3) Benjamin Boyer lived in Missouri in Civil War time; C (4) Hiram, at Sulphur Springs, Indiana; C (5) Joshua Boyer, born March 17, 1824, in Maryland, died Dec. 8, 1898, at Marion, Ind. Volunteer in Civil War. Company I, 12th Regiment, Indiana. Married Priscilla E. Wollard. Children: Solomon C., of Bunker Hill, Indiana; James, of Anderson, Ind. No children; Hiram, no children; Isaac, no children; John W., of 359 S. D St., Tacoma, Washington, was born May 31, 1869; Mary married Edwards, of Marion, Ind.; Ella married Hollen Brown, of Marion, Ind., Route 2, Box 163; Lillie M. married Gourley, of Upland, Ind.; C (6) Elizabeth Boyer married Luther Kepler, of Maryland; C (7) Mary married Albert Boast, of Germantown, Ohio. Keilhau, of Franklin, Ind.; Margaret F., Daniel W., of 150 River St., Detroit, Mich.; Josephine (Berry), of Logansport, Ind.; C (11) Catharine Boyer married Stutzman. Children: Rebecca (Swain), Priscilla (Whaley), Elizabeth (Whaley), Lavina (Gaunt), and Laura, all of Red Key, Ind.

CHAPTER LXIV

VALENTINE BEYER.

Mr. Singer, the historian's correspondent for this family tree, reports as tradition that Valentine Beyer was born about 1757, in Germany, and that he came to America about 1772. He lived in Northampton County, Pennsylvania. His first home was below the Blue Mountains, near the Wind Gap, Monroe Co., Pa. Later he lived above the Wind Gap, near Jackson. He died in Philadelphia, Pa. A forge man by occupation. Married Barbara Mengel. Children: Polly, Katherine, Hannah, Jacob, Mary Ann, Benjamin, Harriet, Sophia.

B (1) Hannah Boyer, daughter of Valentine Beyer and Barbara Mengel, married George Woodling, of Kellersville, Monroe Co., Pa.; B (2) Jacob Boyer married Kate Engler, and left two girls; B (3) Mary Ann Boyer, born April 5, 1812, married Adam Bond, James Emery, and E. Scott. There were many children: Oliver Bond lived in Wilkes-Barre, Pa. (1908), and Benjamin Emery in Phila., Pa.; B (4) Benjamin Boyer married and left children at White Haven, Pa.; B (5) Harriet Boyer, born Oct. 8, 1819, married Henry Singer. Children: Jonas, Emma M., Sarah E., Thomas, Sabina, John G., Sylvester F., and David M., the historian's correspondent. Address (1908) Clark's Summit, Pa.; B (6) Sophia Boyer married Samuel Doll.

CHAPTER LXV

REECE BOYER.

Correspondents have not reported the name of the Chester County, Pennsylvania, Boyer, to whose descendants this chapter is dedicated. Perhaps court house records, or Chester County Church records, may help us. Mrs. Mary Boyer Weldin knows of two sons with whose names this chapter must begin: Reece Boyer, Martin Boyer, Ann Boyer, Caroline Boyer. Note: Miss Eliza B. Boyer, born 1847, and a sister of Mrs. Weldin, says Reece Boyer came to America from Ireland when a young man. See Chapter 34, for a genealogical dream that may explain this chapter.

B (1) Reese Boyer, son of a Chester County, Pennsylvania Boyer, and his wife, was born about 1780, dying about 1868, aged 88. In his early married life he lived within walking distance of the New Garden Friends' Meeting House, which is located about a mile south of Toughkenamon, Chester Co., Pa. About 1830 he lived at Yorklyn, Delaware. Occupied with marketing and butchering. Married Mary Toland, a Quaker lady. Children: Sarah Ann, Martin, William T., Susan, Eliza Jane, Hannah, Mary, Reese, Louisa, Henry, George.

B (2) Martin Boyer, brother of the above Reese Boyer, lived at Landisburg, or Landenburg, Chester Co., Pa. Married. Mrs. Weldin remembers his daughter Emily, but can not report further.

B (3) Ann Boyer and Caroline Boyer were sisters of the above brothers.

C (1) Sarah Ann Boyer, daughter of Reese Boyer and wife Mary Toland, married Joel Shortlidge, of Toughkenamon, Pa. Children: (1) Harriet, wife of Enoch Miller. Address (1915) West Grove, Chester Co., Pa.; (2) Mary T. remained single; (3) Joel married and had a family; (4) Isabella, wife of Joseph Shortlidge, teacher of a boys' school at Concordville, Delaware Co., Pa.; (5) John married Anna Chandler, and had a family at Cream, Upper Oxford Twp., Chester Co., Pa.; (6) Sara, wife of Sharpless Lewis, had a family. Address (1915) Kennett Square, Pa.; C (2) Martin Boyer was born about 1818, probably in Chester Co., Pa. Died at Dilworthtown, Pa. Married Lydia Jackson. Children: John Jackson Boyer and Lydia Boyer; C (3) William Toland Boyer was born Feb. 6, 1820, probably in Chester Co., Pa. Shoemaker. Married Mary Boland Moore, Aug. 21, 1845. Children: (1) Eliza B. Boyer remained single. Address (1915) 114 Cypress St., Kennett Square, Pa.; (2) Mary Toland Boyer married William H. Weldin. Her address (1915) 1323 North Allison St., Philadelphia, Pa. Fine genealogist, to whom we owe much of this chapter. Children: Laura and Viola, at home with mother; (3) William, born probably 1860. Engineer. Married McKennan, of Oakford St., Phila., Pa. Children: Elsie, and perhaps others; (4) Nathan M., born 1862, died unmarried; C (4) Susan Boyer married James Nixon, book binder. Children: George, Frances, and perhaps others. Family lived on Wharton St., Phila., Pa.; C (5) Eliza Jane Boyer married William Smith, of Mermaid, Del. She was buried at the Friends' New Garden Meeting House, Chester Co., Pa.; C (6) Hannah Boyer married John W. Bennett, of Kennett Square, Pa. Children: (1) George lived at Clarion, Pa.; (2) Alice remained single; (3) Julia married Thomas Morgan, of McCartney, Pa. Howard Bennett married and has a family. Address (1915) Ridgeway, Elk Co., Pa.; C (7) Mary Boyer was born March 11, 1825. She married Ahial Nederry, June 12, 1845. He was born March 13, 1814. Children: (1) Reese Boyer Nederry. Address (1911) Stenton, Pa.; (2) Others. Note: Earl Harlan, of Kennett Square, Pa., is a grandson of Mary Boyer Nederry. Married Catharine H. Perrine, 1914; C (8) Reese Boyer was a carpenter. He married Alice Lownes, but left no children; C (9) Louisa Boyer married Samuel Green. Children: George, Clara, and Hannah. Her second husband was Frank Fox. Only child: Frank; C (10) Henry J. Boyer, born 1840, was a blacksmith. He married Miss Baily. Children: Harry Boyer, of the West Indies, and James Boyer, who lost his life in New York; George Boyer, tobacconist, of New Haven, Connecticut; William Boyer, probably of the same city. After his first wife's death, Henry J. Boyer married a Miss Hiddelson. Children: Ellen, wife of Mr. Person, of Conshohocken, Pa., and Anna, wife of William Archer. She is not living. Note: These items of information were obtained from Mr. Caleb J. Fitzimmons, West Chester, Pa.; C (11) George Boyer, son of Reese Boyer and wife Mary Toland, died young and single.

D (1) John Jackson Boyer, son of Martin Boyer and wife Lydia

Jackson, was born June 28, 1841, Roney's Corner, Chester Co., Pa. Address (1915) 402 North Union St., Galion, Ohio. Soldier, Company I, 175th Regiment, Civil War, 22 months. Also Co. Boyer, of Galion, Ohio; (4) Wellington V. Boyer. Address (1915) Galion, Ohio. Merchant; (5) Claire T. Boyer. Address (1915) 402 N. Union St., Galion, Ohio. A very great help to the Boyer historian, and a most estimable young lady; (6) Edward J. Boyer. Address (1915) Galion, Ohio. Merchant; D (2) Lydia Boyer married James I. Smart, of Canton, Ohio. Children: (1) Frank L. Smart, Supt. of Schools, Davenport, Iowa, and perhaps others.

CHAPTER LXVI

PILLARD BOYER.

Our correspondent can not go back to France for Pillard Boyer, but begins with him in Canada, to which country he, or his forebears, came from France. Judging from the date of his son's birth, Pillard Boyer was born about 1780. We have no report on his occupation, but infer that he was Catholic in religion. His wife's name was Susan. The only son named by the correspondent was Louis, though there were probably many others.

B (1) Louis Boyer, son of Pillard Boyer and wife Susan, was born Oct. 15, 1803, at Laprarie, Canada, and died 1895. Catholic. Wife's name, Salina, born Feb. 8, 1807. She died 1911. Children: (1) Joseph L. Boyer, of Omer, Michigan, born June 25, in Jefferson Co., New York. Catholic. Laborer. Married Maggie Keen. Children: Eugene, Joseph, Maggie, Bertha, Rose, William, Kittie, Victoria, Mary, Clarence, Salina, John; (2-5) A brother and some sisters; B (2) Joseph Boyer, a relative of Louis Boyer, son of Pillard Boyer and wife Susan. Correspondence shows that Joseph Boyer lived in Canada in 1837, and that he was born about 1800, or later, but whether he or his forebears, were immigrants remains to be ascertained. The historian believes that Joseph Boyer was a brother or cousin of Louis Boyer, of Chapter 66. Farmer. Address: St. Michel, Canada. He was a Catholic, and of French extraction. Wife's name, Marie Roy. Children: Herbert, Bernard, Joseph, Julien, Ignace, Marie, Luca.

C (1) Hubert Boyer, son of Joseph Boyer and wife Marie Roy, was born Sept. 10, 1837, in Canada, and died 1902, at Napierville, P. Q., Canada. Farmer. Catholic. Wife's name, Philomena, born Feb. 5, 1836, in Canada. Died 1909. Children: (1) Norbert Boyer, Box 673, Lake Linden, Michigan. Born Sept. 2, 1860. Farmer. Catholic. Married Parmela Baurdeau, born July 3, 1866. She died May 11, 1906. Second wife, Sarah Toutant, born May 8, 1873. No children; (2) Joseph Boyer, born March 26, 1862, died Nov. 2, 1910. Married Marie Robert, but left no children; (3) Elzear Boyer, Lake Linden, Michigan, born May 5, 1870. Journalist. Catholic. Single in 1913; (4) Henry Boyer, of Chisholm, Minnesota, born Dec. 9, 1874. Catholic. Single. Blacksmith; (5) Marie, wife of Modeste Raymond, Napierville, P. Q., Canada, born Sept. 10, 1864. Children: Emma, Helen, Delina, Dominique; (6) Armesine, wife of Arsene Poupart, Montreal, Canada, born 1872. Children: Joseph, Bertha, Raymond, Blanche, Henry, Leon, and five others; (7) Orvila Boyer, Lake Linden, Michigan. Farmer. No children.

CHAPTER LXVII

BYERS, OR BAYER.

This man, as correspondents inform us, was of German descent, and must have lived at Martinsburg, West Virginia. Perhaps he came there from Germany, perhaps from Pennsylvania. Further correspondence with the Pawnee, Illinois, descendants may clear up the matter. The family was Lutheran. At this time we do not know the man's occupation, nor to whom he was married. Some of his children went West. Two of the sons, Newland and Jacob, remained in West Virginia.

B (1) Newland Byers, son of Byers and wife, was born June 21, 1801, probably in Berkeley County, West Virginia, and is buried in the cemetery at Shepherdstown, with his wife. Lutheran. Married Mariah McGwilliams, born Oct. 5, 1807. Children: Thomas Henry, Mary Elizabeth, Ella Lorraine, Margaret Virginia, Mariah Isabelle; B (2)

Jacob Byers lived in Berkeley Co., West Virginia. Methodist. Married. Number of children, among them: (1) John Martin, of Pawnee, Illinois; (2) Sarah, wife of Hensell, of Pawnee, Illinois; B (3) Other brothers and sisters went West early in life, and correspondents could not locate them.

C (1) Thomas Henry Byers, son of Newland Byers and wife Mariah McGwilliams, was born Nov. 29, 1828, and died Oct. 3, 1909. Lutheran. Farmer. Lived in Berkeley County, W. Va. Union soldier. Married Laura Parran, born Feb. 20, 1838. Children: Charles Fountain, Sarah Rachel, Frances Ellen, Thomas Allen, Garland Davis; C (2) Mary Elizabeth Byers, born Jan. 14, 1836, married Emanuel Miller. Children: (1) Isaac Newland; (2) William Henry, Martinsburg, W. Va., Route 6. Farmer; (3) Thomas, same address, farmer; (4-6) Emma, Kate, Ella, Martinsburg, W. Address (1913) Martinsburg, W. Va., R. F. D. 3. Married Margaret Edna Miller. Children: Paul Davis.

CHAPTER LXVIII

ABRAHAM BAYER.

The historian's correspondents submit the following data: Abraham Bayer came from Germany and died in Quebec, Canada. From the fact that his son, John, was born in 1808, we infer that he was born after 1780. His wife's Christian name was Hannah, but her maiden name is not reported. Children: John, Leonard, David, Jacob, Peter, Samuel, George, and perhaps others.

B (1) John Boyer, son of Abraham Bayer and his wife Hannah, was born March 4, 1808, and died 1884. Baptist. Saddler. Married Elizabeth Shunk, born 1818. CHAPTER LXIX

JOHN BOYER.

The historian's correspondent, Professor Edw. H. Boyer, submits the following data: His grandfather, William Boyer, was born about 1780, probably in France. He was the master and part owner of a vessel named the brig Susan, New York. He sailed from New York about 1812, bound for France, but his vessel was never heard of afterwards. His New York home stood on the corner of Broadway and Ann street. Married and left one son, William.

B (1) William Boyer, son of John Boyer and his wife, was born 1804, in New York, and died there in 1882. He arose to prominence in the police force of New York and was very brave. Married J. Margaret, born 1806. She died Dec. 23, 1862. Children: Edward H., Eliza, Mary, and Louise.

C (1) Professor Edw. H. Boyer, son of William Boyer and his wife, was born Nov. 19, 1844, in New York. Address (1912) 505 W. 142d St., New York. College graduate. Teacher in the city since 1862. Member of Strauss, Reich and Boyer. Married Ethel Vrooman. Children: William V., born July 23, 1903.

CHAPTER LXX

CHRISTIAN BYER.

It is altogether likely that this chapter begins in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, with a Christian Byer, Revolutionary Soldier, 1784. At this writing the links can not be found. The Christian Byer whose descendants are recorded here was probably the grandson of the Lancaster Christian, and lived in Adams County, Pa., where he is also buried. The family graveyard is near Quarry School House, Highland Township, Adams Co., Pa. He and his wife, maiden name Hummes, belonged to the Brethren. This fact may mean that he belonged to the York County Boyers. Perhaps their beginning was also Lancaster County. Children: Christian, David, Hettie, Eliza, another girl. He was married a second time, and there were two children, a girl and a boy, John.

B (1) Christian C. Byer, son of Christian Byer and wife Hummes, was born in Adams Co., Pa., Dec. 18, 1840, and died Aug. 2, 1911. Brethren Church. Grocer in Hagerstown, Maryland. Soldier, Private Co. B, 138th Regiment, Civil War. Enlisted Aug. 7, 1862, and remained until war was over. Married Matilda A. Hummes, born June 26, 1839. Died May 22, 1882. Both buried in March Creek graveyard, adjoining Brethren Church, Adams Co., Pa. Children: William Henry, Minnie Elizabeth, Alberta P., Maggie Grace, Marvin C., Fannie G., Nellie Kathryn; B (2-7) David; Hettie (Shank), of Biglerville, Pa.; Eliza; Mrs. Wigle, and John, of Nebraska. Perhaps others.

C (1) William Henry Byer, son of Christian C. Byer and wife Matilda, was born May 5, 1866, four miles west of Gettysburg, Pa. Brethren Church. Dealer in bicycles and automobiles. Address (1911) 2 Howard St., Hagerstown, Md. Married (1893) Dorothy D. Barger. Child: Harris H. Boyer, born 1897. Address: Hagerstown, Md.; C (2) Minnie Elizabeth Byer married Frank Draw. Children: Ethel, Laura, Helen; C (3) Alberta P. Byer married Charles Shaw. Address (1911) Kenilworth, Washington, D. C. Children: Margaret, Richard; C (4) Maggie Grace Byer married William F. Bickel, of Hagerstown, Md. Children: Earl, Genette, Matilda; C (5) Marvin C. Byer was born July 8, 1875, and died June, at Larada, Minca. Married a Jamacia lady. Children: Nellie, William, Frank, Kenneth, all of Hagerstown, Md.; C (6) Nellie Kathryn Byer married Guy Uhler, of Hagerstown, Md.; C (7) Fannie Garfield Byer married John Richard, of Hagerstown, Md.

CHAPTER LXXI

PART I

BYERS.

The people to whom this chapter is devoted, go back to a man who was a soldier in wars before the Revolution, as we are told on page 695 of the History of Allegheny County, Pennsylvania. The name of this man was John. One of his sons was John Byers, born Oct. 17, 1773.

B (1) John Byers, son of John Byers, the soldier, and his wife, was born in Findley Twp., Allegheny Co., Pa., Oct. 17, 1773, and died Aug. 12, 1859. Farmer. He married Nancy Burns, daughter of Alexander Burns and his wife, Nancy Barnes. Presbyterian. Children: Nancy, Margaret, John D., Mary, James R., and Amanda. Note: Halfbrother. Farmer. Granddaughter. Lizzie D. Byers, Coraopolis, Pa.

C (1) Samuel Byers, probably grandson of John Byers, the soldier, and his wife, was born about 1810-1812. He married Elizabeth. Lived at Finleyville, Washington Co., Pa., in 1842. Children: Number not reported. One of them was James E. Byers. Address (1889) West Elizabeth, Pa. Blacksmith, born 1842. Married Harriet Secrist, of Bridgeport, Fayette Co., Pa. Children: John H., Samuel A., Lavina, Harriet, James, Jacob, Harry, Arthur.

DAVID BYERS.

David Byers, son of Byers, of Lancaster County, Pa., and his wife, was born near Lancaster, Pa., Feb. 2, 1758, as reported by his grandson, George W. Byers, of Greensburg, Indiana, who has the family dates. This informant also writes that he has always understood that David Byers came to America from Scotland, and his wife from Ireland. His church has not been reported. He was a farmer. He first married, Feb. 7, 1788, Rachel Nesbit, born Sept. 3, 1766, and after her death, Elizabeth Turner, May 16, 1805. The children of the first marriage were John, Nancy, Susannah, Rebecca, Rachel, Margaret, and of the second marriage, David, Nathan N., Barton R. S.

B (1) John Byers, son of David Byers and wife Rachel Nesbit, was born March 18, 1789, probably near Lancaster, Pa. Migrated with brothers to Kentucky, where he died Dec. 5, 1862. Farmer. CHAPTER LXXIII

JOHN BOYER.

Correspondents report that this John Boyer was born 1794, but not where. He died at Annville, Pa., June 29, 1867, and was buried there. Mrs. Spangler, his half-sister on the mother's side, living at 1285 W. Poplar St., York, Pa., in 1912, wrote that he had two sisters but no brothers, thus confirming his son's statement. The historian has not learned what his church and occupation were. He married Margaret Wenrich, born 1800. She died April 13, 1878. Her "will" was probated April 25, 1878, Book E, page 374, Lebanon, Pa. Children: George Wenrich, John, Isaac, Benjamin, Henry, Elizabeth, Susan.

B (1) George Wenrich Boyer, son of John Boyer and wife Margaret Wenrich, was born Oct. 3, 1827, in Lebanon Co., Pa., and died Aug. 22, 1909. Buried at Charles Evans Cemetery, Reading, Pa. Reformed. family. A son, Ezra Smith, resides at Lebanon, Pa. (1912); B (6) Susan Boyer married Mr. Frost, leaving twelve children. A son, John, lives at Napersville, Ill., 1912.

CHAPTER LXXIV

MICHAEL BOYER.

Correspondents report that Michael Boyer, born probably near the Swiss border of the French Alps—not far from Neuchatel, if tradition holds—came to America about 1800, and settled in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania. Lutheran. Prosperous merchant, leaving some property. The Death Record, Zion's Lutheran Church, Harrisburg, Pa., Oct. 12, 1813, seems to belong to his wife Catharine. The children were George W., William, Charles, and perhaps others.

B (1) George W. Boyer, son of Michael Boyer and his wife, was born about 1810, in Harrisburg, Pa. Merchant. Commissioned Colonel of State. Died 33 years old. Buried with son Charles, in the Main Cemetery, Harrisburg, Pa. Married Catharine Pray in Harrisburg, Pa., where her father Charles Pray was serving as a Representative. Only child: George W. Boyer; B (2-3) William and Charles. Perhaps others.

C (1) George W. Boyer, only child of George W. Boyer and Catharine Pray, was born about 1846, in Harrisburg, Pa. Lutheran. College training. Lived mostly in Philadelphia, Pa. Wholesale fruit merchant in Philadelphia and New York. Volunteer in Civil War, a mere boy, 90th Pa. Volunteers. Afterwards First Lieutenant, Company F., 90th Pa. Volunteers. He became a Catholic, probably through his wife, Mary M. McGlinn, born March 10, 1855. She died Jan. 26, 1906. Her husband was lost at sea during the great storm of 1879. Children: (a) Attorney George W. Boyer, born June 5, 1876. Lawyer. Address (1913) 5209 Market St., Phila., Pa. Educated in public schools of Philadelphia, Pa., Union College, and Spencerian College. Children: (1) Robert R. Boyer, (2) Harold Graham Boyer; C (2) Charles Boyer is buried near father in the Harrisburg Cemetery.

CHAPTER LXXV

WILLIAM BOYER.

According to the family tradition this William Boyer was born about 1798, the son of parents from France. Perhaps the father's name was Michael and came from some German province of Napoleonic France, to Harrisburg, Pennsylvania. William was born in Eastern Pennsylvania, probably in Harrisburg, Dauphin Co., Pa. He had two brothers. One died young and the other was lost at sea. William was a shoemaker. About 1850 he moved from Pennsylvania to Arkansas, and later returned to Pennsylvania, and died in Phila., Pa., 1864. He married a girl from Berks County, Pa. Her son says she was Irish. She died about 1843. There was only one child, William N. Boyer.

B (1) William N. Boyer, son of William Boyer and his wife, was born in Philadelphia, Pa., July 20, 1840. Address (1913) Tarkio, Mo. Went to Tennessee at the age of 10, visited his father in 1860. Enlisted in Civil War of 1861, Co. G, 22nd Illinois Volunteers. Served four years. Prisoner 18 months. When released he learned of his father's death. He lived in Illinois until 1881, when he moved to Achison Co., Mo., where he carried on farming. In 1911 he rented his farm to a tenant, and moved to Tarkio, Mo. Married twice. First wife died June 5, 1874. Second wife died Oct. 29, 1893. Children: Emery, Jesse, Eliza, Roy, Susie, Ralph, Charles, Raymond.

C (1) Emery Boyer, son of William N. Boyer and first wife, was born March 23, 1870, and died 1910; C (2) Jesse Boyer was born Nov. 7, 1871. Motorman, 1307 Jackson St., Rockford, Ill. Married. Graduate of William Jewell College, Liberty, Mo. Address (1912) Lebanon, Tenn.; C (8) Raymond Boyer was born Dec. 13, 1891. At college 1912.

CHAPTER LXXVI

GEORGE BOYER.

Born July 4, 1789, George Boyer came from Alsace, Germany, when it was a French province. His father was a physician—French they claim, but probably German. He died June 24, 1857, and is buried with his wife at Harrisburg, Pa. He married Mary Hoover, born 1785. She died Sept. 22, 1835. The couple lived near Harrisburg, Pa., and then on South Second St., Harrisburg, Pa. The "old home" is no longer there. The historian does not know the church connection and occupation of this man. There was only one child, Hieronymus (Jerome) Krone Boyer.

B (1) Hieronymus (Jerome) Krone Boyer, son of George Boyer and Mary Hoover, was born Dec. 3, 1814, in Harrisburg, Pa., the only child of his parents, and died Sept. 3, 1880. Editor of newspapers at Harrisburg, Carlisle, and Pottsville, Pa. Published "Carlisle American," "American Democrat," and also the "Pottsville Emporium." Later he was book-keeper for coal operators at Pottsville, Pa. Last ten years with Harrisburg Car Manufacturing Company. Married Rebecca O. Horning, born Sept. 6, 1808. She died 1896. She was a daughter of William Old and Ellen Nagle. Mr. Boyer and his wife are buried at Harrisburg, Pa. Children: George Gordon Boyer, Jerome K. Boyer, Annie Louisa Boyer, Alva Howard Boyer.

C (1) George Gordon Boyer, son of Hieronymus K. Boyer, was born Aug. 20, 1842, and died Nov. 24, 1903. Married Margaret Bretz, born June 17, 1840. She died Oct. 6, 1901. Pa. Episcopalian. Accountant. Address (1912) Centralia, Pa. Married July 18, 1894, Ida B. Porter, born Dec. 10, 1859. No children. Both husband and wife are well educated people.

CHAPTER LXXVII

JOHN BOYER.

Correspondents report that John Boyer was probably born in Pennsylvania, but can not tell where. From the fact that his son, William, was born Nov. 13, 1817, it may be assumed that John was born about 1790-1797. He moved to Ohio, and was buried in Wiltshire Cemetery, Ohio. Perhaps his birth is recorded on a tombstone and the date can be identified in early church records of Pennsylvania. He married a Drushel, and the children were William, Jonathan, John, and Kate, so far as reported.

B (1) William Boyer, son of John Boyer and his wife Drushel, was born Nov. 13, 1817, near Mt. Hope, Ohio, where he died Feb. 9, 1904. Dunkard. Farmer. Married Lucy A. Ritter. She died May 10, 1883. Children: Lavina, Grafton, Mary, Julia A., Hiram and Thomas Jefferson (twins), Loveland; B (2-4) Jonathan, John, and Kate, lived at Van Wert, Ohio.

C (1) Lavina Boyer, daughter of William Boyer and Lucy Ritter, was born June 21, 1841, Mt. Hope, Ohio, and died Feb. 22, 1901. Married John Phynix. Children: Six; C (2) Grafton Boyer was born Oct. 23, 1842. Dunkard. Farmer, married Malinda Kring. Children: Edward E. Boyer, died single, 24 years old; Marion G. Boyer, born Sept. 30, 1871. Hope, Ohio; C (7) Loveland C. Boyer was born Jan. 8, 1852. Dunkard. Farmer, Mt. Hope, Ohio.

CHAPTER LXXVIII

JACOB BAYER.

The family tree to which this chapter is to be devoted begins in America with Jacob Bayer. He came from Alsace, Germany, and settled in Bethlehem, Pennsylvania. He and Mrs. Boyer, whose name the historian has not been able to find, are buried in the Moravian Cemetery, Bethlehem, Pa. He owned a large farm where Bethlehem is now located. There were probably a number of children, but the only one reported is John.

B (1) John Boyer, son of Jacob Bayer and his wife, was born about 1800, and is buried in the Shenandoah Valley, Virginia, but how he happened to be there is not reported. He was married and left the following children: Joseph, Jacob, Andrew, Samuel, Sarah Ann, Lydia, Polly, and perhaps others.

C (1) Joseph Boyer, son of John Boyer and his wife, was born 1830, in the Shenandoah Valley. He died in 1890, and is buried at White Haven, Pa. Lumberman. Evangelical. Married Lavinia Howard. She is buried at Truckville, Pa. Children: Eldridge Boyer, Howard Boyer, and Mrs. George Richards; C (2-7) Jacob married. Perhaps John Boyer, of East Plymouth, Pa., is a son; Andrew; Samuel; Sarah married Jacoby; Lydia married Myers, and Polly married Pysher.

D (1) Eldridge Boyer, son of Joseph Boyer and wife Lavinia Howard, was born June 10, 1856. Local engineer, White Haven, Pa. Methodist. Married Jane Hawk. D. 1; D (3) A daughter of Joseph Boyer and Lavinia Howard, married George Richards. Address (1908) Mountain Top, Pa.

CHAPTER LXXIX

JOHN PETER BAYER.

John Peter Bayer, born October 1800, in Sternenfels, Wurtemberg, Germany, married Johanna Catherine Eslinger, born 1803, in same village as husband. They were married in Germany, but all their children were born in Pennsylvania, where they arrived 1828. The historian does not know on what ship this young couple arrived, but they landed at New York, and settled in Pennsylvania. Mr. Bayer had one sister, but no brother, when he left his German home. Tradition does not record why this couple came to America, but probably they came, as so many others did at that time, to find opportunity which Europe could not offer. His son, George E. Boyer, says that the "line" can easily be traced in Germany by referring to Article XIV in the Wurtemburg Lutheran Church Records. John Peter died in 1884, and his wife in 1879, or 1880. They are both buried at Orvilla, Hatfield Township, Montgomery Co., Pa. Children: Charles, William, Catharine, John, Peter, Mary, Elizabeth, Jacob E., and George.

B (1) Charles Boyer, son of John Peter Bayer and Johanna Catherine Eslinger, was born Feb., 1828, and died Feb., 1907. He married a Miss Seipt. Address (1909) Mrs. Charles Boyer, Reddick, Illinois. CHAPTER LXXX

BYERS.

This family began in America, as we are told on page 708, "History of Allegheny County," Pennsylvania, with a Mr. Byers from Germany. He settled in Little York, Pennsylvania, but about 1820 moved to Allegheny County, and settled at Sawmill Run. Farmer. Miner. Died 1848, and his wife 1868. Children: (1) Jonas Byers, born in Allegheny County, 1825, married Amelia Cartwright, 1850. River pilot. Soldier in Civil War, Co. F, 76th Regiment, V. I., from 1864 to close of war. CHAPTER LXXXI

JOHN P. BOYER.

Correspondents report that John P. Boyer was born March 23, 1773, and died Jan. 16, 1844, but no local history accompanies these reports, and for that reason the historian can not at this time find the ancestral tree. John P. Boyer married April 25, 1795, Margaret Dunn, born January, 1773. The children of this union were William D., John, Sarah D., Elizabeth, Valentine, James O., Lewis W., and Margaret. The historian believes that John P. Boyer was a descendant of John Boyer who went to Augusta Co., Va., about 1773. (Chapter 6). His nephew, John Boyer, followed him in 1800, but moved to Kingsport, Tennessee, where he died. It is likely that this nephew moved there because his cousins were there. To make this conclusion almost irresistible, the historian calls attention to the fact that the name "Minor" as a Christian name occurs nowhere else in his records of the Boyers except in this family. William Boyer, son of the second John Boyer who went to Augusta Co., Va., has a son by that name, and Mrs. Fuqua, Guthrie, Kentucky, has a cousin by the same name at Clarksville, Tennessee.

B (1) William D. Boyer, son of John P. Boyer and Margaret Dunn, was born Aug. 9, 1796, and died April 17, 1833. Lived at Carthage, Tenn., in 1822. Married Ann W. Lewis, May 23, 1821. She died May 7, 1826, and he married Sallie Lewis, May 29, 1827. Children: Dr. Waller L. Boyer, William Dunn Boyer, and perhaps others; B (2) John Boyer was born Nov. 23, 1798, and died Sept. 1, 1827. Married Dec. 26, 1819, Lucy Mowry; B (3) Sarah D. Boyer was born Feb. 23,

1801, and died Oct. 18, 1826. She married John S. Vaughn, Oct. 20, 1819; B (4) Elizabeth Boyer was born May 10, 1806. CHAPTER LXXXIV

GEORGE, OR LAWRENCE, BAYER.

Through the courtesy of Alfred E. Boyer, 414 Werner St., Youngstown, Ohio, the historian has recorded the following data, covering the descendants of George Bayer, whose Christian name may have been Lawrence. He was born 1802, at Mittelschefling, or some such place, Germany, died May 15, 1850, and is buried in Balm Cemetery, Mercer County, Pennsylvania. He came to the United States about 1830, settling soon afterwards in Pennsylvania. Married Caroline Keener, born 1809, presumably in Germany, and died March 11, 1863. They reared five children: Lawrence, George David, Andrew, Adam, and William. The historian has not been able to ascertain the occupation and church connections of the man in question, nor the reason for his coming.

B (1) Lawrence Boyer, son of George, or Lawrence, Bayer and Caroline Keener, was born Dec. 25, 1829, at Mittelschefling, Germany, and died April 6, 1871. Married Miss McCoy, of Grove City, Pa. Children: (a) Samuel, married to Elizabeth McCrec. Both died, leaving no children; (b) Elizabeth, married to a Mr. Hahn. Both are dead. There are two children; B (2) George David Boyer, born April 20, 1832, in Springfield Twp., Mercer Co., Pa., died June 16, 1908, and is buried at Balm Cemetery, Mercer Co., Pa. Teacher. Farmer and blacksmith. Married Elizabeth Moon, who died between 1861-65. Address (1912) Pittsburgh, Pa. Unless his uncle, Adam, married and left male children, Frank Boyer is the only male descendant of the children of the immigrant George Bayer.

CHAPTER LXXXV

JACOB BOYER (May be George).

Correspondents report that they do not know whether the Boyer with whom their records begin was named Jacob or George, nor have they been able up to the date of this writing, to connect any data, local or otherwise with him, except that he was married and that there were eight children. It may therefore be impossible to connect him with his ancestral "trunk." Children: John Franklin, Theodore, George, Henry, Jacob Francis (Frank), Barton Cincinnatus, Amanda, and Mary.

B (1) John Franklin Boyer, son of Jacob Boyer and his wife, was born March 28, 1824, and died at Walla Walla, Washington, Feb. 8, 1897. Episcopalian. Receiver of U. S. Land Office, Walla Walla, Washington. County Treasurer, merchant, and banker. Both husband and wife are buried at Walla Walla. He married Sarah E. Baker in 1853. CHAPTER LXXXVI

BENJAMIN BOYER.

Benjamin Boyer, as reported by his son Israel, of Addison, N. Y., was the son of a German Boyer who had served in the Prussian army, and who had come to America about 1810, settling first in Maryland, but afterward at Berwick, Columbia County, Pennsylvania. Here Benjamin Boyer was born between 1785 and 1799 as his people judge. The same tradition makes him a soldier of 1812, and this tradition is confirmed on page 768, Vol. 8, Sixth Series, Pennsylvania Archives, where he and George Boyer are recorded in 1814. He married about 1819, or 1820, and lived for awhile at Reading, Pa., where children were born. He returned to Berwick, Pa., and married about 1826, or 27, Anna Fries. Later he moved to New York State, and resided at various places in Steuben County, until his death. The family last lived at Freeman, near Addison, N. Y. CHAPTER XCVI

THEODORE T. BOYER

The historian knows Theodore T. Boyer personally, and has learned from him the following family-tree history: Theodore's parents were Paulus Bayer, born in Schoenau, Germany, and Eva Margaretha Geyer, both buried in Germany about 1834. Paulus Bayer was Lutheran, and a miller by occupation. His father's name was probably Jacob. Theodore, the only child, was born Feb. 4, 1834, in Sax-Meinungen, County Eisfeldt, "oben am Brun." Lutheran. Weaver and basket-maker. Address (1909) Orwigsburg, Pa. He came to America, and settled in Manheim Twp., Schuylkill Co., Pa. Married Sabina Hartranft, Reformed. CHAPTER XCVII

DR. FREDERICK ADELBERT BEYER

Through correspondence with this man the historian learns that he was born Nov. 20, 1852, in Gensungen, Regb Hessen Cassel, Germany, and that he is the son of August Beyer, and the grandson of Johannes Gottfried Beyer. The family belong to the Reformed Church. Frederick Adelbert Beyer was trained for the Reformed ministry, and is a scholarly gentleman. He is a Doctor of Divinity, and the Principal of Pleasant Prairie Academy, German Valley, Illinois. Address (1910) Rev. Dr. Adelbert F. Beyer, German Valley, Ill.

He has four brothers: August, who lives in Gensungen, Germany (1910); J. F. Beyer, Warsaw, Indiana; C. C. Beyer, Kendallville, Indiana; and J. E. Beyer, Rochester, Indiana.

CHAPTER XCVIII

HENRY BEYER

Correspondents report that Henry Beyer, son of Jacob Beyer, was born Oct. 9, 1832, in Ranstadt, Hessen Darmstadt, Germany. Lutheran. Machinist in piano factory. Came to America in 1857 with wife. His wife was Sophia Niess, born Jan. 29, 1830, in Herzenhain, Hessen

CHAPTER XCIX

ALEXANDER BOYER

Correspondents report that Alexander Boyer was born in Tennessee. He died April 15, 1866, and is buried in Bloomer, Wisconsin, with his wife. He homesteaded 160 acres of land, and in 1852 married Lavina Walters, or Walton. He called himself a "Pennsylvania Dutchman." This may mean that his father had moved from Pennsylvania to Tennessee, and corresponds with the fact that Boyers from the neighborhood of Reading, Berks Co., Pa., and from Montgomery Co., Pa., and from several other counties did settle there. The historian thinks it possible to connect the man with his family-tree. He belonged to Company I, 30th Wisconsin Infantry Volunteers. He served three years and six months, and was honorably discharged. Children: Julia Ann, Mary, James, Henry, Alexander E., and Ellen.

B (1) Julia Ann Boyer, daughter of Alexander Boyer and wife Lavina Walters, was born Oct. 29, 1855. Married Thomas Liddell, Cadott, Wisconsin, R. D. 1, Box 91. CHAPTER CI

LUDWIG BIER

This man, as we learn from the history of Erie City, Pa., was born in Hesse Cassell, Germany, Oct. 29, 1845. Shoemaker. Address (1884) Erie Pa. Married in Erie in (1868) Kate Hering, born in Wuertemberg, Germany, Oct. 26, 1847. Children: William George, Charles Frederick, Ludwig Rudolf, Arthur Russell, Frank Garfield.

CHAPTER CII

JOHANNES BEYER

According to the testimony of John H. Boyer, 504 Broadway, South Bethlehem, Pa., his grandfather Johannes Beyer, came from Plitzhausen Shulteis, Koenigreich, Wuertemberg, Germany, about 1853. Mr. Paul Oswald of the same place, and with whom John H. Boyer has had some connection, knew Johannes Beyer and the whole family. Mr. Oswald's son Paul lives in Reutlingen, Germany, and may help us find the Germany ancestry. It appears that Johannes Beyer came to Philadelphia, Pa., as a young man, and Thekla Mueller, whom he married afterwards, came about a year later, in 1854, from "Von Tiefenbach," Germany. Johannes Beyer had at least two brothers, Michael, and another, and a sister Mary, or Anna. Michael and Anna were single about 1900, and well to do. The one brother was a civil engineer. One sister was married to an Oswald. The children were as follows: John, and perhaps others.

B (1) John Boyer, son of Johannes Beyer and wife Thekla Mueller, was born in Wuertemberg, Germany. Came to America and settled in Salisbury Township, Lehigh County, Pa. He was married to Matilda Miller, also born in Germany. Children: Charles George, John H., Joseph L., and Pauline.

C (3) Joseph L. Boyer, son of John Boyer and wife Matilda Miller, was born April 6, 1861, in Salisbury Twp., Lehigh Co., Pa. Address (1915) South Bethlehem, Pa. Tax receiver. Lutheran. Married Mary S. Sallman. Children: (1) Merritt E. Boyer, born April 16, 1891. Address (1915) Palmerton, Pa. Married Dec. 31, 1914, to Elizabeth Reinert; (2) Lillian M. Boyer, born April 14, 1896. At home.

CHAPTER CIII

JONATHAN BOYER.

Samuel H. Pepper, 53 Eastfield Road, Peterboro, England, to whom the historian wrote, reported that James Boyer, the father of Jonathan, had three brothers, William, George, and Jonathan, and five sisters, but that the brothers left no children. These nine children were the children of James Boyer and his wife, both refugees from France to England, in the time of the French Revolution. The family settled in Crowland, Lincolnshire, England. This James Boyer was a yeoman, fairly well to do. He carried on farming, milling, and butchering.

Jonathan Boyer, son of James Boyer and his wife Miss King, was born in Crowland, England, May 10, 1850? Butcher. Came to Poughkeepsie, N. Y., about 1887, and died there March 7, 1907. Married Mary Ann Nichols. Address (1908) 52 S. Water St., Poughkeepsie, N. Y. Children: Alfred, Rose, James, Jonathan, Susie, and George.

The father of these children had two brothers, James and George, in England, and three sisters, Annie, Mary, and Susannah. Annie (born Sept. 10, 1852,) is the wife of Samuel H. Pepper.

B (1) Alfred Boyer, son of Jonathan Boyer and Mary A. Nichols, was born Dec. 16, 1881, London, England. Address (1908) 4 Front St., Poughkeepsie, N. Y. He is a dyer. CHAPTER CX

ROBERT BOWYER

Our correspondent, Dr. Scott P. Bowyer, of Taylorville, Illinois, reports that he knows absolutely nothing of Robert Bowyer. The historian ventures to say that his origin was English even if he came from Virginia forebears. Only one son is reported, namely, Joseph Bowyer, of Kentucky. It may be the same family as Chapter 60.

B (1) Joseph Bowyer son of Robert Bowyer and his wife, was born about 1820-1830 in Kentucky. Married Jane Ward, born in England. Both buried at Pisgah, Illinois. Children: Jacob Thomas, Mary, Millie, Emma, Robert, Rev. Samuel H.

CHAPTER CXV

JAMES BOYER

Through a very interesting letter in possession of Mrs. Jennie Willey, of Independence, Iowa (1915), written by her grand-uncle Oliver Boyer in 1909, we know that this chapter begins before the Revolutionary War. Mr. Boyer says: "My grandfather Boyer was in the war of the Revolution—and a brother of his." He also says: "My father James Boyer was born in Dover, Delaware, or near by." The historian thinks this chapter really belongs to Chapter 2. If Oliver Boyer had only named his grandfather, we should probably know. It should not be impossible for the future historian of this chatper to trace the connection.

The grandfather of Oliver Boyer had a much younger brother Ezekiel, who was a Captain in the War of 1812, and died in Ohio. At this writing our correspondents know only one son of Ezekiel Boyer's brother, namely, James.

B (1) James Boyer, son of a Delaware Boyer and his wife, was born at Dover, Delaware, about 1780, and is buried at Somerville, Union County, Ohio, aged 85. Tailor. He married twice. THE LIVING BOYERS.

The vast researches of ten years have not made it possible to find all the American Boyers. Many will not find themselves recorded in this small volume. Those who receive Reunion invitations next year (1916) will find a chapter number on the postal card. For various reasons the chart numbers could not become the chapter numbers. The following key will help all who receive these cards to find their chapter:

If every living Boyer were to receive a Reunion postal card, the labor and expense would become enormous. The Board of Directors therefore kindly requests those who receive these cards, to make all announcements known to relatives by marriage—especially the publication of the book on American Boyers. This requirement is most important, for unless each Boyer home secures a copy of the book, the work of the writer shall have been in vain, and the great purpose frustrated.

THE LIVING MEMBERS OF EACH CHAPTER SHOULD SELECT A HISTORIAN, WHOSE PURPOSE IT SHOULD BE TO CORRECT AND CONTINUE THE CHAPTER INTO A SEPARATE VOLUME.

The American Boyers who do not find themselves recorded in our book are invited to correspond with us, and thus make an "addenda" edition possible in a few years. In this way our pioneer effort will in time become "a monument better than brass."

Respectfully,

CHARLES C. BOYER.
