BATTLE HYMN OF THE BAKERS

TUNE: "Battle Hymn of the Republic"

The House of Baker cherishes traditions of the past,
With the world's great movements they have all their fortunes cast;
And when they pledge their honor they are loyal to the last.
The clan goes marching on!

CHORUS: Glory to the name of Baker!
Glory to the tribe of Baker!
Glory to our grand old family!
The clan goes marching on.

Edward, Richard, John and James were fathers of our clan.
Sir John was the ambassador and George a famous man.
We have a pride in "Baker" and we'll boost it all we can.
The clan goes marching on!

The Baker blood is mingled with the royal bloods of old.
Each century our numbers have increased a hundred fold.
Among the world's great families our family is pure gold.
The clan goes marching on!

We have our dukes and peasants, common folk and blue bloods, too;
We greet each other with a smile and "Cousin, howdy do!"
This goes with all the Bakers and it goes with me and you.
The clan goes marching on!

The Bakers fought at Concord, Gettysburg and Waterloo;
In crusades to the Holy Land they marched as heroes do;
They died in seventeen seventy-six, and nineteen eighteen, too.
The clan goes marching on!

"Fi-dei co-ti-cu-la crux is the Baker motto true;
"The cross is the touchstone of faith" to Bakers not a few.
"Unto others as they would . . ." that's what the Bakers do.
The clan goes marching on!

Baker sons are loyal and our daughters true and sweet;
More noble sires and mothers you could never hope to meet.
The stories of their lives and deeds with pleasure we repeat.
The clan goes marching on.

If you claim the blood of Baker join the chorus of the clan,
In our Records and Reunions—all according to our plan.
The name to highest honors boost it every way you can.
The clan goes marching on!

(A) INTRODUCTION

THE Baker Family is among the forty-nine "best families" selected by the American Historical-Genealogical Society for whom the Society has published family histories during the past few years. The Baker family has been prominent in the British Empire and in the United States, its members having played important rôles in war and in peace. Family pride is a commendable trait and should be cultivated. All Bakers have just cause to be proud of their family history and traditions.

In references No. 3, No. 10 and No. 7 we find the following regarding the origin and meaning of the name Baker:

The surname Baker came from the occupation of the men who bore it. The feminine form has become almost equally well established among us,—Bagster, Baxter or Backster (the latter spelling found in Foxe's Roll of Marian martyrs) being among forms of the old female "bakester".

The name of Baker in England is almost completely supplanted by that of Baxter in Scotland, and all Bakers may be considered of English origin.

Such folks as "Elias le Baxter" and "Ralph le Bakster" are very plentifully represented in the olden registers. The ordinances of the Guild of the Purification, 1367, are signed by "Johannes Austyn, Baxter." The name of Robert le Baker appears in Calendarium Inquisitionum Post Mortem; Walter le Bakare, in Writs of Parliament; and other names of Baker can be found in many documents of ancient origin.

We find recorded at St. Peter, Cornhill, the baptism of Jane Baker, 1555. This is perhaps the first time the name was taken as a genuine surname without the usual "le" preceding it.

The various forms of the name are as follows: German, Becher; Dutch, Becker, Beeke; and Anglo-Saxon, Becca.

The data in this volume is gathered from reliable sources. We have selected what we consider the most important material. Many of the daughters, and sons for whom no issue was shown, have been omitted from the pedigrees. A missing symbol indicates that a name has been omitted. Those desiring further information are advised to consult the volumes mentioned in the list of References.

The compiler hopes that, in producing this volume he is bringing to the Baker Family information which will be of interest and value to them, and that he is rendering an important service to the public. He and his associates will be glad to give their cooperation to members of the family who are interested in having a complete genealogy of the family published.

Unless otherwise plainly shown, the persons in this volume whose names are accompanied by three figures are children of the immediately preceding persons bearing immediately preceding numbers. All persons in each group bearing the same letter as a part of their numbers, are directly related. The generations of the descendants of those bearing numbers of three figures are represented as follows. However, some of our material is published as copied from various records without rearrangement according to this system.

(B) THE BAKER COAT OF ARMS

COAT of Arms is an emblem or a device which is displayed by titled persons, persons of royal blood, and their descendants. Coats of Arms were originally used for purposes of identification and recognition on the field of battle as well as in civil life.

It is claimed by some writers that Coats of Arms, in a crude form, were used by Noah's sons after the flood. There are records of other Coats of Arms, in one crude form or another, at different periods of ancient history. Heraldry, however, as we know it today, did not become of much importance until soon after the invasion of England by William the Conqueror, A. D. 1066. Heraldry became of general interest at about the time of the Crusades.

The Baker Coat of Arms shown in the front of this volume is the Arms used by the Bakers of County Kent, England, and by the Baronets. The southern family also uses this Coat of Arms, and Coats of Arms very similar to it are used by numerous branches of the Baker family.

This is the most widely used of all Baker Coats of Arms. It is described in BURKE'S GENERAL ARMORY, BURKE'S LANDED GENTRY, BURKE'S PEERAGE AND BARONETAGE, and other reliable works on heraldry, in some cases accompanied by illustrations. Crozier records it for Thomas Baker who settled in Massachusetts in 1635, and it has been used for generations by his descendants and by many other American branches of the Baker family.

	HERALDIC LANGUAGE	ENGLISH DESCRIPTION
Arms	Argent, on a saltire engrailed sable, five escallops of the field, on a chief of the second, a lion passant of the first.	A silver shield, bearing, below a silver lion passant on a black field, a black cross on which are five silver shells.
Crest	A dexter arm embowed, vested azure, cuffed argent, hand proper, grasping an arrow of the last.	A right arm in a blue and silver sleeve, the hand grasping a silver arrow.
Motto	Fidei Coticula Crux. (Latin)	The Cross is the touchstone of faith.

In heraldry, a saltire or St. Andrew's cross is symbolic of courage, and the reward of those who have scaled the walls of towns. Engrailed lines denote the possession of land. Escallops or shells were granted to those crusaders who were truly noble. The lion has always had a high place in heraldry. The arrow signifies martial readiness.

Sir Bernard Burke, of Heralds College, London, said "Heraldry is prized by all who can show honorable ancestry or wish to found honorable families."

Besides its family significance this Coat of Arms makes an excellent mural decoration and inspires the admiration and comment of all who see it.

It is quite appropriate that members of the Baker family who have a pride in their ancestry should display the family Coat of Arms in proper colors.

(I) PROMINENT BAKERS OF AMERICA, PAST GENERATIONS

ABIJAH R. BAKER: clergyman; b. Franklin, Mass., 1805. He was pastor of the Congregational Church at Medford, Mass., in 1836, and in 1849 assumed a pastorate in Lynn; was author of many books, including "The School History of the United States", "The Catechism Tested by the Bible", and "Question Book on the Sermon on the Mount".

BENJAMIN FRANKLIN: musician; b. Wenham, Mass., 1811; from 1842 to 1848 was supt. of musical instruction in the grammar schools. He introduced music into public schools of Lowell and Lawrence; became editor of Boston Musical Journal; and, from its foundation in 1857, was principal of Boston Music School.

DANIEL: soldier; b. about 1775; brevetted Major for gallantry at the battle of Brownstone. After war of 1812, he was promoted to rank of Lieutenant-Colonel of 6th infantry, and commanded that regiment at the battle of Bad Axe River, in the Black Hawk War, 1832. D. Detroit, Mich., 1836.

DANIEL: clergyman; b. Midway, Liberty Co., Ga., 1791; resigned as pastor Presbyterian church in Harrisburg, Va., 1821, and later went to Washington, D. C., where he lived until 1828; after 1830 traveled in South as evangelist and settled in Austin, Texas, where he founded and was 1st Pres. of a college; author of several books. D. Austin, Tex., 1857.

DAVID JEWETT: lawyer; b. East Haddam, Conn., 1792; admitted to bar in 1819, he began to practice in Kaskaskia, Ill., and was made probate judge of Randolph Co. He was U. S. Senator, 1830–31, and U. S. District Attorney for Ill., 1833–1841.

EDWARD DICKENSON: soldier; b. London, Eng., 1811; came to U. S. when 5 years old. He began to practice law in Springfield, Ill., but soon entered the political field, and was elected mem. of the Legislature in 1837, of the State Senate in 1840, and of Congress in 1844. He raised and commanded an Illinois regiment in Mexican War, and fought gallantly in many battles. Subsequently he was a M.C. from Galena, Ill., 1849–51; removed to San Francisco in 1851 and was eloquent leader of California bar; removed to Oregon, where he was elected to Senate in 1860; was a passionate defender of the Union during the Civil War, commanded a brigade at Ball's Bluff, and was k. in action, 1861.

FRANK: jurist; b. Melmore, Ohio, 1840; s. Richard. He was descended from very distinguished New England ancestry,—the first American representative of the family in this country being Thomas Baker, who came from Kent, Eng., 1639, enrolled as a "free planter" at Milford, one of original six towns of New Haven Colony, and figured prominently in the Legislative and judicial affairs of Conn. and N. Y.

JUDGE BAKER: grandf. of Frank (jurist); d. 1842, in eightieth year. His decisions were ever free from any taint of partisanship and most have been sustained by higher courts. First opinion appears in Vol. 108, Rep. Appel. Ct., First Dist., Ill., and all subsequent volumes until his death, ninety in all.

GEORGE AUGUSTUS: painter; b. New York City, 1821; became portrait painter of rare excellence, favorite subjects being women and children. He was elected a Mem. National Academy of Design, 1851. His s., GEORGE AUGUSTUS, was grad. from Columbia College law school, 1870; practised in New York City, and, among other volumes, wrote "Bad Habits of Good Society" (1876).

GEORGE BERNARD: Canadian statesman; b. Dunham, Quebec, 1834; grad., Univ. Bishop's College, Lennoxville, 1855; admitted to bar, 1860; represented Missisquoi in House of Commons, 1870-74, when he retired; was elected by acclamation to Quebec Legislature, 1875. In 1876 he was appointed a mem. of the Executive Council and Solicitor-General, and in 1878 was elected to the Dominion Parliament.

HENRY BROOKS: surgeon; b. Brattleborough, Vt., 1837. He served through Civil War with 20th Michigan infantry, and from 1864 was its asst. surgeon; grad., Bellevue Hosp. Med. Coll., 1866, and practised in Lansing, Mich., where he performed important operations. In 1873 he became secretary of the State Board of Health. He was a mem. of many learned societies, including the Royal Meteorological Society of England, and published various scientific works.

JAMES H.: soldier; b. Monroe, O., 1829. He was Secretary of State for Ohio, 1855, and later the same for Minnesota; served as a colonel in army, 1862-63, and was promoted to rank of brigadier-general. Subsequently he was registrar of public lands at Booneville, Mo., and from 1871 to 1875 was commissioner of pensions.

JOHN SHERMAN: banker; b. Cleveland, O., 1861; s. Asabel Morse. In 1889, with others, he organized the Fidelity Trust Co., Washington, of which he became president; was elected to State Senate at Tacoma, Wash.; was the largest individual taxpayer in the state.

LAFAYETTE C.: chief of U. S. secret service; b. Stafford, N. Y., 1826; grandson of one of Ethan Allen's captains. In 1839 he removed to Michigan and settled where Lansing, the capitol, now stands, but in 1848 returned to N. Y. and Phila., and in 1853 went to San Francisco. In New York on business in 1861, he offered his services to the Union, and after demonstrating his abilities for tracing conspiracy and frustrating designs of confederate spies and agents was placed at head of the Bureau of Secret Service, and later commissioned brigadier-general. (K) BAKER TOWNS, ETC.

There are in the United States towns as follows:

BAKER: Ark., Fla., Idaho, Kans., La., Minn., Mont., Nev., N. Dak.,

Oregon, W. Va.; BAKERHILL: Ala.; BAKERSFIELD: Calif., Mo., Vt.; BAKER: GAP: Tenn.; BAKERS ISLAND: Mass.; BAKERS MILLS: N. Y.; BAKER SPRINGSS Ark.; BAKERS SUMMIT: Pa.; BAKERSTOWN: Pa.; BAKERSVILLE: N. C., Ohio; BAKERTON: Ky., W. Va.; BAKERVILLE: S. Dak., Tenn. There are also in the United States numerous counties, townships, streets, avenues, etc., bearing the name "Baker". This is eloquent testimony to the high esteem in which the name is held in this country.

(L) BAKER CENSUS OF THE UNITED STATES

The compiler of these records has made up a list from city and telephone directories of the United States, and from other sources, as follows. Care was taken to eliminate, wherever possible, persons known or believed to be colored, or of nationalities other than British and American:

Alabama.....	158	Maine.....	174	Oklahoma.....	226
Arizona.....	49	Maryland.....	248	Oregon.....	103
Arkansas.....	73	Massachusetts.....	964	Pennsylvania.....	1296
California.....	1410	Michigan.....	756	Rhode Island.....	113
Colorado.....	385	Minnesota.....	230	South Carolina.....	10
Connecticut.....	246	Mississippi.....	41	South Dakota.....	30
District of Columbia...	178	Missouri.....	473	Tennessee.....	375
Delaware.....	55	Montana.....	95	Texas.....	595
Florida.....	86	Nebraska.....	171	Utah.....	85
Georgia.....	231	Nevada.....	11	Vermont.....	78
Idaho.....	62	New Hampshire.....	106	Virginia.....	216
Illinois.....	1072	New Jersey.....	519	Washington.....	272
Indiana.....	748	New Mexico.....	24	West Virginia.....	150
Iowa.....	119	New York.....	1827	Wisconsin.....	175
Kansas.....	251	North Carolina.....	94	Wyoming.....	17
Kentucky.....	276	North Dakota.....	16
Louisiana.....	60	Ohio.....	1406	Total.....	16,355

To secure an estimate of the "Baker population" of the United States, we figure as follows:

	(a) Multiply by
Only about half the names were taken from each directory consulted.....	2
Half of the Bakers reside in the rural districts or in small towns having no printed directories which were available to us.....	2
There are an average of more than four persons in each American family.....	4
Since Baker daughters marry and have as many descendants as the Baker sons, there are as many descendants of "other names" as there are bearing the name Baker (though it is much easier to locate the latter).....	2

By multiplying each figure of column (a) into the preceding figure, we have a total of..... 32

Conservative estimate of the Baker population of the United States, one-half of whom bear the name Baker and one-half of whom bear other names..... 523,360

The estimated Baker population of any of the states may be obtained by multiplying the figures shown by 32. There are Bakers in every state of the Union. The Baker population of the British Empire is probably equal to that in the United States.

(M) RELIGIONS OF THE BAKERS

For several centuries the Bakers lived in England. Most of the English and, likewise, the Bakers were and are of the Protestant faith.

There are a few Bakers of the Catholic faith in the British Isles, but it is estimated that their number does not exceed three per cent of the entire Baker population.

The Bakers who came from the British Isles to America continued in the faith of their fathers, for the most part, though their descendants in this country today will be found in the membership of practically all the various churches. It is estimated that of all the Bakers in America who are church members, at least ninety-seven per cent are of the Protestant faith.

Biographical sketches of eighty-six Bakers appear in WHO'S WHO IN AMERICA. Their religious faiths are shown as follows: CONGREGATIONALIST, 2; DUTCH REFORM, 1; EPISCOPAL, 5; METHODIST, 3; METHODIST EPISCOPAL, 2; PRESBYTERIAN, 7; UNITARIAN, 3; OTHER PROTESTANTS, 5; RELIGION NOT STATED, 58.
