FOREWORD

The task of compiling a family genealogy may appear an innocent indoor sport to the initiated, but after more than six long years of constant application the compiler of this volume can testify quite to the contrary.

The destruction of so many of the early records by fire and otherwise has been a handicap impossible to overcome; thus the lack of this priceless guide has made way for errors, some of which has crept into the makeup of this volume.

No claim is made that this volume includes the name of every Bibb of the present generation. In our files may be found the names of quite a number of the Bibb family which are omitted in compiling the genealogy, the reason for which is solely the refusal of certain members of our family to cooperate in any way despite our urgent and repeated appeals for information. No part of the task extending over the years has been so discouraging as this lack of interest in the family history. While this omission is acknowledged with deep regret, it in no wise disarranges the general line of set up of the Bibb family and the unbroken continuity remains undisturbed.

It would be a regrettable omission to permit this volume to go forth without the grateful acknowledgement of the very large place occupied in its compilation by Mr. Robert F. Cole, a descendent of branch A of the Bibb family. It is by no means saying all that could justly be said when we say that without Mr. Cole's splendid cooperation this volume of data would have never been compiled. To him perhaps more than any other the Bibb family owes a lasting debt, and in this acknowledgement none shares more heartily than the writer of these lines.

In addition to this deserved acknowledgement no less grateful appreciation is made of the splendid help rendered by a goodly number of leading women of the Bibb family whose contributions have gone far in building the family tree and bringing it to a printed volume. To each of these the writer's lasting obligation is acknowledged.

INTRODUCING THE BIBB FAMILY IN AMERICA

I

A proper approach to what is to follow necessitates the clearing of the decks of our minds of the many hitherto cherished traditions, and at the same time the embalming of the bungling purported genealogies which have long clung to the Bibb family tree. These fancies have gained no inconsiderable circulation misleading not a few, especially the daughters of the Bibb family who have sought membership in one or other of the several fraternal or patriotic organizations. Self styled genealogists have not been lacking who have readily furnished an ancestry which admits to membership in these fraternities. These genealogies are conspicuous in at least one respect, their glaring errors.

I I

The task of searching many hundreds of records and arranging the data they disclose has been herculean, covering a period of almost seven years and the expenditure of no modest sum of money, all of which has been richly repaid by a Bibb family tree based upon documentary evidence drawn from many sources and verified by numerous checkings. While practically every family bearing the Bibb name dating back to the beginning just three hundred years ago has been accounted for, no claim to infallibility is entertained by the compiler. In numerous instances slight variations in dates will be found, and it is more than probable here and there a family is registered with the wrong branch. In addition to this a few families have been found which it seems impossible to satisfactorily place in their proper ancestral line; but these impediments do not infringe upon the continuity of the family tree. The gap may show on the limb of the tree; but it does not scar the body of the tree.

I I I

THE BIBB NAME

The name Bibb has been supposed to be derived from Bibby, Bibbi, Beebe, Bibbs or some kindred word. This conclusion may be disposed of by consigning it to the realm of pure fancy. Those acquainted with history know that about the time we first contact the name Bibb the fashion became more or less general to change surnames by shortening them, making them nearer pronounceable and perhaps more refined.

But the name Bibb is a complete, a finished word in itself and not an abbreviation of any other word. The word comes from certain equipment of ancient ships, "a cleat or bracket bolted to the hounds of a mast to support the trestletrees." It is wholly within the bounds of reason to suppose the name Bibb was appropriated by some individual and in this wise came down to us, just as the name Cloud, Acorn, Hunter, Sailor and many hundreds of others came to be attached to men.

In our research the name Bibbs has frequently been found, presenting a problem not easy to solve. Whether this name represents another and a different family of people or whether it in some way came from the name Bibb we do not know. But be this as it may, at no time has the name been included in the roster of the Bibb family listings.

I V

THE BIBB COAT OF ARMS

From more than one source there has come into our hands an alleged coat of arms supposed to belong to the Bibb family. Throughout our research we have been unable to discover any evidence whatever in support of this purported armovial. On the other hand, it is possible our ancient ancestors possessed a coat of arms.

The armorial here referred to is described as follows: "The coat of arms herewith emblazoned is ascribed to the family who spell the name Bibby. It is: Arms: azure, three eagles displayed as in the arms. The cast of arms used by the family who spell the name Bibb or Bibbi is: Arms: chequy, argent and gules, a chief argent. Crest: In front of a cubit arm erect, holding a sword in bent sinister proper, pommel and hilt or a mullet of six points between two shells fessways argent. The colors of this armorial are silver, red and gold. Of the other one they are blue and gold. The eagle symbolizes one employed in high spirits, with the Heraldic colors emblems of loyalty, generosity and elevation of mind. The colors of Bibbs arms are the symbol of sincerity, courage, generosity and elevation of mind, with the sword denoting justice."

Those who can find any consolation in appropriating the above armorial are entirely welcome to it, while we continue to nurse our suspicion as to its authenticity.

V

THE FIRST BIBB IN AMERICA

It has long been customary to accept Benjamin Bibb, the Colonist, as the first permanent Bibb located in America. In this we are evidently correct, though the following record shows a Bibb in Virginia some years prior to the birth of our Benjamin Bibb.

The document on which appears the name of Charles Bibb as one of the witnesses is this: "Martin Becker, merchant, on the second day of May 1635 rented or leased to Thomas Trather, Thomas Jefferies and John Bayles of York in the country of the Virginia Planters one parcel of land in York plantation for eleven years from the Riverside unto a marked poplar, rent to be fifty pds (perhaps pounds) of good merchantable tobacco."

Charles Bibb) Richard Hamblin) Witnesses.

Signed-Martin Becker

(William and Mary Quarterly, Vol 22 page 78)

Accepting this document as genuine, the presence of Charles Bibb in Virginia may be accounted for in one of several ways, neither of which does violence to the records. We may suppose he was connected with one of the numerous ships plying between England and the Virginia coast. Chancing to be at the place of business of Martin Becker he may have been invited to witness the above mentioned document. Then again, this Charles Bibb may have been a visitor to the "new world", later returning to his native land, as not a few at that time did. No doubt exists as to Charles Bibb leaving no trace of himself other than his name on the above mentioned document. No mention is made of his family or of any descendent found in any Virginia records. Had he been a permanent resident it naturally follows his name would have appeared in later records of York County, Va.

V I

SPURIOUS GENEALOGIES

During the past few years the public has been the victim of genealogies purporting to give a complete family tree. The Bibb family has not escaped. These productions consist of a few sheets offered at from two five dollars, and are worth less than that many cents insofar as representing a worthwhile genealogy of the Bibb family.

V I I

THE BIBB LOCATION IN VIRGINIA

The area invaded by the Bibb family, though including about a dozen of Virginia counties, was but a small part of the state of Virginia. We may have a more correct idea of this area if we take the city of Richmond as the center of the area inhabited by the Bibb group. Inasmuch as the Bibb family dates back to before the formation of the counties in which some of them lived, it is interesting to have a list of these counties in mind.

New Kent County was taken from York County in 1654
 King William County from King and Queens Co. in 1702
 Hanover County from New Kent County in 1721
 Goochland County from Henrico in 1728
 Louisa County from Hanover in 1742
 Albemarle County from Goochland in 1744
 Amelia County from Prince George County in 1734
 Prince Edward County from Amelia in 1754
 Amherst County from Albemarle in 1761
 Nelson County from Amherst in 1807

The Bibbs as a rule were and now are a migratory brood. From these counties in Virginia they migrated into Kentucky, Georgia, Tennessee, Alabama and a bit later into the great Southwest and even to the Pacific. The lure of the wild seems to have retained its fascination up to the present time. But scattered as our family long has been, it is a source of no moderate satisfaction to be able to trace it back through three long centuries to one beginning:

BENJAMIN BIBB, THE COLONIST

This accomplishment is the result of years of patient and persistent and expensive research. Many hundreds of Federal, State and County records have been searched; multitudes of new and ancient volumes in the vast libraries of our great cities have been thumbed from beginning to ending; untold hundreds of personal letters have been sent forth in quest of family data until very few references to any member of the Bibb family have eluded discovery, and the fewest of the few bearing the Bibb name during the past three centuries have escaped identification. To be sure some few have wholly ignored these requests and still remain in our files; but this most regrettable omission in no measure changes the rounded out family tree. Perhaps no more prosaic volume than a family genealogy ever comes into one's hands, but despite this we all entertain a praiseworthy curiosity to know the ancestors from which we came; hence the value of such a book is wholly personal.

One lasting regret has all along protruded itself and that is by no means all the bits of history pertaining to the Bibb family could be incorporated in this volume, which at its best is merely the simmering down of some eight volumes of notes and excerpts in the writer's possession. This information was gathered, indexed and bound into large books for safe preservation but far too voluminous to be included in this volume.

Then to the disappointment of some it was found necessary to confine this volume strictly to the Bibb family which means those not bearing the name, Bibb, be left out. None more than the compiler regrets the stern demand of space to keep this book within certain bounds. None more keenly appreciates the loss this omission entails than the writer of these lines.

No. 1-1 BENJAMIN BIBB 1640--1702

It is a privilege enjoyed by comparatively few to be able to look back three hundred years to the very beginning of one's family in America. Good fortune has been kind to us of the Bibb family in providing us with documentary evidence pertaining to our ancestor, Benjamin Bibb from whom all the Bibb group in America came.

Despite the fact the country from which the original Benjamin Bibb migrated to King William County, Va. has been supposed to have been England, France and Germany; the more ancient tradition that he was a native of Wales, is by far the more convincingly established. This tradition is held to by members of the Bibb family now in England and Scotland.

As to the time Benjamin Bibb landed in Virginia can be reckoned with fair certainty by reviewing certain records which have come down to us. About the year 1920 Miss Stella Picket Hardy copied this item from the records of King William County, Virginia a certain worn and mutilated document which here follows:
 "July 9th, 1720, Benjamin Bibb, son of Benjamin Bibb here under review, of Hanover County, Va., and Nancy Bibb, his wife, sold to William Fairfield a parcel of land inCounty, which said land was deeded by James Bibber on May 10th, 1685, toBenjamin Bibb and by him, on May 12th, 1702, to his son Benjamin Bibb.
 (Deed Book "A" King William County, Va) "

This proves that Benjamin Bibb, the Colonist was in Virginia just prior to the year 1685. A careful survey of numerous ship passenger lists did not disclose the name of Benjamin Bibb. George Caleb Greer's Early Virginia Immigrants 1665-1666, does not contain the name Bibb. The same can be said of Stanards Some Immigrants to Virginia. But this need not discourage us. The research referred to by no means includes the passenger list of the Scores of ships reaching Virginia shores from 1665 to 1685.

From some source came the tradition that Benjamin Bibb was a member of one of the several Huguenot colonies which came to America about the time Benjamin Bibb came. Let it be said that there is not one line of evidence that Benjamin Bibb was a member of this group. He did not settle amongst them; he did not affiliate with them; therefore, we may dismiss this wild notion from our reckoning.

It is indeed most regrettable that the records must for all time remain silent as to whom Benjamin Bibb married. All we know of her is that her given name was Mary. Whether Benjamin and Mary were married before the former reached Virginia, we likely will never know. The imagination may easily visualize them a young Welch couple migrating to the "new world" in order to establish their home. Or, on the other hand, we may imagine Benjamin, a young adventurer, coming to much talked of America to make his fortune and marrying the daughter of a fellow colonist.

We have the record of four sons of Benjamin and Mary, and it is very likely there were daughters in this home who married out of the Bibb family, and in this way lost the name Bibb.

Children	Married
Benjamin	1663-1701
William	1665-1744
James	1667-----
Thomas	1669-1702

James Bibb, the third son in this list may be eliminated at the outset. No record other than his birth has ever been found, which leads to the conclusion that he died early in life.

From the first son, Benjamin Bibb #2 came the head of Branch A of the Bibb family tree known as the Hanover, Caroline, Spottsylvania and Albemarle groups of Bibbs.

From William, the second son came Branch B of the Bibb family known as the Georgia, Alabama and Kentucky limb of the Bibb tree.

Thomas Bibb, the Fourth son stands at the head of the Bibb group known as Amherst-Nelson County, Branch C.

Thus we have three branches of the Bibb family springing from Benjamin Bibb, the Colonist. These will be kept separate in this volume, dividing the book into three separate departments, A-B-C.

No. 2-1 Br A Sec 1 BENJAMIN BIBB 1663-1720

Benjamin was born perhaps in King and Queens County, Va., in that portion which was later cut off to form King William Co.

THE FIRST BIBB BORN IN AMERICA

Fortunately we have sufficient documentary evidence to establish the identity of this first Bibb born on American soil.

On the ninth of July 1720 Benjamin Bibb and Nancy, his wife, make deed to a parcel of land which Benjamin's father, the Colonist, bought from James Van Bibber on May 10th, 1685.

This tract of land was deeded by Benjamin Bibb #2 to his son Benjamin #3. This transfer is mentioned in Benjamin's Will dated June 16th, 1720, from which document is taken this item: "I give and bequeath to my son, Benjamin Bibb (3rd), the land whereon I now live, it being 100 acres more or less. He dying without issue, to my son William, and if he dying without heirs, to the surviving heirs."

The above plainly identifies this Benjamin Bibb and at the same time locates the homestead of the original Benjamin Bibb as in St. John's Parish, King William County, Va., bounded by the land of William Alwise, John Mallory, Martin Palmer and Humphrey Brooks.

We know nothing more of the wife of Benjamin than that her first name was Nancy. Some suppose this was Nancy Fleming who bore the following list of sons, and evidently some daughters whose names have not been preserved.

Children

Benjamin	1686-1767
Henry	1690-1750
William	1695-1792
Thomas	1720-1797

The date of birth of the last named son is likely incorrect.

No 3-1 Br A Sec 1 BENJAMIN BIBB 1686-1768 Son of Benjamin Bibb #2-1

Born in King William or King and Queen County, Va., and married Mary Arnett. Benjamin located in Hanover County as a merchant.

Children		Married	Date
William	1743-1818	Elizabeth Bigger	1767
John	1745-1818	Margaret Todd	1776
Benjamin	1747-1835	Agnes Tate	1790
Daughter	1749-	Edward Corry (see Will)
David	1751-
Thomas	1753-1838	Elizabeth Philipps	1797
James	1755-1846	Nancy Walker 12-20	1783
Ann	1757-1798
Henry	1759-1842	In Kentucky	1786
Susanna	1761	Robert Tate	1780
Mary	1763	Joseph Edwards	1790
Oney	1765-	David Sheperdson	1799
Elizabeth	1767-	Robert Groom	1788
Martha	1769-	John Durrett	1788

The Wills of both Benjamin and Mary Arnett Bibb on file in Louisa County, Va. testify to the above family of children.

In addition to this, numerous transfers of land by deed further identify the family.

This is the key family to the Louisa, Caroline and Spottsylvania branch of the Bibb family. Its importance far exceeds the amount of information the records disclose.

During March 1940 the compiler of this family setup copied from an ancient document now in possession of Mrs. Agnes Bibb Zerega of Aldie, Va., the following item: "A court held in King William County, Va., June XV 1738, Mary Arnett sues for possession of Lucy, a slave which had been sold by one Gosney whom Mary seems to have married as her first husband, the proceeds of said sale being applied in payment of said Gosney's personal debts."

(Special note)--The complete setup of Branch A of the Bibb family is less assuring than either of the other branches. This is true because of two reasons; first the destruction of the Hanover County records during the war between the states; second, because of the large number of this group of Bibbs migrating to Kentucky and Tennessee at an early date. Although we have the census reports of many of these, such reports do not assist us in preserving the family lines. About all we can do is to register these members of the family and let the family line remain incomplete.

The above list of children of Benjamin Bibb #3-1 evidently belongs to another Benjamin Bibb. The date of birth of children and that of the father do not agree at all. Benjamin must have been born considerably later than 1686.

No 4-1 Br A Sec 1 WILLIAM BIBB 1743-1817 Son of Benjamin Bibb #3-1

This eldest son of Benjamin Bibb 3rd was born either in Hanover or Louisa County, Va., and perhaps lived in Louisa County. William married Elizabeth Biggers in the year 1767.

Children	Estimated	Married
Mary	1768	Hezekiah Atkins	July 21, 1808

John	1772	Sarah McGhee	Oct. 23, 1799
Robert	1775	Not Known
James	1778	Susan Wood	April 16, 1826

Children	Estimated	Married
Biggers	1781	Probably died young-No record extant.
Martha	1783	Probably died young

It appears in the property settlement of 1817, only the following children are mentioned: William Bibb, Hez Atkins, John Bibb's heirs, James Bibb, Robert Bibb. No mention of Biggers and Martha Bibb, which indicates they were not living at that time.

No. 4-2 Br A Sec 1 JOHN BIBB 1745-1818 Son of Benjamin Bibb #3-1

Born in Hanover or Louisa County, Va., married Margaret Todd in 1776.

Suckey	1779-D before	William McGhee Jan. 9, 1792
Thomas	1781-1827	Elizabeth McGhee 1816
Polly	1783	John Wood Dec. 21 1809
James	1784	Miss Biggers
David	1786	Probably lived in Ky.
Fanny	1787	Wm. F. Allegre 1816
Lucy		John Massie

John Bibb's Will dated May 3, 1814, recorded June 8, 1818, (W.B. 6-page 38) Louisa County, Va., names the above list of children. In the final settlement of this estate there arises more than one problem not easy to dispose of. In this settlement made by James and David Bibb, administrators, the estate was divided to the following named heirs: Nancy McGhee-William Allegree-Massie heirs-Thomas Bibb-James Bibb-John H. Bibb.

The same settlement recites that money had been paid to A. M. Clayton, administrator of estate of David Bibb. Whether John H. Bibb was a son of John Bibb or a grandson is not known. He is not mentioned in John's will.

James Bibb and his sister, Fanny Allegree, located in Franklin County, Mo., as is shown in another place.

No. 4-3 Br A Sec 1 BENJAMIN BIBB 1747-1835 Son of Benjamin Bibb #3-1

Born in Hanover County, Va., and married Agnes Tate in 1790.

Children	Estimated dates	Married
Susanna	May 23, 1791	John Wood Dec. 21, 1809
John	Jan 3, 1793	Died - No children

Jane A.	Jan 15, 1808
Benjamin	Jan 26, 1811
William	May 27, 1814
James	Sep 10, 1816

From an ancient document now in possession of Mrs. Agnes Bibb di Zerega, Al-die Virginia the above list of children was copied by the compiler of this volume on Jan. 28th, 1940.

According to this old record, Benjamin Bibb was born the 22nd of February 1746.

February 9th, 1835 the will of Benjamin Bibb was probated in Louisa County, Va. (W.B.9, page 203), which document mentions Agnes Bibb and her children.

Mrs. di Zarega owned the original will document, but unfortunately let it fall into the fire and it was consumed before it could be rescued.

No. 4-4 Br A Sec 1 DAVID BIBB 1751-1835 Son of Benjamin Bibb #3-1

Born in Hanover County, Va., or maybe in Louisa County. We do not know whom David married, although we have a list of his children.

Children		Married
James	ca 1770	Untraced
Thomas	ca 1771	"
John	ca 1773	Nancy Kennon Dec. 20th, 1808
Margaret	ca 1774
Peter	ca 1776	Mollie Sargent 1811

The adding of the name Peter to this list is done after considerable checking and rechecking. The entire setup here is not beyond some doubt.

No. 4-5 Br A Sec 1 THOMAS BIBB 1754-1838 Son of Benjamin Bibb #3-1

Born perhaps in Hanover County, Va. On Dec. 3rd, 1787 Thomas married Elizabeth Carpenter, and according to certain land deeds dated May 8th, 1837, he and Elizabeth had these children:

Children	Estimated	Married
Elijah	1806	1st, Mary F.L. Massie-2-Marie B. Shisler
Thomas	1790	Probably Miss McGehee
William	1794
John	1792	No record of his marriage
Benjamin	1796	Susan Oliver
Henry	1800	Miss Bibb, his cousin
Polly	1795	Stephen Mann
Elizabeth	1803	Geo. T. B. Hester
Sarah	1805	Mr. Shepardson
Fanny	1801	William Smith
Nancy	1807
Susan	1809	Dabney Locher
David W.	1809	Miss Massie of Albemarle Co.

2nd wife-Nancy Worth, so some suppose

Thomas Bibb #4-5 was a soldier in the Revolutionary War and held pension certificate #89100 dated November 12th, 1832. He served under the command of Capt. Byars and Capt. James Watson.

Referring to Thomas Bibb, son of Thomas Bibb #4-5 we find in the Louisa County marriage records that a Thomas Bibb married Rebecca Harris in 1808. In the same records we find a Thomas Bibb married Elizabeth McGehee in 1816.

In the National Archives, Washington is this registered item: "In 1833, veteran (i.e. Thos. Bibb) stated he had always lived in Louisa County, Va."

No. 4-6 Br A Sec 1 JAMES BIBB 1754-1846 Son of Benjamin Bibb #3-1

Born in Hanover County, Va. Married Nancy Walker in 1783.

Children		Married
Sally	1788	Jesse Hodges - 2nd, Mr. Hughes
Elizabeth	1794	Mr. Bartlett
Robert	1785	Sarah Durrett
Fleming	1795	Catherine Ellis
Henry	1808	Nancy Boyd
Katherine	1797	Mr. Wade
Matilda	1813	Mr. Payne
Nancy	1806	Mr. Field

Not too much confidence should be placed in the correctness of the birth dates in the above entry.

This James Bibb, that is his family seems to have migrated to Green County, Ky.

The records in the U.S. Pension Bureau, Washington, #S-30865, has this informing item: "He volunteered in the year 1777 and he stated (that is James stated) that he was with Lafayette and Wayne when they persued Wallis (Cornwallis) on his retreat to Yorktown."

James moved from Virginia to Barron County, Ky. in 1807, and about 1830 he moved to Green County same state. In 1832 a pension was granted him as living in Green County, Ky.

In 1846 his Will was probated in Green County, which document mentions the above list of children.

The U.S.Census of 1810 verifies the above setup.

Just this interesting news item comes in here:

James Bibb Harford County, Maryland

The story is this: In the group of citizens who took the Maryland Oath of Fidelity in March 1778, was a James Bibb. (Maryland Records Volume 2, page 35).

It is observed that James Bibb at this time was 23 or 24 years old. He may have been sojourning in Harford County, Md., or he may have been engaged in business or framing at that time, and later returned to his Virginia home. No other James Bibb will fit this bit of history.

James made his will in Green County, Ky. in 1846.

The name, Thomas Walker Bibb, appears in another entry. He was the son of Philemon Bibb and the two clues seem to tie in Thomas Walker with this James Bibb.

No. 4-7 Br A Sec 1 Gen 4 HENRY C. BIBB 1759-1842 Son of Benjamin Bibb #3-1

This son of Benjamin #3 was born in perhaps Louisa County, Va. The most reliable information available indicated that he never married, that he lived with his nephew, Richard Gosney Bibb, to whom he bequeathed his estate as sole beneficiary.

(WB. 10-page 453-Louisa Co).

This closes generation 4 representing the seven sons of Benjamin Bibb #3. It is the background of what follows in bringing down the family tree of Bibbs of Branch A to the present time.

From this point onward difficulties, and no doubt some errors will be encountered, even though the background of this branch of Bibbs be correctly layed. An embarrassing similarity of names confronts us, making it next to impossible to always escape errors.

The 1840 census for Louisa County, Va. registers Henry Bibb, age 81 years. This census also registers Henry as a Revolutionary soldier and a pensioner.

No. 5-1 Br A Sec 1 WILLIAM BIBB Born about 1770 Son of William Bibb #4-1

Born in Louisa County, Va. Married Mourning Groom in 1822. Very little indeed is known of this family, though the census reports its residence in Louisa County for the years 1820 and 1840. The 1820 census gives William Bibb

1 male age 26 to 45
1 female over 45
1 male 16 to 26

The census for 1840 has

William Bibb age 60 to 70
1 female age 15 to 20

On February 22nd, 1827 William Bibb and Mourning, his wife, transferred by deed a parcel of land in Louisa County, Va. (D.B. "R" page 73)

No. 5-2 Br A Sec 1 JOHN BIBB Born between 1772 and 1780 Son of William Bibb 4-1

Born in Louisa County, Va. Married Sarah McGehee in August 1799. Because of several of the Bibb group named John lived in Louisa County about the same time, it is very difficult to place them in the exact line to which they belong.

There is a John Bibb will which gives us the following information on which it is safe to rely. In this will John mentions:

Daughter Christine (Married a Groom)
 Daughter Betty (Married John Hester)
 Grandson George T.B. Hester
 Grandson Richard C. Groom

The 1820 Census of Louisa County has this entry of John Bibb's family.

1 male age between 18 and 26

1 female " " " "

1 female age 26 to 45 (Likely the mother)

Recorded in Louisa County are four land deeds from John Bibb, which are dated Oct. 10, 1796-April 15, 1828, June 6, 1829-June 27, 1808.

No. 5-3 Br A Sec 1 ROBERT BIBB 1791 Son of William Bibb #4-1

Born in Louisa County, Va., married Mary Atkins in 1822 and lived in Louisa County.

Andrew Johnson Bibb	1827	Mary J.
Henry Franklin	1833	Martha Hooper
William Thomas	1836	Lucy A. Farris
Mary F.	cal 1830	John M. Groom	Jan. 2, 1847

The 1860 census shows Andrew Johnson Bibb was living in the home of Robert Bibb. The Louisa County records show three land deeds executed by Robert and Mary Bibb.

No. 5-4 Br A Sec 1 JAMES BIBB cal 1790 Son of William Bibb #4-1

Born in Louisa County, Va., married Nancy Walker and located in Barron County Ky. Whether it was this James we cannot determine.

The Barron County Census gives a list of children of a James Bibb; but as the same list is given for another James Bibb the list is omitted here.

The 1810 Census shows for James four daughters and two sons.

No. 5-5 Br A Sec 1 BIGGERS BIBB Born May 2, 1783 Son of William Bibb #4-1

Born in Louisa County, Va. Inasmuch as there is no record whatever of this Bibb son, it is very likely he died before reaching manhood.

No. 5-6 Br A Sec 1 JAMES BIBB Cal 1787 Son of John Bibb #4-2

Born in Louisa County, Va. Married Sarah E.....
 Sometime prior to 1840 located in Franklin County, Missouri

Two avenues of information concerning this James Bibb are available: first the U.S. Census for both 1840 and 1850, and a certain letter dated November 6th, 1847, written by James to his cousin, Richard G. Bibb, then living in Louisa County, Va. This 93 year old letter is in the possession of Mrs. Agnes Bibb di Zerega, Aldie Virginia, and was copied by this writer on April 9th, 1940. In this letter James refers to his sister Fanny-Mrs. William F. Allegre as living near him in Franklin County, Mo.

Children	Married
William
Sarah
George

An older son born about 1830 and mentioned in 1840 census, but not in the 1850 census. Unfortunately we know nothing more of James Bibb and his family after the census of 1850.

James and Sarah E made three deeds to Louisa Co. land in 1827-1832.

No. 5-7 Br A Sec 1 RICHARD C. BIBB cal 1795 Son of John Bibb #4-2

Born in Louisa County, Va. Married.....
 The Louisa records are silent so far as information of this Bibb son is involved. On the other hand the 1820 Census of Mecklenburg, Va. there appears the entry here given:

Richard C. Bibb - 1 Male over 45 years	Born in Va.
1 Female 26 to 45	" " Ky.
1 Male 26 to 45	" " Ky.
1 Male under 10 years	" " Ky.
1 Male under 10 years	" " Ky.
1 Male under 10 years	" " Ky.
1 Female under 10 years	"

Did this Richard live with one of his sons or one of his brothers? He appears as head of the family. Richard's date of birth seems the more correct to place it from 1770 to 1780 or ninety.

This entry seems to make it evident this is Robert C. Bibb of Louisa County, Va. who located in Mecklenburg County, Va.

No. 5-8 Br A Sec 1 THOMAS BIBB cal775 Son of John Bibb #4-2

Born perhaps in Louisa County, Va. We do not know when Thomas married.

The U.S.Census for Louisa County for 1820 gives Thomas, his wife, two sons and three daughters. After the year 1820 this family is no more enumerated in the census of Louisa County, Va.

February 21st, 1828 while a resident of Lawrence County, Alabama, Thomas Bibb gives power of attorney, supposedly in connection with some interest in Louisa County, Va.

On October 24th, 1800 Thomas and Sarah Bibb, his wife make deed to land in Louisa County, Va. (D.B."X" page 359).

A Thomas Bibb of Louisa County, Va. married Rebecca Harris in 1808. The same Louisa County records show that a Thomas Bibb married Elizabeth McGehee in 1816.

The Thomas Bibb family does not appear in the Louisa County census after that of 1820.

In the 1830 census Sarah, widow of Thomas Bibb, appears with one son and one daughter as the family.

No. 5-9 Br A Sec 1 JOHN BIBB Jan 3, 1793 Son of Benjamin Bibb #4-3

There exists a lack of certainty in this entire setup. So many Johns in Louisa County, Va. at this particular time one can easily go wrong and mix families. To further entangle the tracing none of John's children can be traced.

Children		Married
William	cal818)	Untraced
Mollie	cal818)Twins	Probably married Wm. P. Hester
Thomas	cal820	Untraced
John	cal822	Untraced

The 1820 census shows John, two sons and two daughters.

The 1830 census lists John and only one son.

The 1850 census registers John as living alone.

The 1870 census gives him as living in the home of William P. Hester, probably his son-in-law.

No. 5-10 Br A Sec 1 RICHARD GOSNEY BIBB 1802-1890 Son of Benjamin Bibb #4-3

He was born in Louisa County, Va. Married Elizabeth Turner.

Children		Married
Dr. Richard H. L.	Nov 23, 1848-1920	Aline Fischer
Mary Agnes	1847-1906	John Peyton Harrison Green
Emma Jane	1851-1936	Nathaniel Oden

Edwin Thomas	Nov 2, 1858-1933	Myrtle Carrie Smith of Va.
Adele	1861-1938	Never married-was a teacher
Josephine I.	1855-1856	Deceased

William Benjamin 1863-1863 Deceased

The Census for 1870 lists Agnes Tate Bibb as living in the home of Richard Gosney Bibb.

Martha A. Bibb of the above list was the mother of Mr. R. C. Woolfolk of Washington, D. C.

Mary Agnes Green of this list was the mother of Mrs. Agnes Bibb di Zerega of Aldie Virginia.

No. 5-11 Br A Sec 1 JAMES BIBB Born Sept. 5, 1816 Son of Benjamin Bibb #4-3
Born in Louisa County, Va. Name of wife and children unknown.

No. 5-12 Br A Sec 1 BENJAMIN BIBB Born Jan. 20, 1811
Born in Louisa County, Va. Son of Benjamin Bibb #4-3 Untraced.

No. 5-13 Br A Sec 1 PETER BIBB 1779 Son of David Bibb #4-4
Born in Hanover or Louisa County, Va. The most reliable information we have gathered is, Peter married Elvira King. This supposition is founded on the U.S. Census of 1830, Hanover County.

Elvira Bibb

1-Female age 60-70

1-Female age 40-50

1-Male age 10-15

1-Male age 5-10

Benjamin Bibb seems to have located in Hanover County, Va. and engaged in mercantile pursuits. This Benjamin married Mary Arnett and they had 14 children.

Elvira Bibb appears a widow and the grandmother of the family. The mother of this family had two sons, as the census shows. The records show that this Peter Bibb did buy a tract of land in Louisa County, and the deed plainly states he lived in Hanover County.

No. 5-14 Br A Sec 1 JAMES BIBB ca 1773 Son of David Bibb #4-4
Born in Louisa County, Va. Married Nancy Kennon in 1808. Here all record ends, save one land deed in 1819 and one in 1824 were executed by James Bibb in Louisa County, Va.

No. 5-15 Br A Sec 1 THOMAS BIBB about 1774 Son of David Bibb #4-4
Born in Louisa County, Va. Married Rebecca Harris in 1808. One or more land deeds enable us to identify this Thomas.

There being no sons this record closes here.

No. 5-16 Br A JOHN BIBB Born about 1775 Son of David Bibb of Louisa Co. Va. #4-4

Our information is gathered from the Will of John Bibb, probated Sept. 10th, 1849 (W.B. 12-page 408). This document mentions wife T. A. Moore and these two children.

No. 5-18 Br A DAVID BIBB 1789 Son of Thomas Bibb #4-5

Born in Louisa or Albemarle County, Va. David was twice married--1st, Miss Massie - had no children. Second marriage was to Nancy Worth.

A David Bibb appears in the Census of 1830 Owen County, Ky. showing wife and five children.

The 1840 Census shows David was deceased and Sarah, his wife, was head of family of seven children.

No. 5-19 Br A Sec 1 THOMAS BIBB 1799 Son of Thomas Bibb #4-5

Born in Louisa County, Va. Married Mariah.....about 1831. The Green County, Ky. Census of 1840 and 1850 has this setup:

Thomas Bibb	born in Va.	1799
Mariah Bibb	born in Ky.	1805
Thomas Bibb	born in Ky.	1832
Harvey Bibb	born in Ky.	1836
Sally Ann Bibb	born in Ky.	1838

No. 5-20 Br A Sec 1 EDMOND (or EDWARD) BIBB 1792 Son of Peter Bibb #4-4

Born in Louisa or Hanover County, Va. Name of wife not known.

John	ca 1848	Died a youth
James M.	ca 1850-1879	Dora Dove (or Love)
Mary	ca 1852	Deceased
Lucy	ca 1854	Deceased

This entry is wholly arbitrary. We have an Edmond Bibb and no place to register him. The Census gives a son to Peter Bibb and it seems to fit the occasion; hence we so list him.

No. 5-21 Br A Sec 1 JAMES H. BIBB 1820 Son of Thomas Bibb #4-5

Born in Kentucky and married Narcissa.....The Owen County Census 1850 has this list.

James H. Bibb	born in Ky.	1820
Narcissa Bibb	born in Ky.	1826
William Bibb	born in Ky.	1846
Jordan Bibb	born in Ky.	1848
Robert Bibb	born in Ky.	1849

This family lived in the home of a Mr. Welch.

No. 5-22 Br A Sec 1 WILLIAM H. BIBB 1822 Son of Thomas Bibb #4-5

Born in Kentucky and married Eliza Ann.....The Owen County Census 1850-1860 has this item:

William H. Bibb	born in Ky.	1822
Eliza Ann Bibb	born in Ky.	1826
George T. Bibb	born in Ky.	1854
Martha C. Bibb	born in Ky.	1856

No. 5-23 Br A Sec 1 THOMAS MARION BIBB ca 1828 Son of

Born in Kentucky or Tennessee and married Marie Burrows. As to just where to line up this Thomas Bibb remains an unsolved problem. It seems he was the son of one of the many Louisa County Bibb sons who invaded Ky. and Tenn.

Since we are unable to connect Thomas with his rightful family line, we place the two next following generations of his family on this page, out of place as it may be.

Children	Married
Thomas Marion Bibb, Jr. ca 1850	Eliza Frances Claxon

No. 6-43 Br A Sec 1 THOMAS MARION BIBB JR. ca 1850 Son of Thomas Marion Bibb #5-23

Born in Kentucky. William married Mary Shuck and had one son.

Children	Married
Frank Everett 1894	Ella C. Massie 1917

Note--We carry three generations on this same page because of the lack of the family line connection.

No. 5-26 Br A Sec 1 WILLIAM E. BIBB 1794 Son of Thomas Bibb #4-5
Born in Louisa County, Va., married Catherine.....

Children

John H.	1842

All these born in Kentucky. See Census
Logan County, Ky. for 1870

This John H. Bibb was likely not the son of William E. The Louisa County, Va. records have no record of this William E. Bibb. He "went west" is the sum total of what we know of him. His wife, Catherine, was born in Kentucky in 1820.

No. 5-27 Br A Sec 1 HENRY BIBB 1796 Son of Thomas Bibb #4-5
Born in Louisa County, Va. Married Elizabeth, Daughter of Robert Bibb, Feb. 12, 1840.

James B.)	1858
Susan A.)twins	1858

Of this group of nine children we know nothing. As to Henry Bibb we do know that there was a Dr. Henry Bibb in Spottsylvania County, Va., and that he had a clientele in Louisa County. This may be that Henry. Whether his children migrated to Tenn. and Ky. along with many other Louisa Bibbs, we do not know.

No. 5-28 Br A Sec 1 ELIJAH BIBB 1806-1884 Son of Thomas Bibb #4-5
Born in Louisa County, Va., was twice married. First to Mary F. L. Massie; second to Marie Belle Shishler in 1856.

Margaret E.	1848	Never married
Ella E.G.	1850
John Lewis	1852	Ella Jane.....

The last named son of Elijah's second wife is reported born in 1852, when Elijah married John Lewis' mother in 1856. Of course there is an error here.

In 1860, according to the U.S.Census, Marie Belle Shishler Bibb was not living with Elijah, but was living in the home of her father and her small son was with her.

In 1870 Elijah Bibb's family consisted of himself and two daughters, Frances and Ella.

No. 5-29 Br A Sec 1 ROBERT BIBB 1794 Son of James Bibb #4-6

This list was furnished by Mrs. Walter R. Moss, Greensburg, Ky. in 1940.

No. 5-30 Br A Sec 1 FLEMING BIBB 1794-1850 Son of James Bibb #4-6

There were two or more Fleming Bibb in Virginia and Kentucky, and it is not easy to avoid confusion.

This is a dependable list as it was taken from the 1850 U.S.Census. There may have been other children in this family born after the 1850 Census.

Henry G. Bibb was speaker of the State Senate of Kentucky and Acting Governor of the State Dec. 31, 1853. (History of Ky.)

Henry was a Revolutionary War soldier living in Green County, Ky. in 1940. (History of Kentucky-Lewis Collins)

If the Census be correct Henry was born in 1805 and not 1796.

The Census for both 1860 and 1870 of Christian County, Ky. list Thomas Bibb and his family.

Thomas Bibb was a private in Captain Nicholas Poindexter's Company of Virginia Militia.

No. 5-33 Br A Sec 1 HENRY BIBB 1796 Son of Thomas Bibb #4-5

This Bibb was born in Louisa County, Va. As to whom he married remains unestablished at this time.

The Louisa County, Va. records show Henry Bibb executed three deeds to land in that County, though no mention is made of his wife joining in the deed. These deeds were dated 1826-1827 and 1837.

No. 5-35 Br A Sec 1 ROSELLA BIBB Born about 1806 Probably daughter of Benj. Bibb

Born in Hanover County, Va. Early in 1818 George Oliver Newman settled in Virginia. Seven generations later a descendent, George Oliver Newman is found in Orange County, Va. This Newman married Rosella Bibb, which event accounts for this entry coming in at this place.

No record is available as to the family of this couple. Our best guess is Rosella belongs to the Benjamin Bibb #3 family. If not this particular family, then the family of one of the sons of this Benjamin Bibb.

In the Logan County Census, Kentucky for 1870 is listed a

Mary Bibb, born in Virginia in 1810.

This Mary was living in the home of Oliver and Martha Newman, both born in Kentucky in 1844 and 1847. What, if any, relation there was between these two Newmans we do not know; but it is likely there was a tie of kinship.

We have an interesting collection of data relating to this fine member of the Bibb family; but it is too voluminous to be given in full here. Dr. Bibb, as a young man made his way to New York and studied for his profession, supporting himself the while by setting type. After finishing his preparatory work Dr. Bibb located in Texas, and was connected with leading hospitals in that state. Later on he was appointed surgeon for the Mexican Central Ry. and when the Mexican government acquired control of the merged railways, Dr. Bibb was continued as the head surgeon of that system. While he lived in Old Mexico Dr. Bibb established his hospital and his home at Saltillo. He was well known among the medical fraternity throughout Mexico, as well as his own country. Dr. Bibb was an authority on leprosy and was awarded the prize of the Alavenga Foundation, for his thesis on this subject. Dr. Bibb went through the Civil War as a Confederate soldier.

Says Mr. Robert F. Cole: "I am quite sure I have figured put the connection of that David Bibb, who went to Scotland County, Missouri. David Bibb, son of Benjamin III, seems to have gone into Ky. There we find an unattached Elijah Bibb marrying Agnes Baker in 1804 in Fayette County; then the records show one David Bibb born in Kentucky in 1805, naming his first daughter Agnes and his first son Elijah-so that just about clinches the lineage." This bit of history is dated June 25th, 1839.

No. 6-49 Br A Sec 1 RICHARD BIBB Nov 23, 1801 Died Oct. 14, 1855
Born in Virginia, migrated to Kentucky where he married Miss Malinda.....
She was born in Scott County, Ky. 1805. From Kentucky Richard and Malinda located for a time in Boone County, Missouri; then located at Jacksonville, Illinois.

In 1830-31 Richard and Malinda give some five land deeds; perhaps town lots, in the beautiful little city of Columbia, Mo. In 1833, the year their first born child came to them, we find this couple in Jacksonville, Illinois, some one hundred miles to the East of Columbia, Mo.

The U.S.Census for Morgan County, Ill. gives this setup:

Richard Bibb	born in Va.	age 48
Malinda Bibb	born in Ky.	age 46
W. W. Bibb	born in Ill.	age 1833
Mary L. Bibb	born in Ill.	1837
Frances V. Bibb	born in Ill.	1840
George R. Bibb	born in Ill.	1842
Henry (O) Bibb	born in Ill.	1844

The Census for 1860 does not include Richard Bibb or W. W. Bibb, the former being deceased and the latter perhaps had located elsewhere.

Under date of December 27th, 1939 Mr. John K. Furry, Secretary of the Jacksonville, Ill. Cemeteries wrote the writer of these lines: relative to the Bibb burials in Jacksonville:

"The oldest is listed in the name of Richard Bibb heirs. It was purchased (the burial plot) in February 1869 and described as lot number 12 in Section K. The burials on it are:

June 6, 1874--Dr. George Bibb-Soldier
March 1, 1888 William Hammel, age 52--perhaps son-in-law
January 12, 1899 Mary Bibb, age 61 years--lived on Westminster St.

No mention of Richard Bibb being buried here. It is likely he was buried in an older graveyard about the City.

Continuing Secretary Furry writes: "The other lot is listed in the name of Mrs. H.G. Bibb, was purchased November 1, 1870, and has the following burials:

April 8, 1872 Henry Bibb-Soldier
 April 26, 1876 Bibb (no further information)
 Nov. 14, 1887 Nellie Bibb Ried, age 23."

With the exception of W.W.Bibb named in the 1840 Census, the family of Richard Bibb is here accounted for, and the record closed.

The military record of Captain George R. Bibb and Henry O. Bibb is set out on another page. George R. was a physician and never married. In April 1940 Mrs. Martha Bibb Fitts of Chicago visited this cemetery and made a diagram of the grave stones of this family.

The utter lack of proof to the contrary leads to the conclusion that James M. Bibb was the son of widow Sarah Bibb whom we find in Owen County, Kentucky in the 1840 Census records. This Sarah had six sons some of whose age fits this son.

Special note--The Bibb sons migrating to Kentucky and Tennessee remain in the column of more or less uncertainty; first, because we have not been able to examine the records of many counties, and second because the information coming to us through other channels has little to offer beyond the present generation.

No. 6-61 Br A Sec 1 SARAH BIBB about 1805

The 1840 Census says Sarah was born in Kentucky, but which Bibb she married remains more or less of a puzzle. The 1830 Owen County, Ky. Census registers a Thomas Bibb as alone. His age is given as between 30 and 40 years, which means he was born about 1795. This might mean Thomas was separated from his family and wife Sarah; or it might mean no relation at all existed between them. Sarah's husband left the home 1828 to 1840.

The 1850 Census reduces the family to the following:

Sally born 1800-born in Ky.

Robert born 1830-born in Ky.

Evidently the other children had left home to establish themselves homes.

David Bibb, son of John Bibb #4-2 died about 1827. He may have been husband of Sarah.

No. 7-42 Br A Sec 1 ROBERT BIBB Born in Ky. in 1817.

The Census for Owen County, Kentucky for 1860 gives Robert Bibb still living with his mother, Sarah Bibb, and his age as 42.

No. 7-43 Br A Sec 1 GEORGE M. BIBB Born in Ky. 1828 Son of Sarah Bibb #6-6-61.

This son married Frances.....and lived in Owen County, Ky. The 1850 Census does not enumerate any children to this couple.

It will be observed the two sons of Sarah Bibb are entered out of line and generation because we are unable to trace them and set them in the proper family line.

Born in Jacksonville, Ill. in 1843. George R. Bibb was a physician, which information we get from his connection with his enlistment in the Federal Army. We know nothing of his wife and family up to this time.

On August 1st, 1939 the Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D.C. furnished this interesting data: "Captain George R. Bibb, physician, was born in Jacksonville, Ill. in 1843. He was Captain of Company C., 145th Regiment of Illinois Infantry. He was honorably discharged September 23rd, 1864."

No. 7-38 Br A Sec 1 HENRY O. BIBB 1846 Son of Richard Bibb #6-38

From the Adjutant General Office on August 1st, 1939 came this data relating to Henry O. Bibb:

"Henry O. Bibb, born in Jacksonville, Ill. in 1846. Enlisted as a private June 9, 1862 at Camp Butler, Ill., Company C., 145th Regiment of Illinois Infantry. He was honorably discharged September 23rd, 1864 at Camp Butler."

A letter dated December 27th, 1939 from Mr. John K. Furry, Secretary of the Board of Managers of the Jacksonville Cemeteries says: "The oldest (Bibb burials) is listed in the name of Richard Bibb, heirs. It was purchased February of 1869 and is described as lot number 12 in section K. The burials on it are:

June 6, 1874 Dr. George Bibb, soldier.
Mar 1, 1888 William Hammel Bibb, 52 years old.
Jan 12, 1899 Mary Bibb, 61 years old-lived on Westminster St.

The other lot is listed in the name of Mrs. H. O. Bibb; was purchased November 1, 1870 and has the following burials:

Apr 8, 1872 Henry Bibb, soldier.
Apr 26, 1876 Bibb (No other information)

SECTION TWO---BRANCH A.

Section one of branch "A" has already shown some of the difficulties this branch presents. So far as a complete and exact genealogy of this group of the Bibb family goes, such a record will never be compiled. Lack of documentary evidence and a similarity of names forever bar the way to such a setup, even though we have the principal factors at hand.

No. 3-1 Br A Sec 2 HENRY BIBB 1690-1792 Son of Benjamin Bibb #2

Henry was born in King William or Hanover County, Va., and perhaps lived in Louisa County. He married Elizabeth Fleming, daughter of William Fleming, one of the leading citizens of that part of Virginia. The date of this marriage was in the year 1714.

Children		Married
Benjamin	1715-1768	Ann
Robert Fleming	1719-1811	Justina.....
Henry	1722-1750	Not married-died age 28
Charles	1720-1768	Elizabeth Woolfolk-Caroline Co.
John	1725-1750	Died at the age of 25
Thomas	1728-1761
Elizabeth	1730-	Nathaniel Garland
Ann	1734-1798	Anthony Thompson-went to Ky.
Christiana	1736-	Joseph Woolfolk
David	1742-1850	Died age 8 years

In the Will of Henry Bibb his sons, John and Henry (both deceased) are not mentioned. Neither of these sons, it appears, married and left families. Benjamin Bibb, eldest son of Henry administered the estate of his father and filed inventory of the same on January 22nd, 1750. (Inv Book page 20).

The Will of William Fleming fully identifies this family of grandchildren. In 1744 Henry Bibb for "love and affection", bequeathed several slaves to his grandson, David Bibb.

The Charles Bibb of the above list became the head of the Caroline County group of the Bibb family.

Mary Thompson, daughter of Ann, married Samuel T. Waddy. Eleanor, daughter of Ann, married her cousin, David Thompson.

No. 4-1 Br A Sec 2 BENJAMIN BIBB 1715-1768 Son of Henry Bibb #3-1

Born in Hanover County, Va. Married Ann Fleming, daughter of Wm. Fleming.

Children		Married
Elizabeth	1743	William McAllister	Louisa Co.
Eleanor	1745-1832	William Cole
Ann	1747-1787	Joseph Edwards
Mary	1749-	Robert Richardson	1784
John	1751-1808	Sarah Thomason	Jan 21, 1782
Henry	1750-1803	Sarah Meade
Sarah	1757-1789
Benjamin	1760-1789	Susan Oliver

Note 1--October 23, 1753 Benjamin Bibb #4-1 deeded 350 acres land which he inherited from the estate of William Fleming, his grandfather.

Note 2--Benjamin Bibb's Will dated Nov. 5, 1767 and inventory of his property filed in 1768 are of record in Louisa County, Va.

No. 4-2 Br A Sec 2 HENRY BIBB 1722-1750 Son of Henry Bibb #3-1

Born in Louisa County, Va. It is supposed that Henry never married, as he died at the age of 28 years.

In 1753 we find Benjamin Bibb administering the estate of Henry Bibb, transferring 350 acres of land which Henry inherited from the estate of his grandfather, William Fleming.

No. 4-3 Br A Sec 2 ROBERT FLEMING BIBB 1719-1811 Son of Henry Bibb #3-1

Born in Hanover or Louisa County, Va. Married Justinaand lived in Louisa County.

Children		Married
Fleming	ca 1754-1850
Henry	ca 1756-	Was married three times
John	ca 1760-1841

A number of the Louisa-Caroline Bibb group bore the name of Fleming, thus necessitating care to avoid substituting the one for the other. The Will of Robert Fleming Bibb probated June 2, 1812 bequeaths his estate to his grandchildren numbering fourteen in all. Why he took this course we do not know. The Louisa County records show at least three deeds executed by Robert Fleming and Justina, his wife, conveying land.

No. 4-4 Br A Sec 2 CHARLES BIBB 1726-1765 Son of Henry Bibb #3-1

Born in Louisa or Hanover County, Va. Married Elizabeth Woolfolk, daughter of Joseph Woolfolk of Caroline County, Va.

Children		Married
David	1761-1826	Rachel Terrell	1781-Caroline Co. Va.
Thomas	ca 1762-	Mary Brockman	1785 Sept. 14th
Sally	ca 1764	Untraced
Lucy	ca 1766	Untraced
Charles		Ann Humble	1788 Apr. 25th

Note: It appears evident that this Charles Bibb was the head of the Caroline County group of Bibbs. Hitherto considerable perplexity surrounded the origin of this sort of isolated group; but this has been cleared up by placing Charles at the head of the list. Caroline County, Va. joins Louisa County on the eastward, and the Bibbs of both counties were in the same neighborhood separated only by an imaginary line.

May 13, 1765 we find Charles and Elizabeth transferring land in Louisa County, perhaps land which Charles inherited from his father's estate.

April 18, 1768 Joseph Woolfolk transfers by deed certain personal property to Elizabeth Bibb and her children, his son-in-law, Charles, being deceased.

The progeny of Charles Bibb will be reviewed in the department of Caroline County Bibbs.

No. 4-5 Br A Sec 2 JOHN BIBB 1725-1750 Son of Henry Bibb #3-1

Born either Hanover or Louisa County, Va. Married T. A. Moore who is mentioned in John's Will. John died at the age of 25, leaving us very little by which to identify either himself or his family. If he married a Miss T. A. Moore, the marriage took place in some county other than Louisa.

Children		Married
John T.	ca 1747	Betty Buford
Edna King	ca 1749

Note: Mr. Robert F. Cole calls attention to this bit of data which appears to relate to this John Bibb: "There is a nuncupative Will signed by Champness Terry wherein Bibb speaks of his eldest brother Benjamin Bibb. The maker of this Will is no doubt John Bibb, son of Henry Bibb, Sr. Date of Will is Nov. 17, 1750."

No. 4-6 Br A Sec 2 LIEUTENANT THOMAS BIBB 1728-1761 Son of Henry Bibb #3-1

No. 5-2 Br A Sec 2 JOHN BIBB ca 1750-1830 Son of Benjamin Bibb #4-1

Born in Louisa County, Virginia. Married Sarah Thomasson September 28, 1779. Mr. Littleton Groom, a descendent of John Bibb, provides us with positive identification of this John Bibb and explains the letters D.H. following his name. There were so many Bibbs named John in Louisa County that it became convenient to distinguish them by the locality in which they lived. Thus this John lived on Ducking Hole Creek and was identified by the letters D.H. John Bibb's Will dated 24th of February 1829 is signed John Bibb D.H. In addition to this Mr. Groom has in his possession much information relating to John Bibb and his family.

Christine	Jan 20 1780-1848	Major Groom	Jan 8, 1798
Patsy	1782-after 1853	John Hester	1800
Thomas Chew	1787

Christine Bibb who married Major Groom (the name Major here does not signify a military title; it is his given name), was the maternal ancestor of a large number of descendants. Major Groom was a private soldier in the Revolutionary War and was present at the surrender of Cornwallis at York town. In 1817 Major and Christine Groom moved to Kentucky and settled in Caldwell County. Mr. Littleton Groom, Brooklyn, N.Y. is a direct descendant of this family of Grooms.

No. 5-5 Br A Sec 2 FLEMING BIBB ca 1754-1850 Son of Robert Fleming Bibb #4-3

Perhaps born in Louisa County, Va. We do not know whom this Fleming married. About the time of this Fleming there were several Fleming Bibb in Va. and Kentucky, and it is difficult to determine which is which. More than this, Robert Fleming Bibb's history is too vague to afford any certainty along this line.

No. 5-6 Br A Sec 2 HENRY BIBB ca 1756 Son of Robert Fleming Bibb #4-3

Born in Louisa County, Va., and evidently located himself in Spottsylvania County which joins Louisa on the north. Several families of Bibbs went over the line and settled in Spottsylvania County, remaining the while in practically the same neighborhood with the Louisa Bibbs.

Henry Bibb was married two or three times. Of his first wife we have no record. His second wife was Miss Pearce, and there is on the Spottsylvania records a document dated Oct. 25th, 1819, showing that Henry Bibb and Sylvia Fagg, widow, enter into a prenuptial agreement specifying the contribution each was to make toward establishing a new home. The problem is, does this pertain to the Henry Bibb here under review?

December 4, 1833 Henry Bibb makes his Will while he was sojourning in Albemarle County (Charlottesville, Va.) (W B 17, p 358). He states he is citizen of Spottsylvania County. He appoints William A. Bibb, Charlottesville, as the administrator of his estate. In this Will Henry bequeaths one shilling to each of the children of Henry Jr. and William A. Bibb, and wills his estate to the children by his first wife. Later on Henry adds a codicil to this Will, leaving his entire estate to Ann E. Bibb, his youngest child.

No. 5-9 Br A Sec 2 JESSE BIBB ca 1795 Son of John Bibb

Born and lived in Louisa County, Virginia; was twice married-1st to Mildred Jones in 1822 and 2nd to Susan T. Trevalian in 1845. Because of so many Louisa Johns in the Bibb family, it is not certain which one was the father of Jesse.

Children		Married
Avie C.	1824	Never married
Robert Pollard	1826-1874	Widow Parmelia Smith	1849

Joseph F.	1838-1862	No family
Mildred	1832-	Untraced
Elizabeth A.	1836-	Untraced
Sarah E.	1839-	Untraced

All these children by first wife. Jesse's Will dated 1876 names wife Susan T. Bibb and "my four daughters." (W.B. 18, page 99-Louisa County).

Three land deeds in Louisa County-1823-1830-1833-were joined in by Mildred Bibb. In 1856 a Jesse Bibb enters into an agreement which is joined in by Mollie Bubb, his wife. This is more or less puzzling. Did Jesse marry the third time, or was this some other Jesse.

The U.S.Census Louisa County of 1880 shows Avie C. and Elizabeth A. Bibb as one household. The Census from 1840 to 1880 fully identifies this Jesse. It appears that when Jesse made his Will in 1876, both his sons were deceased.

No. 6-8 Br A Sec 2 CAPTAIN THOMAS BIBB 1780-1840 Son of Henry Bibb #5-6

This son of Henry Bibb was born and lived in Spottsylvania County, Va. It appears he was more of a military turn of mind than the cultivation of the ability to accumulate a competency for his family. The Casons were one of the old families of Spottsylvania County. Thomas married Fanny Cason and the following children came into this home.

Perhaps born in Spottsylvania County, Va. This is about all we know of this son of Henry Bibb. The Wiley Bibb mentioned married Sally Brooks in 1813. There is a record of one Wright Bibb who married Sally Morris in 1803. It is possible that this Wyeth Bibb may be Wright Bibb, though we have too scant data to establish this supposition. Certain records have a Wiley Bibb and this may be the right name.

No. 6-12 Br A Sec 2 WILLIAM A (Asbury) BIBB 1790-1865 Son of Henry Bibb #5-6

No. 7-17 Br A Sec 2 DAVID MONROE BIBB 1827-1862 Son of Robert Bibb #6-1
Grandson of Benjamin Bibb #4-1
Born perhaps in Virginia; married Lucinda Jackson Grubb in 1844 and located in Kentucky.

Children		Married

The War Department at Washington has this record of David Monroe Bibb:

"David Monroe Bibb private on Company D-20th Regiment of Kentucky Volunteers mustered into service January 6th, 1862, died June 19th, 1862."

The records show that David Monroe Bibb moved to Marion County, Ky. At the age of 43 he lived at Smithland, Ky. He died at his home in Crittenden County, Ky. June 21st, 1862.

No. 7-18 Br A Sec 2 RICHARD BIGGERS BIBB 1850-1922 Son of Robert Pollard Bibb #6-18

No. 7-19 Br A Sec 2 HENRY BIBB 1845 Son of Henry Bibb #6-

Perhaps born in Green County, Kentucky. Our record is too meager to give us any direct evidence as to this son or his family. The 1850 Census records Henry as five years old.

No. 7-20 Br A Sec 2 JOHN MINOR BIBB 1816 Son of perhaps Benj. Minor Bibb #6-15

Born in Tennessee, married Caroline Johnson, lived in Dickson County, Tenn.

One report says John Minor located at Bird's Point, Missouri, a small hamlet on the west bank of the Mississippi River. This report, however, is unlikely. Capt. James B. Bibb, son of John Minor did locate in Missouri.

Children

Captain James B. born about 1839

The 1850 Census gives this entry for Hickman County, Tenn.

James B. born in Tenn. in 1842 Had no children

Susan born in Tenn. in 1844

Richard born in Tenn. in 1847 This son was deaf and blind.

Susan Carr lived with her son John and was blind.

No. 7-21 Br A Sec 2 SARAH BIBB 1759 Daughter perhaps of Benj. Bibb #4-1

Born in Hanover County, Virginia. No marriage record is found.

The Louisa County Census for 1850 lists Sarah Bibb as living in the home of John and Martha Hester, and her age as ninety-one years. The records do not show that this Sarah ever married, though rather clear information is disclosed relating to the other children of Benjamin Bibb.

The relationship between the family of John Hester and Sarah Bibb is not given, though we do know on at least two other occasions the records mention the Hesters as being in the Bibb Family. It seems very probable that this Sarah Bibb, who died after 1850, was a daughter of the Benjamin Bibb who settled in Hanover County.

No. 7-22 Br A Sec 2 WILLIAM F. BIBB 1813 Father not identified.

Born in Virginia; married Sarah Jane.....and went west. It appears this William married in Virginia where his first child was born and then located in Tennessee. From there he moved to Todd County, Ky. where his youngest child was born. The 1870 U.S.Census Todd County, Ky. has this setup:

William F.	1813	born in Va.
Sarah Jane	1817	born in Va.
Mary A.	1840	born in Va.
Tenanna	1846	born in Tenn.

Arabella	1848	born in Tenn.

No. 8-26 Br A Sec 2 CAPTAIN JAMES B. BIBB 1842-1872 Son of John Minor Bibb #7-20
Captain Bibb was perhaps born in Hickman County, Tennessee, the son of John Minor and Caroline Johnson Bibb. He married Malinda Haynes.

It appears that James B. Bibb crossed over the Mississippi River and lived in Missouri for a time. Later he went to Arkansas and remained a while, during which stay his wife died and James moved back to Missouri. In old age he returned to Dixon County, Tenn. where he died. Mrs. J. C. Berry, a descendant of John Minor Bibb, informs us that Captain James B. Bibb had no children.

CAROLINE COUNTY BIBBS

Although securely tied in with the same family strain, the Caroline County Virginia family of Bibbs is listed separate from the Louisa County family.

Charles Bibb of section two, branch A, was evidently the head of the Caroline branch of Bibbs, and it was his descendants who formed that considerable group which at one time lived in the western part of Caroline County, Virginia.

Charles Bibb married Elizabeth, the daughter of Joseph Woolfolk, one of Caroline County's leading citizens. It appears that Charles located his home in Caroline County, though he remains closely allied with his Louisa County kindred.

Those coming under this section will readily be identified as belonging to the Caroline branch of the Bibb family; that is belonging to section "X", which particular mark denoted that they are listed with the Caroline group, and cousins of the Louisa County branch of Bibbs.

This identification of the Caroline County Bibbs has cleared up a vexing problem of long standing, and enables us to set up with assuring certainty the entire family of branch A.

No. 4-4 Br A Sec X CHARLES BIBB 1726-1765 Son of Henry Bibb #3-1 Sec 2

Born in Louisa County, Virginia, Charles Bibb married Elizabeth Woolfolk and appears to have settled in Caroline County.

For some reason we failed to find any record of the marriage of Charles and Elizabeth recorded in Caroline County, although the writer of these lines made a personal examination of the records.

Children		Married
David	1761-1826	Rachel Terrell	1781
Thomas	ca 1762	Mary Brockman
Sally	ca 1764	Untraced
Lucy	ca 1766	Untraced

The above is the background of the Bibb family in Caroline County, Va. One report says David married Mary Chandler Oct. 16, 1789. The geography of the picture is just this: Hanover, Caroline, Louisa and Spottsylvania counties adjoin one another and form a single neighborhood as it were, where neighbors mingled and lived and visited one another.

The entire family of Bibbs are gone from Caroline County at this time, the last member having died in 1938, save one member who now lives in Richmond, Va. One adopted son remains in this County to preserve the name Bibb.

No. 5-1 Br A Sec X DAVID BIBB 1759-1826 Son of Charles Bibb #4-4

Born in Caroline County, Virginia. Married Rachel Terrell in 1781. David died about 1826 and Rachel about 1835. The Caroline records do not give any record of the marriage of David and Rachel Bibb. To be sure Rachel may have been a resident of one of the surrounding counties.

Children		Married		Date
Fleming	Aug 15 1788-1863	Married twice
Nellie	ca 1790	Thomas Burrows
Thomas E.		Elizabeth Hodges		1803
Ann		John Trainham		1805
George Garrett		Sally Cobb, no heirs		1808
John		Wife not known

Perhaps there were some other children in this family, tho no record remains of them. The U.S.Census of Caroline County for 1820 verifies the two eldest children in the above list.

No. 5-2 Br A Sec X THOMAS BIBB ca 1762 Son of Charles Bibb #4-4

Born in Caroline County, Virginia; married Mary Brockman in 1785. Our record of Thomas Bibb is too lacking to provide any clue upon which to build a family. It is very probable he left Caroline County and established his home elsewhere. He may be one of the Thomas' found in Louisa County.

No. 6-1 Br A Sec X FLEMING BIBB Aug 15, 1788 Son of David Bibb #5-1

Born in Caroline County, Virginia. Was twice married-1st Fanny Hargrave in 1809, and Fanny Cosby Chiles in 1844. Both of these marriages are of record in Caroline County, Va.

From this point on we shall meet with a number of Bibbs by the name of Fleming, which fact provided a problem for the genealogist. These we meet with in Virginia, Tennessee and Kentucky; and it is quite difficult to make the proper separation betwixt the number.

Children		Married
Edna E.	Mar 17 1810-1899	Frances S. Wheat	Nov 24, 1831

Mary F.	Feb 9 1829)Twins	James L. Davis	Dec 23 1851
Jane	Apr 16 1831-1872	Mr. Wheat

The Wills of both Captain Fleming and Fanny Hargrove Bibb verify the above list of children.

On December 15, 1843 Fanny C. Bibb, 2nd wife of Fleming, signs a relinquish of her right in sharing in the estate of Fleming Bibb. This seems a sort of pre-nuptial agreement executed some eleven months before her marriage to Fleming Bibb.

No. 6-2 Br A Sec X THOMAS BIBB ca 1784 Son of David Bibb #5-1

Born in Caroline County, Va. in 1803 Thomas married Elizabeth Hodges. This is Thomas E. Bibb of whom the records say next to nothing. We leave a place for his children, though thus far no record has come to light informing us of any family.

No. 6-3 Br A Sec X GEORGE GARRETT BIBB ca 1786 Son of David Bibb #5-1

Born in Caroline County, Virginia; married Mary Cobb in 1808. This couple had no children.

No. 6-4 Br A Sec X JOHN BIBB Born about 1788 Son of David Bibb #5-1

Born in Caroline County, Virginia. Unfortunately, we have no record of whom John married, which means he married in some other county than Caroline.

Children		Married
Ann S.		Robert H. Martin	1822
Eliza B.		Reuben Pemberton	1825
Louise C.		James Southworth	1831

The U.S.Census for Caroline County for the year 1820 registers John Bibb as having one son and three daughters, the son's age is given as 10 to 16 years in this census. Two daughters age 16 to 26 years, and one daughter 10 to 15 years.

SEVENTH GENERATION OF CAROLINE BIBBS

No. 7-1 Br A Sec X SAMUEL P. BIBB 1812 Son of Fleming Bibb #6-1

Born in Caroline County, Virginia; married Elizabeth Burrus in 1838. To be more exact Samuel and Elizabeth were married in Caroline County on December 19th, 1838. They lived in Richmond, Va. This couple had no children.

The 1820 Census for Henrico County, Va. (Richmond) lists Samuel P. Bibb with 17 slaves.

No. 7-2 Br A Sec X COL. ROBERT FLEMING BIBB 1818 Son of Fleming and Nancy Bibb #6-1

Perhaps some others.

Our information relating to the Caroline County family of Bibbs was furnished by Mrs. Mary Frances Bibb Wright (1939) who is living in Richmond, Va., the daughter of David Garland Bibb.

No. 7-3 Br A Sec X WALTER TERRELL BIBB 1820 Son of Fleming Bibb #6-1

Born in Caroline County, Va. Married Emma Wheat. This couple are long since deceased and the Caroline County records give us next to nothing as to them or their family.

No. 7-4 Br A Sec X DAVID GARLAND BIBB 1823-1891 Son of Fleming Bibb #6-1

This son of Fleming was born in Caroline County, Virginia. He married Susanna Storrs Hackett August 17th, 1849.

August 17th, 1876 this David Bibb makes deed to a tract of land, and is mentioned as a widower.

Children		Married
George Garrett	1850-1924	Married.....No children

No. 7-5 Br A Sec X THOMAS EDWARD BIBB 1825 Son of Fleming Bibb #6-1

Born in Caroline County, Va. Married Mary Victoria Pride in 1858.

This son of Fleming located in Bristol, Tenn. The Caroline records do not mention his marriage; therefore, we may assume he married in Tennessee.

Children		Married
Florence Augusta	1861	Samuel M. Owens-Hustonville, Ky.
Robert Alfred	1856	Rebecca Alice Millard
Margaret V.	1866	McDowell Fair-Chattanooga, Tenn.

No. 7-6 Br A Sec X CORNELIUS F. BIBB 1827-1908 Son of Fleming Bibb #6-1

All we know of this son is that he was born in Caroline County, Va. It may be assumed he had no family; otherwise, the records and our informant would somewhere so indicate.

No. 8-1 Br A Sec X SAMUEL FLEMING BIBB ca 1843 Born in Caroline Co. Va. Son of Fleming T. Bibb #7-1

Married Miss May Wilson of Menchester, England, who was of the line as President Woodrow Wilson. Date of marriage 1870.

BRANCH B.GEORGIA - ALABAMA BIBB FAMILY

Headed by William Bibb, second son of Benjamin Bibb, the Colonist, Branch B of the Bibb family in America possesses a history all its own.

Its political and judicial achievements are more outstanding than either of the three branches constituting the Bibb family tree, including as it does three governors of Alabama, two United States Senators, one Secretary of the United States Treasury and a number of eminent judges of state courts.

I I

Early in the history of our country members of this branch of the Bibb family settled in Georgia, Alabama, Kentucky and as far into the southwest as Texas. Wherever these stalwart sons located, they promptly took their place in conquering the frontier and planting civilization.

As a reward for their services they were honored by their fellows with leading positions, as will appear as their history unfolds.

But in all these achievements they were embarrassingly lax in one particular; they failed to write out and preserve that data necessary to the construction of a family tree for succeeding generations of their descendants.

THE BACKGROUND OF BRANCH B.

- | | | |
|-----|----------------------------|-------------|
| (a) | Benjamin Bibb the Colonist | 1640-1702/3 |
| (b) | William Bibb | 1665-1744 |
| (c) | John Bibb | 1703-1769 |

The descendants of the above mentioned William Bibb constitute Branch B, by which mark they are separated from their numerous cousins and at the same time preserves the existing kinship.

About sixty years ago that eminent Alabama jurist, Benajah Smith Bibb compiled a brief resume of this particular branch of the Bibb family, but its circulation was far short of its real value. From this compilation came numerous setups of different families chiefly characterized by their errors, additions and omissions. Thus to arrive at our present goal in tracing Branch B has involved a tremendous amount of difficult and expensive work, largely compensated by coming in contact with some choice personalities whose helpful cooperation will long abide.

No. 2-1 Br B Sec 1 WILLIAM BIBB 1665-1744 Son of Benjamin Bibb #1-1

This second Bibb born on American soil was born in King William County, Va. and married Miss Clark. William was the head of branch "B" of the Bibb family, which means he was the beginning of the branch of the Bibb group known as the Georgia-Alabama group.

Sufficient information relating to William Bibb has come to us to warrant the conclusion that this Bibb son was both a successful planter and a prominent citizen in his community and state.

The descendants of this William Bibb have a most direct line in tracing their lineage back to the beginning of the Bibb family in America.

Children	Married
John	1703-1769	Susanna Bigger
Nancy		Barton Key
Mary (or Martha)		Robert Edwards

Some years ago quite a group of the Bibb family became much agitated concerning an alleged lease on what is now priceless real estate on lower Manhattan in the city of New York. This is known as the "Edwards lease" supposed to have been made by Robert Edwards, an Englishman who married the daughter of William Bibb.

One story relates that Robert Edwards was the son of an Episcopal Minister of New York who had two sons. One of these sons located in Virginia and on a certain occasion Robert Edwards, the other son came down to Virginia to visit his brother. Here he met the daughter of William Bibb and as has happened so many times both before and since, he fell in love with her and married her. This is how the Bibb group became involved in this "Edwards Lease".

When the Revolutionary War came, Mr. and Mrs. Edwards went to England and never came back. It is said they had no children. The law of limitation had outlawed this supposed lease before the Bibb heirs began to investigate it.

No. 3-1 Br B JOHN BIBB 1703-1769 Son of William Bibb #2-1

Born in Prince Edward County, Virginia and located in Goochland County where he became a very prominent planter. John Bibb married Susanna Biggers.

Richard	1742-1830	Lucy Booker-2nd Mary Ann Jackson
James	1745-1820	Sally Farrar	1761

(*)-Susanna Bibb of the above family of children married James Bigger and was the Mother of Honorable James Bigger of Padukah, Kentucky.

This John Bibb #3-1 was the sole representative of branch B of the third generation of the Bibb family in America. Perhaps he was the wealthiest of the Bibb group of his time.

In 1777 John was Captain of the Virginia Militia of Prince Edward County. He seems to have been succeeded in this position by his son, William Bibb, who later migrated to Georgia.

John Bibb's Will, a lengthy document, is recorded on page 213 of Will Book #9, Goochland County, Va. A copy of this Will is on file in volume 4 of the writer's Bibb papers. This Will is the source of information relative to the above list of children coming to the home of John and Susanna Bibb.

These sons of John Bibb rendered good service in the Revolutionary War. One or two Captains, one Major and one who furnished at his own initiative much provisions to sustain the army.

No. 4-1 Br B CAPTAIN WILLIAM BIBB 1739-1796 Son of John Bibb #3-1

Born in Goochland County, Virginia. Lived in Prince Edward County and later moved to Georgia.

William was twice married--first to widow Hannah Clark Booker; second to vivacious Sally Wyatt of whom it is said was of English Royalty. The first wife had four children--2nd wife, eight children.

Children		Married
Elizabeth	1763	1-Capt. John Scott-2, James Clark

Joseph Wyatt	1790-1831	Louise Du Bose-2, Martha Dancy
Martha	1792-1835	Fleming Freeman
Benajah Smith	1796-1888	Lucy Ann Gilmer

Note 1--In this family group are two governors, one U.S. Senator, two eminent jurists, two physicians and one minister of the Gospel. Honors were not wholly confined to the children of Captain William Bibb. The Captain himself shared to a considerable extent in being honored by his fellows. He was Captain of the Virginia Militia, and represented Prince Edward County, Va. in the House of Delegates from 1779 to 1785.

In addition to this we are perhaps justified in paying special tribute to Captain William Bibb as the head of the Georgia-Alabama group of Bibbs, better known as branch B.

The Will of Captain William Bibb. "To wife Sally S. Bibb and the children that I have by her, or may have, all property after debts are paid. Wife sole executrix. Will signed Sep't 9th, 1795. Recorded Mar 30, 1796 (W.B.A page 94)

Teste Love Stratham.

This Will bears one peculiarity in the wording, "children that I have by her, or may have." The late Judge Benajah Smith Bibb was not born until a few months after the death of Captain William Bibb.

Will of Sally Bibb, third daughter of Capt. William Bibb. Sally wills "to her stepmother, Sally Wyatt Bibb, for her attention to her in infancy, boarding, clothing etc- and a gift to her youngest sons, John Dandridge Bibb, a slave, Patrick. To Joseph Wyatt Bibb, a slave, Pleasant, when said John and Joseph come of age." (W.B."B" page 188)

No. 4-2 Br B JOHN BIBB 1743-1790 Son of John Bibb #3-1

Born in Goochland County, Virginia and married Elizabeth Holcomb.

Richard W.	1779-1844
Susanna	1780-	S. Carter, widower
Nancy	1781-	Arthur Moseley
Sarah	1782-

About the year 1885 Judge Benajah Smith Bibb in his sketch of the Bibb family tells us John Bibb moved to Georgia; but the Judge does not say he accompanied his brothers William and James. He may have moved to Georgia a few years later. Becoming dissatisfied the Judge says John Bibb, his uncle, returned to Virginia, in which state he lived and died. March 14th, 1792 the widow of John Bibb married Josiah Moseley.

The following land deed helps to identify this family.

From 1783 to 1787 Major Bibb was a member of the Virginia House of Delegates. He was Captain of Virginia militia for his district and Major in the Revolutionary War.

When the Revolution came Richard Bibb was a college student studying for the Episcopal ministry. After the war was finished tradition says one of the slaves of Major Bibb caused him to change his views and he became a Methodist minister.

Major Bibb was reputed the wealthiest man in Western Kentucky. He was the owner of a large number of slaves. In 1839 he granted freedom to his slaves, furnishing them with means for acquiring farms or homes of their own. Some of these were sent back to Liberia and given homes in their native locality. Colonel John Bibb was the administrator who carried out the Will of his father to the letter.

A large amount of historical data involving Major Bibb we have in our files, but far too voluminous to be incorporated in a book like this. Two great grandchildren of Major Bibb are still living. Miss Florence Bibb, Russellville, Ky. and Professor Alfred Burnley Bibb, Cosmos Club, Washington, D. C.

In 1778 Richard Bibb and Lucy, his wife, made deed to land in Goochland County, Va.

The Major Bibb mansion still stands at Russellville, Ky.

In Coleman's "Slavery Times in Kentucky" page 285 appears this item:

"Major Richard Bibb, a large slave holder and planter of Logan County, Kentucky made rather a unique and remarkable Will which yellowed with age and falling to pieces, is still to be seen at the courthouse in Russellville. By this instrument he liberated all of his slaves, fifty one in number, valued at $25,000., to take effect from and after the first day of January next after his death (1839), and willed 'that all of them, who have not wives or husbands in bondage, be sent to Liberia. I give to my slaves hereby emancipated five thousand dollars, to be divided out among them and paid out to them from time to time according to the discretion of my executors."

Sole years later "Abel Long, a Negro preacher of Russellville, went to Liberia as a missionary. When he returned to Logan County he reported that he had been unable to find any of the Bibb Negroes, although a number of them had died of the tropical diseases."

The same item says that two aged women were then living, but they had relaxed into the native barbarity.

No. 4-4 Br B JAMES BIBB Dec 26, 1745-Nov. 1820 Son of John Bibb #3-1

Born in Prince Edward or Goochland County, Virginia. He married Sally Farrar Feb. 6th, 1763 and moved to Georgia about 1787 to 1789.

The Virginia records show that James Bibb in 1784 sold his land, supposedly preparatory to his moving his family to Georgia, settling in Wilkes County that state. When Lincoln County was organized in 1796, James Bibb's home was in that county.

William Bibb 9 1/2 poles - 17 slaves.

James Bibb 9 1/2 poles - 17 slaves.

James Bibb was first lieutenant of Militia in the company of Captain John Bibb, Prince Edward County, Va. He also contributed to the provisioning of the army. (Prince Edward County Court, June 1778).

No record has thus far been found that enables one to identify Joseph Bibb, son of James.

Edmond Bibb was perhaps the Edmond mentioned in the Ste Genevieve Missouri records in divorce proceedings.

On May 19th, 1777 was recorded a deed dated Dec. 7th, 1776 from James and Sarah Bibb to Francis Watkins for 600 acres of land in Prince Edward County, Va. Consideration 675 pounds (about 3375.dollars). (D.B. 5, page 499).

No. 5-1 Br B GOVERNOR WILLIAM WYATT BIBB May 8, 1892-Sept 20, 1839 Son of Captain William Bibb #4-1

Born in Prince Edward County, Virginia. William Wyatt Bibb after finishing his college course attended and graduated at the Philadelphia Medical College and pursued his profession in Georgia for a time. When still a young man he became engaged in politics and before he was of legal age to take his seat in that body, he was elected to the United States Senate from his district. It is said Dr. Bibb was President Jas. Monroe's confidential advisor, and was by that President appointed territorial governor of Alabama in 1817. During a very severe storm in the year 1820 Governor Bibb was thrown from his riding horse and killed. Governor Bibb married Mary, daughter of Col. Freeman of Georgia.

No. 5-2 Br B GOVERNOR THOMAS BIBB 1792-1839 Son of Capt. William Bibb #4-1

Born in Prince Edward County, Virginia; went with his father to Georgia where he married Parmelia Thompson.

Following the death of his brother, Governor William Wyatt Bibb, President Monroe appointed Thomas Bibb as Governor of Alabama. After serving one or two terms as governor, Thomas acquired a large land acreage at Belle Mina, Alabama, where he erected the famous Bibb mansion and lived in regal style surrounded by his race horses and fox hounds. This mansion has long been one of the show places of the South, disclosing an elegance hardly surpassed in any section of the country. There is hardly a more outstanding example of the old southern aristocracy than this Bibb mansion, which has been occupied by Governor Bibb's descendants up to the beginning of the year 1941. Though the property has passed from the Bibb family, our information is it will be restored to its pristine glory and preserved with its rich traditions.

Numerous descendants now live in the vicinity of Huntsville and Decatur, Ala.

Mrs. Anne E. Certain, Huntsville, Alabama is the granddaughter of Eliza Parmelia Bibb Hopkins. Mrs. Alfred Wright Alley (Julia Louise Betts) is the granddaughter of Gov. Thomas Bibb. Mrs. (Thomas W) Florence Pleasants Green McAlpin, Jackson, Tenn. is the direct descendant of Emily Julia Bibb of the above list.

The foregoing statement that the President appointed Thomas Bibb as Governor of Alabama seems to be an error. At the time of the death of William Wyatt Bibb, Governor, Thomas Bibb was the president of the State Senate of Alabama and by virtue of this office he automatically became governor.

Note 1--John Dandridge Bibb was a man of great ability and an active participant in the affairs of his community and state. In later life he retired to his fine plantation on the Yazoo River in Mississippi.

Quoting Mrs. Martha Bibb Fitts: John Dandridge Bibb was born in Prince Edward County, Va. March 10th, 1787 and died in Carroll County, Miss. May 9th, 1848. He was the first representative in the state senate for the counties of Lowdes, Montgomery and Autauga, and the first territorial judge of Alabama.

Martha Dandridge who became Mrs. George Washington named John Dandridge for her father; hence the name Dandridge became popular in the Bibb family constituting Branch B.

John Dandridge married Mary Oliver, a noted belle of Georgia.

No. 5-5 Br B JOSEPH WYATT BIBB, M.D. 1790-1831 Son of Capt. William Bibb #4-1

Nancy	1798	Hezekiah Ingram-Monroe, N.C.
William	1799-1875	Rachel Simons-Marg Pistole
Philip A.	1801

Tradition has it that William Bibb was killed by his overseer. How much truth there may be in this we do not know; although we do know that he died comparatively early in life.

After the death of William his widow and the children moved to Mecklenburg County, North Carolina.

In her letter of Oct. 15th, 189 to Mrs. Mora B. Farris, Columbia, Ala., Mrs. Hardy writes that the Will of William Bibb was probated in Charlotte County, Va. in 1791. A letter from the County Clerk of Charlotte County dated about the 10th of March 1940 states that no such Will is on file in that County.

Dandridge and William Bibb, sons of William #5-7 were students at the University of Virginia near the beginning of that Institution.

No. 5-8 Br B MAJOR PHILEMON HOLCOMB BIBB 1770 Son of John Bibb #4-2

Born in Goochland County, Virginia-married Martha Fuqua about 1792. Philemon moved to Fayette County, Ky. where we find his name as one of the pensioners of the War of 1812 perhaps, although one report has it he fought in the Revolutionary War which is most unlikely, if he was born in 1770.

No. 5-9 Br B JOHN BIBB ca 1772-1813 Son of John Bibb #4-2

Born in Virginia--Married Susanna Marshall. Located in Kentucky. Married Nov. 1, 1802. This John was murdered in Lexington, Ky. in 1813. Particulars of the tragedy are lacking.

Children		Married
Philemon	ca 1803	Mary Harris 1829
Sally	ca 1805	Isaac Newton Anderson
Susanna	ca 1807	Calvin Webb-they had 2 daughters.

In 1813 power of attorney was given John Marshall by Marshall Holcomb to act for him as administrator of the estate of John Bibb, in his name and to his use as administrator to demand, sue, etc., any money or property that may be due or belonging to John Bibb in the state of Kentucky."

No. 5-10 Br B BRANCH H. BIBB 1782 (Census) Son of John Bibb #4-2

Born in Virginia - Married Lucy Scott about 1805 - Lived in Virginia and Kentucky. Both Branch H. and his sons possessed one characteristic; they were roamers, going from one state to another. Branch H. lived in Campbell County, Va.

Children		Married
Henry	ca 1800	Nancy A. McKinney
Elizabeth	ca 1802	Lived in Todd Co. Ky.
John S.	ca 1804	Sacramento, Calif.

The U.S. Census Logan County, Ky. 1850 has this entry:

Branch H.	born in Va.-age 68
Lucy	born in Va.-age 62
Henry	born in Va.-age 40
Susan	born in Va.-age 30-evidently Henry's wife.
Mary	born in Va.-age 25
John	born in Va.-age 24
George	born in Va.-age 22 1828

This same household had:

Mary	age 8 months
George	age 6 months-both no doubt grandchildren of Branch H. Bibb.

Branch H. Bibb lived in Campbell County, Va. from 1806 to 1821 if we may judge by the following records:

In 1806 he gives deed of trust on lands.

In 1808 he deeds a negro slave.

In 1813 he gives deed of trust on land.

In 1821 he gives deed of trust on land. All this in Charlotte County.

Born in Virginia. Married Elizabeth Sophia Bryan.

Children	Married
Elizabeth Sophia H.	R. G. Latting

No. 5-12 Br B RICHARD W. BIBB 1789-1843 Son of James Bibb #4-3

Born in Prince Edward County, Virginia. Married Charity Hinkson in 1810. Richard went with his father to Georgia where he grew to manhood. It appears he was somewhat of a roamer, as we find him in Missouri and then in Texas where both he and his wife died about 1843 to 1845.

Children		Married
Richard James	ca 1811	Elizabeth Spivey 1833
Martha B.	ca 1813	Mr. Armstrong-lived in Texas
Sallie F.	ca 1814	Mr. Seligson -lived in Texas
Dandridge	ca 1816-1849
Walter R.
Minerva M.		J. E. Mitchell
Peyton B.		Died young

This list was furnished by Mrs. Martha Bibb Fitts, Chicago, a direct descendant of Richard Bibb.

The history of Richard Bibb is something like this: As a young man he went to Russellville, Ky. to visit his uncle, Major Richard Bibb. While there he married Charity Hinkson and it is supposed Richard was employed by his uncle to examine certain of his large land holdings some of which were located in Missouri. First, we hear of Richard at Ste Genevieve, Missouri cooperating with the Hinksons in land transactions. Then we meet with Richard in Boone County, Missouri where his eldest son, Richard James Bibb was born. After a time Richard returned to Alabama from which state he went to make his home in Washington County, Texas where his children, with the exception of Richard James, had located. In 1839 Richard deeds his land to his wife and children.

The 1850 Census for Montgomery County, Alabama:

Richard James Bibb, age 37, born in Missouri
 Elizabeth (Spivey) age 36 born in N. C.
 Mary A. C. age 12 born in Ala.
 Richard age 8 born in Ala.
 Peyton age 5 born in Ala.
 Martha F. age 1 born in Ala.

No. 5-13 Br B SENATOR GEORGE MORTIMER BIBB 1776-1859 Son of Major Richard #4-3

Born in Goochland or Prince Edward County, Virginia. Married Martha Tabb Scott--2nd Widow Dyer of Washington, D. C. We shall perhaps never be able to secure a complete roster of the children of Senator Bibb. Notwithstanding we have a close line up of the family of Major Richard Bibb and his children; George M. for some reason continues to elude all research. The following list, therefore, is but a partial list of his children.

Children	Married
Charles Scott Jul 1812	Rebecca Mitchell-Franklin Co. Ky.
Titus T. Aticus 1814-1872
John J. Crittenden 1816	West Point Cadet
Frances	A. T. Burnley
Edward Booker Dec 11 1801	Died in Ala. in 1825 or 1827
Henry Bradnax 1804-1823
George Allison 1803-1825
Martha S. 1783-1829	Ledley Lynch

Writing to Richard Clay Bibb November 29th, 1843 George M. Bibb gave this outline of his family: "I am living in this city of Louisville and have four children living with me. My eldest daughter, Frances, married A. T. Burnley who is living in New Orleans. My second daughter married Ledley Lynch and is living in or near Jackson, the seat of government of this state of Mississippi. One of my sons is a lawyer living in Bedford Trimble County in this state, who is named Aticus (Titus P. Aticus) Bibb. My son, John, is at the Military Academy at West Point, N.Y. My eldest son, Charles Scott Bibb, died many years ago, leaving three children, Charles Alexander Bibb, who is living with me; Virginia Bibb and George M. Bibb, both of whom are under the age of 21 years and live with their mother who has married Thomas Barbour and is living in Jefferson County, about 20 miles above Louisville on the Ohio River.

One of the sons of my uncle James Bibb came from Georgia and married in Kentucky, but what has become of him and his children I know not. His name was Thomas." Taken from a copy of the original letter in the files of Mrs. Martha Bibb Fitts-Chicago Ill., date of copy May 1940.

As to the children of George M. Bibb by his second wife, a Mrs. Dyer, we know absolutely nothing. There seems to have been little or no affiliation on the part of the children by his first wife with those of the second.

The Coast Guard Cutter "Bibb" yet doing service on the Atlantic coast, was named for this George M. Bibb.

George M. Bibb was U.S.Senator 1811-1816, and from 1829 to 1835. He died in Georgetown, Washington April 14th, 1859.

From 1811 to 1816 George Mortimer Bibb was a member of the U.S.Senate, and then was appointed by President Tyler as Secretary of the Treasury.

One incident in the life of George Mortimer Bibb is perhaps not generally known. He was "John Rowans" second in one of the most celebrated of the early Kentucky duels, because of the political and social standing of the persons involved."

No. 5-14 Br B RICHARD BIBB JR. 1780-1839 Son of Major Richard Bibb

Born in Virginia and lived at Russellville, Kentucky. In 1811 Richard married Elizabeth Roberts, and in 1829 he married Elizabeth Bacon.

Children		Married
Eugene Booker	1812-1852	Mary Jane Burgess-No children
Dr. Geo. Richard	1830-1915	Mary Caldwell in 1854
Florence	1839-1917	John King-had 8 children
Susan	1834	John Temple-no children
Eliza	1836	John Wills

This family seems to have remained at Russellville, Ky.

John and Florence King had eight sons, David-Richard-John-Charles-Philip-Garrett-Logan-Flomin.

No. 5-15 Br B COLONEL JOHN B. BIBB 1789-1884 Son of Major Richard Bibb #4-3

Born in Virginia Jack Bibb went with his father to Kentucky and lived at Russellville and later at Frankfort, Ky. He married Sarah P. Hopkins August 22nd 1831. This couple had no children and this family has long since passed out of the picture.

Col. John B. Bibb was administrator of his father's vast estate and it was he who carried out the wishes of his father when the latter freed his slaves.

Belser (John B. or Jack Bibb) was very active in state and local politics of his state and was Major on James Allen's staff Kentucky Militia, Logan County, Ky. in 1855.

The Frankfort, Ky. Cemetery Association under date of October 15th 1938, gives this item: "John B. Bibb was born in Prince Edward County, Va. October 27th, 1789, died April 13th, 1884." The inscription on his grave marker is: "Mark the perfect man and behold the upright, for the end of that man is peace."

Among other distinctions borne by Col. John B. Bibb was the propagation of a new variety of lettuce which was largely advertised by the Louisville, Ky. newspapers which crowned Jack Bibb as the lettuce king.

Quoting Mrs. Thompson Bibb Hardin Musterspaugh, a descendant of Major Richard Bibb: "You probably know that Lafayette visited 'Gray Gables', the home of John B. Bibb in Frankfort, Kentucky, that still stands at the historic corner of Wapping Street and Watson Court, then known as Petticoat Lane."

Perhaps no member of the Bibb family was more loved and respected than "Jack" Bibb of Kentucky.

No. 5-17 Br B JOHN BIBB 1770 Son of James Bibb #4-4 of Ga.

Born in Prince Edward County, Va. Married Lucy Lockett.

Children		Married
Richard Clay	ca 1792
George J.	ca 1794	May not belong here

Writing of this John Bibb, Senator George M. Bibb said: "Whilst my father lived in Virginia, John Bibb returned from Georgia where he had gone with his father and family. Lived in my father's family several years and then married Lucy Lockett whose father lived in Prince Edward County on the Appomatox. John Bibb then moved to Georgia, but afterward, as I have heard, returned to Virginia and died."

A question arises just here relative to son George J. Bibb, as to whether he was the pioneer Bibb who settled in Lauderdale, Tenn. The fact that the name, Richard Clay, was much used by this group of Bibbs rather supports this suggestion.

No. 5-18 Br B JOSEPH BIBB 1768 Son of James Bibb #4-4

Born in Prince Edward County, Va. Married.

The time worn tradition applies here - he "went west".

No. 5-20 Br B THOMAS BIBB 1772 Son of James Bibb #4-4

Born in Virginia, went with his father to Georgia settling in Wilkes County. When a young man Thomas visited his uncle, Major Richard Bibb, at Russellville, Ky. Writing during the year 1843 to a relative, Senator George Mortimer Bibb says this Thomas came to his father's house where he remained some time. Then, as the Senator reports, he lost all trace of him. The records show this Thomas married Miss Murray of Kentucky perhaps during the year 1794.

No. 6-4 Br B WILLIAM CRAWFORD BIBB 1820-1876 Son of John Dandridge Bibb #5-4
Born in Georgia-located in Mississippi. Was twice married; first to Precilla Ann Sims-2nd, Rebecca Harris.

Children	Estimated	Married
Cornelia D.	1842	Vernon H. Vaughn-2nd, Mr. Huffman
George Dandridge	1846-1888	Seba Foreman-2nd, Sally Sprigener
Mary Frances	1848	Charles Leffner-Sanford, Florida
William Crawford	1854	Martha Shepherd

Children		Married
Sarah Hunt	1866	Oscar Thompson-2nd, Dr. Cornelius Hardy 1886
John Bibb	1845

Note 1--The husband of Cornelia D. Bibb was governor of Utah.

Note 2--In 1878 William Crawford Bibb wrote: "John Dandridge Bibb (my father) was territorial judge of Mississippi territory and in the convention that framed the first constitution of Alabama, and he was the first senator from Montgomery and Autauga counties, died in Mississippi whither he moved in 1831."

In Carl Sandberg's Abraham Lincoln, Vol IV pp 238-240 appears quite a lengthy interview between President Lincoln and W.C. Bibb of Montgomery, Alabama. Without taking the oath of allegiance to the Federal Government, W.C. Bibb talked his way to a pass through the army posts back to Montgomery, Ala.

That this applies to William Crawford Bibb seems beyond doubt, even though reports say this W.C. Bibb moved to Mississippi in 1831. No other Bibb of that time fits into the Lincoln incident.

No. 6-5 Br B PEYTON DANDRIDGE BIBB 1816 Son of Rev. Peyton Bibb #5-3

Born in Alabama-married Sarah Allen.

Note--Mr. H.D. Bibb writes under date of March 22nd, 1938: "There is no more trace of the Du Bose Bibb family, as I am the only living one from nine boys and one girl."

It is but natural to suppose this family of nine sons had families of their own, though we have been unable to locate one of them save Mr. H.D. Bibb who lives with his daughter.

 Born in Virginia so the Census says. We have no information as to John's wife and family. In the Logan County, Ky. Census for 1850, John is listed as 24 years of age and born in Virginia.

No. 6-14 Br B RICHARD JAMES BIBB ca 1813 Son of Richard W. Bibb #5-12
 Born, as is supposed, in Boone County, Missouri. Married Elizabeth Spivey August 7th, 1832 and lived in Alabama, he having with his father returned to that state. The reason this son was born in Missouri was this: His father was on his way to Texas and Richard James was born enroute. For some reason Richard W. Bibb returned to Alabama.

The name of Richard James Bibb appears on the records of Autauga County, Alabama as witness to two land deeds dated 1827 and 1828. While the family and the father of Richard James went to Texas, he remained in Alabama.

No. 6-15 Br B CHARLES SCOTT BIBB born about 1812 Son of Senator George Mortimer #5-13

Born in Kentucky and lived at Frankfort, Ky. He married Rebecca Mitchell and they had three children.

Children

Charles Alexander
Virginia
George M.

Writing to Richard Clay Bibb in 1843 George M. Bibb says that his eldest son "died many years ago". This indicates Charles Scott Bibb died in his early manhood.

Charles Scott was a lawyer. He was the prosecuting attorney in the celebrated case of the State of Kentucky vs Beaucham, on trial for the killing of Solomon Sharp. This trial was May 15th, 1826, which date is evidently an error and should be set ten or twenty years later.

Following the death of Charles Scott Bibb his widow married William Thomas Barbour and lived in Jefferson County, Ky.

In the Will of Joseph Mitchell, Charles and Rebecca Bibb were bequeathed 144 acres of land. (Burgess Virginia Soldiers 1776, 666) This Mitchell was an officer in the Revolutionary War and was granted a considerable tract of land.

No. 6-16 Br B TITUS P. ATTICUS BIBB born July 3, 1814-1872 Son of Geo. Bibb #5-13

Born in Kentucky. Married Mary Scott Snead in 1852 and lived at Bedford, Trimble County, Ky. About the year 1880 Titus located in Texas in the vicinity of Marshall, where several of his grandsons now reside.

John J. Crittenden Bibb was a student at the U.S. Military Academy from July 1, 1823 to July 1, 1827, when he was graduated and promoted in the army to Bvt, second Lieutenant of Artillery July 1, 1827. He served in Garrison in Fort Monroe, Va., (Artillery School for Practice) 1828-1829, at the Military Academy as assistant instructor of infantry tactics from January 7th to June 24th, 1830; and on ordnance duty at Bellona Arsenal, Va. July 19th, 1830 to September 7th, 1831. He died at this place on September 7th, 1831 - age of 33 years.

No. 6-18 Br B ALLISON GEORGE BIBB ca 1790 Son of George Mortimer Bibb #5-13

Born in Kentucky. It appears that this son died in his youth; at least we find no record of him beyond this.

No. 6-19 Br B BENJAMIN BIBB born about 1790 Son of

Born in Kentucky-married Mary Scott in 1813.

Children

Margaret	1814-1827
Dulcina	1818
Nancy	1822

This and the next following entry are registered here because they appear to belong to the George Mortimer Bibb family. Let it be observed our list on another page does not give the names of all of the children of George Mortimer Bibb. More than this, the name "Scott" supports the conclusion that the placing of these entries here is correct.

No. 6-21 Br B EUGENE B. BIBB 1826-1852 Son of Richard Bibb #5-14

Lived in Logan County, Kentucky and married 1st-Mary Jane Burgess, 2nd, Elizabeth Bacon. They had no children.

No. 6-22 Br B DR. GEORGE RICHARD BIBB 1830-1915 Son of Richard Bibb #5-14

Born in Kentucky, married Mary Caldwell and lived at Russellville, Ky. So far as perpetuating the name, Bibb, this family completely passes away. Miss Florence Bibb, Russellville, Ky. is the only surviving member of this distinguished family.

No. 6-26 Br B WILLIAM BIBB Oct 7, 1799-July 5, 1875 Son of Wm. Bibb #5-7

This Bibb son was born in Virginia, attended as one of the first group of students, the University of Virginia. It is reputed William's father was quite wealthy for a planter of his day. At the conclusion of his university work, William with his brother, Dandridge Walthall Bibb, located near Monroe, North Carolina, where he married Rachel Simons, the daughter of a Jewish father and American mother. William's second wife was widow Margaret Pistole, the mother of two children. By this wife William had no children. The date of this second marriage was Dec. 3rd, 1844. Date of first marriage was Dec. 13, 1818.

The charming Mrs. S. B. Bundy, Monroe, N.C. is the step granddaughter of this William Bibb. Mrs. Bundy's report of this William Bibb as a citizen, is filled with the highest praise.

Land Transactions of William Bibb of Monroe, N. C.

1847--William Bibb buys 312 acres land on Richardson Creek.
 1847--William and Rachel Bibb are given 110 acres of estate of Simon.
 1847--Sheriff Austin deeds William Bibb 115 acres of Rogers land.
 1847--William Hiatt deeds William Bibb 252 acres land on Richardson Creek.
 1850--Eli Stewart deeds William Bibb 351 acres of land.
 1851--C. Austin, Sheriff, deeds William Bibb 1 negro girl.
 1855--Hezekiah Williams deeds William Bibb 479 acres on Richardson Creek.
 1857--C. Austin, sheriff, deeds William Bibb 184 acres of land.
 1858--Thomas Bragg deeds William Bibb 33 acres of land on Cedar Fork.
 1859--Russell Rogers to William Bibb 152 acres land on Berkshire Creek.
 1857--C.M.T. McCauley to William Bibb deeds 102 acres land.
 1868--J.D. Stewart to William Bibb 118-1/2 acres of land-Berkshire Creek. The holdings of William Bibb was more than 800 acres.

A small settlement consisting of about ten houses a few miles south of Monroe, N.C., is still referred to as the Bibb place.

William Bibb's Will was made Nov. 26th, 1873, probated July 23rd, 1875. This document gives the entire estate to the wife, Margaret Bibb, with the exception of five dollars each to his two grandsons, Joseph Steele and William Steele.

No. 6-27 Br B DANDRIDGE WALTHALL BIBB 1796-1824 Son of William Bibb #5-7

Born in Virginia, this son who was known as Walter Bibb was among the very early graduates of the University of Virginia. Walter with his brother, William, migrated to Monroe, North Carolina where he married Esther Moses March 23rd, 1818. The father of Esther Moses was a Hebrew, and a loyal Revolutionary soldier.

Children	Married
William Lilly	1824-1912
	Was married four times

After the death of the father of Walter Bibb in Virginia the widow, Polly Powell Bibb, with her children followed her two elder sons to North Carolina settling in Mecklenburg County in the vicinity of Monroe. Here her daughter, Nancy, married Hezekiah Ingraham April 22nd, 1819 and Elizabeth married Levi Cochran on Feb. 2nd, 1822.

The name, Dandridge, in this family in itself connects it with the John Bibb family line in Virginia. This name was not used in either branch A or branch C.

It appears that Dandridge Walthall Bibb moved from Monroe, North Carolina to Union Springs Bullock County, Alabama. We do not know why he made this change in location, but we do know that his son, William Lilly Bibb, was the sole male representative of these two prominent brothers, who settled in North Carolina about the year 1816 or 1817.

Dr. Dandridge Asbury Bibb moved to Louisiana and followed his medical profession. He died at the age of 34 years. His widow moved to New Orleans. This information comes from Mr. Dandridge Asbury Bibb (1938) of Houston, Texas. Dandridge Asbury, Jr. married Mary Emma Rashford.

No. 6-29 Br B Gen 6 ASENITH BIBB 1805 Son of

Born perhaps in Georgia and married LouiseLived in Morgan Co. Alabama.

The U.S. Census 1850 Morgan County, Alabama:

Asenith	age 45	born in Ga.
Louisa	age 18	" " Ala.
John A.	age 16	" " "
Joseph	age 14	" " "
Antoinette	age 12	" " "
Thomas J.	age 10	" " "
Edna	age 8	" " "

Asenith was a widower here.

James Bibb, who went from Virginia to Georgia had a son, James, who was the father of Thomas Anderson Bibb.

We give this entry because the records bear it out; but we are not so sure the connection with the James Bibb family is correct. It is notorious that the census takers were neither particular nor correct many times in registering the names of their subjects. This Asenith may be the middle name of one of the well known Bibb group.

No. 6-31 Br B JAMES BIBB Son of Thomas Bibb #5-20

No. 6-33 Br B PHILIP A. BIBB ca 1802 Son of William Bibb #5-7

Born in Virginia and went with his mother's family to Monroe, N.C. The North Carolina records do not have the marriage record of Philip A., which shows he probably was married elsewhere. We do know that Dandridge Walthall (Walter) Bibb did move from North Carolina to Alabama, and it is very probable his brother, Philip, accompanied him and settled in Morgan County.

Referring to the page above this, the entry of Asenith Bibb is made. It is observed he has a list of children the same as this Philip Bibb, because we contend the two entries refer to the same person. The identity of Asenith is not fixed and the identity of Philip is not fixed unless we conclude they are the same person.

Children

John A.	1832
Joseph	1834
Antoinette	1836
Thomas J.	1840
Edna	1842
Louisa	1831

No. 6-34 Br B P. ANDERSON BIBB 1805 Son of William Bibb of Va. #5-7

Born in Virginia the brother of William and Walthall (Walter) Bibb, was born in Virginia and located in North Carolina with his mother, Polly Bibb. We do not have the name of the wife of P. Anderson Bibb, but the 1850 Census for Morgan County, Alabama, which lists this son as a widower, give this list of children:

Children

John M.	1834-born in N.C.
Mary C.	1837-born in Ala.
Sarah E.	1841-born in Ala.

The Will of John Norris mentions Philip A. Bibb as one of the legatees, tho he was, so far as the records go, no relation to John Norris whose daughter married the brother of Philip A. To add weight to this conclusion is the fact the records do not have any reference to P. Anderson Bibb's family, and inasmuch as he was of the same family of Bibbs as the Georgia-Alabama branch, it does seem more than probable this is the son of Polly Powell Bibb who came from Virginia to North Carolina.

No. 6-35 Br B GEORGE R. BIBB 1828 Son of Branch H. Bibb #5-10

Born and lived in Logan County, Kentucky. All we know of his wife is that her first name was Mary E. George Bibb had at least one son as is evidenced by the 1870 Census of Logan County, Ky. From this same Census comes the information that the above named George R. Bibb sojourned for a time in the State of Wisconsin, later returning to Kentucky.

George R. Jr. born in 1844 in Wis.

Clara born in 1850 in Ky.

Daughter born in 1869 in Ky.

No other George Bibb but the above fits into this setup.

A more direct report says James was born in Lincoln County, Ky. Jan. 25th, 1804, and that he was married twice-1st to Miss Anderson-2nd to Miss Anderson, Feb. 24, 1892.

Mrs. Martha Bibb Fitts has in her possession numerous of the original letters written by this James Bibb to her grandfather, Richard James Bibb. He lived in Lincoln County, Ky. No doubt James left a considerable family of children of which we have no record at all.

No. 6-40 Br B WILLIAM DANDRIDGE BIBB 1812-1880 Son of Governor Thos. Bibb #5-2

Born in Belle Mina, Ala. and was twice married; 1st to Mary Chambers and 2nd to Mary Mitchell. One child which died at birth came to the home of this fine citizen. William Dandridge located in Mississippi about the year 1845 and manages his fine plantations. Having no children he adopted Florence Mitchell Pleasants, youngest daughter of James J. and Emily Julia Bibb Pleasants. This adopted daughter married Mr. S. Green and they had six children, one of which was Mrs. Florence Pleasants Green (Mrs. T.W. McAlpin) McAlpin of Jackson, Miss. This couple have no children.

Mrs. McAlpin is the last survivor of this William Dandridge family. From her comes this bit of romance, the second of its kind in the history of the Bibb family in America. Says Mrs. McAlpin, grandniece of William Dandridge Bibb: "A short while after they were married (that is, William Dandridge Bibb and Mary Chambers), a little incident of interest came to life. One day a little girl, Mary Mitchell, was at the home of my grandfather during the time of his marriage to Mary Chambers, and he asked this little girl to do some little favor for him, casually remarking at the same time, 'Mary if you will do this for me I will make you my second wife'. Sure enough as the years went by his wife died and little Mary Mitchell grew up and my grandfather fell in love with her and married her."

SPECIAL ENTRY

REV. CHARLES BIBB, married Sarah

There is a tradition that near the Railway right of way just without the city limits of Huntsville, Alabama are two ancient graves bearing this inscription:

Rev. Charles Bibb
Susan Bibb

With the fine assistance of Mr. Mora B. Farris, Columbia, Tenn., we have been unable to either locate the graves or to find any record by which identity might be made. The probability is this tradition is pure fiction.

BRANCH "C" OF THE BIBB FAMILYAMHERST--NELSON BRANCH OF THE BIBB FAMILYTHE BACKGROUND

Benjamin #1	1640-1702	Lived in King William County, Virginia
Thomas #1	1669-1701	Located in Philadelphia, Pa.
Thomas #2	1695-1720	Lived in Philadelphia, Pa.
Thomas #3	1711-1781	Born in Philadelphia-lived in Amherst Co. Va.

This well authenticated setup enables us to take up the review of that considerable group of the Bibb family which is known to us as branch "C", and hardly less popularly known as the Amherst-Nelson group.

By the proper observance of the different sections into which branch C is divided, makes it quite easy to distinguish the various families reviewed in branch "C".

No. 2-1 Br C THOMAS BIBB 1669-1701 Son of Benjamin Bibb #1-1

Born in Kings and Queens or in King William County, Virginia, Thomas married Ruth Kettle of Burlington, New Jersey and this couple lived part time in Burlington and part time in Philadelphia.

While the brothers of Thomas were Virginia planters, he chose another vocation which required a wider field; hence, he located in Philadelphia, Pa. Thomas was a tanner and a smithy which vocations he followed, though much of his time was devoted to other things. That is he was one of the leaders in the Pennypacker Baptist Church, Philadelphia, which church is still standing and carrying on the work Thomas assisted in establishing more than two centuries ago.

More than this, Thomas was every man's friend and devoted much time in helping his fellows in this way and that. He was administrator of numerous estates, justice of the peace, counsellor to innumerable people and friend of the poor.

Mr. Robert F. Cole has gathered a complete record of Thomas Bibb in which is the marriage record of Thomas and Ruth: "July 29th, 1693.-the marriage between Thomas Bibb and Ruth Kettle was solemnized the seventh days of July Anno 1693, at ye home of Thomas Potts, in Burlington (her stepfather) before Edward Hunloke, Dep'ty Gov'no', John Tatham & Thomas Revell, Justices, and before many other witnesses."

(Court Records of Burlington, N.J. page 129)

The History of Burlington, page 31 has this item: "John Hollingshead, who had been chosen Burgess for the year 1698 refused to acknowledge Governor Hamilton and the Government. The town meeting declared him 'wholly disabled and unjustified to act any longer', and appointed Thomas Bibb to be Burgess until the next election."

Thomas Bibb became a resident of Burlington County, N. J. prior to the beginning of the year 1692, for at that time we find him a party to an indenture made by Sarah Parr. Thomas and Ruth had two children whose names are of record in the Church above named.

Children	Married
Thomas	Jan 17 1695-1720 Rebecca
Mary	1698

Thomas Bibb, Senior, was a tanner and a smithy. Some documents call him a "white-smith" and some say "blacksmith".

"The marriage between Thomas Bibb and Ruth Kettle was solemnized the seventh and twentieth day of July Anno 1693, at ye house of Thomas Potts (her stepfather) in Burlington before Edward Hunloke, deputy governor, John Tatham and Thomas Revell, justices, and before many other witnesses."

(Court Records of Burlington, N.J. page 128)

December 28, 1694 Thomas Bibb with two others made inventory of the estate of Thomas Gladwin, Burlington, N. J.

New Jersey Archives, 1st Series, Vol. 23, page 188.

August 25, 1695 Thomas Bibb was appointed one of the overseers of the children of John Weare of Burlington, N. J.

New Jersey Archives 1st Series, Vol. 23, page 289.

May 28, 1695 Thomas Bibb #1 was named one of the executors of the estate of John Joyner, of Mansfield, New Jersey.

New Jersey Archives 1st Series, Vol. 23, page 269.

October 15, 1697, Thomas Bibb #1 was executor of the Will of Gabriel Murrow, of Bucks County, Pa. It appears this woman willed him certain gifts as 'One of her friends, Thomas Bibb, blacksmith.'

These excerpts easily identify Thomas Bibb #1, the head of the Bibb family locating in Amherst County, Virginia, and Nelson County, Va., which was formerly a part of Amherst County, which family is known in these pages as Branch C.

In arranging Branch C., it is observed each name of the Bibb sons is traced out down to the present generation, before another name is taken up. This arrangement necessitates the introduction of sections, in order to the more securing complete separation.

No. 3-1 Br C Gen 3 THOMAS BIBB #2 1695-1720 Son of Thomas Bibb #2-1

Born in Burlington or Philadelphia, Pa. Married Rebecca Lived in Philadelphia, Pa.

Children		Married
Thomas #3	1716	Sarah Martin
Mary	ca 1717	Benjamin Flower	Phila Pa.
Ruth	ca 1719	Walter Lewis	" "

Benjamin Flower, son of the above Benjamin and Mary Flower, was the administrator of the estate of this Thomas Bibb #2.

Other than the information we gather from the settling of this estate, we know very little of Thomas Bibb who seems to have continued the business founded by his father.

In the settlement of this estate of Thomas Bibb #2 appears this advertisement: "1737. To be sold by public Vendue, on the 28th of this Instant September, a good brick house and tan yard in Walnut Street, belonging to the estate of Thomas Bibb, deceased. Any person inclining to purchase the same may apply to Benjamin Flower and be further informed."

American Weekly Mercury, September 8, 1737

After this transaction the name, Bibb, seems to have wholly disappeared from the Pennsylvania records. This fact is tremendously significant in the face of subsequent happenings, as we shall have occasion to observe when we come to review the son of this Thomas Bibb #2.

No. 4-1 Br C THOMAS BIBB #3 1716-1781 Son of Thomas Bibb #3-1

Born in Philadelphia, Pa. Married Sarah Martin and located in Virginia.

This Thomas Bibb, after the settling of his father's estate in Philadelphia, seems to have completely disappeared from Philadelphia and made his home elsewhere.

Following close upon the above we find in the Virginia records this official notice which evidently has connection with this same Thomas Bibb #3.

Thomas Bibb secures a tract of land in Virginia.

"At a council held at the Capitol of Virginia (Williamsburg) on the ceveat and petition of Thomas Bibb against Nathaniel Dickinson for a grant of four hundred acres of land in Hanover County surveyed long since for Nathaniel Dickinson, having been summoned and not appearing, it was ordered that a patent be granted petitioner." This transaction is dated December 15, 1737.

The entire trend of the evidence points to this Thomas Bibb as returning to the locality from which his grandfather went when a young man. We may readily believe that Thomas Bibb 3rd knew of his relatives "down in Virginia", and that there were more or less frequent visits and communication between the families of Bibbs since the time Thomas Bibb the elder located in Burlington and Philadelphia.

We do not know how long Thomas remained in Hanover County, Va., but next we find him located in Amherst County of the same state. Perhaps it was not at that time Amherst County; but rather Albemarle, from which Amherst was later taken.

While we have no documentary evidence to verify the conclusion, the Key family well to do and influential had already settled in Albemarle County, Virginia, and it may be that family had to do with Thomas Bibb removing to Amherst County.

Thomas and Sarah Bibb had twelve children; five sons and seven daughters according to the following list:

Children		Married
William	1738-1793	Sarah	Amherst County, Va.
Elizabeth	1739	Mr. Nichols
Anne	1741	Martin Key	Albemarle County
John	1743	Elizabeth Marr	1767

James	1747-1809	Sally Nowlin	1793
Rachel	1749	Mr. Alass (some say Mays)
Barbara	1751	James Cobb (some say Cook)
Mary	1753	Mr. Gray
Frances	1755	Mr. Harper
Temperance	1757	William Knight in 1783
Martin	1759	See his page
Randolph	1856	See his page

The Will of Thomas Bibb dated December 3rd, 1781 bequeaths the estate to "Wife Sarah and sons and daughters as above listed."

(W. B. "Z" page 229-Amherst County, Va.)

The adding to the list of Thomas' children of the name of Randolph is explained on another page.

William Bibb was an extensive dealer in farm land and prominent in the affairs of Amherst County. He owned numerous tracts of land on Rucker's Run, a fine stream in what is now Nelson County, Virginia.

The sons of William Bibb can hardly be said to have preserved the push and ambition of their father. We find them disposing of the land their father left them. They at least left no outstanding record to follow them.

For identification of the son, William Bibb, in the above list of sons of William Bibb #5-1, refer to the South Carolina Bibb group.

Land deed (D.B.E. page 136 Amherst County, Va.) from Martin Key representing John King of England, to William Bibb a tract of land.

No. 5- Br C ANN BIBB 1760 Daughter of Thomas Bibb #4-1

Ann was born in Amherst County, Virginia and married Martin Key of Albemarle County, Va.

The purpose of setting in this page here is to forever quiet the floating tradition which has for a long time attracted attention among the joiners of fraternal or social organizations.

John Key was one of the pioneers of what is now Amherst County, Va., he acquiring land in what was then Albemarle County, Va. in the year 1732. The Keys were leading citizens of that part of Virginia, especially was Martin Key a man of wealth and influence. From him came the popular name of Martin which has come down to the present as a given name among one branch of branch C.

Two of Martin and Ann Key's sons were secretaries to Mr. Thomas Jefferson; one of them lived on a farm adjoining Monticello. The other son accompanied Mr. Jefferson when he went to Europe in the interest of our Government.

John Key lived on a farm adjoining Monticello and was secretary to Mr. Thomas Jefferson, as was his brother, William, at another time.

Martin Key was the great great grandson of the sister of Lady Jane Grey of England.

The writer has a copy of Martin Key's Will among his Bibb papers.

Mrs. E. C. Brewer, Clarksdale, Miss. is a direct descendant of Henry Key of the above list of Key children.

No. 6-1 Br C ZENITH BIBB ca 1780 Son of perhaps William Bibb

Born in Amherst County, Virginia. We are wholly dependent on the Nelson County census of 1810 for what information we have of this Bibb son. That census merely says: "Zenith Bibb-3 whites."

It seems more than probable this Zenith was the son of William Bibb and is here listed by his middle name, as was often done. Nothing whatever is known of him or his family apart from that here given.

No. 6-2 Br C Sec 1 THOMAS BIBB ca 1765 Son of William Bibb #5-1

October 15th, 1792 Thomas Bibb filed bond in Amherst County, Va. for one thousand pounds in favor of the State of Virginia, as tobacco inspector for that district. Whether this pertained to Thomas Bibb, the head of the Bibb tribe in Amherst County, and who would have been 76 years old, or whether it refers to this Thomas Bibb is not exactly certain, though opinion inclines to the latter.

June 15th, 1804 this Thomas Bibb and his wife, Parmelia, file bond in Amherst County, Va. as Guardian of the son of John Bibb, brother of Thomas.

March 4th, 1805 Thomas Bibb sells and deeds to William Biggs the 190 acres of land he inherited from his father, William Bibb.

No. 6-3 Br C Sec 1 JOHN BIBB ca 1789 Son of William Bibb #5-1

Born and lived in Amherst County, Virginia. We do not know the name of John's wife.

Children

William ca 1789

This is the son for whom Thomas Bibb gave bond as guardian, the father, John Bibb, dying at the age of 22 years.

The Amherst County records do not mention the marriage of John Bibb.

No. 6-4 Br C Sec 1 MARTIN BIBB 1770 Son of William Bibb #5-1

Martin was born in Amherst County, Virginia and was twice married, first to Mar..... and second to Sarah Whitehead. The Amherst County records record four daughters to Martin, all born to his first wife. Evidently Martin's first wife lived only a few years after she married Martin.

Children

Mary Ellen
Luch Jane
Margaret
Harriet

After the death of his first wife the Amherst records show Martin as giving a bond in the sum of four hundred dollars stipulating he will faithfully fulfill his office as guardian to "the infant children of Martin Bibb."

Martin's marriage to his first wife is not recorded in Amherst County, Va. In addition to this it appears these four daughters did not remain in Amherst County.

The U.S. Census of 1810 for Casey County, Ky. has this entry:

Martin	age 26 to 45
1 Female	age 26 to 45
1 Female	age 10 to 16
1 Male	age 10 to 18
1 Male	Under 10
1 Female	Under 10

Supposing the elder daughters of Martin had married prior to the 1810 census, it is not at all improbable that Martin located in Kentucky. From what here follows we do know he disposed of his property in Amherst County by the end of the year 1802, and all record of him ceases in Amherst County, Va.

(1) July 28th, 1794 Martin Bibb transfers one negro boy to John Alford for sixty pounds ($300). (D.B. "G" page 498).

(2) On November 24th 1795 Martin Bibb and Mary, his wife, deed to John Thompson a parcel of land-100 acres-part of the tract Martin inherited from the estate of his father, William Bibb.

(3) November 2nd, 1802 Martin Bibb and Mary, his wife, deed to John Thompson a tract of land, this also being land he inherited from his father's estate. Consideration 250 pounds. (D.B. "I" page 449).

(4) July 28th 1800 Martin Bibb deeds Brown Rivers Company a tract of land, the remaining portion Martin inherited. In this deed Mary Bibb does not join, though she joins in the deed of 1802.

No. 6-5 Br C Sec 1 RANDOLPH BIBB ca 1772 Son of William Bibb #5-1

Born in Amherst County, Virginia, but evidently located elsewhere. There were two Randolphs in Amherst County at this time, the one we have identified and this one left no marks on the county records to guide us. In Jefferson County, Alabama about that time we find a Randolph Carter Bibb whose family line we have thus far not been able to establish. This Bibb was in Alabama it would seem prior to the invasion of the Georgia Bibb group into that state, which was as early as 1817 when Senator William Wyatt Bibb was appointed territorial governor of Alabama territory.

With this as our background, it is not at all difficult to suppose our Amherst County, Va. Randolph went to Jefferson County, Ala. and that the records pertaining to Randolph Carter Bibb are applicable to this Randolph Bibb.

In this event he married Irene Green (some say Irene Butler) and they had the following children:

Children	Married
Elizabeth ca 1825	Benjamin Sherrett-Birmingham Ala in 1847
Polly ca 1827	William Spalding
John ca 1828	Died a youth
William ca 1830	Catherine Brake in 1848-Birmingham, Ala.

The name, Randolph, is strictly an Amherst Bibb group name, and this is an additional reason for the conclusion as set out in the above. One of Randolph Bibb's sister married Randolph Cash. The immediate descendants of Randolph Carter Bibb appear to be unable to offer any information of who and from whence this ancestor was.

No. 6-6 Br C Sec 1 JESSE BIBB 1774 Son of William Bibb #5-1

Born in Amherst County, Virginia-married Polly Nuckles on November 30th, 1796. It is evident Jesse did not remain in Amherst County, as we hear no more of him in that County after the register of his marriage.

By referring back to William Bibb #6-1, brother of Jesse, we find him in South Carolina at the head of a group of the Bibb Family. There is some rather clear evidence that Jesse Bibb went with his brother, William, to South Carolina and from there into Mississippi where he settled near Natchez.

In 1807 William Harper died leaving an estate in which Jesse Bibb shared. In 1808 we find Jesse Bibb giving power of attorney to Thomas Bibb then living in South Carolina, said document empowering Thomas Bibb to look after his interest in the estate of William Harper.

This Thomas Bibb was a son of William Bibb who came from Amherst County, Va., and in some way this Jesse Bibb was willed a part in the estate of William Harper, which estate Thomas Bibb seems to have administered on.

Thomas Bibb perhaps married Miss Harper, daughter of the William Harper named in above paragraph. His eldest son was named Henry Harper, the same who became judge in Arkansas later on.

We have no record of any children of Jesse and Polly Bibb, though there most likely were sons and daughters of this couple.

If this does not fit Jesse Bibb, then we have no record of him after his marriage.

No. 5-2 Br C Sec 2 JOHN BIBB 1743-1793 Son of Thomas Bibb #4-1

Born in Amherst County, Va. John married Elizabeth Marr in 1767. Evidently John lived in that part of Amherst County which was separated to form Nelson County in 1807.

Children	Estimated	Married
Peggy	1768	Mr. Bryant
Sallie	1769	Randolph Cash
Thomas	1771-1838	Martha J. Johnson
Elizabeth	1773	William Johnson	1798
John	1774	Amy Staples	1807
James	1776	Elizabeth Whidden
William Kincaid	1778	Mary Taboth Hill

John Bibb's Will probated in the year 1789, at least its date is 1789, mentions the above group of children with the exception of William Kincaid Bibb who is supposed to have been born after the Will was made. To the above list Henry Bibb 1785 should be added.

This Will specifies: "To wife, Elizabeth, four negroes and 285 acres where wife now lives, during her widowhood, with reversion of land to sons, Thomas, John and James Bibb. To daughter, Peggy, one shilling, and in case a negro girl her grandfather willed her should die, then on a division of my estate she is to have an equal share with my daughters, Sally and Elizabeth Bibb. The whole of the furniture and the stock my father, Thomas Bibb, willed me is to be equally divided between sons and daughters."

May 28th, 1789 the inventory of the personal estate of John Bibb was filed with the Amherst County Court, showing an amount equal to 268 pounds sterling.

Two sons of John Bibb, James and John, were in the War of 1812. They served with Captain Fred Harris' Company, Va. Militia.

No. 6-1 Br C Sec 2 THOMAS BIBB 1771-- Son of John Bibb #5-2

Born in Amherst-Nelson County. Married Martha A. Johnson in 1799.

Children		Married
Elizabeth	ca 1800	John Roberts	1815
Belinda	ca 1802	Robert M. Hall	1823

The records show that Thomas Bibb willed what estate he had to the children of his brother, John Bibb. The why and wherefore of this is not stated. The name Bibb as represented in Thomas Bibb ends here.

No. 6-2 Br C Sec 2 JOHN BIBB 1774 Son of John Bibb #5-2

Born and lived in Nelson County, Va. Married Amy Staples in 1809.

Amy Staples	1825-1826	Deceased

Numerous of this John Bibb family now live in Nelson County, Va.

September 20, 1795 John Bibb deeds to Thomas Hawkins a parcel of land in consideration of one hundred pounds sterling.

September 7, 1795 he deeds John Alford one slave for sixty five pounds.

No. 6-3 Br C Sec 2 JAMES BIBB ca 1781, died before 1850 Son of John Bibb #5-2

Born in Amherst County, Va., and lived in Nelson County which was organized in 1807 from part of Amherst County. James Bibb and Elizabeth Whitten were married November 20th, 1802.

Children

Nelson County Census for 1850 has this setup:

Elizabeth Bibb	age 52-born in Va.	1798
John Q. A.	age 25-born in Va.	1825
Isaac P.	age 17-born in Va.	1833
Alexander L.	age 16-born in Va.	1834

This indicates that James Bibb was deceased in 1850. His widow and the family then moved to Howard County, Missouri in which vicinity some of the family still live.

This list was furnished by Mrs. John L. McGavock, Columbia, Mo. July 1940.

No. 6-4 Br C Sec 2 WILLIAM KINCAID BIBB 1783 Son of John Bibb #5-2

Robert J.	1848
Mary F.	1854	H. F. Ewes in 1868-Nelson County
S. L.	1856
J. D.	1858

The setup of the family of Gallatin M. Bibb is lacking in several particulars. The most reliable information we have indicates that the sons of Gallatin M., left Amherst County and located in some other place up to now unknown.

Until additional data is brought to light we can but leave this family as untraced.

No. 7-12 Br C Sec 2 RICHARD BIBB ca 1821 Son of James Bibb #6-3

Richard was born in Nelson County, Va. Married a Miss Graves and separated from her. Then he lived with his mother and later died of dropsy. Several children came to this couple, but we find no record of them.

No. 7-13 Br C Sec 2 W. H. BIBB 1818 Son of James Bibb #6-3

Born in Virginia. Married Elizabeth Graves in 1841.

Children

Nellie 1859

John 1863

Sis 1866

This Bibb located in Randolph County, Missouri. We have no direct records by which we might identify him with his Virginia ancestry.

It is very probable he was one of the Amherst County, Va. sons who went to Missouri and was followed by John Q. A. Bibb and his two brothers who were some years younger than he. One may easily suppose he was closely connected with the three Bibb brothers and likely the cause of their locating in Missouri.

No. 7-14 Br C Sec 2 WILLIAM BIBB 1789 Son of John Bibb #6-2

Born in Amherst County, Va. He married but name of wife not known.

Children

Martha 1832

The Nelson County, Va. census of 1850 has this entry:

William age 67 - farmer

Mary T. age 55

Martha age 18

By referring back to the sixth generation it will be found that John Bibb had a son, William, for whom Thomas Bibb, John's brother was appointed guardian. It appears evident this William Bibb is that lad.

No. 7-15 Br C Sec 2 JOHN JAMES BIBB 1813-1879 Son of William Kincaid Bibb #6-4

Robert P. was twice married; first to Miss 2nd to Miss Craven. It is said Robert P. founded what is now the Duke University at Durham, N. C.

Children

Ellen
Charles
Frank
Betty
Jack

From Mr. Walter Preston Bibb, Greenfield, Va., comes the information that Frank Bibb of this list about 1911 to 1913 visited him for a few days. Frank was a wandering pianist and had gone around the world making his way with music. Unfortunate as it is, we have been unable to get even a faint trace of these children of Robert P. up to the present time.

William T. Bibb was with General Nelson A. Miles in his excursions against the Indians of our mid-west; he being a member of Troop B U.S. Cavalry. When released from the army William engaged in ranching for a time and then returned to Baltimore where he died very suddenly in the year 1910. Betty P. Bibb and her son live at Coleman Springs, Va.

SECTION THREE - - BRANCH "C"No. 5-3 Br C Sec 3 Gen 5 HENRY BIBB 1741 Son of Thomas Bibb, the Amherst pioneer

Born in Hanover or Amherst County, Va. Married Nancy Parrock in 1783.

Children

Married

Henry Jr.	ca 1784	Mary Slater Apr. 1, 1840
George W.	ca 1786

If Henry married in 1783 at the age of 42 years, the details fit into the Census report.

Henry Bibb, it appears, was a soldier in the War of 1812, a member of the Second Virginia Regiment. Beyond this information there is very little data concerning his identification, though we do know he stands at the head of Section 3 of Branch "C" in the family setup of the Amherst-Nelson group of the Bibb family.

The 1782 Census gives Henry Bibb Sr.:

"1 male, white."

No. 6-1 Br C Sec 3 HENRY BIBB JR. born about 1784 Son of Henry Bibb #5-3

Born in Amherst County, Va. Married. Name of wife not known. No record of his family has been found, which indicates he most likely did not remain in Amherst County after he attained his manhood.

No. 6-2 Br C Sec 3 GEORGE W. BIBB born about 1786 Son of Henry Bibb #5-3

Born in Amherst County, Va. Married Mary Statler in April 1st, 1840 in Nelson County, Va.

Children

Sarah M.

Married

Albert Bibb #7-3

Whether there were other children in this family is not known, though it is likely there were daughters born to George and Mary Bibb.

The above concludes the family of Henry Bibb, Sr. and of Section 3 of Branch C.

The fact that George W. Bibb's daughter married Albert Bibb indicates that this family remained in Amherst-Nelson district.

Thus far no record of the Will of James Bibb has been discovered.

It appears that James was a Revolutionary War soldier and a soldier in the War of 1812.

We have no record of James Bibb transferring land by deed in either Amherst or Nelson Counties, Va., which fact indicates he was not a man of property.

James very likely followed his sons into Tenn. James Bibb died in Madison County, Ala. the 16th of September 1809, age 62.

No. 6-4 Br C Sec 4 REV. JAMES BIBB Feb 18, 1778-Feb 4, 1826 Son of James Bibb Sr.

Born in Amherst County, Virginia, James married Sally Alford in 1802. After a time this couple moved to Dickson County, Tenn. nigh unto the City of Nashville where James was admitted to the Methodist conference in 1810. Later on he located in Huntsville, Alabama where he died in 1826. This couple were buried in the Huntsville City Cemetery.

James Henry	1826-1870	1st-Laura Dillard; 2nd-Rebecca F. Robinson
William Livingstone	1805-1851

Louisa Jane Bibb of this group was the mother of three prominent Methodist ministers, Rev. Edward L. Spragins D.D., Rev. Charles Allen Spragins D.D., Rev. Hal Stith Spragins D.D. This most unusual record is well worth preserving. Dr. Edward L. was father of Henry and Lide Spragins, the children of the present Mrs. J. B. Harmon. Miss Spragins is dean at S.M.U. Other descendants of Louisa Jane Bibb are the Bailey and Farris groups.

A daughter of Louisa Jane Bibb married Joseph William Buchanan of Chickasaw County, Miss. Quite a number of descendants came by this couple, one of which is Marianna Buchanan who married Edwin Earle Moore and lives at Senatobia, Miss. with her four children, Maurice Paul, Edwin Earle, Buchanan and Virginia Louise Moore.

Note 1--William Garrett Bibb of above list lived in New Orleans and in the war between the States he resigned as superintendent of one of the leading hospitals when General Benjamin Butler declined to accept his resignation. Later on he moved to Rahway, New Jersey, still later locating in New York City.

Note 2--John Bibb of this list was buried at Huntsville, Ala.

Note 3--Sarah Bibb Leedy was grandmother of Emma Leedy Bibb (Mrs. W. G. Bibb, New York City).

Note 4--Amanda Bibb's family lived in Texas. She was twice married and had two sons by first husband:

Major William B. Dennett, Fresno, Calif.

James Dennett San Francisco, Calif.

Amanda's second marriage was to John Coleman by whom she had one son, John W. W. Coleman and one daughter, Isabel Brownlee Coleman. This daughter of Amanda married Herman Wiese of Denmark and has one son and two daughters: George F. Wiese, San Antonio and Isabella Brownlee Wiese married Dr. John King Rennie, Bradford, England. Mildred Ann Coleman Wiese married Leif Bjerg and lives in Denmark.

Connected with this Thomas Bibb are some bits of history which ought to be preserved. We are indebted to Mrs. Bessie Bibb Hitzing, State Regent of the Daughters of the American Colonies, for the following:

"My grandfather, Thomas Bibb, came from Amherst County, Va., into what is now Alabama to visit his cousins who were the first two governors of Alabama, and from there he went to Nashville to enlist under Andrew Jackson in the War of 1812. Thomas fought in the Battle of New Orleans, captured a British Major who surrendered to him and whose sword is now in Washington."

Following this Mrs. Hitzing tells us that during the war between the states, the Union Army was camped at Huntsville and General Sherman placed a permanent guard about the tomb of Thomas Bibb, because of his fine career at the Battle of New Orleans.

From the Pension Records of the War of 1812 in the Veteran's Administration Building, Washington, D. C., has this record: W.O.31982;W.O.24985 has this report:

Thomas Bibb, private, Captain Donaldson's Company Tennessee Militia; enlisted at Huntsville, September 2, 1814, at the age of twenty years; married 1st-Mariam Fielder who died in 1829; married 2nd July 10th, 1831, Elizabeth Fielder at Huntsville, Ala. She was born in 1808 and died September 12th, 1903."

No. 6-7 Br C Sec 4 BRYANT WARD BIBB 1789-1819 Son of James Bibb #5-4

Born in Amherst County, Va., and perhaps died young as we find no data relating to him or his family in the records. If he died in 1819 he was in his 30th year, so most likely had no family.

No. 6-8 Br C Sec 4 HENRY BIBB JR. ca 1784 Son of Henry Bibb #5-3

Born in Amherst County, Va. Married Elizabeth and lived in Nelson County, Va. We have no record of Henry's children, but the county records show more than twenty property conveyances including many deeds to land.

September 13th, 1842 Henry and his family had a property settlement, the document being signed by: Henry Bibb, George W. Bibb, John Q.A. Bibb, Elizabeth Bibb-wife.

The 1820 Census Nelson County, Va.

Henry Bibb

3 sons under 10 years.

The 1840 Census shows 7 sons and three daughters. After the 1840 census the family does not appear in the Nelson Census.

George W. Bibb does not appear in census of either Amherst or Nelson Counties. July 25th, 1840 he deeded his brick house and three acres of land adjoining Henry Bibb's home. This may have been the father of this George W. Bibb.

October 29th, 1844 George W. Bibb of Peoria, Ill. sold John Q.A. Bibb and George W. Bibb all right and claim to the estate of Henry Bibb.

This sale might have been the senior George W. Bibb who sold his right to his brother, Henry's estate.

SECTION #5 OF BRANCH "C"No. 5-5 Br C Sec 5 Gen 5 MARTIN BIBB ca 1759-ca 1822

Two Martin Bibbs living in Amherst County, Va. at the same time and of about the same age, have confused not a few of this branch of the Bibb family tree. Which is which at times does not appear altogether clear.

This Martin was twice married; first to Sarah Gatewood on December 5th, 1792, and second, to Nancy Cash on September 23rd, 1795.

The first wife lived but a short time after her marriage, and it is evident that Nancy Cash Bibb was the mother of Martin's nine children.

This Nancy Cash was the grandmother of the writer of these lines and at no time did he ever hear his father intimate that there were half brothers or sisters or both in this list of children. Had it been otherwise it seems certain this information would have come to the surface at some time during the writer's sojourn in the home of his father.

Children	Dates estimated	Married
Levi	1796-1882	Lucinda Clemens-Nannie Brown
Sally W.	1797-1872	Joshua May Dec. 17, 1810
Charles	1798-1885	Elizabeth Gatewood Nov. 22, 1817
Rachel	1800	John R. Duncan Nov 5, 1821
Robert C.	1804	Frances H. Tinsley Nov. 21, 1826
Benjamin Brown	1806-ca 1875	Married three times
Nancy Cash	1808	Robert Pryor-Botetourt Co. Va.
William H.	1810-ca 1891	Married three times
Martin Thomas	1812-1889	Married three times

Martin Bibb was distinguished for at least one honor; he was the father of the six sons who in turn were the fathers of seventy-six children, an average of 12.4 children each.

This record was not surpassed by any Bibb family during the three centuries of the Bibbs in America.

Martin Bibb died in middle age, leaving a large family and very little for its support. Like many other frontier widows, Nancy Cash Bibb exhibited a genuine genius in guiding the ship amid the many reefs of poverty.

On March 15th, 1821 Charles Bibb, son of Martin Bibb, files bond with the Amherst County Court in the sum of $1,000. "The condition of the above obligation is such that of the above born Charles Bibb shall well and truly pay or cause to be paid and delivered unto Nancy Bibb, William (H) Bibb, and Martin (Thomas) Bibb, orphans of Martin Bibb, all such estate or estates as is now or shall hereafter appear to be due Nancy Bibb, William (H) Bibb, and Martin (Thomas) Bibb when they shall have attained to lawful age to demand the same." No. 5-6 Br C Sec 6 RANDOLPH BIBB ca 1756 Son of Thomas Bibb #4-1

Born in Amherst County, Virginia, which is about all the sum total of our information of him. As to his wife and family we have nothing to guide us in identifying this son of Thomas.

The Amherst County records do give us at least three items showing property transfers. In 1794, June 24th, Randolph sells and deeds one slave to John Alford, consideration 92 pounds sterling. July 20th, 1797 he transfers title to 146 acres of land to John Phillips, and August 26th, 1800 he conveys slaves and other personal property to John Alford. In this transaction Martin Bibb, his brother, was witness.

The Amherst County Census for 1820 has this item:

Randolph Bibb 1 male over 45.

Ten years later, 1830, the Nelson County Census gives this setup:

Randolph Bibb

1 Male	70-80	born about 1756
1 Female	60-70	born about 1765
1 Female	30-40
1 Female	30-40
1 Male	10-15
1 Male	5-10
1 Female	5-10
1 Female	5-10
1 Male	0-5

The most reasonable explanation for reconciling these two census reports is, Randolph Bibb had gone to Nelson County to live with this family of eight persons. He evidently was alone in the world and decided to make his home with some of the relatives.

WILL OF NANCY CASH BIBB

On the nineteenth day of August 1830, Nancy Cash Bibb makes her Will which is here given in full:

IN THE NAME OF GOD, AMEN.

I, Nancy Bibb of the county of Amherst, state of Virginia, being weak in body but sound of mind and energy, blessed be God Almighty for the same, do make and publish this my last will and testament in the name and form following: that is to say, first I give and bequeath unto my two youngest sons, William H. Bibb and Martin T. Bibb, all my property consisting of horses, cattle, sheep, hogs, and household and kitchen furniture, and all the debts owing me, to be equally divided between them after all my just debts are paid.

I give and bequeath the same to the said William H. Bibb and Martin T. Bibb, whom I have appointed sole executors of my will and testament, hereby revoking all former wills made by me.

In witness whereof I here unto set my hand and seal the nineteenth day of August in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty.

In presence of

John Rupel

William Pryor

Wiatt Gatewood

Nancy Bibb

X-her mark.

This family of seventeen children was a worthwhile contribution to noted Pike County, Missouri.

No. 6-6 Br C Sec 5 MARTIN THOMAS BIBB 1812-1889 Son of Martin Bibb #5-4

Born in Amherst County, Virginia, this son of Martin Bibb became a Baptist minister. After his ordination he moved to Fayette County, West Virginia, and pastored several churches in that state. In 1859 he migrated to Montgomery County, Missouri where he pastored numerous churches and at the same time developed a fine plantation.

After half a century one can detect the influence of this Martin T. Bibb in the locality in which he lived.

Martin Thomas Bibb was married three times; twice in Amherst County, Va. and the third wife was of Fayette County, West Virginia.

1st--Miss Duncan had two daughters

2nd--Harriet E. Mitchell had three daughters

3rd--Sarah Martha Taylor had twelve children

Five were born in Amherst County, Va., five born in West Virginia and seven were born in Missouri. Of the seventeen children, only three are living at the end of 1940.

This entry is given place here without any ancestral connection. It was taken from the Pike County, Missouri Census of 1870, which source is our authority for registering it. These census reports are so inaccurate in many instances that one hesitates accepting them in building a volume such as this.

But assuming the census to be correct does not relieve us altogether of certain perplexities. The writer of these lines grew from early childhood to manhood in a county adjoining Pike County, Mo. He knew and mingled with the two Bibb families of that county and at no time ever heard of the Jerome B. Bibb group. More than this, we have found no record whatever of this family in Pike County.

Born in Amherst County, Va. Went with his father to Fayette County, W. Va. Martin married Caroline, the daughter of Mathew Ellison, a prominent Baptist minister of his time.

Martin Bibb was not only a very prominent Baptist minister, but a more or less noted Greek scholar of his day. His literary attainments seem to have been acquired by the light of pine knots, such as produced many American celebrities in the early history of our country. Martin Bibb was chaplain in the Confederate Army.

No. 7-31 Br C Sec 5 CHARLES WILLIAM BIBB 1857 Son of Rev. Martin T. Bibb

Born July 30th, 1857 at Alderson, Virginia (Now West Virginia), Billy Bibb was the son of Rev. Martin Thomas and Sarah Martha Taylor Bibb.

At the age of two years his parents migrated to Missouri where this son grew to manhood on his father's fine plantation. At the age of twenty-two, like many another unsophisticated youth, this son fell in love with a charming lassie, Julia Tevis Sharp, daughter of Dr. Benjamin F. Sharp, of a neighboring plantation, and on the thirteenth day of August 1879 these youngsters were united in marriage.

For sixty-two years (1941) this couple have walked together, faced life's problems and shared its joys.

The compiler of this volume is the same youth referred to in the above lines.

No. 7-32 Br C Sec 5 JESSE CASH BIBB 1863-1932 Son of Rev. Martin Thos. Bibb #6-6

Born in Montgomery County, Missouri. This son migrated to Idaho and became a grain merchant. He married Eliza Tate of Missouri, who died some years prior to his demise.

Children
William
Keir
Eliza

These children are married and have families, though our records are lacking in further information.

No. 7-33 Br C Sec 5 EMMA VIRGINIA BIBB HUDSON 1861 Dau of Rev. Martin Thos Bibb #6-6

Born in Montgomery County, Missouri, this daughter married Dr. David O. Hudson the son of a prominent Virginia planter who had migrated to the "show me State".

This little mother has perhaps reared the most distinguished family among the entire present generation of the Bibb family over which she continues to direct, as good mothers do.

Children		Married
Nellie Hudson	1889	Charles Imlay
Manly O. Hudson	1891	Janice Aldrich
Virginia Hudson	1894-1941	Basil Gauntlett
Carl Hudson	1896	Laura Wheeler
David Ernest Hudson	1899	Barbara Scudder

Mr. Charles Imlay is a prominent attorney of Washington, D.C.

Dr. Manly O. Hudson has for years held the Bemis professorship at Harvard University. Two years ago he was appointed by our Government as America's Judge at the World Court at the Hague.

Basil Gauntlett is at the head of the Music Department of Stephen Junior College for Women, the largest Institution of its kind in this country.

Dr. Carl Hudson died of the "flu" on his way to Europe and the World War. At the outbreak of the War, Dr. Hudson had finished years of preparation as a surgeon and had attained an enviable place in his profession.

David Ernest Hudson is a graduate of Harvard and of Oxford, England and rapidly gaining a leading place as an attorney in New York City. He is also one of the assistant attorneys of the Attorney General.

No. 8-1 Br C Sec 5 JOHN E. BIBB 1852-1910 Son of Joshua Bibb #7-1

Willie Ann	1887 W. K. Hawkinson in 1903
Della Radford	1884 Atwell T. Dodd in 1916
Victoria Gray	1885 Thomas A. Wood in 1914

George Bibb was the administrator of the estate of Joseph Radford Bibb. (Book 26 page 213-Amherst County, Va).

Joseph Radford Bibb was of that stalwart type of citizen of which we have too few. His splendid family of children have inherited of the qualities which were found in this worthy Bibb son. Quite a group of grandchildren are taking their places in the affairs of life in a fine way.

No. 8-3 Br C Sec 5 ABNER AUGUSTUS BIBB 1847 Son of Cary Bibb #7-5

Born in Amherst County, Va. Married Hannah Cruikshank in 1869. This couple had no children.

No. 8-4 Br C Sec 5 MILTON CAREY BIBB 1848-1939 Son of Carey Bibb #7-5

Born in Fayette County, W. Va. and was four times married.

1. Minerva A. Blake in 1873
2. Melissa Wilkerson in 1887
3. Sarah Sweeney in 1891
4. Sadie Jane Kincaid in 1902.

Children	Estimated	Married
Minnie Alice	1874	William S. Lego-had 7 children
Ludwell Carey	1876	Josie Blake-2nd Mabel Smithton (They had 2 daughters, Golda and Gladys)

4th wife
Clarisa Mae	1903	Rev. James Monroe Anderson-Baptist minister of Daytona Beach, Florida
Margerie Alma	1905	Arthur Floyd Wetherell of Florida

Strange as it may seem of the nine children of this fine family, not a representative of the Bibb name is left to represent it in other generations.

Rev. James Monroe Anderson, husband of Clarisa Mae Bibb, was a very prominent pastor for years in Florida. He was the pastor of John D. Rockefeller and preached that noted man's funeral at Daytona Beach, Fla. He was a force in the spiritual and civic life of his community.

No. 8-5 Br C Sec 5 BENJAMIN FRANKLIN BIBB 1853 Son of Carey Bibb #7-5

Born in West Virginia and married May L. Wiseman of West Virginia.

Children

Married

Thelma	1908	Florenzo Janutolo-live at Fayetteville
Alfred		Untraced

A bit of romance connected with the marriage of Benjamin and Miss Wiseman is worth repeating. So the story goes-one day Benjamin, then perhaps bordering on manhood, chanced to see the infant, May Wiseman, and then remarked: "That child will be my wife." He waited till Miss Wiseman reached womanhood in 1897 and they were married.

No. 8-6 Br C Sec 5 REV. WILLIAM NEWTON BIBB June 6, 1855 Son of Cary Bibb #7-5

SOUTH CAROLINA BIBB GROUP

For a long time that certain little Bibb colony migrating to the Carolinas has furnished a real problem when the attempt was made to connect it up with its proper family line. The supposition hitherto has been that this colony settled in Chester County, North Carolina when the fact is there is no Chester County in that state.

Whatever may have been the identity of this group of Bibb, it is quite evident it settled in Chester County, South Carolina and not North Carolina.

This clearing of the decks proves an advance step in tracing out the identity of the Bibb family, and connecting it with its proper limb of the family tree.

Recently Mr. Robert F. Cole, after no inconsiderable research, offered the following setup which seems to clear up the situation.

First Generation----	Benjamin Bibb	1640-1702
Second Generation---	Thomas Bibb	1667-1701
Third Generation----	Thomas Bibb	1695-1720
Fourth Generation---	Thomas Bibb	1716-1781
Fifth Generation----	William Bibb	ca 1738-1793
Sixth Generation----	William Bibb	ca 1759-
Seventh Generation--	Thomas Bibb	1790-1844

Following the above set up Mr. Cole remarks:

"William Bibb of the sixth generation married in Amherst County, Virginia, and evidently left soon thereafter. We think he went to Chester County, North Carolina (should be South Carolina) where it is said that Henry Harper and his brother, James Monroe, were born; but more likely he went first to South Carolina where he is recorded in the Census of 1790."

Supporting the setup of Mr. Cole it may be remarked that the direct descendants of Henry Harper and James Monroe Bibb claim direct connection with the Martin Key family of Amherst County, Va., which fact ties in with what Mr. Cole says.

From this background a very probable conclusion can be reached in what follows in the setup of William Bibb of the sixth generation. This is found on the page next following.

No. 6-1 SC Br C WILLIAM BIBB 1758 Son of William Bibb #5-1

Born in Amherst County, Virginia, the grandson of Thomas Bibb the pioneer Bibb settler of Amherst County. It is supposed, erroneously to be sure, that William married in Amherst County. This is shown as not true by the 1790 Census which gives William Bibb of Oconee County as alone. We do not know whom this William married, even though we know her first name was Elizabeth.

It has long been a problem as to the identification of that group of Bibbs which we find in South Carolina. As early as the close of the Revolutionary War we find the Bibbs migrating to other states than their ancestral home state. Some of these went to Georgia, some to Kentucky and Tennessee, while two small groups located in North and South Carolina respectively. There is little doubt but these latter two groups came from Virginia.

As early as 1790 the first U.S. Census gives us the name of one William Bibb, though it mentions no family connected with him. This census record is certified to by both Miss Mary Sledge, attorney at law, Chester County, S.C., and the Hon. R.T. Jaynes, attorney at law at Walhalla, S.C., date September 1940.

William and Elizabeth Bibb likely had more children than the two sons here named, though we have no record of them.

William	1798	Married Nancy Canady-born 1805
Thomas	1800

If we go back to the eldest son of the original Bibb settler in Amherst County, Virginia, we find he had a son, William, whose eldest son William completely disappears from sight, so far as Amherst County records go. This same William Bibb, son of Thomas Bibb, had a son, Jesse, whom we find located in the state of Mississippi. In the settlement of the Harper estate in South Carolina the records show that this Jesse shared as a beneficiary.

This supports the conclusion that William's brother, Jesse, may have married a Miss Harper of South Carolina and later went to Mississippi.

From early records of Wilkes County, Georgia, page 205, we have this bit of information which supports what is here said.

"Power of attorney of Jesse Bibb of Adams County, Miss. given to Joshua Glass formerly of Oglethorpe County, Georgia, to recover from John Landrum of Wilkes County, Ga., a certain legacy left to said Jesse Bibb by the last Will of William Harper of Wilkes County, Ga. deceased.

Sworn to before John Henderson, J.P., of the city of Natchez, Miss.
Date Aug. 24th, 1807."

It may be said in passing that the original copy from which this is copied has the name Jesse Bibbs, not Jesse Bibb.

Following this document we have this information which is not supported with record references:

"Estate of William Harper. John Landrum administrator. "Returns for 1808. Receipts in full of legatees-viz-Edward-Judith-Polly and Henry Harper-Joyce Parrish-John Johnson-John Campbell Thomas Bibbs (note this is Bibbs) and John Glass' half share each for Jesse Bibb."

No. 7-1 SC Br C WILLIAM BIBB 1798 Son of William Bibb #6-1

Born perhaps in Pickens District-now Oconee County, South Carolina. William married Nancy Canady. Date 1824.

In her research among the ancient records of Chester County, S.C., Miss Mary E. Sledge, representing this writer says:

"First, no other name appears in this Census (that of 1790) in connection with the father of this William Bibb; indicating that he at that time had no family. He was listed as head of the family, and under column 'Free white males of 16 years and upwards, including heads of families' there is listed only one, and this one, of course, would be William Bibb."

Signed Mary E. Sledge

Chester Co. S.C. May 31st 1940

The above William Bibb was the son of the Bibb referred to in this 1790 Census. This much seems certain.

The Census for 1870 gives these entries:

William Bibb--farmer--born in South Carolina in 1798

Nancy Bibb----wife----born in South Carolina in 1805

Frank Bibb born in 1845

Caroline Bibb born in 1846

James Monroe 1817

Mary Post of Rome, Georgia

Thomas 1819

John 1820

Polly 1822

Nancy 1824

Two sons of the above list have not been satisfactorily identified. It is interesting to recall that the census of Sacramento, California for 1852 gives a John Bibb which may be the above named John. Then again, there was a John Bibb, a teacher, who settled about 1845 in Arkansas. We rather favor the first supposition.

As to the Thomas Bibb in the above list, it seems certain he did not remain in either Georgia or S.C., yet we have no trace of him in the state of Arkansas.
