

Bonnifield

This pamphlet contains portions of the genealogy and scraps of history of the Bonnifield family in America. Gregory Bonnifield, the earliest to settle in this country (so far as is positively known), has hundreds of descendants scattered throughout the United States, and bearing numerous names through intermarriages. An attempt is here made to connect as many as possible with the founder of the family (on this side of the sea), a Maryland tobacco planter who settled at the head of navigation on the Potomac River. This record is far from complete, though several years have been required to collect what is here given. It is printed for private circulation and only among those who may be personally interested. At some future time, should fuller information justify it, a second edition may be printed. In view of this fact, a special request is made of all persons who receive a copy to note carefully all errors, to add all information within their knowledge, and to send the facts and corrections for incorporation in a future edition, should one be justified.

The Bonnifield Family

The following pages contain as far as possible to obtain them the names of the descendants of Gregory Bonnifield. I had hoped to be able to give short biographies of the older generations, but have not been able to get enough definite information to justify the attempt. Traditional information as to the earliest generations is here presented. This information has been found in the different branches of the family and is probably reliable.

In the latter part of the sixteenth century a French Huguenot named Bonifant moved to Scotland on account of religious persecution. His Christian name is not known. He had a son, Luke, who may or may not have come to America, a point not definitely settled. Luke had a son, Gregory (born about 1726), who came to America very young and settled in Maryland near the present site of Georgetown, D. C. From this time the family movements may be traced with fair accuracy.

The name has been spelled in various ways. It is said the first spelling was Bonifant; even after 1752 it was occasionally so written. Since then it has usually been spelled Bonnifield. In the following pages so far as possible the spelling given is the one used by the one sending the information. In the court records of Randolph County, West Virginia, the name of Samuel Bonnifield (son of Gregory) is signed to many court proceedings and is always spelled "Bonnifield."

Several items of interest are found in the records of Montgomery and Prince George Counties, Md. In the abstracts below the names are spelled as the records give them. In Prince George County among other things are found: Vol. 1, pp. 356-7 administrator's bonds, has a record that Prisilah Bonifield, widow, was administrator of James Bonifield of the same county. She gave bond on May 19, 1740, for 80 pounds. In the census of Prince George County, Aug. 31, 1776, Mary Bonifant was at the home of Benjamin Duval; in the same census Samuel Bonifield was given as aged 32 and his wife Sarah aged 36. There were seven white males in the family aged 1, 3, 4, 7, 11, 13, 15; one female aged 5; six female slaves aged 1, 1, 2, 7, 25, 28; three male slaves aged 2, 6, 10. Joana Bonifant on Feb. 20, 1808, willed to her "ancient crippled aunt," Keziah Bowen, a bed and 20 pounds. It is recorded that on April 14, 1792, Alex Crawford sold to Sam Bonnafield of Montgomery County, a negro boy. In book N N, James Bonnifield "strayed" a horse, April 20, 1757.

In Frederick County are these entries: In the census of Lower Potomac Hundred taken Aug. 22, 1776, by the Committee of Safety, are given the names of the children of Gregory Bonnifield. They are the same as listed in this publication except that Samuel is omitted and Elizabeth, aged 20, is given. In folio 123, book L, Gregory Bonifield on Dec. 9, 1767, deeded land to James Ray. In Deed book J, p. 1028, John George deeded Gregory Bonnifield land on Jan. 15, 1765.

In the Maryland Hist. Mag., 1914, p. 80 is a notation that Cassandrad Stanbury married Bonifield, April, 1761. In Archives of Maryland, vol. 10, p. 407, is an entry where Mrs. Bonifield had a suit in court on Oct. 16, 1654. From the records of births of Piscataway Parish, 12 miles south of Washington, D. C.: "Grigery" Bonifield and Sarah had a daughter Martha born April 20,; Samuel Bonifield and Sarah had children: Sam, born April 1, 1772; John, born Dec. 9, 1774. James Bonifield and Joanna had a child Keziah, born July 26, 1772.

In the U. S. Census of 1780 a Samuel Bonnifield is given enrolled as living in Montgomery County, Md.; he had in his family four white males over sixteen, four white males and two females under sixteen. In the same list is a John Bonnifield with a family of two males and five females.

Some of these names it is impossible at present to connect with the others. The spellings Bonnifield, Bonafield, Bonifield and Bonifant seem to have been interchangeable at that time.

Gregory Bonnifield is designated by the Roman numeral XVI; his children by XVII; his grandchildren by XVIII; his great-grandchildren by XIX, and so on down. Each generation is thus given its proper numeral which shows at a glance how far removed it is from Gregory Bonnifield.

The children are shown in this order by figures, thus: Samuel Bonnifield (XVII 1) shows that he is one generation from Gregory Bonnifield and his order in that generation; Arnold Bonnifield (XVII 2) shows that he is the second of that generation. The same applies to the other generations.

The order of the children of Gregory Bonnifield is not definitely known. In several other cases the order could not be established and in such instances the arrangement was given as the names were furnished. A few times this order was afterwards found to be wrong, but was not changed because the numbering had already been made.

Samuel Bonnifield (XVII 1) was born April 11, 1752, near the present site of Georgetown, D. C. He married Dorcas James about 1780. Of his early life little is known. In the pension records at Washington it is shown that he lived in Culpepper County, Va.; later in Hampshire and Randolph Counties; in 1774 he with others assembled at "Little Meadows" in Greenbrier County, (West) Virginia, and marched to the mouth of the Kanawaha River, where they fought in the battle of Point Pleasant. After this battle he re-enlisted and remained as a guard at the fort at the mouth of the Kanawaha River until the next February. In 1778 he went to Gloucester County, Va., to make salt; while there he enrolled in the company of Capt. Billups and guarded the shores of the Chesapeake Bay and the York River; he was also on the Ware River opposite Old Point Comfort. At the time of the expedition against Cornwallis he was detailed to make salt for the army.

After the Revolutionary War he went to Randolph County, Va., now Tucker County, W. Va., and settled in the Horse Shoe Bottom of Cheat River, two miles east of St. George; afterwards he moved to Limestone Mountain, seven miles north, and later still to Horse Shoe Run, five miles east of St. George. He was four times sheriff of Randolph County; died in 1848 and was buried in the Bonnifield graveyard on Horse Shoe Run, Tucker County, W. Va. The old house in which he lived was standing until 1916 on the old Bonnifield homestead.

Arnold Bonnifield (XVII 2) was born in 1755; married Margaret Moss in 1796; lived in Culpepper County, Va.; died in 1849.

William Bonnifield (XVII 3) married Elizabeth Wilson; in 1804 moved from Shenandoah County, Va., to Hopewell Township, Licking County, Ohio, where he traded "scrip" for land. This farm is still in the possession of the family.

Of Henry Bonnifield (XVII 4) nothing is known. Some believe he went to the West Indies.

Martha Bonnifield (XVII 5) married a Triplett; she died several years before him.

Of Sarah Bonnifield (XVII 6) only the name is known.

Dorcas Bonnifield (XVII 7) married Edward Tracewell. Many of their descendants live in and around Parkersburg, W. Va.

Rachel Bonnifield (XVII 8) married Matthew Maddox. Their descendants live in Wood County, W. Va. Maddox was a soldier in the Revolutionary War and was granted a pension July 20, 1820.

For those interested in the Revolutionary history of the family this information is given: Samuel Bonnifield (XVII 1) served in the Revolutionary War and proof of his service has been made. Through him his descendants may join the Revolutionary patriotic societies. The descendants of Rhodham Bonnifield (XVII 4) and Nancy Minear and those of Arnold Bonnifield (XVII 7) and Elizabeth Minear may join also through the Revolutionary service of David Minear. The descendants of Rachel Bonnifield (XVII 8) may join through the services of her husband, Matthew Maddox.

Where one star (*) is found before a name it indicates information has been furnished that there are no descendants; where two stars () precede a name it indicates that nothing whatever is known about the further history.

I shall be glad to have any additional information of the early history of the Bonni-fields. Especially is this true of generations XVII and XVIII. I hope that all to whom this comes will take an active interest in making the record as complete as possible.

In preparing this list many have assisted me. My especial thanks are due to W. J. Ross, Hutchinson, Kan.; C. E. Tracewell, Parkersburg, W. Va., and Mrs. Katy Swisher, South Branch, W. Va.
