least 7 months. He was a citizen of Washington County North Carolina (now Tenn) when he entered service as a volunteer as above mentioned. He was in no regular battles, but was frequently fired on by the Indians, who always fled without giving them an opportunity to return the fire. He received a regular discharge but has lost or mislaid so that he cannot now produce it. He has a witness, Samuel Ware, Jr whose testimony is annexed below, who can testify to his services.

Affidavit of Samuel Ware made in Jefferson County, Ala. He recollects to have served a tour against the Cherokee and Creek Indians in same company with James Boyd, above named, and that their officers were Colonel John Sevier and Charles Robinson, their Major _____ Tipton, their Capt Samuel Ware, Sr. and ensign Isaac Davis. He was acquainted with Mr. Boyd from the time he entered service 1781 until the close of the Revolutionary War and knows him to have been a soldier in the tour above mentioned; during which the company to which he was attached marched through the Cherokee nation as far as Turkey Town, on the Coosa River; thence through the Old Hiwassee towns after destroying Eastanallee to CHOTA on the Tenn river where they held Council with the Indians, exchanged prisoners and returned home - they were not in any battle but had frequent skirmishes with the Indians. They were both present when a person named CLEMONS who was afterward found by papers in his possession to be in service of the King of Great Britain was killed by a person attached to their company..
