GENEALOGY
OF THE
DESCENDANTS OF JOHN AND MARY BURRILL.

Foreword.

We are unable to trace the ancestors of John Burrill farther back than his father, Thomas Burrill. The same may also be said of the ancestors of Mary Francis, the daughter of Jonathan Francis, who became the wife of John Burrill.

For a brief history of the Burrill and Francis families, see "The Family of John and Mary Burrill, 1767-1931," by Burrill and Burrill, which we recommend be used with this genealogy.

Key to Numbers.

Roman numeral—John Burrill.

Capital letters—Children of John and Mary Burrill.

Arabic numerals—Grandchildren of John and Mary Burrill.

Small letters—Greatgrandchildren of John and Mary Burrill.

Arabic numerals in parentheses—Great-great-grandchildren of John and Mary Burrill.

In the appendix may be found the name and address of each of the grandchildren of John and Mary Burrill. It will be seen that all are located west of the Mississippi River. This being true, it should not be impossible ~~to~~ at some time to have a grand reunion for the entire family.

CHARLES W. BURRILL, M. D.

Thomas Burrill married Sarah Wilson at Penrith, England, about 1798. There were five children whose names were as follows: Elizabeth, Robert, Sarah, Ann and John.

Robert and Sarah never married. Elizabeth married (first) John Hood. There were three children, two daughters and a son. Her husband died and she married (second) George W. Lindsay. There were five children, three daughters and two sons.

Ann married Jeremiah Steere. Their only child, a son, died in infancy.

By the above it will be seen that John, the fifth child of Thomas Burrill and Sarah Wilson, was the only one to perpetuate the family name, Burrill.

I. John Burrill, son of Thomas Burrill and Sarah Wilson. Born in Penrith, England, September 18, 1809. Married Mary Francis, daughter of Jonathan Francis, born at Newtown Ards, Ireland, February 6, 1807. Married at Pawtucket, Rhode Island, June 6, 1828. John Burrill died 1893. Mary Burrill died 1893.
