1....Thomas Boyd, b. in England in 1740; d. at Union Village (Shakertown), Warren County, Ohio, June 27, 1827; m. Katherine Snider, b. in Holland (perhaps Germany) in 1748, d. Union Village, Ohio, 1836.

In 1755, when fifteen years of age, he served as an ox driver in Braddock's campaign. The family emigrated from Maryland to Kentucky before 1789, thence to Butler County, Ohio, about 1800 and settled on Gregory's creek near Bethany. All of the eight children lived to be grown and married and none died under sixty nor lived to be over seventy-five. (For children see forward.)

(It is probable that the William Boyd, ancestor of the Boyds mentioned in the following statement of Mr. John L. McAfee of Caldwell, Kansas, was a brother of Thomas Boyd. (The copy of the statement which I saw was not dated.)

William Boyd, of Herring Bay, Maryland, who was born about 1730-1740, married Charity Talbot, also of Maryland, a descendant of George Talbot, a cousin of Lord Baltimore.

Their children were:

William Boyd, a lieutenant in General Arthur St. Clair's Army, and was killed in St. Clair's defeat, according to my grandfather's statement to my mother. The descendants of this William Boyd have always been at the head of the colony of Shakers near Dayton, Ohio. David Boyd is now or was recently the chief of the colony.

Benjamin Boyd, who died in childhood.

Walter Boyd, married Amanda Alverson of Chester County, Pa., and died 1832 at the age of 65 years. This was my grandfather and he was also a lieutenant in the Continental army and had command of Fort Frederick, east of Cumberland on the Potomac River.

Their children were:

Marmaduke Boyd, b. 1758 (?), d. 1871, whose descendants lived in Maryland and Kansas.

Cynthia Boyd, b. prior to 1800, d. prior to 1845.

Matilda Boyd, do. do.

Olivia Boyd, do. do.

Anna A. Boyd, b. 1800, d. 1880, married William B. McAfee, my father.)

(1) CHILDREN OF THOMAS BOYD AND KATHERINE SNIDER.

2...William Boyd, b. May 12, 1776; m. Katie Lay, who was raised with the Indians. She died at Union Village aged 80 years. (For children see forward.)

3...Daniel Boyd, b. 1783, d. at Union Village, 1845; m. Anna Clark, d. 1837 at Union Village. He was a deacon or ruler of the Shakers for years and built the Center House. (For children see forward.)

4...John Boyd, b. Sept. 8, 1789, in Kentucky, d. Jan. 16, 1864, m. Elizabeth Barbee, b. in Virginia in 1789, d. February 18, 1875. She was a daughter of Benjamin Barbee, a revolutionary soldier. (For children see forward.)

5...Thomas Boyd, m. _____. (For children see forward.)

6...Andrew Boyd, b. Sept. 16, 1796, d. August 21, 1859, m. May 4, 1820-1, Temperance Fugate Pocock, b. February 3, 1804, d. Jan. 29, 1885, daughter of James Pocock and Nancy Fugate.

He was the first Postmaster at Monroe, Butler County, Ohio, appointed by President Monroe, May 22, 1822. Later he purchased a farm adjoining Monroe on the west from _____ Patterson, where he lived until his death. He house which he built on that farm in 1837 is still standing. (For children see forward.)

("On Thursday the 18th day of August 1859 at Butler County, Ohio, Andrew Boyd in his last sickness made the following will:

1st- He directed that out of his personal estate his daughters, Sarah E. Boyd and Eugenia Boyd, should have the same outfitting which the other daughters had received.

2nd- In consequence of misfortune which had befallen his daughter Caroline M. Reed he directed that no account should be taken of what she had received - but that she should receive of his personal estate as if she had never received any thing from him.

3rd- He said his daughter Rachel Ann McCreary had in outfitting fifty-five dollars more than the other daughters - he wished the others to receive fifty-five dollars so as to make them equal with Rachel Ann McCreary before any distribution took place of his personal estate.

4th- He said he had settled with his two sons for their outfitting.

5th- When the bequests were fulfilled he requested his estate to be equally divided among his children.

6th- He requested his two sons, Thomas L. Boyd and James P. Boyd, to settle up his estate.

7th- He directed that Temperance F. Boyd, his widow, should have all the household and kitchen furniture, together with any other articles of personal property which she might select.

CHILDREN OF THOMAS BOYD AND KATHERINE SNIDER (Continued).

The above reduced to writing and subscribed by Reuben D. Davis and William M. Boyd on the 26th day of August, 1859 - we being competent disinterested witnesses - and it being written within ten days after the speaking of the testamentary words.")
