

A SKETCH OF THE DESCENDANTS
OF JARED BOURN,
WHO SETTLED IN BOSTON ABOUT THE YEAR 1630.

BRISTOL. R. I.
FOR PRIVATE FAMILY DISTRIBUTION ONLY.
1875.

The following imperfect sketch of the descendants of Jared Bourn is published for private distribution, with the expectation of having, at some future time, the materials for a fuller and more perfect list.

In the early days of this country, the town records of births, deaths, and marriages were not only very imperfectly kept, but were kept without any attempt at classification ; so that the work of examining them carefully is both very slow and difficult.

If any person will point out to me any errors in this work, or will send me any additional details, I will thankfully receive the same.

A. O. BOURN.

Bristol, R. I., January, 1875.

FIRST GENERATION.

JARED BOURN probably came to this country in the "fleet," in 1630, with Governor Winthrop. He was admitted to the church in Boston April 22, 1634, when he was in the employ of Elder William Colborne, and a freeman May 6, 1635. December 18, 1637, there was granted to him "eight acres of land bounded on the South West with Robert Houlton—on the North-West with the Cedar Swamp and on the South-east with Muddy River and on the North-east with John Briggs." He bought or had grants of other parcels of land, as is evident from his recorded deeds, though there is no record of such purchases or grants.

His name is spelled on the town records "Garret," "Jarrard," "Gerard," and "Jarrett," but in all the deeds the signature is "Jared." This discrepancy between the actual name and the name as written by other persons on the records, is noticeable even as far down as the beginning of the present century. The name "Bourn" is most always spelled "Born," or "Boorn," on all the town records. But whenever the name is written by its owner, it is always spelled "Bourn." That he resided a long time at Muddy River, now Roxbury, is evident from the following extracts from the Town Records :

26th of the 8th mo. 1640. "Our brother Thomas Grubb and our brother Garret Bourne are appointed overseers of the fence at Muddy River in the common field to see it made by the first of April. and, in default of every rod not then repaired and made, the owners of the said land are to forfeit 3s. 4d. per rod and the said overseers shall have power from the townsmen to distrain for such moneys growing due."

23d 12th mo. 1651. "Jarrett Bourne complains that Ralph Roott makes use of his marsh at Muddy River which was formerly granted to Jacob Elliott as appears by the record the first of 5th mo. 1637, for the deciding the Bounds thereof Deacon Marshall, Ensign Oliver, and Peter Oliver are chosen to view the grounds and to make return thereof forth-with."

23d 12th mo. 1651. "William Beamsly and Jarrett Bourne are chosen to see the general fence at Muddy River to be put into repair according to order."

26th of the second month 1652. "It is ordered that William Beamsley and Jarrett Bourne shall see the general fence at Muddy River. shall be put into repair according to order of Court."

12th 1st mo. 1653-4, Jarret Bourne was chosen constable for Muddy River.

From the Book of Possessions:

"Garret Bourn's possessions, within the limits of Boston, one house and garden bounded with Edward Rainsford, East. the marsh South. and the street West and North."

That about the year 1655 he removed to Rhode Island, is evident from this extract from the Massachusetts Colony Records:

23d May 1655. "In answer to the petition of Edward Kibby for relief of respect of a child. now in his custody. of Garrett Bourne. this court orders that the land and house of the said Bournes, now under seizure by the county shall be disposed of for the childs use. by the selectmen of the town of Boston. provided their power shall not extend to make sale of the same, but the propertie to remain to the child ;"

And from the fact that in his deed of October 5, 1664, he calls himself "formerly of Boston," and in his deed of October 27, 1665, he calls himself a resident of "Rhode Island." Moreover we have the following proofs from the town records of Portsmouth. R. I.:

"January the 23d (1654-5). At a toune meeting it is voted for this toune to joyne with neuport in the purchase of Connuniquit Island, and William Almy, and Thomas Lawton are chosen to goe to Nenport to treate with them aboute the joyninge with them in the purchass of the aforesayd Island.

Jerit Borne is received an inhabitant this day."

"June the 4th. (1655). Jeritt Bourn is chosen a juryman for the general court of tryals to be houlden at Pourtsmouth the last tuesday of this present month of June."

"October 18, 1667. The ear marks of Jared Borne is two croops slit in ye Right eare."

Jared Bourne¹ had a wife. Mary. There is no record of their marriage, nor her maiden name. The following is the record of her death "Mary, uxor, Garret Bourne died the 30th of the 3d month 1644." They had a child,

2. Jared, (called both Gerard and John on the records,) born June 6, 1643; died June 30, 1643. There are two records of this birth: "Gerard the son of Gerard Bourne of Boston was born the 6th of the 6th month 1643;" "John the son of Garret and Mary Bourne born 30th of the 5th mo. 1643—, died the 30th of the 6th mo. 1643." His second wife's name was Francis, as appears from his deed of October 27, 1665. They had a child,
3. Jared, baptized March 7, 1651.
