PREFACE

In printing the first volume the material was divided equally to make two volumes. But so much new material has come in that the manuscript had to be entirely revised and the result is two large volumes instead of one even with considerable compression.

The Family is fortunate in having again had the services of General Bingham to carry out this arduous labor in the painstaking manner characteristic of all his work.

These two volumes complete the publication of data on hand at the time of revision but new material is still coming in. No further volume is in contemplation but supplementary pages will be supplied to members of the Association from time to time as the record grows.

Of course, the printing of so much new material has proved quite an unexpected financial burden upon the Association but this is more than offset by the opportunity to know about so many fine cousins in whom we may have a justifiable pride.

A handwritten signature in cursive script, reading "Hiram Bingham". The signature is written in dark ink and is positioned above the printed name and title.

b. Feb. 13, 1748 or 49, at Windham, Conn.

His father (141) moved to Salisbury, Conn., soon after 1749. Jabez (1002) lived first at Salisbury, Conn. He spent much time at Lebanon, Conn., and at Hanover, N. H., in both places working for Dr. Eleazar Wheelock. One removal from Lebanon to Hanover was in Sept.-Oct., 1770. He also lived near Cannonsburg, Pa., and perhaps at Washington, Pa. In 1796 he went to Hocking River Valley near Athens, O., with his brother Silas (1006).

There is some doubt whether the following records refer to Jabez (141) or (1002)—probably however to this (1002).

From Town records, Etna, N. H.

1773-91—Jabez Bingham held various town offices.

From Vol. 12 of the above said published Town papers.

1783—Jabez Bingham signed petition to have part of Hanover, N. H., incorporated into a new town in 1783.

1784—Also signed petition for an issue of paper money in 1784. In same volume, in neighboring town of Lebanon, Thomas Bingham signed petition.

Salisbury, Conn., Nov. 5, 1765

From (141) Jabez & Mary (Wheelock) Bingham (sister to Sarah, wife of (90)

To (Rev. Dr.) Eleazar Wheelock at Lebanon, Conn.

I would inform you that after 25 days confinement Mr. Dean saw fit to grant Liberty to Bro^r Benaiah (148) & I.

We life comfortable as heretofore.

I should be exceedingly glad if the Surcomstances of your family would admit of Jabez's (1002) comeing to your School. He can be under no advantage of Learning att home.

Honored Uncle

I had a long & Fiteaging Jurney home (speaks of removal of family). Arrived home 3rd inst.

Lebanon, Sept. 6, 1770

Benzah Woodward to Eleazar Wheelock

Bingham (1002) arrived home well last week & proposes to set out with two teams about the 10 inst. We have all of us been endeavoring to expedite the removal ever since he came home, but I fear Madam (?) will not be able to set out so soon. She, with Miss Nabby (perhaps a relative living with them), propose to rid in the Post Chaise as soon as they can possibly be ready. Hutchinson is to drive for them.

The _____ will likely, the most of them, foot it when Bingham goes.

Madam is so weak that a little croud overcomes her, that she has her poor turns very often; tho' on the whole I hope she is on the mending hand. I fear the fatigue of preparing & the journey will be too much for her—to be sure she takes both very leisurely.

We have been examining the Scholars this week. I find they make a very good appearance x x x then return & accompany Madam & Family to Cohos (N. Y.).

Mary & Clo —?— I expect will ride up in the carts.

Honored Uncle

We are all in usual health _____. I have this week finished all the Doctor's haying both first crop & "rowing" (2nd crop). Have fild all three barns full of hay & grain, all in good order.

(Speaks of domestic animals, &c.)

All things go on well respecting the farming business.

I want to sea the Leace that Capt. Wright gave them (?); for they threaten to kick me out of Doors or confine into the kitchen—they say i have no rite to the house more than any body in the place—but I have not feared them nor gon out of my business for them—have Don having any conversation with them—gross ingratitude they have used against me. I want a spirit of prayer for them but cant feal a Desire to serve them therein as i ought to Dow—pray honoured ouncle, pray for me & them in all your addresses to the thron of grace.

(Rev. Dr.) Eleazar Wheelock at Hanover, N. H.

I received yours of May 20th by Major Wheelock x x x x & another one dated June the 3rd & have, by the Doctor's desire, been down here these eight days trying to dispose of the Doctor's Lands at the "Crank" but with little success.

I have been under a disadvantage about selling because there is no price fixed by the Doctor, neither sufficient authority for me to fix one & make a certain Bargain.

I propose to set out this day for Foxneck (?) to see Dr.
Mead & hope to give a good account from him. I shall be at Salisbury next week, where I hope to receive more particular orders—

(Various business matters.)

My affairs & business is such at present I don't see how to leave them.

I have two teams gone to Marblehead after Salt & must go a second time before I can leave Salisbury—I am yet a poor Cripple though I think there is hope of my being able to walk some time or other. My parents & friends are all well.

(Speaks of lending 4 or 6 oxen to the College for the winter in return for their keep.)

I should be glad to know whether this plan is agreeable or not before I come up to the College.

May 18, 1789

I, Jabez Bingham, of Hanover, in the County of Grafton & State of New Hampshire, Trader, Give the following testimony

That I was with the Rev^d Doctor Wheelock when he removed from Connecticut & Settled in this place & was then employed by him to take care of his farming business; & continued in his Service a great part of the time till his death. I was well knowing to all the labour that was done on the land with the School Money.

Three hundred acres was girdled & the small stuff out done by Mr. David Woodward; & eighty acres, also, adjoining, was girdled over—the whole lying upon & near Mink brook.

Further more I can testify that when Doc^r Wheelock first fixed on this ground (I being with him) he was under an absolute necessity of Building with all dispatch, as it was late in the month of August; & his school was to be removed before the Winter insuing.

With all the preceding facts I am well acquainted, having been employed in matters that gave me the knowledge of them from the beginning till Doc^r Wheelock's Death.

Given under my hand this eighteenth day of May one thousand seven hundred eighty nine.

Jabez Bingham

N. B. I do further Testify that about two years past the Hon^{ble} president Wheelock proposed & offered me the use & benefit of the School edifice for a number of years, If I would keep it in repair; which offer I then declined supposing it not worth the repairing in the place that it now stands.

History

Silas Bingham (1006) lived first at Tinmouth, Rutland Co., Vt.; then at Redstone, Fayette Co., Pa.; and after May 1, 1796, within two miles of Athens, O., in the Hocking River Valley, with his brother Jabez (1002) and his widowed sister Achsah Everts (1007). His was one of the first four families that settled in Athens Co., O.

He took part in the Revolution and toward the close of the war commanded a company of "Green Mountain Boys" as captain. He was in Washington's Christmas march on Trenton, N. J.

He had great energy, stern integrity, high morals and was a strict disciplinarian. Though not a member of any church, his religion consisted in carrying out the Golden Rule and inculcating sound precepts of morality and a firm adherence to principle.

He was a shrewd, active business man and, while not very fond of physical labor himself, kept all about him in active employment. He was a millwright and bridge builder by trade and contributed materially to the improvement of his section of Ohio by the erection of several mills and bridges, some of which are still extant.

He was marshal of his county for several years.

He raised a large family and accumulated an estate of some $30,000.00 which he conveyed in trust to his step-son Joseph Harrold, for the benefit of his youngest son Hiram, who was 18 years old, at his father's death.

But before Hiram came of age Harrold had covered the estate with debts to nearly its full value and Hiram derived nothing from it.

1782—In this year he graduated from Dartmouth College. Soon after he went to Boston, where, with Elisha Ticknor, he had a young ladies' school on Marlborough St.

1790—In this year, he and Mr. Carter had a school of 220 boys and 180 girls in Boston; and the City Council furnished firewood.

Later he became a bookseller and publisher at No. 9 or 44 Cornhill; and acquired some reputation as a literary man. He was author of "The Hunters—A Tale," "Columbian Orator," "The Young Ladies' Accidence," "The American Preceptor," and of several school books.

In 1798 he and Elisha Ticknor had a school in Marlborough St., Boston.

1803—In this year he gave to the public library in Salisbury, Conn., a collection of books, called the "Bingham Library for the Young." Also presented to the First Church there a handsome desk Bible.

He finally came into possession of the old farm of 100 acres, between the two lakes, in the northwest corner of the town of Salisbury, Conn. (Twin Lakes), occupied in 1909 by Hon. Frederick Miles.

Caleb was in politics a Jeffersonian, a Republican, as opposed to Federalism. He was very tall, six feet.

Mr. Ceam(?) at Hampton Falls

Je vous apprendois, que J'espere, Dieu voulant, de vous faire une visite in deux ou trois semaines. Je sortirai de cette ville le 28 Avril avec Monsieu Ripley et sa femme; et peut-etre nous y arriverons in 4 ou 5 jours apres cela et sans dout Je vous ferai beaucoup de trouble; et vous bien feriez de vous (vous?) en preparer. Je determine, s'il est possible, faire un voyage sur la mer (mer?) pour ma sante et je crois que Mr. Ripley veut faire le-meme aussi.

Je souhait que vous allex a Boston avec moi.

Boston, May 24, 1784

Caleb Bingham to

John Wheelock

Agreeably to your desire, I take this method to inform you, that I arrived safe to this place, after the usual term for performing the journey; & found matters, relative to my residence here, equal to my expectations.

The recommendation which you were generously pleased to honor me with, has procured me the friendship of a number of gentlemen of the foremost rank in this town, who are not wanting to afford me all the assistance which I need.

It is a week since I opened a School for the instruction of young ladies; the particulars concerning which, if you wish to learn them, the bearer of this can inform you.

How I shall succeed in the business is, altogether uncertain; yet I trust I shall be enabled to conduct myself in such a manner as not to wound my benefactors or bring disgrace upon myself.

As I was wanted in two different places in this town, I had an opportunity of treating with the parties, pretty much upon my own ground; which I am sensible was more agreeable to your wishes, as well as my own.

For (whether it be a crime in me or not) I constantly feel a sort of an ambitious pride, which, I think, is excited within me, rather from a sense of the reputation of the Institution, of which I have the honor to be a member, than from my own personal character.

- d. April 22, 1829 (Church record, Pittsfield).
Served as private, July 17 to Dec. 16, 1775, in Capt. John Durkee's 3rd Co., Col. Israel Putnam's 3rd regt. at Boston.
- m. 1. Perkins quotes record, which I cannot corroborate, that he m. Aug. 4, 1785, Elizabeth Fisher of Chesterfield, N. H. If so, it must have been a first wife, for the following is corroborated.
- 2. March 22, 1789, Silence Noble, of Pittsfield, Mass. She was b. Nov. 26, 1754; and church record says she "d. Nov. 15, 1838, aged 84." One writer says "Silence" was dau. of Ezra and Mary (King) Strong from Westfield, Hampden Co., Mass., and widow of Luke Noble. But Pittsfield church record says "Miss Silence Noble." It will be noted that "Silence" was 7 years older than Septimus. A certain Herman Noble was, in 1916, remembered by the family in North Carolina, where he had often visited the son Lemuel (11090), who went south and lived at Salisbury, N. C.

d. ———, 1813, at Cornwall, Vt.

Probably went to Cornwall with his father, date unknown, but probably before 1787. Settled and married there. Births of 3 of his children and a deed to land are recorded there in 1789.

He was a Major in the Revolutionary War and was at the battle of Bennington. He was called "Big Jerry" to distinguish him from his uncle (170).

The family removed from Cornwall, Vt., in 1818 with his father and after that all trace seems lost. Perhaps they went to Canada or even to Salt Lake City.

11895 James, b. April 29, 1791. W. F. B. substitutes "Laura, 2nd."

11896 Joseph, b. ———, 1793. Mr. Perry P. Young, of 461 G St., N. W., Washington, D. C., in March, 1901, says this Joseph was b. ———, 1801, at Whiting, Vt., and d. Dec. 3, 1862, and is bur. at Brush Creek, now Arlington, Fayette Co., Iowa. His widow bur. at same place. He was a blacksmith. Mr. Young adds the following:

11897 Perry, b. ———.

11898 Betsey, b. ———; m. ——— Lake.

11899 Aaron, b. ————. Lived Battle Creek, Mich.

11899a Lucius, b. ————. Became a Mormon. Went to Utah.

As to these Mormons, see also (18546) and note: Frederic A. Molitor, of N. Y., civil engineer, told me in May, 1910, that he had just been, on railroad business, out to Bingham Canyon, Utah (low-grade copper, the largest mine in the world) and learned that it was discovered in 1860 by Alexander Bingham. This was confirmed in 1916 by Willard S. Bingham, of Ogden, Utah, who says it was a Bingham pasture.

In June, 1917, the Mormon Binghams held a great reunion at Ogden, Utah—6 Binghams present were Mormon bishops.

F. B. Morse. The original is in the possession of Senator Bingham.

HISTORY

Graduated at Middlebury College, Vt., in 1816, and at Andover, Mass., Theological Seminary in 1819. Was a foreign missionary.

Sailed to the Sandwich Islands, Oct., 1819, in the brig "Thaddeus" and remained 21 years. He preached the first sermon ever delivered in Honolulu, April 25, 1820, from the text "Fear not; for behold I bring you glad tidings of great joy." He aided in reducing the language to writing, translated much of the Bible, composed books, hymns and tunes, baptized a thousand converts, planted a church, planned and laid corner stone of the great "Stone Church" in Honolulu, June 8, 1839.

The Hawaiian Bible was first published May 10, 1839.

Sailed for home Aug. 3, 1840. Arrived in N. Y. Feb. 4, 1841.

The above said "Stone Church" in Honolulu was dedicated July 12, 1842.

He was made Master of Arts by Yale College in 1819. Was a member of the American Oriental Society. Wrote a history of the Hawaiian Islands, published in 1847.

On the 100th anniversary of his birth, a large tablet was placed on the façade of the "Stone Church" in Honolulu, the inscription, containing many of the above facts, being written by his son Hiram (12455).

His tombstone in New Haven bears

Hiram Bingham

1789-1869

He & his associate

Asa Thurston

were the first preachers of the Gospel to the heathen of the Hawaiian Islands

They heard & obeyed Christ's word

"Go ye into all the world & preach the Gospel"

Whose faith follow

The above inscription was written by Rev. Dr. Leonard Bacon.

HISTORY

Oliver Sabin Bingham was born in Bozrah, Conn., and came with an older brother, Abiel, to Canajoharie, N. Y., when sixteen years of age. Here he afterward married and remained until 1820. He removed to the "Black River Country" with his wife and two sons, arriving after a three days' tedious journey on March 4, 1820. He settled in the hamlet of West Martinsburg, finding shelter in a log cabin on the farm of Mr. Gaines Alexander, located at the corner of the "West" road and the road leading to Lowville. He afterward purchased land and "cleared off" a farm on the West road about one-half mile south of West Martinsburg, bordered by the creek flowing out of Chimney Point Gulf. He lived on this farm during the rest of his life. By trade he was a carpenter and builder, and some of the dwellings erected by him were still standing in good preservation in 1915.

His son, Isaac S., records under date of January 1, 1858, "Of my father's early religious life, I know but little. He was a member of the 'Free Will Baptist' Church in Bowman's Creek (now Ames, N. Y.). He did not remove his church connection for many years, still maintaining an active religious life. About 1845, he united with the Methodist Episcopal church with which he had always been in sympathy, and of which my mother had been a member ever since the age of 13 years. He was forward in all reforms, a pioneer in the temperance and anti-slavery movements, and made his piety eminently practical. He never failed to maintain daily family prayer until his final sickness incapacitated him. His virtues were many and his faults few—by the grace of God."

Extract from a letter dated Marysville, Cal., May 19, 1916, from Atkins C. Bingham (194411), grandson of above Alexander (1999), and son of Nathan (19493), to the compiler of this book:

"I never heard that Alexander, my grandfather, was twice married. Hiram T. Hutchinson, of Bozrah or Franklin, Conn., who married my mother's sister, Margaret Woodworth, in 1859, came to Calif. in 1849 with my father, Nathan (19493); and later died in San Francisco about 1906. Some few years before his death, I asked him the direct question, 'What did my grandfather Bingham do?' With some hesitation he admitted 'he had something to do with the stage.'

"This solved an old problem of my childhood. In the garret of the house I (Atkins) was born in, at Yantic (Norwich) Conn., I found several chests filled with women's heavy brocade and silk dresses; wonderfully high-heeled shoes; army uniforms; wallets filled with continental currency; and several Italian and French books in the original. I had supposed them old family relics but I think how now they were stage costumes.

"I had a dog that lived till I was eleven years old. The puppy was born the same day I was and his name was 'Beppo.' I also had a fox who was called 'Reynard.'

"I knew French and Italian books did not belong to the relatives I had living, and I think they were accumulated by my grandfather Bingham (Alexander (1999)) who had been in a different life from that of Puritan New England. But he came to Norwich, Conn., often enough to have six children by Susanna Waterman.

"I know my father travelled in the South, as I was told of a flirtation he had with a Southern girl, while travelling on a Mississippi River steamboat, before his marriage to my mother; and I found among his papers a letter she wrote him; and in reply he sent the notice of his marriage to my mother.

"I was told my father Nathan (19493) was in Mexico before he came to California, where he arrived early in 1849. He returned to Norwich, Conn., in the latter part of 1850 to his wife and me (the writer, Atkins (194411)) with what was then considered quite a fortune, about $25,000.00.

"I do not think my grandfather Alexander (1999) ever had any permanent home in Georgia; and my uncles and aunts (his children) were own brothers and sisters. So that if he were twice married, there were no children by first wife."

There seem to have been at least two different "Ripleys" and there is considerable confusion in the records.

b. ———, about 1759-60, at Scotland, Conn. (3 miles east of Windham).

d. Jan. 4, 1818, at Deer Park, Suffolk Co., N. Y.

New Hampshire State Papers say

- 1) Ripley Bingham, of Alstead, N. H., was in 1777 in Col. Bellows' 1st N. H. regt. until Nov. 18, 1779.
- 2) Ripley Bingham, of Marlow, N. H., was in 1778 in Capt. Jason Wait's Co., of Col. Stark's regt. Mustered at Walpole, N. H., in May, 1778, 18 years old.
- 3) Ripley Bingham, in 1778, aged 21, wounded and on sick furlough from Valley Forge. (Alstead and Marlow were near towns and he may have lived in one and enlisted in the other. Also, in order to enlist he may have lied about his age and residence.)
- 4) Ripley Bingham, Jan. 1, 1780, sergeant of 3rd Co., 1st N. H. regt.

The above records seem to refer to one and the same "Ripley," though other records seem to refer to different "Ripleys."

On Feb. 25, 1780, according to probate records, "Ripley" receipted to Solomon Gee for his portion of the estate of his father, Abner (390); and so he was probably then 21 years old.

Marlow, N. H., records show that there was a Ripley Bingham who had land and paid poll tax in Marlow from 1793 to 1808, and in 1810 and 1811. (This may refer to different persons, such as father and son.)

In 1816 a Ripley Bingham was living at Bloomingburg, near Orange Co., N. Y.

Marriage

- 1) There is a Marlow, N. H., record, date unknown (perhaps 1777), of the marriage of Ripley Bingham to Elizabeth Mack, dau. of Rev. Ebenezer Mack. It seems probable this refers to Ripley (3400). She may have been a first wife. It is said that the Pension Records give her as b. about 1760 and d. Aug. 30, 1843, at Derby, Orleans Co., Vt.
- 2) Same records give a marriage Dec. 1, 1811, of a Ripley Bingham to Miss Betsey Cary or Young, of Marlow. One writer quotes the record as "Cary," another as "Young," and there is a record of a Betsey Cary as born at Lempster, N. H., March 19, 1793. This marriage must refer to a different "Ripley" from (3400), perhaps a son.
- 3) But George H. Bingham, of Dunmore, Pa., writes in 1916, that he has the very Bible which says that "Ripley" (3400) mar. Sept. 2, 1796, Polly Davis. She was b. Jan. 9, 1773, and d. March 11, 1865.

- b. One source says March 12, 1753, perhaps at Scotland, Conn., 3 miles east of Windham. But F. F. B. says as follows:

As shown under the heading of Abner (390), John Clark was "under 14 years in 1774" and so was under 21 in 1780. According to tradition communicated by his youngest child by his second wife, namely Sarah Clark Bingham (33518), he was 16 years of age when he enlisted in the Revolutionary War, which we know was in 1781. Therefore, he was born in 1765, was 9 years old in 1774 when his father died, and 11 years old when the war commenced. See also under (33518).

HISTORY (By F. F. B. (33,453,481))

- Born about 1765, probably at Scotland (Windham), Conn.
- 1766-7—Went with father and mother to Marlow, Cheshire Co., N. H.
- 1774—His father Abner (390) died. Solomon Gee, perhaps a relative, made administrator and guardian.
- 1780, Oct. 31—The mother, Sarah Clark Bingham, made administratrix and guardian.
- 1780—Enlisted in Revolutionary War at Springfield, Windsor Co., Vt., across Conn. River and 12-15 miles from Marlow, Cheshire Co., N. H., in a company raised by Ira Allen, brother of Ethan Allen. The papers were signed in an old hotel which then stood near Gould's Mills (Family Tradition and History of Springfield, Vt., p. 222). His captain was Jotham White, of Springfield, Vt., as shown by Vermont Revolutionary rolls, p. 393.
- 1781, July 1—Re-enlisted in Capt. Jotham White's Co., of Col. Samuel Fletcher's battalion, and served 148 days, his pay ending Nov. 25, 1781 (Vermont Revol. Rolls, p. 55?). Tradition says that previous to this he had been bound out to a cruel master; and that that is the reason he ran away and enlisted while only 15-16 years old.

1783, Aug. 18—Paid by the State for first enlistment.

1786 or 7—Married Caroline C. Brockway in Marlow, N. H.

1793—She joined in signing deeds of land.

1809—First wife died.

1810—Married Silence Harlow at Springfield, Vt.

1811—About this time removed to Guildhall, Essex Co., Vt., on west bank of Conn. River. Lived there only a short time and then moved to east side of Conn. River to Northumberland, Coos Co., N. H.

1811-12—About this time, his oldest son Elisha, with wife and one child and his second son William, went over into southern Canada, location not known. It is probable John Clark Bingham and his whole family went also. But owing to war troubles of 1812 this John (3401) came back and bought 27½ acres in Lot 12, 1st range, in Rockingham, Windham Co., Vt., probably on Parker Hill, where he was on Feb. 13, 1812. With a good many other families, he was on that date "warned out," but did not go.

1820—Sold the Rockingham farm and moved about 20 miles west to Londonderry, Windham Co., Vt., where he bought land.

1826, March 11—Died. Buried in the old cemetery at Londonderry.

HISTORY

He was a man of energy and an enterprising and influential business man. In his 22nd year he began for himself on a new farm in Morristown, Vt.

He left his father's farm at Cornish, N. H., about June 1, 1799, carrying his pack on his back containing clothes, an axe and 30 pounds of salt pork. He walked, of course, the entire distance of 90 miles and over. Here he began to fell timber on his land, a mile and one-half from his nearest neighbor. During the 28 days of his first stay in Morristown, rain fell on 26 days.

In 1800 he burned slash, cleared it up, sowed wheat, built a framed house and a frame for a barn.

March 1, 1801, he married, as said above, and soon after left his wife at Cornish, took a team and their goods and again went to his new farm in season for sugaring. In May, 1801, his wife, in company with her brother, started for her new home on horseback. At the end of four days ride, through mud and over pole bridges and across streams without bridges, at last, by the aid of marked trees, she found her home awaiting her.

In 1806 he built a saw-mill. Obtained a crank at Starksborough, whence he brought it home on a dray or something like a sled-tongue, a distance of 50 miles, carrying maple sugar in tubs hung across the ox-yoke (perhaps to pay for it).

In 1809 he was elected colonel and commander of militia, which office he held for several years.

In 1812 was appointed Justice of the Peace, which office he held until his death.

In 1817 or 1818 was elected representative to the State Legislature, which office he held for 11 years.

He was three times chosen as one of the Censors of the State, officers elected to consider the propriety of making amendments to the Constitution of the State.

HISTORY

Entered the army during the Revolution as fife-major at the age of 15. Was captured and confined for two years on the island of Barbadoes. During his stay there a hurricane blew down the prison house and he and the captain of his company were the only ones saved. He escaped by clinging to the roots of a tree. After his return he was a merchant in Canterbury, Conn.

Perkins says he enlisted as fifer, Aug. 2, 1778, in Capt. David Cady's Co., of Col. Samuel Chapman's regt. Served until Sept. 12, 1778. Was in Rhode Island under Maj. Gen. Sullivan. Pensioner in 1812.

Pension rolls of 1835 say "Gurdon Bingham, who was a musician in the Conn. Line, was a Revolutionary pensioner, living in Windham Co., Conn., in 1835."

The following

is from "obituaries" published in the Washington, D. C. "Sun" (Oct. or) April 4, 1859, and the Cleveland, O.(?) "Herald," April 6, 1859.

He was early placed at Exeter Academy, N. H., and later went to Dartmouth College (grad. 1800), where he was the roommate and classmate of Daniel Webster, who in one of his letters addresses him as "My dear old classmate, roommate and friend," and in another letter speaks of him as "the friend of my heart, the partner of my joys, grief and affections and the only participator of my most secret thoughts."

In 1802 James became a lawyer at Alstead, N. H., and in 1826 at Claremont, N. H. He occupied several important offices of trust in his State and was a member of both houses of the State Legislature.

Later he was an official in Washington of the General Land Office (Treasury Dept.). There he lived for about 8 years, until his death, upon which occasion his associates passed most complimentary resolutions.

He was musical and excelled on the bass-viol. His viol was donated to the N. H. Histor. Soc. at Concord by his daug., Mrs. Brewer and Mrs. Cleveland. With this viol he taught singing school in his early days and was often accompanied by Daniel Webster.

HISTORY

Went to school, teaching at times and studying for college. In 1818 left New Ipswich Academy and in Sept., 1818, entered Dartmouth College. His hearing had been impaired at an early age by scarlet fever, hence in March, 1819, he was compelled to leave college and was dismissed at his own request.

A few years after, the now well known Jonas Chickering held out inducements for him to engage in the manufacture of pianos. But the business was then nearly untried in this country and Elijah declined. They remained, however, constant friends and correspondents.

In March, 1820, Elijah entered the law office of his brother, James Henry (4540), at Alstead, N. H., as a student; and in 1825 was admitted to the bar of N. H.

In 1825 he made a trip to Cleveland, O., and was in Buffalo in Oct., 1825, when the Erie Canal was opened. While he was in Cleveland at this time, his brother Truman (4545) died and he had to return to Alstead to settle his brother's affairs at Lempster. This done, he opened a law office and was also made postmaster at Lempster in succession to his brother.

In June, 1826, he resigned this office and removed to Alstead and took over the law office of his brother, James Henry, who had removed to Claremont, N. H.

Elijah remained at Alstead for several years, finally married there and immediately after left for Cleveland, O., where he arrived July 16, 1835, on a Tuesday.

They had traveled by stage from Bellows Falls to Saratoga—train to Schenectady—canal to Buffalo—steamboat to Cleveland.

At Cleveland Elijah engaged in the flour and milling business and subsequently (having purchased real estate) in agriculture, horticulture and vineyards. During some of this time he held public offices.

Elijah was musical and played several instruments and belonged to several musical societies of Cleveland. He was nearly six feet high and of stalwart frame and could read without glasses, though he generally wore spectacles as he was near-sighted.

When a young man, he became a member of the Congreg. Church in Alstead and in 1835 joined the First Presby. Church in Cleveland. In 1844 he, with others, organized the Second Presby. Church.

He was made a Mason in St. Paul's Lodge at Alstead, N. H. Was elevated Master Mason, Nov. 13, 1823. Was Master of the same Lodge in 1824, 1825, 1828 and 1829. Was District Grand Master in 1831 and 1832.

Cyrus Bingham

Born July 13, A. D. 1789

Died April 17, 1862

Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord

He was originally buried in the cemetery next the Congre. Church down on the green, on the Hartford Road and just a step from Hop River which is east of and behind the church. Later moved by his son, J. F. B. (47093), to an extension which he bought to the Old Cemetery and on the south of it, near the Bissell Post house and under a great oak tree. All the Bingham, except Thomas (1), are buried in the older part of this cemetery, with their wives, and the said extension now includes the more modern burials, including J. F. B. (47093), his wife, and his father and mother.

m. Nov. 29, 1789, at Lyme, N. H., Lydia, dau. of Col. Thomas and Lydia (Lathrop) Gilbert. The Gilberts came from Windsor or Hebron, Conn., to Lyme, N. H., in 1773 (or 1771). She was b. Sept. 6, 1773, at Lyme, N. H., and d. Jan. 3, 1831, at Greene, N. Y.

Jeremiah's mother died when he was a few days old and he was brought up by his (mother's) Porter grandparents at Lyme, N. H., with Porter children (his uncles and aunts).

Child's History of Grafton Co., N. H., says, "Jeremiah Bingham was an early settler in Lyme, N. H. He joined the Congregational church there in 1793 or 1795. His house was on the old highway from the Lambert house to the river. Some apple trees he planted still grow near the present highway."

In 1814-15 Jeremiah, in the middle of winter, moved his entire family, consisting of wife and ten children, together with household goods, on ox-sleds to the then wilds of Chenango County, N. Y., and settled at Greene. With them was a sister of Lydia and her husband.

- m. Timothy Wilkins in 1805, and had 5 children. He abandoned her and was thought to have been drowned (Hocking River(?), Ohio). So he was given up for dead. After three or more years Candace married Timothy Goodrich in 1815. Within less than a year thereafter Wilkins was discovered. He came back and Candace returned to him, leaving Goodrich although she was pregnant by him. Wilkins ran a river boat and after the Goodrich babe was born he disappeared again and never returned. After a long time Candace found out where Wilkins was and finally went and lived with him at Galena, Ill. Goodrich married Minerva Howe, who brought up the son of Candace by Goodrich. The child was named Bingham Goodrich.

- b. Dec. 16, 1808, at Camillus, Onondaga Co., N. Y.

- m. 1. May 1, 1833, Margaret Warden, of Greenock, Scotland. She d. in 1834.
- 2. June 10, 1839, Mary Warden, sister of first wife.

Was brought up on a farm but managed to secure a good academic education and afterwards studied law with James R. Lawrence, of Syracuse, N. Y. In 1833 he moved to Green Oak, Livingston Co., Mich., where he cleared and cultivated a farm and had some local practice in law at the same time. He was postmaster of the town and justice of the peace and was the first judge of probate elected in the county.

When Michigan became a State he was elected to the legislature and was four times re-elected, being Speaker of the House for three terms.

In 1846 he was elected on the democratic ticket to Congress and was the only practical farmer in that body.

In 1848 was re-elected and in the contest on the slavery question he opposed the extension of slavery into the territories and voted and worked for the Wilmot Proviso. His record on this subject ultimately separated him from his party but materially helped his future success.

Although democracy had once committed itself in Michigan to the support of essentially the same principles that Mr. Bingham advocated, it yielded to the claims of the slave power and Mr. Bingham stood alone among the representatives from Michigan in Congress, in his vote and work on this subject.

It was this work in Congress more than anything else that gave him first the Free Democratic and afterwards the Republican nomination for Governor in 1854.

He was twice elected Governor. He was largely instrumental in securing the establishment of the Agricultural College at Lansing, Mich.

In 1859 he was elected U. S. Senator but served only two years.

In Oct., 1861, he was attacked with apoplexy and died suddenly at his home in Green Oak, sincerely mourned by the people of the whole State.

Oct. 19, 1834, and was dau. of Jonathan and Clarissa (Allen) Brewster and a lineal descendant of Elder William Brewster of the "Mayflower." For 43 years she also was a devoted missionary to the Micronesians, bravely enduring perils and hardships among savages and on long voyages. She early became fluent in the barbarous Gilbertese language and has written a primer, a reader, an arithmetic, two geographies, a volume of Old Testament Bible stories and a book of Bible readings; also a pamphlet of Notes on Job; and has translated a number of hymns. The advances of paralysis stopped her pen in 1898 and she died ———, 1904.

Left Honolulu with his parents and two sisters Aug. 3, 1840. Reached New York, via Cape Horn, Feb. 4, 1841. Fitted for college at New Haven, Conn., and Williston Seminary. Graduated at Yale, 1853. Studied theology at Andover, Mass. Ordained Nov. 9, 1856, at New Haven, Conn. Married and sailed from Boston, Mass., Dec. 2, 1856, as foreign missionary of the Amer. Board of Christian Foreign Missions for Micronesia, in the missionary schooner "Morning Star No. 1." Landed at Apaiang, Gilbert Islands, Nov. 18, 1857.

Returned to the United States in 1865, to New Haven, Conn., on account of ill health.

Sailed again from Boston, Mass., Nov. 12, 1866, in the "Morning Star No. 2," for Micronesia. Resumed work for the Gilbert Islanders in 1868, living partly there and partly in Honolulu, until 1875, when he settled in Honolulu on account of his health.

Acted as protector of Gilbert Islanders brought to Honolulu for labor. Was for 43 years apostle to these islanders and in 1900 still had care and oversight of them. He reduced the Gilbertese language to writing and wrote a grammar and dictionary. He translated the entire Bible into Gilbertese, printed 1892-3 by Amer. Bible Soc. He wrote a Gilbertese Bible dictionary, published in Honolulu, 1895. He compiled a Gilbertese hymn and tune book, published by Biglow & Main Co., N. Y., 1897. In 1899 wrote a Gilbertese commentary on the New Testament.

Received degree of M.A. from Yale in 1856; and of D.D. from Yale and Western Reserve College in 1893; and from Oahu College, Sandwich Isl., in 1897.

He was six feet and four inches tall.

His parents being early settlers in West Martinsburg, Lewis Co., N. Y. (1819-20), he spent his earliest days in a log house.

After 9 years at a country school, he went to a small "classical" school and later to a "select" school, where he studied engineering and architecture and began practice by the time he was 19 years old.

In 1838 was converted in a revival of the Methodist church at Lowville, N. Y. About 1840 studied at Cazenovia Seminary and continued, with alternate teaching, for 4 years.

In 1843 entered the Methodist "Black River" conference. Held the three most important pastorates in this conference and was three times pastor of Arsenal St. Church, Watertown, N. Y. He was presiding elder of two important districts for the full term. For 32 years was delegate to the General Conference and in 1884 was one of four who had that record.

In 1860 was elected by the General Conference editor of the "Northern Christian Advocate" and held this for 5 years.

In 1879 received degree of "D.D." from Syracuse Univ.

He was at one time at Conquest, N. Y., and finished his active ministry at Lowville, N. Y., whither he retired on account of ill health. In the later years of his life was also at Watertown, N. Y.

NOTE by F. F. Bingham (33,453,481)

As mentioned under the heading of John Clark Bingham (3401) Elisha (33510) with his wife and one child and accompanied by his brother William, went over into Southern Canada in 1811. When the war of 1812 broke out, he left his family and property and "slipped over to Vermont." His wife and another woman took their horse and "cutter" (a kind of sleigh) and with the children reached the U. S. later in safety. (Letter of G. W. Terhune, Garden City, Kans., Oct. 9, 1904.)

There seems to be at present no further record of the movements of this Elisha and his family.

The above record of children was secured by B. T. Bingham (3,345,391) from Mrs. Elisha Bingham, of Plainfield, Ill., widow of Elisha Bingham (334584), who was son of Elisha Bingham above (33510). Mrs. Elisha Bingham had previously obtained the record from Mrs. Mary Jane (Bingham) Terhune (334587).

NOTES by F. F. Bingham (33,453,481) of Pensacola, Fla.

I can give an illustration of the uncertainty of this kind of research. My father's recollection was that this William Bingham (33511) was b. April 4, 1789, at "Malone, N. H." Then Michigan relatives made it April 4, 1790, at "Marlow, N. H." This eventually proved to be correct. Shortly after getting the Michigan information, however, I learned of a Bible that a son of this William Bingham (33511) had owned, containing a family record and then in possession of a grandson of this said William, namely Benjamin Thomas Bingham (3,345,391) of Chicago, Ill. My brother, Amos Reed Bingham, Jr. (33,453,482), made a copy of this record which showed this William's (33511) birth, apparently in his own handwriting as April 4, 1780.

It took a great deal of correspondence to straighten this out, which was necessary before the Marlow investigations could be of any use.

There is a discrepancy of one year in the date of his death but this is immaterial.

This William (33511) was a millwright and so skillful that he could make treenails on a stone without dulling his axe.

In 1811 he went to Canada with his older brother Elisha (33510), who was accompanied by his wife and one child. They settled on land that, tradition says, was bought for them by their father. William married there. His wife's father, Hugh Fraser (or Frasier or Wrazer or Frazier), was a royalist and tory who had resided in Western New York during the Revolutionary War and, at its close, moved to Nova Scotia (or New Brunswick) rather than remain under the American government. According to our family traditions, he was a first cousin of General Frasier of the British army who was killed at the battle of Stillwater, under Burgoyne.

William's wife Lucretia had a brother, Simon Frasier, after whom she named her third child "William Simon Bingham."

There seems to be no settled spelling of the name Frasier.

This William (33511) was building a mill under contract when the war of 1812 broke out. He was drafted into the Canadian militia, from which he deserted at the first opportunity and returned to the U. S., leaving his wife and child, Caroline Charity (334590), named for her grandmother, in Canada. They followed about a year later, very likely coming with Mrs. Elisha Bingham (his brother) and her children. This William and his family then remained in Vermont for a year or two, very likely at Rockingham, where his father and stepmother were.

Before Aug. 26, 1816, they moved to Canton, N. Y.

Before Aug. 15, 1819, they moved to Spring Creek, Pa.

Before July 4, 1821, they moved to Bloomfield, Pa.

Before May 17, 1825, they moved to Busti, N. Y.

Here a comparatively long stop was made, say until after June 24, 1832, this being the date of birth of their youngest child.

Sometime in 1833 the family left Busti, N. Y., and settled in Woodstock, Lenawee Co., Mich., where this William entered land. This land was sold in 1852-3 and the family moved to Ovid Township, Branch Co., Mich., where William purchased 160 acres of land.

At the same time, one of his sons, William Simon Bingham (334592), purchased 80 acres nearby.

William (33511) sold 60 acres to his son-in-law, Cary Reed; 50 acres to his son, Elisha (334593); and the remaining 50 acres he turned over to his son Harvey (334591), in return for which he and his wife were taken care of for the rest of their lives.

This William (33511) was 5 feet, 10.75 inches tall—heavily built—dark eyes and dark hair. My sister and I (33,453,481) take our "auburn" (red) hair from Lucretia Frasier—all of the members of the other intervening generations taking after William (33511), with occasional blue eyes.

The regulation build of our Bingham is heavy and more or less rawboned, with no surplus flesh. The men 5 ft. 10 in. to 5 ft. 11 in., and 160 to 180 pounds; the women about 5 ft. 4 in., and 120 to 130 pounds.

F. F. B. says no special search has been made for information regarding this John. Miss Sarah Clark Bingham (33518) thinks he died young. Record was found at Marlow that on "March 3, 1806, there was intention of marriage between John Bingham, Jr., of Marlow, and Miss Juda Brockway, of Washington (Sullivan Co.), N. H.," but no record was found of the marriage itself. It would appear that the "1806" is an error, as at that time he would have been only about 15 years old.

In 1810 he had a poll tax and owned four acres of pasturage.

In 1811 he had no poll tax but was still taxed on the four acres of land.

The inference from all this is that he died a young man. But my father (3,345,400) had a faint recollection of hearing of an "Aunt Juda." There was also a second cousin of his, Mrs. Sally Weathers, that he thought was one of their children. My father thinks this John Bingham, Jr., was rather "wild." My father wanted to name me John but my grandfather objected, saying that there had been enough "Johns" in the family.

Possibly the J. H. Benton, of Washington, who was interested in the descendants of Abisha Bingham (74) might throw light on this John Bingham, Jr.

- b. Dec. 17, 1819, in a house standing exactly on the line between Springfield and Rockingham, Windham Co., Vt., so that it was a matter of conjecture in which town she was born.

Her father, John C., was said to have been born on the ocean in 1757. Her grandfather was said to have been a sea captain (but this is all doubtful—see Abner (390)).

Her father John came to Springfield (Vt.) during the Revolution and enlisted in Capt. White's company. Tradition relates that he signed the papers in a hotel standing on the east side of Black River, at the point now called "Goulds Mills." Ira Allen, founder of the University of Vermont and brother of Ethan Allen, was recruiting officer.

Miss Bingham is at this date, Oct. 10, 1904, living at the home of Levi Fairbanks in Springfield, Windsor Co., Vt., with her mind bright and active. In 1905 she was still living.

HISTORY

In July, 1822, graduated from the Military Academy, Norwich, Vt., now Norwich University. Then went to Frederick City, Md., where he had charge of a military scientific school, called "Maryland Military Institute," for several years. In 1829 became principal of a similar school at Oxford, Granville Co., N. Carolina.

He had read law in early life and was licensed but never practised. Preferred to take up civil engineering.

In 1832 built the first railroad in N. C.

In 1833 went to Alabama and became State Engineer and also engineer for several railroad companies. The panic of 1840 made him take up farming.

In 1844 went to Arkansas. In 1847 built a 750-foot bridge over the Washita River at Rockport. It was a lattice girder and 52 feet high. In 1848 was involved in the building of a bridge over the Arkansas River at Little Rock, but the scheme failed and he lost much money.

His wife now died and he fell ill and from 1851 to 1855 he travelled, seeking health.

In 1856 he purchased the Athens, Ala. "Herald," a leading paper of North Alabama. During the presidential canvass of 1856 he worked for Buchanan.

In 1858 there were signs of secession in Alabama and Mr. Bingham, through his paper, opposed this and all the other conspiracies of the Democrats.

When Lincoln was elected he gave up his paper and returned to farming in the suburbs of Athens during the first two years of the war. He contributed nothing to the support of the rebellion and never voted after Alabama seceded. He had an exciting life during the war and many dangerous experiences from his neighbors, owing to his outspoken Unionism. He was nicknamed "Old Torch and Turpentine."

In 1862 he was recommended to Mr. Lincoln for appointment as Military Governor of North Alabama. Captain Bingham, as he was then called, went to Washington and held an office in the Treasury Dept. Mr. Lincoln was assassinated before the scheme to be made Military Governor could be accomplished, although it seemed certain of success.

He began a Bingham Genealogy and compiled a great mass of notes, which were brought into shape by Walter F. Bingham (442525) and this present compilation is based on the work of both these members of the family.

Place and date of D. H. Bingham's death unknown.

His widow remained in Washington for several years and was employed in the Treasury Dept.
