LEWIS ALLEN AND HIS DESCENDANTS.

1. LEWIS¹ ALLEN of Watertown Farms (Weston), Mass., seems to have been neglected by most of the early genealogical writers, except Bond, who unfortunately confuses some of his descendants with those of Walter Allen. The two families located in the same precinct at about the same time, but do not appear to have been related. Some of the former's descendants continued to live in the southern half of the town until 1780, while the descendants of Walter lived on their ancestral farm in the northwest part of the town for more than half a century longer. The first mention of Lewis Allen is the record of birth of a child in 1665. He died in Watertown Farms, Jan. 24, 1708. There is a frail tradition that he was from Wales. Though not distinctively a Welsh name, the name of Allen is found there early (they had a Saint Alan in the sixth century), but Lewis and Miles are of pure Welsh origin.

Lewis Allen married first, Sarah Ives, born in Watertown, Oct. 11, 1639, daughter of Miles and Martha Ives. He married second, Mrs. Mary (Sherman) Freeman, widow of Henry Freeman of Watertown, who died Nov. 12, 1672. See Middlesex Deeds, where, Dec. 6, 1677, a deed of Henry Freeman in 1665, is confirmed by his widow, "Mary Freeman alias Allin, with y^e consent of Lewis Allen my husband." Mrs. Allen died in Watertown Farms, July 15, 1703. She was probably Rev. John Sherman's eldest daughter.

Children by the first marriage, all born in Watertown Farms:

- i. Child² (unnamed), b. and d. November, 1665.
- ii. LEWIS, b. and d. December, 1666.
- iii. SARAH, b. Jan. 3, 1668; mentioned in her grandfather Ives's will, December, 1683.
2. iv. ABEL, b. Sept. 15, 1669.
- v. MARY, b. April 14, 1671.

Child by second marriage:

3. i. EBENEZER,² b. about 1677.

2. ABEL² ALLEN (*Lewis*¹), was born Sept. 15, 1669, in Watertown Farms (Weston), where he died early in 1756, æ. 86. His will, made in 1750, was admitted to probate May 3, 1756. He lived on the farm his father had occupied, but never owned. By will, dated December, 1683, Miles Ives gives to his grandson, Abel Allen, the farm his (Ives's) son-in-law Lewis Allen is then living on.

Abel Allen married first, Sarah ———, who died Sept. 18, 1736. He married second, Sept. 18, 1738, Elizabeth Shepherd, who survived her husband. No children by the latter.

3. In 1732, '33, '34 and '35 he represented Weston in the Legislature. Dec. 15, 1746, he bought from his son John, who had purchased the property in February of the same year, one hundred and eighty acres in Lancaster, with buildings, mill, orchard, etc. The farm and mill on the Nashua River were in the part of the town incorporated in 1850 as the town of Clinton. Although Lancaster had been settled a century before, this part of the town was still essentially a wilderness with less than a dozen families, says the historian of Clinton. In 1756 the farm, which had grown to two hundred and twenty acres, was transferred to his son Ebenezer.

Ebenezer senior married first, April 2, 1700, Elizabeth Eddy, born Feb. 2, 1679, died March 12, 1712, daughter of Samuel Eddy of Watertown Farms. He married second, Aug. 14, 1712, Sarah Waight, born Jan. 13, 1688, died June 15, 1755, daughter of Thomas and Sarah Waight of Watertown Farms.

4. ROBERT³ ALLEN (Abel,² *Lewis*¹), farmer, was born in Watertown Farms, now Weston, Jan. 21, 1694, and died in Walpole, Mass., Oct. 13, 1778, æ. 84. Sept. 24, 1722, Robert Allen, "now or late of Weston," bought of James Fales for one hundred and ten pounds eighty-seven acres in Dedham bordering on the Neponset River.

* The children of this Ebenezer are erroneously accredited by Bond to Ebenezer son of Daniel and grandson of Walter, but the latter Ebenezer was born three years before, and moved to Stonington, Conn., where he was living when his father's estate was settled in 1705. He married there in 1704 and had a child in 1706.

The land was in the new town of Walpole, which was set off from Dedham two years later. The farm where his later years were spent came from his second wife's father, Daniel Fisher, who died in 1758, leaving to his daughter Ruth Allen, "my farm in Walpole that she now lives on, containing by estimation 120 Acres with the House and Barn thereon standing." The place, about a mile from Walpole centre on the road to East Walpole, at the corner of East and Kendall streets, as the roads are now called, is locally known as Allenville. The house that Robert built is still standing and remained in the family until 1866. A part of the farm was owned by Samuel Allen until his death Dec. 28, 1899.

Robert married first, Jan. 4, 1727, Elizabeth Fales, who died about 1737. He married second, April 20, 1738, Ruth Fisher, born in Dedham, June 10, 1706, died in Walpole, Nov. 3, 1770, daughter of Daniel and Esther Fisher.
